Whole Duty A A

LAID DOWN

In a Plan and Familiar Was for the Use of All, but especially the Meanest Reader,

Divided into XVII. Chapters

One whereof being Read every LORD's

DAT, the Whole may be Read over Three in the Year.

Decenary for all families.

With Private Devotions for Severa

LONDON.

Printed for Edw. Pawler, at the Sign of the Mills in Chancery-Lane, near Fleet-first, 1866, base 11 G 45

Thomas RKemp 20 1886 Dr. Jan Ex-Officers Nork Union

There a represent of the 1671 exists
but Dr Hammands
but Dr Hammands
letter in the tabler begins "Mr Garth wait" herins "Mr Garth wait"
Luke was the publisher
Vet. A3 f. 450

1419 f. 2056

In Harmiter 1657

alleitree Rectard divine Co Salop born 1619 die 1681 forgal for Chas I sup 352

The Whole Duty of

and for Edward Rawkitaty Signicath pancery Lanc near Fleet Sweet Lond

Whole Duty A A

LAID BOWN

In a Plain and Familiar Wa for the Use of All, but especally the Meanest Reader.

Divided into XVII, Chapters

One whereof being Read every LORD DAT, the Whole may be Read over Thri in the Year.

Decettary for all Families.

With Private Decetions for Severa

LONDON

Printed for Edw. Parolet, at the Sign of a

8 66 66

To the Bookfeller.

SIR,

TOU needed not any Intercollion to re-L commend this Task to me, which broughtits Invitations and Reward with it I very willingly Read over all the Sheets both of the Discourse, and the Devotion annext, and find great cause to biess Go for both, not discerning what is wanting any part of either, to render it with God's Bleffing, most sufficient, and proper to the Great End Defign d; the Spiritual Supplies and Advantages of all those that shall be exercised therein. The Subject matter of it is indeed, what the Title undertakes, The Whole Duty of Man, fet down in all the Branches, with those Advantages of Brevity and Partitions, to invite, and Support, and engage the Reader, That Condescension to the meanest Capacities; but withall. That weight of Spiritual Arguments, wherein the heft Proficients will be glad to be affifted, that it feems to me -

Dr. HAMMOND's Letter.

qually fitted for both forts of Readers, which (hall bring with them a fincere defire of their own, either prefent or future advantages: The Devotion-part in the Conclusion is no way inferiour, being a sea-Sonable aid to every Man's Infirmities, and bash extended it self very particularly to all our Principal Concernments; The Introduction bath supplied the place of a Preface, which you feem to defire from me, and leaves me no more to add, but my Prayers to God, "That the Author which bath taken Gare to Convey fo Liberal on Alms to the Corban fo Secrety may not miss to be rewarded Openly, in the Visible Power and Benefit of this Work on the Hearts of the Whole Marion, which was nover in more Need of fach Supplies as sare here afforded That his All-sufficient Grace will Blessth Seed Sown, and give an Abundant Increase is the Humbleft Request of

Your Affured Friend,

Merch 7th ware A

1657

1657. Hammond

PREFACE

To the Enfuing

TREATISE,

SHEWING

The Necessity of Caring for the Soul-

SECT. L

AHE mely intent of this enfaint Treatile. It, is a short and Plain Direction up the very treatile. Readers, to behave themselves for in the treat that they may be happy for over in the most because its in usin to tell. Mentheir Duny, till they have fusible of the inconfity of perfecting it. I hall, before the coast to the Particulars required of sweet Confidence and them to the Practice of one General Duny, the test tory to all the reft; and that is the Confidence and Characteristics with the same SOULS, without thirth, they will assert in themselves much sometral in the above.

2. MAN, we have a much up of two perts, a Table and a SOUL, the Body mady the took or fine for the law.

a. MAN, we have, a made up of two parts, a BCDs and a SOUL, the Bedy may the tool, we find of the Bedy may the tool, we find of the Bedy and the property of flesh, futilities around Different and the west that we have the same to be endored above grown that the result of the part of the same to be endored above grown that to same in the earth. It to this villar part of the man are at the maintain that. But the man pretions part, the Both is to maintain that. But the man to farts, but, in Markon that the maintain the constraint we is farts, but, in Markon that the pasts making concerned us, is left quite neglected, as the inficient by us.

PREFACE. Of the Necessity

3. This Careleliness of the Soul is the root of all the function commit; and therefore wholever intends to fer upon a Christian Course, must in the first place amend that: To the daing whereof, there needs no deep Learning, or extraordinary Parts; the simplest Man living (that is not a Natural Fool) both anderstanding enough for it, if he will but all in this by the Jame Rules of common Reason, whereby he proceeds in the Worldly Business. I will therefore now briefly fee down Jones of these Morives, which use to fitr up our care of any fome of these Morives, which use to fitr up our care of any interest thing, and then apply them to the Soul.

A. There is FOUR things of specially, which afe to make an care: The First is the Worth of the thing; the Second, the Usefulness of it to us, when we cannot part with it althout year damage and mischief, the Third, the great best great damage and mischief, the Third, the great ger of it; and the Fourth, the Likelihood that our care be in vain, but that it will prefere the thing cared for.

5. For the first, we know our care of any Worldly thing is answerable to the Worth of it what is of greatest Price, we are most watchfu of the Soul. to preferve, and most fearful to lofe: No Man tocks up dang in his Cheft, but his Maney, or what he counts precious, he dish. Now in this respect, the Soul deferves more care than all the things in the World besides, for "tis induced more worth; First, In that it is made after the mage of God, it was Ged that Breathed into Man this weath of Life, Gen. 2.7. Now God being of the greatest was be valued. But 'tis fure, that no Greature upon the art has all like God, but the Soul of Man, and therefore the court to have a like God, but the Soul of Man, and therefore the court to have so have so much of our care. Secondly, The soul of Man, and therefore the court of the c weekers to have so much of our care. Secondly, the wording, we use to prize things according to their maderals; what is most lasting, is most worth. Now the weakers that will last for over; when Wealth, Beauty trength, may our very Bodies themselves sade away; the Soul Secondly the grantest morth, and then subject also, the Soul of the grantest morth, and then subject springs method is for an everylast them as we do? We get stood day; and we trengt them as we do? We get should day; and we were the weater, may, our wholes them as bearing of the second of this World, which is of m. Lecance of the second of the mean time last this grant develope the soul. some, and in the mean time let this great devaller Soule, be finden from us by the Devil.

of Caring for the Soul.

thing, is the USEFULNESS of it to us, or The milety of the great mifchief we feel have by the loss losing the Soul, it. Common reason teaches us this in all of it. Common reason teaches no this in all things of this life. If our hairs fall, we do not reach regard, because we can be well enough without them; but if we are in danger to lose over eyes or limbs, we think all character we can take listle enough to prevent it, because we know it will be a great misery. But certainly there is no misery to be compared to that misery that follows the loss of the Soul. 'The true, we cannot lose our Souls in one souls of the Soul. 'The true, we cannot lose our Souls in one souls; that it, so lose them, that they shall cease to Be; but we may lose them in another, that we should migh to lose them woned in that; that is, we may lose that happy estate to which they were created; and plunge them into the extraordinisty. In a word, we may lose them in Hell, whence there is no setching them back, and so they are loss for eyer. Nay, in this consideration our very Bodies are soneper. Nay, in this confideration our very Bodies are con-cerned, those darlings of ours, for which all our care is laid out; for they must certainly after death be vaifed a-gain, and be joyned again to the Soul, and take part with it in what-ever state: If then our care for the Body take up all our time and thoughts, and leave us none to bestom open the poor Soul, it is sure the Soul will, for want of that care be made for ever miserable. But it is as sure, that that were Body must be so too. And therefore if you have any true kindness to your Body, show it by taking care for your bindress to your Body, show it by taking care for your Souls. Think with your selves, how you will be able to an dure everlasting Burnings. If a small spark of fire, lightly on the least part of the Body, he so intelerable, what will be to have the whole cast into the hottest shares? In the power of the work of the hottest shares? In the power of the hours of days, but for ever ? So that have so have spent many thousands of years in the modeless to make the secret the first day you went in. Think of this, I have think this withall, that this will certainly be the end of he letting the Soul; and therefore afford it some care, if it is the impity to the Body, that must hear a part in it; Mileries, in pity to the Body, that would bear a part in its Miseries.

sling, is its being in DANGER. Non a thing . The dang This is the Cafe of the

This is the Cafe of the

Sheen

PREFACE, Of the Necessity

Sheep, which is still in danger of being deutstrad by Wolver's home what makes the Shepberd so much the more chief over it. Thus it is with the Soul, which is in a greated of danger, in respect of its Enemies; these we know are the World, the Flesh, and the Devil; which are all such the stand enemies to it, that the very first all we do, in behalf of the souls, is to Your a continual War against them. This we souls, is to Your a continual War against them. This we all do in our Bapellin; and whoever makes any Truce with any of them, is false, not usely to his Soul, but to his vow also becomes a Forsman Creature; a Consideration well weetly our laying to least. But, the we may the better understand make danger the Soul is in, let we a little consider the quality of these Enemies.

9. In a War, you know, there are divers things that make an Enemy terrible; The First is Subtilty and Cunning, by subject the Devil is a dangerous Adversary, be long since gand specific the Devil is a dangerous Adversary, be long since gand self the Devilie a dangerous Adversary, he long fince game afficient proof of his Subtility, in beganling our first Parents, who yet are much wifer than me are; and therefore much pat are much wifer than me are; uder if he deceive and cheat us. Secondly, The Watchbe feared; and bere the Devil exceeds: it is his trade and beinging to defirey us, and he is no Leiterer at is: He goes up and down seeking whom he may devour, I Pet. 5. 8. up and down feeking whom he may devour, I Par, 5, 8, we watches all opportunities of advantage against six, with such diligence, that he will be sure never to be any sip him. Thirdly, an Eventy near us is more to be feared, than me a distance: for if he be far off, we may have time to Arm, and Propare our issues against him, but if he he mear, he may final on us anappares. And of this fort is the Fieth, is a diverse near us, to take accasion of doing us misching. Fourthly, The basic and faller an Eventy is, the more dangerous. He that hides his Malice under the shown Friends hip, will be able to do a great deal the more hure. And shi gainst the Flesh, which like Joab to Abner, 2 Sam, 3 are resulted to sure of the same of the state of the sure of the same of the sa down feeking whom he may devour, I Pet. 5. 8.

of Caring for the Soul.

fearce a Creature which doth not at firm time or where figure against the Soul: The Honours of the World feet, to make the Pride, the Wealth by Coverousiness, the Prosperity of it tempts us to forget God, the Adverticies to Murtius as him? Our very Table becomes a Snare to m, our Meat draw, as Gluttony, our Drink to Drunkenhess, our Company, any our nearest Friends often bear a part in this Wax aga If either by their example, or perswaften is, they entice is to fin.

to a real of method in the state of the stat

9. Confider all this, and then tell me, whether a Soul thus before hath leifure to fleep: Even Dalilah could rell Sampson, it was time to awake, when the Philiftines were upon him: and CHRIST tells as, If the good Man of the House had known in what hour the Thief would come, he would have watched, and not have fuffered his House to be broken up, Matth. 24. 43. But we live in the midft of Thiever, and therefore must look for them every hour; and yet w there among us, that hath that common providence for the precious part of him, his Soul, which he hath for his bruse, or indeed the meanest thing that belongs to him? I fear our Souls may say so to us, as Christ to his Disciples, Matth. v6. 40. What! could you not watch with me one hour? For I done it rould pofe many of us to tell, when we besterved one he on them, though toe know them to be continually befor we most dangerous Enemies. And then, alas! social is like to the case of these poor Souls, when their Adversaries soften much care and diligence to destroy them, and we will none to preferve them? Surely the fame as of a b Town, where no Watch or Guard is kept, which is certain to fall a prey to the Enemy: Confider this ye than forget God nay, je that forget your filver, left he pluck you away, and there be none to deliver you, Pful, 50, 22.

10: But I told you there was a Second way, whereby thing may be in danger, and that is, from time different difference within it faif. This is often the cafe of our Beatles that my took all limbs.

ey are not only limble to entroard violence, but they ithin themselves sick and discased. And then we can be a sample to the me can be assumed to the themselves sick and discased. And then we can be a sample that they are in danger, and med not to be to seek out for means to reduce them. But this is also of the Soul. We recken those parts of the Body discase do not rightly perform their Office; me account in Body that thus talls not arisely.

date that refts but aright, a fick Stomach that

PREEACE, Of the Necessity

me to And the it is with the Soul when its parts do no signally perform their Offices.

Is. The parts of the Soul are of pecially these Three: The UNDERSTANDING, the WILL, and the A. R. BECTIONS. And that these are disordered, there needs little proof; let any Manslook seriously into his atom Heart; and consider how little it is he knows of spiritual things, and then all me whether his Understanding he not dark? How much appear is he to will evil than good, and then tell me whether his Will be not crooked? And how strong Desires he has the relationship of the property of the proof both after the pleasures of sin, and what cold and faint met temards God and goodness; and then tell me whether his Affe-chione is me disordered, and rebellions even against the voice this own reason within him? Now as in builty diseases, the to the cure is, to know the canfe of the fickness; so to here it is very necessary for us to know how the Soul fall into this Discased condition, and that I shall now briefly tell you.

12. GOD Created the firft Man Adam The first Co- without Sin, and indued his Soul with the venant, full Knowledge of his Dury , and with fuch frength, that he might, if he would, perwater COVENANT, or Agreement with him to this ommitting Sin; then, First, That Strength of Soul, which is then had, should fill be continued to him; and, Secondly, That he should never die, but be taken up into Heaven, there

That he should never die, but be taken up into Heaven, there is be happy for ever. But on the other side, if he committed Six, and Dishbeyed God, then both He, and all his Children is er him, should he that Knowledge, and that Persec Strength, which mabled him to do all that God required of him; and secondly. Should be subject to Death, and not mely so, but to Bernal Dammatsin in Hell.

13. This was the Agreement made with Adam, and all Mankind in him (which we sossally call the FIRST COVENANT) upon which God gave Adam a particular Communication, which was no more but this; that he should we eat of One only Tree of that Garden whereho he had placed him. But he by the persuasion of the Devil, eats of that Trees, disheye Gud, and so brings that Curse upon himself, and all the Posteriy. And so by that One Sin of his, he loss both the full Knowledge of his Dusy, and the Power of performing it. And we being born after his Image, did so likewise, and so second both Ignorant in discerning what we argie to Di, and Weak and anable to the doing of it, having a backmardness to all good, and an aptness and readiness to all evil a like a fick Stomach, which leaths all wholsome food, and long after such trash, as may nearish the Discase.

of Caring for the Soul.

efter fuch traffic, as may nearly the Difease.

24. And now you see where we got this sickness of Saul, and likewise that in it like to prove a deadly one, and therefore presume I need Jay no more, to assure you our Sauls are in danger. It is more likely you will from this discription than them hopeless. But that you may not from that conceit as cuse your noglots of them, I shall hasten to show you the contrary, by proceeding to the Fourth Motive of Care.

15. The Fourth Motive is the likelihood, that our CARE will not be in That our Care VAIN, but that it will be a means to will not be preserve the thing cared for; where this is vain.

someting, it disheartens our Care. A Phy-fician leaves his Patient when he feet him puff Hope; as for-ing it is then in wain to give him anything t has on the an-trary, when he feet hope of vectoury, he plies him paids had-cines. Non in this very respect we have a great deal of re-fonto take care of our Souls, for they are no fe for good, had then may be recovered. they may be recovered; nay, it is certain they will, if our parts towards it.

16. For though by that fin of Adam, all Markind were and the the Sentence of Eternal Condemnation, yet is pleafed God fo far to pity our Misery, as to give us his Son, and in him to make a New Covenant with ut, after me had broken the First.

17. This SECOND COVENANT was made with Adam, and as in him, pro- The Second fently after his Fall, and is briefly command Covenant- in those words, Gen. 3. 15. Where God declares, That THE SEED OF THE WOMAN SHALL

BREAK THE SERPENTS HEAD; and this was male up, as the first was, of some Mercies to be offered by God, and some Duties to be performed by us.

18. God therein promises to send his only Son, who is God equal with himself, to earth, to become Man like unto us in all things, fin only excepted, and he to do for as these several

16 19. Firth

PREBACE, Of the Necessity

to . First, To make known to us the Whole Will of his there is the perference whereof me shall be faire to be separal and removeded by him. And this row one great or of his beginner, which he performed in these many Server and Process me find set down in the Gospel. And the he is one PROPHET, it being the work of a Propher and, not easy to Forestel, but to Teach. Our day in this add, not easy to Forestel, but to Teach. Father , in the ; on diligently to him, to be most ready and will of God which he came from Heaven tond thing He was to do for us, mas to Satisfic us, we waly that one of Adam, but all the Sine I than traly repent and amount, and by this means to obtain for as forgiveness of Sins, the Passassian, which was fo to resistence as from Hell and Eternal Danmarion, which was fo to resist for us by his said for us by Siris of all the reviews as from Hell and Exernal Dammation, subich many the Panishment due to our fin. All this he did for us by his Dank. He offered up himfelf a Sucrifice for the Sixts of all those who beartly beneal, and forfake them. And in this He was PRIEST, is being the Pricks Office to offer Sucrifice for the fine of the People. Our day in this particular, is, birth. Truly and heartly to Report as of, and forfake our fine which they will atter to forgiven as, shough Chrift and did. Secondly, Staffaffty to Believe, that if we do this, we shall become Exercise of this sail our last the many and great favor, shall be forgiven us, and we have from those Evernal Punishments which were due unto make them. Another pass of the PRIESTS Office, was Bleffing and Praying for the Papies and this also Christ perfects to the sail to the papies of the Riest of Christ perfects to the Riest was the special Commission from his Exthern to Blefs us, as St. Peter tells us, Acts 3, 26. God fent his Son jeste to Blefs you 5 and the following words from there son lettes to Bless you and the following words show wherein the Hossing county, in turning away every one of you from his Iniquity: These Means which he has used for the turning as from our Sins, are to be reckned of all other the Greanst Blessings a suc for the other part, that of Praying that he not make performed in Earth, but continues still to do it in Heaven, He firs on the right hand of God, and makes request for us. Rom 8. 34. Our dary herein is, not to resist this inspeakable Blessing of its, but to be willing to be thus bless in the being turned from our fins, and not to make void and fruities all his Prayers and Intercessions for us, which will never prevail for us, whils us continue in them.

of Caring for the Soul.

ar. The Third thing, that Christ was to do for it, we enable us, or give in Strength to do what God reporting us. This he dails, First, By taking off from the harding of the Law given to Adam, which was, never to commit the least since the law given to Adam, which was, never to commit the least since the law given pain of Damnation, and requiring of us only a honest and hearty endeavour to do what we are alie, and where we fail, accepting of Sincere Repetitance. Secondly By sending his Holy Spirit into one hearts to govern and rule us, to give us strength to overcome sentiations to Sin, and to do all that He now under the Gossel requires of us. And in this he is our KING, it being the Office of a King in Govern and Rule, and to subdue Enemies. Our Duty in this particular, is to give up our selves Obediens Subjects of us, to be governed and vided by him, to Otey all his Laws, in to take part with any Rebel, that is, not to cherish any on Sin, but diligently to Pray for his Grace to enable us to full due all, and then carefully to make use of it to that purpose.

22. Laftly, He has purchased for all that faithful Obey him, an Eternal Glorious Inheritance, the Kingdom of Heaven, whither he is gone before to take possession for more our parts in it, which we shall certainly do, if we continue impenitent in any sin. Secondly, Not to fasten our Affections on this World, but to raise them according to the Procept of the Apostle, Col. 3, 2, Set your affections on thing above, and not on things on the Earth; continually longing to the possession to the possession of that blessed Inheritance of ours, a comparison whereof all things here below should seem and and mean to us.

23. This is the Sum of that SECOND COVE NANT we are now under, mherein you fee what Chris hath done, how he executes these Three Great Offices a KING, PRIEST and PROPHET: as also what required of us, without our faithful terformance of which all that he hath done shall never stand us in any stead; the will never be a Priest to save any, who take him to well for their Prophet to Teach, as their King to Rulthem; nay, if we neglect our part of this Covenant, our condition will be yet worse, than if it had never been made for we shall then be to Answer, not for the breach of Law energy, as in the First, but for the Alufe of More.

17

PREFACE, Of the Necessity

which is of all fins the most provoking. On the other side, if we faishfully perform it, that it, for our selves howestly to the obving if every Precept of Christ, not going on willfully in any one sin, but bewaiting and sorsaking whats-over we have formerly been guilty of, it is then most contain, that all the fore-mentioned benefits of Christ belong to us.

24. And now you see how little reason you have, to cast off the CARE of your SOULS, upon a conceit they are past cure, for that it is plain they are not; nay, certainly they are in that very condition, which, of all others, makes them fittest for our care. If they had not been thus REDEEMED by CHRIST, they had been then so hopeless, that care would have been in vain ; on the other fide, if his Redemption had been fuch, that All Men should be saved by it, though they live as they lift, we should have thought it needless to take care for them, because they were safe without it. But it buth pleased God so to order it, that our care must be the Means, by which they for them.

25. And now, if offer all that God bath done to fave shefe Souls of ours, we will not testow a little Care on thems our selves, we very well deserve to perish. If a Physician should undertake a Patient that were in some desperate discase, and by his Skill bring him sofar out of it, that he were sure to recover, if he would but take care of himself, and observe these Rules the Physician set him; mould you not think that Man weary of his life, that would refuse to do that? So certainly that Man is weary of his Soul, wilfully casts it way, that will not confent to those easie conditions, by which is may save it.

26. Too fee how great Kindness God bath to these Souls of pure, the whole TRINITY, Father, Son, and HOLY Ghost have all done their parts for them. The FATHER l'endured the bitter death of the Cross, meerly to keep a Souls from perifling. The HOLY GHOST is become as it spere, our Attendant, waits upon us with continual offers of his Grace, to enable us to do that which may pre-ferve them; nay, he is so desirous we should accept those Offers of his, that he is said to be Grieved when we resuse them, Ephel. 4. 30. New what greater diffrace and affront can we put upon God, then to despife what he thus values 2

of Caring for the Soul

that thisfe Souls of ours, which Christ thought worthy every drop of his Blood, we found not think worth any part of our Care? We use in things of the World, to rate them according Care: We use in things of the World, to rate them according to the spinism of those wise are best skilled in them: now corsainly God, who made our Souls, best knows the worth of them; and since he private them so high less us (if it he but in reverance to him) be assumed to neglect them: Especially mon that they are to so happins a condition, that nothing has our soon carelesses can possibly destroy them.

27. I have now briefly gone over those Four Mouves of Care I at first proposed, which are each of them such, as more unifes to sir it up towards the things of this World; and I have also show him much more Reassnable, nay, Neossary it is, they should do the like for the Soul. And now what can I so more, but conclude in the words of Isaiah, Chap. 46.

8. Remember this, and show your selves Men; that is, deal-with your Soul as your Reason seaches you to do with all deal-wish your Soul as your Reason teaches you to do with all other things that concern you. And fure this, common Juwith that Reason, which you exercise in all your Worldly Suefs, and shall the Soul it felf receive no Benefit from that Realon, which it affords you? This is, as if a Mafter of Family, who provides Food for his Servants, (hould, by them, be keps from eating any himfelf, and fo remain the onely flarwed Creature in his House.

28. And as Justice ties you to this, fo Mercy doth like wise; you know the poor Soul will fall into endless and an-speakable Miseries, if you continue to neglest it, and then to will be too late to consider it. The last Refuge you can hop for, is God's Mercy, but that you have despited and about d with what face can you, in your greatest need, beg for His Mercy to your Souls, when you would not afford them your own? No not that common Charity of considering them. of bestowing a few of those idle Hours, you knew not (feares how to pass away, upon them.

29. Lay shis to your hearts, and as ever you hope for God's Pity, when you most want it, be fure in time to pity your selves, by taking that due care of your precious Souls schich belongs to them.

30. If what hath been faid have perswaded you to this fo Necessary a Duty, my next work will be to tell you, home this Care must be employed, and that, in a mord, is but he doing of all these things which tend to the making the Seal baggy, which is the end of our Care, and what these are I come now to show you.

18

PREFACE, Of the Necessity, &c.

For more particular Conceruments,

See

The Caules of the Decay of Christian Piety,

AND

The Tentlemans Calling, Written by the Author of this Book.

Into Significant Latine for the Use of SCHOOLS.

Sold by E. Pawlet, at the Bible in Chancery-Lane near Fleet-street.

SUNDAY L

and the little and a reserved over a

of the Duty of Man by the Light of Nature, by the Light of Scripture: The three great Branches of Man's Duty, to God, our Selves, our Neighbour: Our Duty to God; of Faith, the Promifes, of Hope, of Love, of Fear, of Trust.

are fich, as will undoubtedly make the Soul happy; for Enernal Rappinell felf is one of them: But because first benefits belong not to Us all we persorm the Condition required of us, who ever desires the Happinels of his Soul, must set himself to the Performing of that Condition. What that is, I have already mentioned in the General, Thus is it the bearty, bones endeavour of Obeying the Walls Will of God. But then that Will of God containing under it many particulars, it is necessary we should also know what those are; that is, what are the several things that God now requires of us, our performance whereof will bring us to Everlasting Happipels; and the neglect to Endless Missery:

2. Of these, there are some which God hath so stamped upon our Souls, of the Light of that we naturally know them; that is, Nature. We should have known them to be cor Duty, though we had never been tald to by the serious. That this is to, we may see by those steel their, who having never heard of either Old or New Channens, do yet acknowledge themselves bound from General Duties, as to Worship God, to be Just them their Farents, and the like yard, as St. Farents are except them; that is, tell them whether have done what they should in those particulars.

a. Now though Christ hath brought greater Light in the World, yet he never meant by it to put out say of Natural Light, which God hath fet up in our Souls is refer let me here, by the way, advise you, not to waith the same of those girs, which meet blaural Confeience will you are firs.

I you are firs.

I belt jult matter of fadness to any Christian heart, to some in these days, who profess much of Religion, and live in such first, as a meet Heathers would abhor; to that presenting to higher degrees of Light and Holisan that these these days who profess much of Religion.

Rules of Common Honefty, and make it part of their tables of Common Honefty, and make it part of their tables of their tables of their tables of their Souls to beware. And for their pole let this be laid as a foundation, That that Religion nion equant be of God, which allows Men in any wick-

But though we must not put out this Light, which you hath thus put into our Soule, yet this is not the onely whereby God hath revealed his Will; and therefore are not to reft here, but proceed to the Knowledge of

6. The way for us to come) to know them is by the Scriptures, wherein are fer down those several Commands of God, which he hash given to be the Rule of our DUTY.

7. Of those, some were given before Christ come

Since property and the Common into the World, finds are chose freezes we find seems throughout the Old Telement, but offerially count of in the Ten Commandment; and shot excell look of Datareness; others were given by Chris who added much, both to the Law, implanted in at Nature, and that of the Old Testament, and the you shall find in the New Testament, in the several strategy given by him and his Apostler, but espatial in that Divine Seeman on the Mount, see down the fifth, firsth, and seventh Chapters of St. Martine Costal the fifth, firth, and seventh Chapters of S.

Gospel.

8. All these should be severally spoken so, but because that would make the Dissource very long, and so less fit for the memor fort of Men, for whose use alone it is intended. I choose to proceed in another manner, by shaming up all these regenter, and so, a plainly as I can, to say down what is now the Duty of every Christian.

9. This I find briefly contained in the words of the Apostte. The 2.12. The Three great the words of the Apostte, Tir. 2.12. The Three great state we should live sidesly, regimently, translate of Medianal godly in this present World.: Where Duty, the word Soberly contains our duty to our Neighbours; and sidly, our duty to God. These therefore shall be the Heads of my Dissourse, our DUTY to GOD, our SELVES, and our NEIGHBOUR. I begin with that to God, that being the best ground-work whereon to build both the other.

to. There are many parts of our DUTY to GOD, the two chief are Duty to God, these; First, To acknowledge him to be God: Secondly, To have contained all those particular Under the Duty to God, which hall be d in their Orde

11. To acknowledge him is to believe him to be an i rious Spirit, that was from be to Everlasting without End. That is our Creary, Reference, Surdiffer, Fairer, Son, and oly Ghoft, one God, bleffed for even. That he is fub-et to no alteration, bur is unchangeable. That he is no dily substance, titch at our eyes may believed, bur remail and strivisible, whom in Man hath fair, not a far, as the Apothe rells, us., t Time 3. 66. The is sufficiely Great and Excellent, beyond all sur our Wit for Conceit can imagine. That he hath served his Being from none; and gives Heing to all

All this we are to Believe of him in regard of his fence and Being: Bus befides this, he is fet forch to in the Occipator by feveral Excellencies, as that he is infinite Goodness and Mercy, Truth, Juffice, Wildom, user All fufficiency, Majerty: that he disposes and overns all things by his Providence; that he knows all ings, and is present in all places. These are by Dimes called the Attributes of God, and all these we mission and these we missions all these Divine Excellencies to be in God, and that the greatest degree, and so that they can never cease to in him the pass never be other than Institute Good, Mires in him, he can never be other than Infinitely Good, Merful, True, &cc.

13. But the acknowledging him for our God fig-fies yet more than this; it means that we flould per-orn to him all those several parts of Duty which belong ton a Creature to his God: What those are, I am now to time out li wou.

14. The first is FAITH, or Belief. not onely that forementioned of his Effence and Artributes, but of his Word, the be-This necessarily arises from that Attribute, his Truth it being natural for us to believe whatsoever is faid of one of whose Truth we are confident. Now the Holy Scriptures being the Word of God, we are erefore to conclude, that all that is contained in them is aft true these Four force: First, Affirmation, such of the Africa and the Stories of the Bible, where it is firmation.

Gid, Such and such things came so and to to pass, Christ was born of a Virgin, lind in a Manger, crown of the Bible, where it is firmation.

And such also are many Points of Dockrine; as that there are Three Persons in the Godhead, that Christ is the Son of God, and the like. All things of this fort thus delivered in Scripture we are to believe most true. And not onely so, but because they are all written for our Instruction, we are to consider them for that purpose; that is, by them to lay that Foundation of Christian Knowledge; on which we may build a Christian Life.

16. The Sound sott of things contained in the Scripture, are the Commands, that is, Commands the several things enjoyated us by God to perform; these we are to believe to come from him, and no be most just and in the him to Command: But then this Belief must bring forth Obedience, that what we be lieve thus fit to be done, be indeed done by us; otherwise our Belief that they come from him, serves that to make our Belief that they come from him, ferves but to make us more inexturable.

17. Tairdly, The Scripture contains. Threatmings, many Texts there are which Threatmings.

threaten to them that go on in their fins, the Wrath of God, and under that are contained all the Punishments and Miseries of this Life, both Spiritual an Temporal, and Everlatting Defiruction in the Life to come. Now we are most steedartily to believe, that these are God's Threats, and that they will certainly be performed to every impenitent Simer. But then the use we are to make of this Belief, is, to keep from those Sins to which this destruction is threatned, otherwise our Belief adds to our Guilt, that will wilfully go on in spight of those Threatnings.

18. Fourthly, The Scripture contains Promites, and those both to our Bodies and our Souls; for our Bodies, there are many Promises, that God will provide for them what he sees necessary; I will name onely one, Matth 6. 33. Seek)

6 The Mhole Duty of Manai

first the kingdom of Goid, and his righteessines, shall be added to the state of th

19. This belief of the Promises must therefore stir us up to perform the Condition, and till it do fo, we can in no reason expect any good by them: and for us to look for the benefit of them on other terms, is the same mad presumption that would be in a Servant to challenge his Master to give him a Reward for having done nothing of his Work, to which slone the Reward was Promised, you can easily resolve what An-swer were to be given to such a Servant; And the same we are to expect from God in this case. Nay further, in is fure, God hath given these Promises to no other end. but to invice us to Holiness of Life; yea, he gave his Son, in whom all his Promifes are, as it were, fumm'd up, for this end. We usually look fo much at Christ's Coming to Satisfie for us, that we forget this other part of his E. rand. But there is nothing furer, than that the main purpose of his Coming into the World was, to Plant Good Life among Men.

26. This is so often repeated in Scripture, that no Manthat considers and believes what he Reads, can doubt of it. Christ himself tells us, Matth. 9, 13. He came to yall smore to repentance. And St. Paser, Astr 3. 26. tells us, That God sent his Son Jesus so bless us, in surping surry are of us from our iniquities, for it seems the turning us from our hisquities, was the greatest special Blessing which God intended us in Christ.

21. Nay, we are taught by St. Paul, that this was the end of his very Death also, Tit. 2.14. Who gave himfulf for our fins, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and parific to himself a Peculiar People, exalous of good works. And again, Gal. 1.4. Who gave himself for us, that he mighs deliver us from this present evil World; that is, from the Sins and ill Customs of the World. Divers other Texts there are to this purpose, but these I suppose sufficient to affure any Man of this one Great Truth, that all that Christ hath done for us, was directed to this end, the bringing us to live Christianly, or, in the words of St. Paul, to reach us, that denying ungudlines, and worldly luste, we should live soberly, righteensy, and godly in this present World.

22. Now we know Christ is the Foundation of all the Promise; in him all the Promise of God are Isa and Amen. 2 Cor. 1. 20. And therefore if God gave Christ to this end, certainly the Promises are to the same also; and then how great an abuse of them is it, to make them serve for purposes quite contrary to what they were intended? viz. to the encouraging us in sins, which they will certainly do, if we perswade our selves they belong to us, how wickedly soever we live. The Apossile teachest us another use of them, 2 Cor. 7. 1. Having therefore these Promises, let us cleans any selves from all silthiness of the sless and spirit, perfeiting boliness in the search God. When we do thus we may justly apply the Promises to our selves, and with comfort expect our parts in them: But till then, though these Promises be of certain truth, yet we can reap no benefit from them, because we are not the Persons to whom they are made; that is, we perform not the Condition required to give us right to them.

23. This is the Faith or Beller required of us to wards the things God hath revealed to us in the Scripture, to wit, fuch as may answer the end for which they were to revealed, that is, the bringing us to Good Lives, the bare believing the Truth of them, without this, is no more than the Devils do, as St. 7 mass tells us, Chap. 2. 19. onely they are not fo unreasonable as some of us are, for they will tremble, as knowing well this Baith will never do them any good. But many of us go on considerity, and doubt not the sufficiency of our Faith, thought we have not the feath fruit of Obedience to approve it by, let such the budy without the spirit us dead, so faith, if it have not two the sufficiency to be sufficient to the point, Chap. 2. 26. As the budy without the spirit us dead, so faith, if it have not the sufficient in the point, the sufficient of the sufficient to the sufficient

24- A Second Duty to God'is HOPE.

these Good things he harh Promised. But this, as I told you before of Faith, must be such as agrees to the nature of the Promises, which being such as requires a condition on our part, we can hope no further than we make that good; or if we do, we are so far from performing by it this Duty of Hope, that we commit the great Sin of PRESUMPTION, which is nothing

clie but hoping, where God hath given us no ground to hope; this every Man doth, that hopes for Pardon of Sins, and Eternal Life, without that Repentance and Obedience to which alone they are Promised: The true Hope is that which purifies us, St. John saith, 1 Ep. 3.3. Every Man that bath this Hape in him, Purifieth himself, com as he, as Pure; that is, it makes him leave his sins, and earnessly endeavour to be holy as Christis; and that which doth not so, how consident soever it be, may well be concluded to be but that hope of the Hypocrite, which Joh assures as shall perish.

Delpair. But there is another way of transgreffing this Duty, befides that of Profumption, and that is by Delpera tion, by which I mean not that which is ordinarily to called, viz. the despairing of Mercy, so long as we continue in our sine, for that is but just for us to do: but I mean such a desperation as makes us give over endeavour, that is, when a Man that sees he is not at the present such a one as the Promises belong to, concludes, he can never become such, and therefore neglects all duty, and oes on in his fins. This is indeed the finful Desparation, and that, which if be continued in, must end in Defire

26. Now the work of Hope is to prevent this, by fetting before us the generality of the Promites, that they belong to all that will but perform the condition. And therefore though a Man have not hitherto performed it, and so hath yet no right to them, yet Hope will tell him, that that right may yet be gained, if he will now fer heartly about it. It is therefore ftrange folly for any Man, be he never so finful, to give up himlelf for loft; when if he will but change hit course, he shall be at certain to never the but change his course, he shall be as certain to partake of the Promifes of Mercy; as if he had never gone on in thole former fine.

27. This Christ thews us in the Parable of the Prodigat. Lake 15. where we fee that Son, which had run away from his Pather, and had confumed the Portion given him, in riorous living, was yer (upon his return and repensance) used with as much kindness by the Father, as he that had never offended, may with higher and more passionare ex-pressions of Love. The intent of which Parable was only to hew us how graciously our Heavenly Father will receive us, how great foever our former fine have been, if we shall return to him with true forrow for what is past, and fincere obedience for the time to come; nay, so acceptable a thing is it to God, to have any finner return from the ersor of his ways, that there is a kind of Triumph in Heaven for it, There is ny in the preferet of the Angels of God, over one some that repeateth, Luke 13, 10. And now who would not rather chuse, by a timely repentance, to bring soy to Heaven, to God and his holy Angels, than by a fullen desperation to please Satan and his accurred Spirits. especially when by the former we shall gain endless hap ness to our felices, and by the latter as endless a ments? 28. A to compare and compare and the 28; A third Duty to God is LOVE , them Abrives. The one the goodness and excellency of the person, the other his perticular kindness, and love to us, and both theseare in the highest degree in God.

29. First, he is of infinite goodness and excellency in himself, this you were before God's excellency doubt it that confiders but this one thing, that there is nothing good in the World, but what hath reserved all its goodness from God; his goodness is as the Sea, or Ocean, and the goodness of all Creatures but as fome small streams flowing from the Sea. Now you would certainly think him a mad man, that should say the Sea were not greater than some little Brook, and cer-tainly it is no less folly to suppose that the goodness of God doth not as much (nay infinitely more) exceed that of all Creatures. Befides the goodness of the creature is Imperfect and mixt with much evil: but his is pure and entire without any fuch mixture. He is perfectly Holy, and cannot be rainted with the least impurity, neither car be the author of any to us; for though he be the cause of all the goodness in us, he is the cause of none of our fine. This St. James expectly tells us, Chap. 1. 13. Let no man far when he is tempted, I am tempted of God; for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man.

30. But secondly, God is not only thus good

His kind- in himself, but he is also wonderful good, that is, kind and merciful to us , we are made up mestous, of two parts, a Soul and a Body, and to each of these God hath expressed infinite mercy and tenderness. Do but confider what was before told you of the SE-COND COVENANT, and the mercies therein offered, even Christ himself and all his benefits, and also that he offers them to fincerely and heartily, that no man can miss of enjoying them but by his own default. For he doth most really and affectionately defire we should embrace them, and live, as appears by that folern Oath of his cek. 33. 11. As I live, faith the Lord, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked, but that the wicked turn from fion, Turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways, for suby will yo de? To the same purpose you may read Exel. 18. Confider, this, I say, and then surely you cannot but say, he hath great kindness to our Souls. Nay, let every Marrbus temember with himself the many calls he hath had to repentance and amendment! fometimes outward by the Word, fometimes inward by the secret whispers of God's Spirit in his heart, which were only to wooe and intreat him to avoid Eternal mifery, and to accept of Eternal happiness let him, I fay, remember thefe, together with those many other means God hath used toward him for the same end, and he will have reason to confess God's kindness, not only to Mens Souls in general but to his own in particular.

31. Neither hath he been wanting to our Bodies, all the good things they enjoy, as health, strength, food, miment, and whatever else concerns them, are meetly his gifts: fo that indeed it is impossible we should be ignorant of his mercies to them, all those outward comforts and refreshments we daily enjoy, being continual effe and witnesses of it; and though some enjoy more of these than others, yet there is no person but enjoys so much in one kind or other, as abundantly fliews God's mercy and kindness to him in respect of his Body.

12. And now furely you will think it but restonable we should love him, who is in all respects thus Lovely? Indeed this is a duty fo generally acknowledged, that if you should ask any Man the question whether he loved God or no, he would think you did him great wrong to doubt of it; yet for all this, it is too plain, that there are very few, that do indeed love him; and this will from be proved to you by examining a little, what are the common effects of love, which we bear to Men like our felves, and then trying whether we can thew any fuch fruits of our love to God.

33. Of that fore there are divers, but for florings I will name but two . The Fruit of Love. first is a defire of pleasing, the second a defire of pleasing.

defire of enjoyment. These are constant y the trutts of Love. For the first, 'tis known by all, that he that loves any person is very desirous to approve him felf to him, to do whatsever he thinks will be pleasing to him; and according to the degree of love, to is this earnest and careful to please. Now if we have indeed the ove to God we pretend to, it will bring forth this fra we shall be careful to please him in all things. Therefor as you judge of the tree by its fruits, so may you judge of your love of God by this fruit of it, may indeed this in the way of trial, which Christ himself hath given up John 14.15. If ye love me, keep my Commandments; and St. John tells us, 1 Ep. 5.3. That this is the love of God that we walk after his Commandments; and where this one proof is wanting, it will be impossible to restifue our love to God.

The Tubole Duty of Man.

34. But it must yet be farther confidered, that this love of God must not be in a low or weak degree, for besides that, the Motives to it, his Excellency and his Kindness are in the highest, the same Commandment which bids as love God, bids us love him with all our hearts, and with all our firength; that is, as much as is possible for us, and above any thing elfe. And therefore to the fulfilling this Commandment, it is necessary we love him in that degree and if we do so, then certainly we shall have not onely some slight and faint endeavours of pleasing, but such are most diligent and earnest, such as will put us upon the most painful and costly Duties, make us willing to for sake our own Ease, Goods, Friends; year, life it fets, when we cannot keep them without disobeying Gods

35. Now examine thy felf by this; Haft thou this fruit of love to thew? Dolt thou make it thy conftant and greatest care to keep God's Commandments? to obe him in all things? carneftly labouring to pleafe him the utmost of thy power, even to the forfaking of wh is dearest to thee in this World? If thou dolt, thou may then truly say, thou lovest God. But on the contrary, thou wilfully continuest in the breach of many, may, by thou wilfully continueft in the breach of many, hay, but of any one Command of his, never deceive thy felf, for the love of God shides not in thee. This will be mad plain to you, if you confider what the Scripture faith a fuch as that they are enemies to God by their wicks work, Col. t. 21. That the Carnal Mind (and fuch is ever one that continues wilfully in fin) is enmity with God, Ron S. 7. That he that fins wilfully, trampler under four the Sm of God, and dath despite unto the Spirit of grace, He too 25, and many the like. And therefore unless you on this think entity, and trampling, and despite to be fruits of love, you must not believe you love God, whilst you go as in a wilful disobedience to him.

16. A second fruit of Love, I told you, was defire of Enjoying. This is constantly to be Desire of Sen in our love to one another. If you have Enjoying, a Friend whom you entirely love, you defire his Convertation, wish to be always in his Company: And thus will it be also in our Love to God, if that be as great and hours as this.

and heavy as this.

17. There is a two-fold enjoying of God, the one imperied in this life, the other more perfect and compleat in the life to come: That in this life is that Conversation, (as I may call it) which we have with God in his Ordinances, in Praying and Meditaring, in Heaving his Word, in Receiving the Sacrament, which are all intended for this purpose, to bring us into an intimacy and familiarity with God, by speaking to him, and heaving him speak to us.

18. Now if we do indeed love God, we shall certainly impely value and defire these ways of conversing with him, it being all that we can have in this life, it will make us, with David, effects, one destrict God; course better than a with David, effects one day in God's course butter than a thoughd, effects one day in God's course butter than a thoughd. Pfal. 84. 10. we fall be glad to have these opportunities of approaching to him, as often as it is possible, and be careful to use them diligently, to that end of uniting a fill more to him; yea, we shall come to these Spiritual Exercises with the same chearfulness we would go to our learest Friend. And if indeed we do thus, it is a good approach of our large. proof of our love.

19. But I fear there are not many have this to flew for it, as appears by the common backwardness and unwillingness of Men to come to these, and their negligence and heartlesness when they are at them; And can we think that God will ever own us for Loven of him whilft we have such dissile to his Company, that we will never come into it but when we are dragged by sear, of himse of Men, or some such Worldly Mottve? It is sure you would not think that Man loved you, whom you perceive so shun your Company, and be loath to come in your sight. And therefore be not so unreasonable, as so say, You love God, when yet you defire to keep as far from him as you can. im as you cars. 40. But

74 The Whole Duty of Man

40. But befides this, there is another enjoyment of God, which is more perfect and compleat, and that is our perpetual enjoying of him in Heaven, where we shall be for ever united to him, and enjoy him not now and there only for some short spaces of time, as we do here, but continually, without interruption or breaking off. An certainly, if we have that degree of love to God we ought, this cannot but be most earnestly defired by as so much, that we shall think no labour too great to compass it. The seven years that Jacob served for Rachd, Gen. 29. 20. Seemed to him but a few days for sha love that he had to her. And surely if we have love to God, we shall not think the service of our whole lives too dear a price for this full enjoyment of him, or effect all the Enjoyments of the World worth the looking on in comparison thereof.

41. If we can truly tell our selves we do thus long for this enjoyment of God, we may believe we love him. But I sear again there are but sew that can thus approve their love. For if we look into mens lives, we shall see they are not generally so fond of this enjoyment, as to be at any pains to purchase it. And not onely so, but it is to be doubted, there are many, who if it were put to their choice, whether they would live here always, to enjoy the profit and pleasure of the World, or go to Heaven to enjoy God, would, like the Children of Gad and Raston, set up their rest on this side Jordan, Numb. 32, and never defire that Heavenly Canaan; so close do their affections cleave to things below, which shews clearly they have not made God sheir treasure; for then according to our Saviour's Rule, Matth. 6, 22, their heart would be with him. Nay, further yet, it is too plain, that many of as set so little value on this enjoying of God, that we prefer the vilest and basels sins before him, and chuse to enjoy them, though by it we utterly sole our parts in him, which is the case of every man that continues willfully in those sins.

many that profess to love God, will be found not to do to I conclude all with the words of St. John, 1 Ep. 3-18. which though spoken of the love of our Brethren, is very firly appliable to this love of God, Let me not be mod neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth-cities from the confideration both of his Ju- Fear.

Sice and his Power; his Juffice is such that he will not clear the wicked; and his Power such, that he is the to institute the forest punishments upon them; and that his is a reasonable cante of fear, Christ himself relis underth. 10. 28. Fear him which is able to destroy both Soule and Body in hell. Many other places of Scripture there are, which commend to us this duty, as Pfal. 2. 21. Sorve the Land with fear. Pfal. 34. 9. Fear the Land, ye that be his basis. Prov. 9. 10. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of writing of wrath against finners, which we meet with in the Scripture, are only to this end, to work this sear in our

As. Now this fear is nothing elfe, but such an awful regard of God, as may keep us from offending him. This he wise man relis us, Prov. 16. 17. The fear of the Lard is a depart from will: So that none can be said truly to fear God, that is not thereby with held from sin; and this is but unswerable to that common fear we have towards men; whoever we know may hurt us, we will beware of provoking: And therefore if we be not as wary of displeasing God, it is plain we fear men more than we do him.

as. How grear a madness this is, thus to fear men above God will soon appear, if The fally we compare what man can do to us with fearing Mathematical God Can. And first, it is sure, more that is not in the power of man (I might God.)

fay, Devils too) to do us any hure, unless God permit and suffer them to do it; so that if we do but keep him our friend, we may say with the Psalmist. The Lad is in my side, I fear not what man can do unto me. For let their naslice be never so great, he can restrain and keep them from hurting us; may, he can change their minds towards us, according to that of the wise man, two 14.7. When a man's ways please the Land, he maintain to want to be at peace with him. A notable example of this we have in facab, Gen. 32. who when his Broken Has was coming against him, as an Enemy, God wooder.

wonderfully surned his hears, so that he mer him will the expressions of Brotherty Kindness, as you may rein the rext Chapter.

46. But Secondly, Suppose Men were left at liberry do these what Mischief they could; alas? their power go but a little way; they may perhaps rob thee of thy Good its may be they may take away thy Liberry, or thy Carolor perchance thy Life too, but that thou knowest is the utmost they can do. But now Good can do all this what he pleases, and that which is infinitely more, his Vengens, reaches even beyond Death it felf, to the Reemal Misch both of Body and Soul in Hell; in comparison of what heart any dread. Fear not them that kill the Body, and some that seem as more than they can do, faith Christ, Ludge is 4, and then immediately adds, But I will forenous pattern to cast into Hell; yea, I say more you fear him. In which words the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the comparison is set between the greatest ill wonds the some things, and therefore God only to be feared at the third things, and therefore God only to be feared this marrer, which is this, It is possible we may transfer against Men and they not know its I may perhaps freal in Neighbourt Goods, or defile his Wife, and keep it so do have all things, even the most secret thoughts of the heart is and therefore though we commit a fin never closely, he is sure to find us, and will as furely, if we done timely repent, punish us exernally for it.

closely, he is fure to find us, and will as furely, if we do not timely repent, punish us esernally for it.

40. And now furely it cannot but be confest, that it much fafer displacing. Men than God, yet, also, our profile is said we believed the direct contrary, there been nothing more ordinary with us, than for the avoiding some present danger we fear from Men, to rush our feltures in the Indignation of God, and thus it is with us, who either to save our Estares, or Credits, or our very Lives, commit any fin, for that is plainly the chusing to provide God, rather than Man.

49. The God knows this case of fear of Men is not the our car wherein we weature to displease him; for we commission, so, to which we have more of this temperator, nor related any other; as for infrance, that of common of the semperator, nor not not in the semperator, as for infrance, that of common of the semperator, or product as which there is nothing either of pleasure, or product in invite the May, many times, we, who so that the Michiefs shat other Men may do so us, that we are ready to buy them off with the greatest sins, do our selves bring, if the very Mischiefs upon us, by fins of our own change. Thus the careless Prodigal robs himself of his Educe, the decentual and dishonest Man, or any that lives in the state of the decentual and dishonest Man, or any that lives in the some accordance in deprives himself of his credit, and the some accordance in deprives himself of his credit, and the some accordance in the fear hath so little power over us, that though it be backt with the many present Mischiess that attend upon sin, it is not able to keep us from them to sorely such Men are so far from searing God, that they make fear to desie him, resolve to provoke him, what sorely such Men are so far from searing God, that they make feem to desie him, resolve to provoke him, what sorely such Men are so far from searing God, that they make feem to desie him, resolve to provoke him, what so men so the will present to this fear: you may examine Multitudes of the most Greas Scandalous Sinners, bemine Multinudes of the most Grass Scandalous Sinners, fore you shall meet with one that will acknowledge from our God. It is frange it should be possible for heart of the control of the thus to chest themselves, but however it is certain we cannot Deceive God, he will not be Mocke, and therefore if we will not now to fear as to avoid fin, we milione day fear, when it will be too late to avoid

NG in him, that is, depending and refting on Broft.
him: and that is, depending and refting on Broft.
him: and that is, first, in all Dangers; Secondly, in all Warrs. We are to reft on him in all our Dangers, both Spiritual and Temporal. Of the first fore, are all those Temporations, by which we are in danger to be drawn to fin. And in this respect he hath Francisco. That if we refly the Devil, he had flue from us, Jam. 4. 7. Therefore out had buy is, First. To Pray earnestly for God's Grac, to enable us to overcome the Tempusion sensity. To set our selves Manfally to Combate with yielding, or giving consent to it in the least and whilft we do thus, we are confidently to reft up God, that his grace will be fufficient for us, that he we either remove the temptation, or farengthen us to win Rend &

5 t. Secondly, in all outward and Te he all Tareporal dangers we are to reft upon him, heral.

knowing that he is able to deliver us, that he will do fo if he fee it best for us, the ne will do to it the fee it best for us, and that is, such as truly fear him. To this purpose we have many promises in Scripture, Pfal. 34.7. The wagel of the Land Scarieth round about them that fear him, and different hims, and all that pas their trust in him shall not destinate; and divers the like.

Alfo we have many examples, as that of the three Children in the Furnace, Daniel 3. That of Daniel in the Lion Den, Dan. 6. and many others; all which ferve to test us this one leffon, that if we go on confcionably in pos ming our duty, we need not be diffusyed for any this his can befall us, for the God whom we serve is able to

Not feel to delifirst humbly to pray for his aid, and then to selt our selves chearfully of him, and affiring our selves that h will give such an issue as shall be med

for our good. But above all things, we must be fare to fix our dependance wholly on him, and not to rely to the creatures for help, much less must we feek to deliver our felves by any unlawful means, that is, by the comour felves by any unlawful meant, that is, by the committing of any fin; for that is like Saul, 2 Saus 18.7. Is to the Droil for help; such courfe to commonly deceive our hopes at the prefent, and inflead of delivering us out of our straits, plunge us in greater, and those much more uncomfortable ones, because then we want that which is the only support, Gods avour and aid, which we certainly forfeit; when we thus seek to rescue our selves by any furful means. But supposing we could by such a way certainly free our selves from the arreferst dangers, we also we are far from his from the present danger, yet alas, we are far from h ving goined fafety by it, we have only removed th dange singer from that which was less considerable, and brought a upon the most precious part of us, our Souls; like an unkilful Physician, that to remove a pain from the singer strikes it to the heart; we are therefore grosly mistaken, when we think we have play'd the good Husband in faving our Liberties or Estates, or Lives themselves by a sin, we have not saved them, but madly over-bought them, laid out our very Souls on them; and Christ tells us how little we shall gain by such bargains, Matth. 16. 26. Wha is a Man profited if te fall gain the whole world and lofe his son Soul? Let us therefore resolve never to value any thing we can possess in this world at so high a rate, as to keep it at the price of the leaft fin , but whenever things are driven to such an iffice that we must either part wit fome, perhaps all our worldly possessions, nay, life it felf, or elfe commit fin, let us then remember, that this is the feafon for us to perform that great and excellent duty of taking up she Crofs, which we can never fo properly do as in this case: for our bearing of that which we have no possible, way of avoiding, can at most be said to be but the carrying of the Crois; but then only can we be faid to Set it up, when having a means of escaping it by a sin, we rather chuse to endure the Cross than commit the Sin , for then it is not laid on us by any unavoidable necessity, but we willingly chuse it; and this is highly acceptable with God, yea, withal fo firitly required by him, that if we fail of performing of it when we are put to the trial, we are not to be accounted followers of Christ, for fo himself hath expressy told us, Marth. 16. 24. If any man come after me, let him deny himself, and take is Cress and fellow me; and so again, Mark 8.34. It were therefore a good point of Spiritual wisdom for us, sometimes by some lower degrees of self denial, to fit our felves for this greater, when we shall be called to it; we know he that expects to run a race will before-hand be often breathing himfelf, that he may not be foil'd when he comes to run for the prize, in like manner 'twill be fit for us, fometimes to abridge felves fornewhat of our lawful pleasure, or ease, or protection to that we may get fuch a maftery over our felves, as to be able to renounce all when our obedience to God rewires it. 53, And

53. And as we are thur to truft on (for deliverance from danger, to are we like for deliverance from danger, to are we like for man. wife for supply of our wants; and those again are either Spiritual or Temporal Our Spiritual want is that of his Grace, to enable us to serve him, without which we can do nothing, and for ferre him, without which we can do nothing; and in this we are to depend on him, provided we neglect no the Means, which are, Prayer, and a careful using of wha he high already bestood on us: for then we have his Promise for it, He will give the Hely Spirit to them that ask is. Luke 11. 15. And, Unto him that hath shall be given. Marth 25. 29. that is, To him that hath made a good us of that grace he hath already, God will give more. We annot therefore to affright our selves with the difficulty of those things God requires of us, but remember he Commende continue which he will not enoble us to me for mands nothing which he will not enable us to perform, we be not wanting to our felves. And therefore let us fi cerely do our parts, and confidently affure our felves, G will por fail of his

54. But we have likewife Temporal and sporal Bodity Wants, and for the supply of them, w are likewise to rely on him. And for this also we want no Promifes, supposing us to be of the ramber of them to whom they are made, that is, God's faithful Servants: They that fear the Lord lack nothing Plal. 14.9. and Verl. 10. They that feek the Lord, shall man Plail 14.9. and Verf. 10. They that feek the Lord, shall was manner of thing that is good. Again, Plail 33(18, 19, Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his Mercy, to deliver their Souls from death, and to feed them in time of Famine. Examples also we have of this, as we may fee in the case of Elijah, and the particles, a King. 17. and many others,

7. We are therefore to look up to him for the Provision of all things necessary for us, according so that of the Plainist. The eyes of all wait upon thes, O Lord, and the grouf them their most in due feeson. And our Seviour has aught us to Pray for our daily bread, thereby teaching us that we are to live in continual dependance upon Golfor is. Yet I mean not by this, that we should so expended. for it. Yet I mean not by this, that we should so exp it from God, as to give up our felves to idleness, and pect to be fed by Miracles. No, our honest industry a labour is the means by which God ordinarily gives us neglect that. He that will not labour, let him and east, fays the Apolite, 2 Thef. 30 to. And we may believe, God will pronounce the fame Sentence, and fuffer the flothful Perion to want even necessary Food. But when we have faithfully used our own endeavour, then we must also sook up to God for his Bleffing on it, without which, it can never proliper to us. And having done thus, we may comfortably rest our selves on his Providence, for such a measure of these outward things, as he sees must for us.

necellari

36. But if our condition the such, that we are not able to labour, and have no other means of bringing in the necessaries of life to our solvers, were even then the

to labour, and have no other means of bringing in the necessaries of life to our selves, yet even then we are chearfully to rest upon God, believing that he who seeds the Ravens, will by some means or other, shough we know not what, provide for us, so long as he pleases we shall continue in this World, and never in any case torment our selves with carking and distrustful thoughts, but, 40 the Apolite, i Pet 5. 7. Caft all our care upon him, who careth for us.

57. This is earneftly prefe'd by our Saviour, Match 6: where he abundantly hows the folly of this fin of diffrust. The place is a most excellent one; and therefore I shall fer it down at large, Vers, 25. Therefore I say unto you, Take m thought for your life, what you shall ear, or what you shall drink; neither for your body, what you shall put on a same the life more than must, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air, for they sow me, neither do they rean, nor gather into harm 1 jut your heavenly father feed the them. ath them. Are ye not much bester than they ? Which of you by taking thought, can add one cubit to his stature? And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the Lilies of the field hav they grow, they toil not, neither do they fitn; and yes arrayed like one of these. Wherefore if God so cloath the graft of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more cloath you, O ye of little faith? therefore take no thought, laying, What Shall we wat? or what shall we drink? or wheresoithall shall we be cleathed? (for after all these things do the Gentiles see) for your heavenly Eather knoweth that you have need of all the febrings. But feek ye first the hingdom of God, and his rightmas

a containing the state of the s

throughing, and stom all these things shall be udded unto a Take therefore so thought for so morrow, for the more that take thought for the sings of it fell; sufficient and a day is the will thereof. I might add many other Texts to its purpose, but this is so full and convincing, that I suplist is receiled.

58. All therefore that I shall say more than the suprementation this Days, is to put more in might.

The benefits concerning this Dury, is, to put you in mind of reading of the great benefits of it; as first, that by this stuffing upon God, you cogage and bind him to provide for you. Men, you know, think themselves highly concern'd not to fail those that depend and trust upon them; and certainly God doth so much mote. But then, secondly, there is a great deal of ease and quiet in the practice of this duty, it dealivers us from all those carkings and immoderate cares which disquiet our minds, break our sleep, and gnaw even our very heart. Leoubt not but shose that have felt them. our very heart : I doubt not but shofe that have felt them, need not be told they are uncasie. But then me-thinks that uneafines should make us forward to embrace the means for the removing of them, and fo we fee it too often doch in unlawful ones, men will cheet, and freal, and lye, and do any thing to deliver themselves from the sear of want; but alas, they commonly prove but descitful re-medies, they bring God's curse on us, and so are more likely to berray us to want, than to keep us from it. But if you defire a cermin and unfailing cure for casts, take this of relying upon God.

59: For what thould cause that man to fear want that knows he hath one that cares for him, who is All-fufficient, and will not fuffer him to want what is fit for him? If a poor man had but a faithful promise from a wealthy person, that he would never suffer him to want, it is sure he would be highly cheared with it, and would not then think fit to be as carking as he was before: And yet a man's promife may fail us, he may either grow poor and not be able, or he may prove falfe and not be willing to make good his word. But we know, God in inject neither to impoverishing nor deceit. And therefore how vile an injury do we ofter to him, if we dare not truft as much upon his promife, as we would that of a man Yea, and how great a mitchief do we doe our felve. by leading our minds with a multirude of veratious and comenting cares, when we may to terriely call one involve upon God? I conclude this in the words of the Apoltle. Phil. a. B. Be careful in nathing, but in every thing by Prayer and Supplication with thomks tiving, lat your requests to made known to God.

like of the projection of the little of the projection of SUNDAY IL

a little of the same topoly se was

Of Humility; of Submission to God's Will in refus of obedience; of Patience in all forts of Sufferings, and of Honour due to God in feveral ways, in his House, Possession, his Day, Word, Sa. 74 ments, &cc.

Sect. 1. A SIXTH Duty to God is HUMILITY, that is, fuch Humility.

a fenfe of our own meanness and his Excellency, is may work in uslowly and unfeigned distriction to him: This fubmifficen is two fold; fairly, to his Will, fecondly, to his William.

The fubmiffion to his Will is all the me to all the fo of two forts; the fubmillion either Submillion to God, of Obedience, or Patience: that of O- Works respect of bedience is our ready yielding our observes.

God hath by his command, made known to its what his pleasure is, chearfully and readily to fee about its. To enable us to this, Humility is exceeding necessary, for a proud person is of all others the unaprest to obey, and we fee, men never pay an obedience, but where they acknowledge the Perfor commanding to be force way above them; and fo it is here. If we be not throughly perfwaded that God is infinitely above us, that we are vilenels and nothing in comparison of him, we shall never you must, if ever you mean to obey intirely, (as _poffefs'd

24. The authore Duty of Man

The great difference that is between fonce terroren. God and you. Confider him as he is a God and as. God of infinite Majefty and Glory, and we poor Worms of the earth; he infinite in power, able to do all things, and we able to do nothing, not to much as to make one hair white or black, as nite in power, able to do all things, and we able to do nothing not so much as so make one hair white or black, as our Saviour speaks, Matth. 5. 16. He of infinite purity and holiness, and we polluted and defiled, wallowing in all kind of fine and uncleanness; he unchangeable and confiant, and we subject to change and alteration every minute of our lives; he eternal and immortal, and we frall mortals due when ever he taketh away our breath, we did not a to serve again to me slaft. Plai 104, as. Confider all this, I say, and you cannot but acknowledge a wide difference between God and Man, and therefore may well arry out with 76, after he had approach'd so their to God, as to discern somewhat of his Excellency, Job 42: 56. Not mine upe feeth thee, wherefore I abhor my self, and report in dass and asher.

And even when this Humility hath brought us to obedience, it is not then to sail of our be call off, as if we had no farther me fell Wirls. of it, for there is fall great tole, may, necessity of it, to keep us from any high conceins of our performances, which if we once entertain, it will blad the best of them, and make them unterly uncentry of it, to keep is from any high conceins of our performances, which if we once entertain, is will blaft the best of them, and make them unterly inacceptable at God; like the strictness of the Pharise, which, while once he came to boast of the Pharise, which, while once he came to boast of the Pharise, was preferred before him, Lake 18. The best of our works are so full of infimity and pollution, that if we compare them with that perfection and purity which is in God, we may truly say with the Prophes, All our righterinsselfer are as sittly regs, If a 64, 6, and therefore to pride our selves in them, is the same madness, that it would be in a beggar to brag of his apparel, when it is nothing but vile rags and tatters. Our Saviour's precept in this matter must always be remembred. Luke 17, 10. When you have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are improstable sevants; if when we have done all, we must give our selves no better a title; what are we then so esteem our selves, that are so far from doing any confidences.

directle pair of where we are commended? Surely, that were more of forbital and wicked Soroms, Matth. 25, 26, we have no reason to think too bad for us.

J. A second fort of flubmission to his a selection of flubmission to his a selection in Solomission in Solo chem of God, it will be impossible for us to grudge or h old Eli, I Sam a who, after he had heard the Gal his Family, the loss of the Priesthood, the cut-ing off both his Sons in one day, which were all f them afflictions of the heaviest kind, yet this one con-ideration, that it was the Lord, enabled him calmly and quiety to yield to them, faying, Let him do what figured him good, Verf. 18. The fame effect it had on David, in his fuffering, Pfal. 29. 9. I was domb, I opened not so much, because those didli it. God's doing it filenced at manuatings and grumblings in him: And so much it do in us, in all our afflictions, if we will indeed approve our bumility to God. 6. For firely you will not think that Child hath du humility to his Parent, or that Servant to his Mafter, tha when they are corrected, shall flie in the Father's or Managers face: But this do we, when ever we grudge and repine at that which God lays upon us. But befides the want of Humility in our so doing, there is also a great want of furnities in it; for God harb, as we are his Creatures, a Right to do with us what he will, and therefore for as to refift that Right of his, is the highest injustice that can be. Nay farther, it is also the greatest folly in the World; for it is onely our good that God aims at in afficieng us, that Heavenly Father is not like our Earthly ones, who sometime correct their Children onely to fatisfic their own angry humour, not to do them good. But this their own angry humour, not to do them good. But his is subject to no such smallers, He has not tilled will-ref; my grieve the shildren of Men, Lam. 2.33. They are out first which do not onely give him just caule, even force and necessitate him to punish us. He carrie us the bowels and affections of the tenderest Fath new when a Father sees his Child Rubbern and rebellis and running on in a course that will certainly undo him, what greater act of Eatherly kindness can be do that chaften and correct himself use if by that means he may amend him; may indeed chast ould not be faid so have true kindness to himsis he would not. And thus it is with God, when he fees us ran on in fin, either he must leave off to love us, and to leave us to our felves to take our ow courfe, and that is the heaviest outle that can be fall an man; or elfe if he continue to love us, he must corn and punish us to bring us to amendment. Therefore wh ever he firikes, we are in all reason, not onely patiently lie under his rod, but (as I may is Thank fulness for kiss it also; that is, be very than God's corrections, ful to him, that he is pleased not interior a give so over to our own hearts to Pfal. 18. 12. but fill continues his care of us fends Chons, as fo many meffengers to call us home to hi felf. You fee then how gross a folly it is to murmur, those stripes which are meant so graciously, it is lib that of a froward Patient, which reproaches and revile she Physician that comes to cure him, and if such a on be left to die of his difeafe, every one knows whom h is to shank for it.

The fall meaning the streng

sand water 7. But it is not onely quiernels, no to Fruitfuliefs thankfulness neither under afflictions, the will fland us in no flead. By fruitfulness I mean the bringing forth that, which the affilctions were for the work in us, viz. the amendment of our lives. To whi urpole, in time of affliction, it is very necessary for us call cur selves to an account, to examine our hearts lives, and fearch diligently what fine he upon us, which provoked God thus to finite is, and whatforwer we four felves guilty of, humbly to confest to God, and immediately to forfake for the rest of our time.

6. All I shall add concerning this dary of Patience, That we are as much bound to it in one fart of face.

feria

frings, at another, whether our fuffer-ing be to immediately from God's hand, In all force of the no creature teath any thing to do in it, fuffering a so fickness, or the like a pre-whether it be fickness, or the like; or whener it be such as the instruments of afflicking us. For it is most sure, when any man doth us hare, he could not do it without God's permission and sufferance, and Got may as well make them the instruments of punishing us, as do it more directly by himself; and it is but a scionterfeit Parience, that pretends to submit to God, and yet can bear nothing from men: We see holy 7th, who fer forth to us as a pattern of true Patience, made no fuch difference in his afflictions; he took the loss of is Carrel; which the Chaldeans and Sabeans robb'd him of with the very fame meekness with which he did that which was confumed by fire from Heaven. When therefore we fuffer any thing from men, be it never for unjustly in respect of them, we are yet to confess it is boking upon them with rage and revenge, as the common cultom of the world is, we are to look up to God, acknowledge his Justice in the affiliation, begging his pardon most earnestly for those fins, which have provoked him to stand patiently and thankfully bear it, till he hall fee fir to remove it, still faying with Tob, Bloffed be the name of the Lord.

9. But I told you, Humility contained in it a submission not only to his Will. Submission to but alfo to his Wildom; that is, to at- Gud's wifdons. knowledge him infinitely Wife, and therefore that what ever he doth, is best and furelt to be done. And this we are to confess both in his Com-france, and in his disposing and ordering of things. First, whatsoever he commands in his const as either to believe or do, we are to fub- mands. mit to his Wisdom in both; to believe what thever he bide as believe, how impossible foever it feens to out shallow understandings, and to do what ever he commands us to do, how contrary feever it be to our fieldly reafon or humour, and in both to conclude. that his Commands are most fit and reasonable, however they appear to us:

B 4.

28 The Mhole Butyof Patter

to. Secondly, We are to fubmit to he bir disposal and a fals:

dering of things y to acknowledge he poses all things most wisely, and there onely in what concerns the World in general, but also what concerns every one of us in particular; fo that is what condition foever he purs us, we are to affure our felves it is that which is best for us, fince he chuses it for us who cannot err. And therefore never to have impatient defires of any thing in this World, but to leave it to God to firms with fuch an effate and condition as he fees best for us, and there let us quictly and contentedly rest, yea, though it be such as of all others we should least have wish'd for our selves. And this surely cannot but appear very reasonable to any that hath humility, for that having raught him, that God is infinitely wise, and he very foolish, he can never doubt, but that it is much more for his good, that God should chuse for him, than he for himfelf, even as it is much more for the Childr good to have the l'arent chuse for it, than to be left to those filly choices it would make for it self; for how many times would it cut, and burn, and mischies it felf, it it might have every thing it defires? And such Children are we, we many times eagerly defire those things, which would undo us if we had them. Thus many zimes we wish for Wealth, and Honour, and Beauty, and the like, when if we had them, they would onely prove foars to us, we should be drawn into fin by them. And this God, who knows all things, fees, though we do not, and therefore often denies us those things which he sees will sent to our mifchief; and it is his abundant mercy that he doth for Letus therefore, when-ever we are disappointed of any of our aims and withes, not onely patiently, but joyfully fubmit to it, as knowing that it is certainly beft for us, it being chosen by the unerring Wildom of our Heavenly Father.

Honor. that is, the paying him fuch a reverence and respect as belongs to so great a Majesty. And this is either inward or outward. The inward is the exalting him in our hearts, having always the highest and most excellent esteem of him. The outward is the manifestime niching and thewing forth that inward, and that is the first general in the whole course of our lives, the living like Men, that do indeed carry that high effects of God. Now you know, if we bear any special reverence but to a Man, we will be careful not to do any foul or base thing in his presence, and so if we do indeed honour God, we shall abhor to do any unworthy thing in his fight. But God sees all things, and therefore there is no way to shan the doing it in his fight, if we do it at all 1 therefore the doing it in his fight, if we do it at all 1 therefore the man do show reverse to him. We must never as any if we do thus reverence him, we must never at any time do any finful thing.

12. But befide this general way of ho-nouring God, there are many particu-lar acts by which we may honour him, tonouring God and thefe acts are divers, according to the feveral particulars abone which they are exercised. For we are to pay this honour, not onely immediately to him-felf, but also by a due estimation and account of all those things that nearly relate or belong to him. Those are especially six, First, his House, Secondly, his Revenue of Income, (as I may fay) Thirdly, his Day, Fourthly, his Word, Eifthly, his Sacraments, and Sixthly, his Name. and every one of these is to have some degree of our Reverence and effeem.

rence and effects. which being the place fer apart for his pub- be his lick worthip, we are to look on it, though House. not as holy in respect of it felf, yet in respect of its use, and therefore must not profine it, by imploying it to uses of our own. This Christ hath taught us by that act of his, Marth. 21112. in driving the buyers and fellers out of the Temple, faying, My house is called the house of Projer: And again, John 2, 16. Make not my Eathere house an house of Merchandise. By which it is clear, Churches are to be used onely for the Services of God, and we are to make that the onely end of our coming thither, and not to come to Church as to a Market, to make bargains, or dispatch businesses with our neighbours, as is soo common among many. But when-ever thou entreft the Church, remember that it is the House of God, a place where he is in an especial manner present, and therefore the the Council of the Wife-man, Erelef. 5, L. and her Bs

The Citible Dutpor spain

the first shier that goest into the house of Gul, that is, believe thy felf with that godly awe and reverence, which belongs or that great Majety thou are before. Remember that thy buttoess there is to converse with God, and therefore that out all thoughts of the world, even of the moth lawful business, which though they be allowable at another time, are here sinful. How fearful a guilt is it withen to emerciain any such thoughts as are in themselves wicked? It is like the treasion of fudes, who pretended indeed to come to kiss his Master, but brought with him a band of Soldiers to apprehend him, Maith. 26. We make shew in our coming to Church; of serving and worthipping God, but we bring with us a train of this enemies to provoke and despite him. This is a wickedness this may out vie the prophaneness of these days, in turning Churches into Scables, for finful and polluted thoughts are much the worse fort of beasts. are much the worse fort of beatte, when any wice: those were the Priests in time of the Law, and Minters of the Gospel now with us. And whitever is thur fer spare, we must look on with fuch respect, as not w dare to turn it to any other use. Of this fore, some are the Free-will-offerings of men, who have fomerimes of their own accord given fome of their Goods or Land this holy use, and whatsoever is so given, can neither by the person that gave, or any other be taken away, with our that great fin of Sacrilege.

The tecond thing to which respect be-lies posses is his Revenue or Income a that is, what flows. foever is his peculiar possessions, see apart for the maintenance of those that attend his ser-

15. But belide thefe, there was among the Jews, and had always been in all Christian Nations, fomerhing allotted by the Law of the Nation, for the support and mantenance of these that attend the Service of God: And is but just and necessary it should be so, that those wh by undertaking that Calling, are taken off from the way of gaining a livelihood in the World, should be provide for by them whose Souls they wanth over. And therefore it is most reasonable, which the Apostle urges in the matter, 1 Cr. 9. 17. If we have fown shire you Spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal thing beltown Schowing a few carnel things, the outward acceliaries of this empored life, one them, from whom they receive finitial things, even infrustrien and alliftance towards the obtaining of an eternal life.

16. Now whatforver is thus appointed for this use, may by no means be employ. The great fined to any other. And therefore those of Sacrilegal Titles which are here by Law allotted for the maintenance of the Ministry, must by no means be kept back, nor any tricks or suits used to avoid the payment either in whose or in part. For first, it is accessing that it is as cruly these as any other robbery can be, Ministers having right to their Titles by the same Law, which gives any other maner of robbery that we think of it is a robbing of God, whose service they were given to maintain; and that you may not doubt the truth of this, it is no more than God humself bath said of it, Mas, this, it is no more than God himself bath faid of it, Mal. 3. 8. Will a man rob God? get ye have robbed me ; yet ye lay, Wherein have me robbed than? In Tithes and Offerings Here it is most plain, that in God's account, the with-holding Tithes is a robbing of him. And, if you please, you may in the next verse see what the gain of this rob-bery amounts to, Is are Cursed with a Curse, a Curse is all gonen by it. And common experience thews us, that God's vengeance doth, in a remarkable manner, purfue this fin of Sacrilege, whether it be that of with holding Tithes, or the other of feizing on those possessions, which

Men think to enrich themselves by it, but The panish it usually proves directly contrary; this ment.

unlawful gain becomes fuch a canker in the Effare, as often eats our even that we had a just Title to. And therefore if you love (I will not day your Soule but) your Estates, preserve them from that danger by a strict ore; never to meddle with any thing fer spart for God, Hi sa sma jastina

17. A third thing wherein we are to the time for lowing of the Times fer spart for his fervice. fervice. He who hath given all our

Renz

The Country of Asset

Rent or Tribute of the whole. Thus the Jow kept holy the Seventh day, and we Christians the Sounday or Lord's day: The Jow were in their Subbath especially to remember the Creation of the World, and Lord': Day, we in ours, the Refurrection of Christ, by which a way is made for us into that better World we expect hereafter. Now this day thus better World we expect hereafter. Now this day thus fet apart, is to be employed in the Worship and Service of God, and that first more folemnly and publickly in the Congregation, from which no Matt must then absent himself without a just cause; and Secondly, privately at home in Praying with, and instructing our Families; or else in the yet more private Duties of the Gloser, a Man's own private Prayers, Reading, Meditation and the like.

And that we may be at leifure for these, a Rest from all Worldly business is commanded; therefore let no Man think, that a bare rest from Labour is all that is required as him are the Lord's Day, but the time, which he some

f him on the Lord's Day, but the time which he faves from the works of his Calling, he is to lay out on those Spiritual Duries. For the Lord's Day was never ordained to give us a presence for idleness, but onely to change our employment from Worldly to Heavenly, much less was it means, that by our rest from our Callings, we hould have more time free to bestow upon our first, as roometime. many do, who are more constant on that day at the Ale many do, who are more conftant on that day at the Alehouse than the Church. But this rest was commanded, First, to shadow out to us that Rest from sin which we are bound to all the days of our lives. And, Secondly, to take us off from our Worldly business, and to give us rime to attend the Service of God, and the need of our Souls.

18. And surely if we rightly consider it, it is a very great benefit to us, that there is such a servine that weekly returning for that purpose. We are very intensand busine upon the World, and if there were not some such time appointed to our hands, it is to be doubted we should handly allor any our selves, and then what a start'd condition must these poor Souls of ours be in, thus shall never be afforded a Meal? Whereas now there is a constant Diet provided for them, every Sanday, if we conflant Diet provided for them, every Sunday, if we will confcionably employ it, may be a Feffival day to them, may bring them in fuch Spiritual Food, as may nourish them to Eternal Life. We are not to look on this day with grudging, like those in Amos, Chap. 8, 5, who ask. It is will the Sabbath be gone, that we may fet forth W.car? as if that time were unterly loft, which were taken from our Worldly Bufiness. But we are so confider it as the gainfulleft, and the joyfulleft day of the Week, a day of larvest, wherein we are to lay up in store for the whole Week, nay, or our whole Lives.

day, there are other times which the The Fealts of Church hath fet apert for the Remem- the Cimerch.

fuch as the Birth and Refurrection of Christ, the Descent of the Holy Ghost, and the like, and these days we are to keep in that manner which the Church hath ordered; to the Solemn Worship of God, and in particular, lying for that Special Blefling we then remember. And Jurely wholoever is truly thankful for those Rich Mercies, cannot think it too much to fer apart some few days in a Year for that purpose.

But then we are to look that our Feafts be truly Spirienal, by imploying the day thus Holily, and not make it an occasion of Intemperance and Diforder, as too many, who confider nothing in Christmas and other Good Times, but the Good Chear and Jolliny of them: For that is doing Despite in stead of Honour to Christ, who came to bring all Purity and Soberness Into the World, and therefore mutt not have that Coming of his remembred in any other

20. Other days there are also fee apart in Memory of the Apostles, and other Saints, wherein we are to give hearty thanks to God for his Graces in them; particularly that they were made Instruments of revealing to us Christ Jefus, and the way of Salvation, as you know the Apostles were by their Preaching throughout the World. And then farther, we are to meditate on those Examples of holy life they have given us, and file up our felves to the imita-tion thereof. And who ever does uprightly fet himfelf to make these uses of these several Holy days, will have cause, by the benefit he shall find from them, to thank, and nor to blame the Church for ordering them.

21. Another fore of days there are, which

We are likewise to observe; and those are The Faste. C 275

34 The Whole Duty of Man,

days of Fasting and Humiliation, and what-ever of this kind the Church enjoyns, whether constantly at let times of the year, or upon any special and more sudden occasion, we'are to observe in such manner as she directs that is, not onely a bare abstraining from Mear, which is onely the Body's Punishment; but in afflicting our Souls, humbling them deeply before God, as hearty contesting and bewailing of our own and the Nations sins, and earnest Prayers for God's Parson and Forgiveness, and for the rurning away of those Judgments which those sins have called for: but above all, in surning our selves from our fins, loosing the bands of wickedness, as If stath speaks, thap, 58, 6, and exercising our selves in Works of Mercy, dealing our Bread to the Hungry, and the like, as it there follows.

God's Word. verence to God, by honouring his Word, and this we must certainly do, if we do indeed honour sim; there being no furer sign of our desplaing any Person, than the setting light by what he says to us: as on the contrary, if see value One, every word he speaks will be of weight with us. Now this Word of God is expressly contained in the Holy Scriptures, the Old and as the rule by which we must frame all the actions of our life, and to that end to study it much, to read in it as often as we can, if it may be, never to let a day pass us without Reading or Hearing some part of it read.

The Holy shew us his Will, and our Duty. And Scriptures. therefore to this Word of his, we are to bear a wonderful respect, to look upon it.

23. But then that is not all; we must not onely Read but we must mark what we Read, we must diligently observe what Duries there are which God commands us to perform, what faults there are which God there charges us not to commit, together with the rewards promised to the one, and the punishments threatned to the other. When we have thus Marked, we must lay them up in our Memory and not so loofely & carelessy, that they shall presently drop out again; but we must so fasten them there, by often thinking and meditating on them, that we may have them then you must be supposed for our use. Now that use is the directing of our leady for our use. Now that use is the directing of our leady for our use.

ives; and therefore when ever we are tempted to the committing of any evil, we are then to call to mind, This is the thing which in such a Scripture is forbidden by God, and all his vengeances threatned against it; and so in like manner, when any opportunity is offered us of doing good o remember, This is the duty which I was exhorted to in in the a Scripture, and fuch glorious rewards promifed to the doing of it. And by these considerations threngthen our felves for refiftance of the evil, and performance of e good.

24. But besides this of the Written Word, is hath called God to provide yet further for our Instruction by his Ministers, whose Office it is to reach us God's Will, n by faying any thing contrary to the Written Word, (for whatfoever is fo, can never be God's Will) but by explainng it, and making it easier to our understandings, and then applying it to our particular occasions, and exhorting and filtring us up to the practice of it, all which is the end of which half their Carechizing, and then their Preschio simeth. And to this we are to bear also a due respect, by giving diligent heed thereto, not onely being prefent at Larenizings and Sermons, and either sleep out the time or hink of somewhat else, but carefully marking what is said to us. And surely if we did but rightly consider how uch it concerns us, we should conclude it very reasonab for us to do fo.

25. For first, as to that of Catechizing, t is the laying the foundation, upon Carechizing. which all Christian Practice must be built; for that is the Teaching us our duty, without which t is impossible for us to perform it. And though it is proc, that the Scriptures are the Fountains, from whence his knowledge of Dury must be ferch'd, yet there are mapy, who are not able to draw it from this Fountain th felves, and therefore it is absolutely necessary it should I thus brought to them by others.

26. This Carechining is generally look'd upon as a thing belonging onely to the Youth, and so indeed it ought; not because the oldest are not to learn, if they be ignorant, but because all Children should be so instructed, that it should be impossible for them to be ignotalk when they come to years. And it nearly every Parent, as they will free themselves from the guil of their Childrens eternal undoing, that they be careful a see them instructed in all necessary things, to which purpose it will be fit early to reach them some thort Care chism, of which fort, none so fit as the Church Carechism, yet are they not to rest on these endeavours of their own, but also to call in the Ministers help, that he may build them up farther in Christian Knowledge.

86 The Mhole Duty of Man.

27. But alas! it is too fure, that Parents have very much neglected this Duty, and by that means it is, the fuch multirades of Men and Women, that are called Christians, know no more of Christ, or any thing that concerns their own Souls, than the meerest Heathen.

28. But although it were their Parents fault, that the were not Instructed when they were young, yet it is not sheir own, if they remain still ignorant, and it is sure it will be their own ruine and milery if they wilfully condition foever, that is in this ignorant effate, or in any fuch degree of it, that he wants any part of necessary faving knowledge, let him, as he loves his Soul, as ever he would escape eremal damnation, seek out for instruction, and ler no fear of shame keep any from it : For First, it is certain, the shame belongs onely to the wilful continuing in ignorance to which the defire of Learning is directly contrary, and is to far from a shameful, that it is a mol commendable thing, and will be fure to be so accounted by all wife and good Men. But, Secondly, Suppore form prophane fenfless People should deride it, yet fure that me were in all reason to be undergone joyfully, rather than venture on that confusion of face which will at e day of Judgment befall those, who, to avoid a little falle shame amongst Men, have gone on in a wilful ignounce of their duty, which ignorance will be fo far from eacuting any fine they shall commit, that it adds one great and heavy fin to all the rest, even the despiting that Knowedge which is offered to them. How heinous a fin that is, you may learn in the First Chapter of the Proverby, where hating Knowledge, Verst 29. is said to be the thing a draws down those sad Vengeances forementioned, in God's Forsiking Men, Laughing at their Calamiry ind of helping them; which is of all other conditions in the World the most miserable, and surely they are madly desperate that will run themselves into it.

29. As for those who have already this foundation laid, by the knowledge of the Grounds of Christian Religion, there is yet for them a farther help provided by Preaching; and it is no Preaching, more than needs, for, God knows, those the interest of the provided that the provided the provided the provided the provided the provided the provided that the provided the prov that understand their Duty well enough, are too apt to forget it; nay, sometimes by the violence of their own Luss to transgress it, even when they do remember it. And therefore it is very useful we should be put in mind of it to prevent our forgetting, and also often exharted and affifted to withftend thole Lufts which draw us so those transgressions. And to these purposes Preaching is intended, First, to warn us to be upon our Guard against our Spiritual Enemy, and then to furnish us with Weapons for the Fight, that is, fuch Means and Helps as may b enable us to bear off Temptations, and get the Victory over them.

30. Since therefore this is the end of Preaching, we must not think we have done our Duty, when we have heard a Sermon, though never to attentively, but we must lay up in our hearrs those Instructions and Advices we there meet with, and use them faithfully to that end of overcoming our fins. Therefore whenever thou comeft to the Phylician of thy Soul, do as thou wouldest with the Phylician of thy Body; thou comest to him not onely to hear him ralk and tell thee what will Cure thee, but also to do according to his Directions; and if thou doft not so here, thou art as vain as he that expects a bare Receipt from his Doctor Gall Cure him, though he never make use of it. Nay, thou are much more vain and ridiculous, for that, though it do him no good, will do him no harm, he shall never be the worse for having been Taught a Medicine, though he use it not; but in these Spiritual Receipts it is otherwise, if we use them not to our good, they will do us a great deal of harm, they will rife up in Judgment against us, and make our Condemostion to much the heavier. Beware therefore not to bring that danger upon thy felf, but when thou half heard a Sermon, confider with thy felf what directions here were in it for enabling thee to ofthew evil, or so do good. And if there were any thing especially concern'd thine own Bosom sin, lay that close to thy hear and all the Week after make it matter of meditation think of it even whill thou are at thy work, if the the practice of it, do what thou were advised to, for the fundating Sins, and quicking Grace in thee. Finally, loo carefully to practife the countel of the Apolitic, Yames 22. Be ye does of the word, and not heaves mely, deciving your own fouls. To hope for good from the Wordwithout doing it, is, it feems, nothing but a deceiving of felves: Let us never therefore measure our godlines by the number of Sermons which we hear, as if the hearing many were the certain mark of a good Christian, but be the store of Fruit we bring forth by them, without which all our Hearing will serve but to bring us into that hear vier portion of stripes, which belongs to thim that know his Masters will, and does it not, Luk 12.47. But this ro verence which is due to Preaching, we must not pay all that now adays is called fo, for God knows, the are many false Prophets gone out into the World, as the Apossise speaks, I John 4. I. And now, if ever, is that advice of his necessary, To try the Spirits, whether they be a God. But what I have said, I mean onely of the Preaching of those who first have a Lawful Calling to the Office and secondly, frame their Do tripe according to the light rule, the Weigner World of Cod. ight rule, the Written Word of God. But if any Man fay he is not able to Judge, whether the Doctrine be accom ding to the Word or no, let him at least try it by the common known Rules of Dury which he doch understand and if he find it a Doctrine giving Men Liberry to com-mit those things, which are by all acknowledged fins, such as Rebellion, Injustice, Unmercifulness, Uncleanness, o e like, he may conclude, it is unerly contrary to Go and his Word, and then abhorrence, and not reverence belongs to its Fifthly. We are to emirels our ho The Sarra nouring of God, by reverencing his S ents. Baperim : chofe are ewo Baperim : the Supper of the Lord. And this we are do, First, By our high effects of them. Secondly, B

our reverent utage of them. We are first to prize them a high rare, fooking on them as the Informents of bringing to us the greatest Blessings we can receive. The first of them, Baptism, that enters us into Covenant with God, makes us Members of Christ, and so gives us right to all those precious benefits that flow from him, to wit, Pardon of Sins, Smithiying Grace, and Heaven it self, upon condition we perform our parts of the Covenant. And as for the Lord's Support that is not onely a Sign and Remembrance of Christ, and all the Fruits of his Death, but it is actually the giving Christ, and all the Fruits of his Death to every Worthy Receiver. And therefore there is a most high estimation and value due to each of them. each of them.

32. And not only fo, but in the Second place we must show our reverence in our Of Baptifin, usinge of them; and that First, Before; Secondly, At; Thirdly, After the time of Receiving them It is true, there the Sacrament of Baptism being now Administred to us when we are Infants, it is not to be expected of us, that we should, in our own Persons, do any thing, either before, or at the time of receiving it; those performances were firstly required of all Persons, who were Baptized when they were of years; but for us, it suffices to give us this Right to Baptism, that we are born within the Pale of the Church, that is, of Christian Parents, and all that is required at that time is, what we can anely perform by others, they, in our stend, Promising, that when we come to years, we will perform our parts of the Covenant. But by how much the less we are then able to do fo much, the greater Bond lies on us to perform those after duties required of us, by which we are to supply the want of the former.

93. Now if you would know what those Duties are; look over those Promies The Vow of Duties are; look over those Promises The Vow of which your God fictions and God-mothers Baptism, then made in your blame, and you may then learn them. I cannot give you them in a better form, than that of our Churches Carechism, which rells us, That is a God fathers and Cod mothers did promise and some three things in our Names. First, That we should for fake the Devil and all his Works, the Pomps and Vanistes of this wicked World, and all the Sinful Loss of the Flesh. When by the Devil is means, first, the Worldipping of all the Bank and the Bank and the Bank Loss of the Flesh.

The fathole war of 99an.

false Gods, which is indeed but worshipping the Devil a fin, which at the time of Christ's coming into the World was very common, most part of Manhind then living i that vile Idolary. And therefore when Baptism was fit Ordained, it was but needful to make the forsaking of those false Gods a Principal Part of the Vow. And thoug those false Worships are now much rarer, yet there we of the Morthly and those false worships are now much rarer, yet there we one special part of them, which may yet be sear'd to be too common among us, and that is all forts of uncleanned which, though we do not make Ceremonies of our Religion, as the Heathers did of theirs, yet the committee thereof is a most high Provocation in God's eyes, such drew him to deftroy whole Gisies with fire and brimftone, you may read, Gen. 19. nay, the Whole World with Water Gen, 6. and will not fail to bring down Judgments, ar firange ones, on any that continue therein; and therefor the forfaking them well deferves to be looked on as an special part of this Promise. Besides this, all dealing with Devil is here Vowed against, whether it be by practing Witchcraft our selves, or Consulting with those th do, upon any occasion whatever, as the Recovery of ou Health, our Goods, or whatever elfe; for this is a degree of the former fin, it is the forfaking of the Lord, and fer ring up the Devil for our God, whilst we go to him is our Needs for Help.

Needs for Help.

14. But we also Renounce all the Works of the Devil and those are either in General all those that the Devi rempts us to, or else those particular kinds of fin which have most of his Image on them, that is, those which h himself most Practises, such are Pride (which brought hi from being an Angel of Light, to the Accurred Condition he is now in) and Lying, he is, as our Saviour faith John 8. 44. A Lier, and the Eather of it, and fuch allow Maline and Envy, especially killing and destroying o others, for he was a Monderer from the Beginning, Joh 4, 44. But above all, there is nothing wherein we become to like him, as in tempting and drawing others to fin, whi is his whole trade and business; and if we make it my corr of ours, we become like that rearing Lion, that gur show feeking mbom he may droum; Pet. 1, 2. 11. The Second thing we Yow to forsake, is the

Vantine of this Weigh While. By the Part

and Vanities there are feveral things meant, some of them in a sare used by the Heathers in some unlawful Sports of theirs, wherein we are not now so much concern'd, here being none of them remaining among us, but beddes that, there is meant all excess, either in Diet, or ports, or Apparel, when we keep not those due measures, which either by the General Rules of Sobriety, or the parioular Gircumstances of our Qualities and Callings we are pound to. Next by the wicked World, we may understand. First, the Wealth and Greatness of the World. d, First, the Wealth and Greatness of the World; high though we do not fo totally renounce, that it is unawful for a Christian to be either Rich or Great, yet we us far promise to forfake them, that we will not fer our care upon them, nos either get or keep them by the least nlawful means. Secondly, By the Wicked World, we may nderfland the Companies and Cuftons of the World, which, so far as they are wicked, we here renounce a than is we promise never to be drawn by Company to the Com riffion of a fin, but rather to forfake the most delightful Company, than to be enfinared by it; nor yer by Cuftom, ther venture the shame of being thought Singular ridiculous Persons, walk as it were in a path by our selves, than put our felves into that Broad may that leads to de adia, by giving our felves over to any finful Cuftom. w common foever it be grown. If this part of our Vou be but throughly confidered, it would arm us against most of the Temprations the World offers us, Company and Custom being the two special instruments by which is works on us.

26. A Third thing we renounce, is all the finful Lufts of the Flesh, where the flesh is to be understood in that lende wherein the Scripture often uses it, for the fountain of all difordered affections. For shough those unclean defires which we ordinarily call the Lufts of the Flesh, are here meant, yet they are not the onely things here conrained, there being divers other things which the Sort you of them, than by fetting down the lift St. Paul gives of them; Gal. 5. 19, 20, 21. Now the works of the Rest are manifest, which are these, Adultery, Form estion, Uneleannes, Lascivinglies, Idelatry, Wacherste, Ha-

a The Mhole Buty of Man.

herefies, engings, murchers, drankemess, revellings, fuch like. This, with those other descriptions, will find feathered in feveral places of Scripture, thew you, there are many things contained in sare of your Vow, the forfaking all the Sinful Lufts of Flesh an sold flow you don't the 374 The Second thing our God-fathers and G mothers promifed for us, was, That we should betreve the Articles of the Christian Faith. These we have summ up together in that which we call the Apoples Cre which fince we promife to believe, we are supposed a promife to learn them, and that not onely souls, but likewife the plain fense of them: for w can believe what he either never heard of, or knows any thing of the meaning of it? Now by this believing to the truth of the bur also the living like them that do Believe. As a example, Our believing that God created us, should make us live in that subjection and obedience to his which becomes Creatures to their Creator: the believing that Christ Redeemed us, should make us, yield up to felves to him as his purchase, to be disposed wholly I him, and employed onely in his Service. The believin Indement to come, should give us care to to walk, the we may not be condemned in it. And our believing the Life everlafting, hould make us diligent to employ o thort moment of time here, that our everlasting life, hi be a life of loy, not of mifery to us. In this mann from all the Articles of the Creed, we are to draw M tives to confirm us in all Christian Practice, to which en it is, that our learning and believing of them tends; an therefore without it, we are very far from making goo this part of our Vow, the telieving all the Articles of m Faith.

The last part of our Vow is, that we should he bely Will and Commandments, and walk in the sim oll the days of our lives. Where by our keeping God's He Will and Commandments, is meant our doing of all tho things which he hath made known to us to be his will a hould perform, wherein he hath given us his Holy Wo and new he expects that we should faithfully do without favouring our felves in the breach of any one of his Commands. And then in this entire obedience, we milt walk all the days of our lives; that is, we must go on in a constant course of obeying God; not onely fitch some sew steps in his ways, but walk in them, and that not for some part of our time, but all the days of our lives, never mrn out of them, but go on constantly in them, as long as we live in this World.

as. Having now thus briefly explained to you this Yow made at your. The first obliga-BAPTISM; all I shall add concerning tion of this You is onely to remember you how of Baptifin.

ing of it; and that, First, In respect of Justice; Secondly, in respect of advantage and benefit. That you are in Justice bound to it. I need say no more but that it is a fromise, and you know suffice requires of every Man the beeping of his promise. But then, this is of all other promiss the most solemn and binding, for it is a Vow that is a Promise made to God; and therefore we are not onely unjust, but for sworn, when-ever we break any part of it.

40. But Secondly, We are also highly concern'd to keep it in respect of our own benefit. It told you before, that haptism entred us into Covenant with God; now a Covenant is made up of two parts, that is, something promised by the one party, and something by the other of the parties that make the Covenant. And if one of them break his part of the Covenant, that is, perform not what he hath agree to, he can in no reason look that the other should make good his. And so it is here. God doth indeed promise those benefits before mentioned, and that it is part of the Covenant. But then we also undertake to perform the several things contained in this Vow of Baptism, and that is our part of it; and unless we do indeed perform them, God is not tied to make good his, and so we forfeit all those precious benefits and advantages, we are left in that natural and miserable estate of our, children of wrath, enemies to God, and heirs of sternal appration. And now what can be the pleasure that any or all sins can afford us, that can make us the least degree of Recompence for such a loss, the loss of God's sayes.

24 The culpole wuty of Main.

favour and grace here; and the loss of our own Souls here. after? For as our Saviour faith, Mark 8. 36. What feall is profit a Man if he feal! gain the whole World, and lofe in mon Saul? Yes this mad bargain we make, when ever we break any part of this our Vow of Baptilin. It therefore most nearly concerns us to consider fadly of it, to remember, that every fin we commit is a direct breach of this our Vow, and therefore when then are tempted to any fin, feem it never fo light, fay not of it as Lat did of Zoar, Gen. 19. 20. Is it not a little one; but confider scharever is, thou halt in thy Baptism vowed against it, and then b it never foliatle, it draws a great one at the heels of it, less than that of being fortworn, which whoever comming God hath in the Third Commandment pronounced, He will be be better keep this Vow, it will be very uleful often to repeat to our felves the feveral branches of it, that fo we may ftill have it re dy in our minds to fee against all Temptations; and sure ly it is so excellent a weapon, that if we do not either call a fide, or use it very negligently, it will enable us, by God's help, to put to flight our Spiritual Advertary. And this is that reverence we are to pay to this Sacrament, that e Baptifin. in respect to and one in LIEBERT STORY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE STORY O

secretar are breat the secretary in the postof post time is cut part of it, and table we do inout perform them, seed a post rectito make seed bit is we restrict all their presses ferretine and and and overselve it is in increment and with table afrage or or children of mean, secretary that with the frage of output. And now what can be one pie from that any and has can another that hade us the hard or all has can another that hade us the hard or

The chief of the c

SUNDAY II

HOVE

and obtained the feet the related to the a begin that so that there are sales training of

SUNDAY III.

our lesson to et le, have been; And, Thildly, Taylore les

Of the Sucrament of the Lord's Supper : Of Preparation before, as Examination: Of Repentance, Fasth, Obedience: Of Duties to be done at the Receiving, and afterwards, &cc.

Sed. 1. NOw follows the Reverence due to the Sacrament of The Lord's the LORD'S SUPPER; and in Supper. I must follow my first Division, and fer down First, What is to be done before; Secondly, At, d Thirdly, After the time of Receiving : For in this Sacament, we cannot be excused from any one of these, though in the former we are.

2. And First, for that which is to be ne before 3 St. Poul tells us, it is Exa- Things to be nation, I Cor. 13. 28. But let a Man done before Reexamine himfelf, and so let him eat of that ceiving.

bread, and drink of that cup. But before

I proceed to the particulars of this Examination, I must,

in the general, tell you, that the special business we have to do in this Sacrament, is to repeat and renew that Covenant we made with Examination.

God in our Baptism, which we having many ways grievously broken, it pleases God in his guar mercy to suffer us to come to the renewing of it in this Sacrament, which if we do in fincerity of heart, he hash promifed to accept us, and to give us all those benefin in this, which he was ready to befrow in the other Sacrament, if we had not by our own fault forfeited them. Since then the renewing of our Covenant is our business at this time, it follows, that these three things are needfary towards it: First, that we understand what the Covenant is: Secondly, That we confider what our breaches of it have been: And, Thirdly, That we redolve upon a first observance of it for the rest of our list And the trying of our selves in every one of these particulars, is that examination which is required of us before we come to this Sacrament-

46 The Cubole Duty of Man.

3. And Firft, We are to examine whether we under frand what that Covenant is, this is exceeding necessar as being the foundation of both the other, for it is no ther possible to discover our past fins, nor to fettle pu poles against them for the future without it. Let it poles against them for the sinure without it. Let this therefore be your first business, any whether you rightly understand what that Covenant is which you entred into at your Baptism, what be the Mercies promised on God part, and the Duties on yours. And because the Covenant made with each of us in Baptism, is onely the applying to our particulars the Covenant made by God is Christ with all Mankind in general, you are to conside whether you understand that, if you do not, you must means of gaming better, look over what is briefly him the entrance to this Treatife, concerning the San in the entrance to this Treatife, concerning the SE COND COVENANT, which is the foundation of that Covenant which God makes with us in our h ptiffn. And because you will there find, that obedience all God's Commands is the condictor required of us, as is also that which we express you in our Baptism, it necessary you should likewise know what those Com mands of God are. Therefore if you find you are igno mands of God are. Therefore if you find you are igns rant of them, never be at reft till you have got you felf instructed in them, and have gained such a mession of knowledge, as may direct you to do that Whole Does Man which God requires. And the giving thee the instruction is the onely aim of this Book, which, the mode in the grown of the state of the mode are filly I shall intreat the diligently to Read. And if thou hast hererofore approach to this Holy Sacrament in utter ignorance of these need fary things; bewait thy fin in so doing, but presume no come again, till thou hast, by gaining this needling knowledge, futted thy self for it, which thou must be then to do. For though no Man must come to the Sacrament in such Ignorance, yet if he willfully continue crament in fuch Ignorance, ver if he willfully continue md 3. Of the Lord's Supper.

that will be no excuse to him for keeping from this

The second part of our Examination is concerning our breaches of this Covenant, and here thou wilt find the let of that knowledge I shake of. For there is no way of discovering what out fins have Sims, each but by trying our actions by that which could be the rule of them, the Law of God. When there fee thou settle to this part of Examination, emember what are the several branches of Several by duty, and then ask thy own heart in several branches. And content not thy self with knowing in general to the performed.

And content not thy felf with knowing in general that thou halt broken God's Law, but do thy utmost to discover in what particulars thou halt done io. Recall, as well as thou can't, all the passages of thy Life, and in each of them confider what part of that duty hath been mangers? d by it: And that not onely in the groffer act, but in word also, hay, even in thy most secret thoughest. For though Man's Law reaches not to them, yet floughes: For though Man's 22w representation of the forbids in the forbids likewise in the thoughts and defires, and all, he forbids likewise in the thoughts and defires, and s them as clearly as our most publick acts. This pardeular fearch is exceeding necessary; for there is no promise of forgiveness of any sin, but onely to him that confesseth and forsaketh it. Now to both these it is necessary, that we have a direct and particular knowledge of our sins. For how can he either confess his sin, that hows not his sguilt of it? or how can he refolve to for-fike it, that differens not himfelf to have formerly derved to it? Therefore we may furely conclude, that this Examination is not onely useful but necessary towinds a full and complear Repentance; for he that does not take this particular view of his fins, will be likely to repent but by halves, which will never avail him rowards his pardon; nothing but an entire forfaking of every evil way being sufficient for that. But surely of all other times it concerns us, that when we come to the Sacrament, our Repensance be fall and compleat; and therefore this For although it be true, that it is not possible by our whole lives, and though it be also true, that what is oursevoidably hid from us, may be forgiven without any more particular confession than that of Divid. Pfal. 19.

48 The Whole Duty of Man.

12. Clearly thou me from my force faults: yet this will be no plea for us, if they come to be fearer onely: because we are negligent in fearthing. Therefore take heed of deceiving thy felf in this weighty business, but fearth the Soul to the bottom, without which, it is impossible that the wounds thereof should ever be throughly cured.

17. And as you are to enquire thus narrowly concerning the several forts of sine, so also must you concerning the degrees of them; for there are divers circumstances.

which increase and heighten the fin; of this fort there are many, as, First, when we fin against knowledge, that is when we certainly know fuch a thing to be a fin, yet for the present pleature or profit (or what ever other morive) adventure on it. This is by Chrift himself adjudged to be a great heightning of the fin He that knows his Ma fters will, and doth it not, shall be beaten with many fries Tuke 12.47. Secondly, when we fin with deliberation, that is, when we do not fall into it of a fudden, ere we are aware, but have time to confider of it; this is another degree of the fin. But, Thirdly, a yet higher is when we do it against the resistances and checks of our own Confrience, when that at the time tells us, This thing thou oughtest not to do : Ney, lays before us the danger as well es the fin of it, yet in fpight of thefe admonitions of Confeience, we go on and commit the fin; this is a huge in crease of ir, such as will raise the least fin into a mon high provocation. For it is plain, a fin thus committee must be a wilful one, and then be the matter of it never fo light, it is most heinous in God's eyes. Nay, this is a circumstance of such force, that it may make an indifferent action, that is in it felf no fin, become one, For though my Conscience should err in telling me, such a thing were unlawful, yet to long as I were to perswaded. it were fin for me to do that thing , for in that case, me Will confents to the doing a thing which I believe to be displeasing to God, and God (who judges us by our Wills, nor Understandings) imputes it to me as a fin, well as if the thing were in it felf unlawful. And then fore furcly we may conclude, that any thing which is well finful, is made much more to by being committed against the cheeks of Conscience. A fourth aggrevation of a fin is, when it bath been often repeated, for then there is not onely the guilt of to many more asks, but treey as grows also to much worse, and more inexcutable. We always judge thus in faults committed against our felves, we can forgive a single injury more easily, then the same when it bath been repeated, and the offner it bath been to repeated, the more beinous we account it. And so firely it is in saturagainst God also. Fifthly, the sim which have been committed after Yowa and Rethe fine which have been committed after Vows and Re-folutions of amendment are yet more grievous, for that commiss also the breaking of those Promises. Somewhat of this there is in every wilful fin, because every such is a breach of that Vow we make at Baptism. But besides that, we have since bound our selves by New Vows, if at no other time, yet surely at our coming to the Lord's Supper, that being (as was formerly faid) purposely in repeat our Vows of Baptism. And the more of these Vows we have made, so much the greater is our gulle, if we fall belt to any fin we then renounced. This is a thing ve-ry well worth weighing, and therefore examine thy left perdularly at thy approach to the Sacrament con-terning thy breaches of former Vows made at the holy Table. And if upon any other occition, as Sickness, Trou-ble of Mind, or the like, thou hast at any time made any her, call thy felf to a ftrict Account how theu haft performed them also, and remember, that every fin coma Perjury likewise. Sixthly, a yet higher step is, when a a Custom and Habit of it; and that is indeed a high degree.

Sunday. Of the Good's Supper

6. Yet even of habits, fome are worfe than others s, First, if it be so confirmed, that we are come to a hardnels of heart, have no fense at all of the fin : Or, Secondly, if we go on in it against any extraordinary Means used by God to reform us, such as Sickness, or any other asoffice, which feems to be fent on purpole for our re-chains. Or, Thirdly, if all Reproofs and Exhortations, inter of Ministers or private Friends, work not on us, et either make us angry at our reprovers, or fet us e the confidential with

oh definding the fin. Or, laftly, if this finful habit is fining in us, as to give us a love to the fin, not only our felves, but in others: if, as the Apollie faith, Ro 11 - 11. We do not only do the things, but rake pleasure thems that do there; and therefore entice and draw as a my as we can into the fame fine with us; then it is rife.

wenture upon fin again. 8. For when we are tempted with any of the floor pleasures of sin, we may then, out of our own experience that against them the sharp pains and terrors of an according Conscience, which will, to any that hash felt them be able infinitely to our weigh them. Endeavour thought to bring your selves to this melting conjert, to the day unfeigned fortow, and that not onely for the day ger you have brought upon your self; for though the a consideration which may, and ought to wo who hath promited not to defrife a broken and benerite beat.

Bfal. 57. 27. And the more likely it will be at 6 to brin us to amendment : For if we have once felt, what the finer of a wounded fpirit is, we shall have the less min

my yer where that alone is the me is not that forces which will a tail It is not that former which will avail us for and the reason of it is clear for that former party from the love of our felves, we are forry be the like so finant. But the former of a true partit be joyaed also with the love od, and that will make us grieve Courties, wing offended him, though there direup this forrow in us, is, First, so fir up ou of God, by repeating to our felves the man dour acts of his Mercy towards us, panicularly, the his foring us, and not cutting us off in our fin hidder with thy felf how many and how great prove on thou hatt offered him, perhaps in a continue of many years wilful dilobedience, for which is nightest with perfect justice have been ere the nt quick into Hell: Nay, possibly thou hast before thee fuddenly fnatch: away in the midft of their fi what cause canst thou give, why thou hast thus long what cause canst thou give, why thou hast thus long ped, but onely because his eye hath spared there what cause of that sparing, but his tender compass to the consideration, if it be press home upon the cannot chuse (if thy heart be not as hard as the her Milstone) but awake somewhat of love in the to the milstone) but awake somewhat of love in the to the constant of the cons the this gracious, this long-fuffering God, and that it is gracious, this long-fuffering God, and that will certainly make it appear to thee that it is an thing, and bitter, that thou half furfales the Lord 2. 10. That thou half-made fuch wretched requirate a great Mercy; it will make thee both ultimed and try at thy felf that thou half been fuch an unthunkful ture. But if the confideration of this one fore of mer-God's forbearance onely, be fuch an engagement and to this godly forrow, what will then be the multiplide hole other mercies which every Man is able to reckon to himfelf? And therefore let every Man be as partiin it as he can, cell to mind as many of them as he is that to he may attain to the greater degree of true

And to all these endeavours must be added earnest Prayers The Capale Date of Plan

Property God, that he by his Holy Spirit would have you fine, and foften your hours, that you may through among and bewall them.

Lanem and beweil chem. It is not formed any hum. To this end must be joyned any hum. Confession. Consession of first to God, and that not ones general, but also in particular, as far as in Memory of them will reach, and that with all shole heighing circumstances of them, which you have by the sumentiaged Examination discovered. Yea, even secretary forgotten first, must, in General, be Acknowledged, it is certain there are Mustimdes of first ; for that it is not say for every one of us to say with David, Plal. 19. Whe can study fund his Erroral Classife than me from some first. When you have thus Confess'd your with this beatty sorrow, and fineer hatted of them, may then, (and not before) be concluded to ited to much your Discase, that it will be scasonable to apply the mode.

your Discase, that it will be seasonable to apply the medy.

11. In the next place therefore you are Faith. Sook on him whom God bath set forth to be Propiniation for our fine. Rom. 3. 35. Even for Christ, that Lamb of God, which taketh away the state by his most Precious Blood, your fines may be walked away and that God would for his take, be Reconciled you. And this you are to believe will surely be done you do for the rest of your time, for take your fine, give your selves up sincerely to abey God in all his ownered. But without that, it is vain to hope any ben from Christ, or his Sufferings. And therefore the next of your preparation must be the setting thase Resolution of Obedience, which it told you was the third thing are to examine your selves of before your approach to Holy Sacrament.

12. Concerning the particulars of the Refelation of folution, I need fay no more, but obscious. It must answer every part and branch our Dury, that is, we must not onely general refelve that we will observe God's Commandant by it self, and especially where we have found our self most of have failed heretofore, there especially to re countries. And herein it nearly concerns us to look, their refolutions be fineere and unfeign'd, and not their flight ones as people the out of oathon to put a their coming to the Sicrament, which they rever to keeping afterwards. For this is a certain truth, whatever comes to this holy Table without an entire red of every fin, comes unworthly; and it is so fine, he that doth entirely hate all fin, will refolve to fite it; for you know, for faking antirally follows had no Min willingly abides with a thing on perion he and the fearcher of hereis, may approve it as fincere, me be supposed to hate fin, and so cannot be any refolutions throughly, that you decrive not you selve them; it is your own great danger if you do, feat it in you cannot decrive God, nor gain acceptation in him, by my thing which is not perfectly hearry and signed.

Now as you are to refolve on this new means, which may affift you in the per-pid means, which may affift you in the per-pid means that may help you in k, refolve to make use of them, how uneasis foever they want field y fo on the other side consider what things are, that are likely to lead you to fin, and resolve to and avoid them: This you are to do in respect of his whatever, but especially in those whereof you formerly been guilty. For there it will not be hard you to find, by what steps and degrees you were drawn to what company, what occasion it was that end you, as also so what fort of temprations you are to yield. And therefore you must particularly a your self against the sig, by avoiding those occasions your felf against the sip, by avoiding those occasions

Bur is is not enough that you resolve you will do hereafter, but you must instantly set to it, and the course, by doing at the present whatsoever you contunity of doing. And there are several things to the Sacrament

Ty. As fifth, you must self after the profess remain. If it, not bring any note unself wing of so.

In the with you to that Table, for not enough to purpose to cast stee afterwards, but you must then actually do it, by a drawing all degrees of love and affection from them must then give a Bill of Divorce to all your old telestins, or elfe you are in no way fir to be admired to C. The reason of this is clear; for this Sterament is our ritual numitiment; now before we can receive Spiritual numitiment; now before we can receive Spiritual Nourishment; we must have Spiritual Life, if for no gives Ford to a Dead Person, sur who soever continue to the spiritual Life; but is the love of any one amount of the person of the second fine of the spiritual Life; but is the love of any one amount of the person of the second fine of the second second fine which is most dreadful; the Apostle will tell you to Cor. 11. 29. He can and drinky his own Dames of the actually to our off every sin, before you contain actually to our off every sin, before you contains actually to our off every sin, before you contains the Stale. this Table 10 and the fame necessity lies on Intracing for a second thing to be done at this work. and that is, the porting your Sool into a least which may render it acceptable the eyes of God. For when you have turn'd out and his accurated train, you must not let your Soul empty; if you do, Christ tells you, Luke II. 26 will quickly remove again, and your last efface shall make the power for the Holy Spirit with his Graces, or if invite into it the Holy Spirit with his Graces, or if the integer of the power of the second them. be in some degree there stready, you must Pray the will yet more fully possess it, and you must quicken fir them up.

17. As for example, you must qui Quickening your Humility, by confidering your of Graces. ny and great first your Faith by meding on God's Fromiles to all penhent ners; your Love to God, by confidering his Mercle. specially those remembred in the Secrement, his odic for us; and your leve to your Neighbour, a pour Enemies by confidering that great Example the inflering for us that were enemies to him. And it are princularly required of us, when we come to him a that we copy out this pattern of his in a persent you givened, of all that have offended us; and not a tregivened, our finds a kindness also us will express it and Offices of Love and Friending to them.

11. And you have formerly so quite for the day of the example of his, as to do the Charity and confust, if you have done any unstable from him: and so that end, first, acknowledge as fault, and, secondly, reftere to him, to the atmost of the power, whatsoever you have deprived him of either

Goods or Credit. This reconciliation with our Bre-bern is absolutely necessary towards the making any of our Services acceptable with God, as appears by that Preone of Christ, Matth. 15. 23, 24. If close bring the Gift the egainst thee, leave there thy Gift before the Attar, and the may, first be reconciled to thy Brother, and then come of offer set Gift. Where you fee, that though the Gift e already at the Alrar, it must rather be left there unofand, than be offered by a Man that is not at perfect race with his Neighbour. And if this Charity be in necollary in all our Services, much more in this, where, by a joyne partaking in the fame Holy Mysteries, we fignifie our being United and Knit not only to Christ our Head, but also to each other as Fellow-members. And therefore if we come with any Malice in our hearts, we commit an of the highest Hypocrifie, by making a Solemn Profest lim in the Sucrament of that Charity and Brotherly Love,

19. Another most necessary Grace at this time, is that of Devotion, for the raising Devotion. ereof, we must allow our selves some time to withdraw from our Worldly Affairs, and wholly to fit our felves to this Business of Preparation; one veby special pair of which preparation lies, in raising up our soul to a devout and heavenly temper. And to that, it most necessary, that we call off all thoughts of the word, for they will be fuie, as so many clogs, to he our Souls, in their mounting rowards Heaven. A secretife of this devotion is Proyer, wherein we may resy frequent and earnest at our coming to the Sment, this being one great influences, wherein must obtain all those other Graces required in our praction. Therefore he sure this be not omitted; for it use never so much endeavour besides, and leaveour this the going to work in your own strength, without into a Good for his help, and then it is impossible should prosper in it: For me are not able of our fishes any thing as of our soften, but our softential any thing as of our softents, but our softential any thing as of our softents, but our softentials of this train his Grace, that you may come so shirt to this Table, that you may be partakers of the benefits treached out to all worthy Receivers.

World

20. These and all other Spiritual reached out to all worthy Receivers.

20. These and all other Spiritual reached out to all worthy Receivers.

20. These and all other Spiritual reached out to all worthy Receivers.

21. The who have the enterminate mentioned in the Parable of him, who came to Marriage without a Wedding-garment, without without was was cast into enter darked, where it meeting guishing of neth. For though it is possible, he may so out at the present, and not be finatch'd from the Tayer St. Peal affures him, be drinky damarion to be and how foon it may full on him is uncertain, but that when ever it does come; it will be intererable; who among at can duted with rowalding burning; $1. Pear

21. I shall add but one thing The Ufefulness concerning the things which are of a Spiritu- done before the Sacrament, and the

his own judgment in the case, that if any person thought own for in the sacrament, and that if any person the ferious view of himself, cannot in may come to the Sacrament, he do not rest wholly his own judgment in the case, for if he be a truly in the besond, it is likely he may judge too hardly of himself he be not, it is odds, but if he be left to the satisfy own doubts. He will quickly bring rives his Soul of the benefit It of to many dangers wh midft of so many dangers which arend the missale of similar, I would, as I kind before, exhort him not so must his own judgment, but so make known his case as an distrect and godly Minister, and rather be guided thin, who will probably (if the case be duely, and without any disguise discovered to him) he better able to judge of him than the of himselfs. This is the counce as church gives in the Exhonation before the Cammuston, where it is advised, that it any by other means the forementioned; essent unit in your conference at remark father example and confere, then less him to space discover and learned Minister of God's work on the grief, that he may receive fisch delife and discover and complete, that he conference may be relieved this is surely such advice as should not be neglected. pether at the time of coming to the Saganent, nor any then we are under any few or rections of doubt concerning the flare of our Souls. And for war of this many have run into very great milithief, having for the looks feller to long, all and the looks feller to long, all and the looks feller to long, all and the long levels to long. outs fefter fo long, that is that either plunged the deep diffresses of Conscience, or which the they have, so still that disquier within them, to themselves to all finful pleasures, and so quite eaters all care of their Souls.

22. But to all this, it will perhaps Not to be albamed to be faid, that this cannot be done discover our Plasses without discovering the nakedness wie.

d blemifies of the Soul, and therefore men are or alling to do it. But to that I answer. That is is very seed onable that should be a hindrane, for bift. I appele you are to chuse onely such a water as will sumfailly keep any secret you shall commit to him, and so on be no publick tham you can fear. And I it be to of that single person, you need not fear that nelffor susposing him a godly Man, he will not think, orle of you, but the better, that you are so desirous all right between God and your Soul. But if inthere were same in it, yet as long as it may be a to care both your trouble and your sin roo, sa it godly and faithful counsel may bend much to that shame ought to be despised, and it is sure add, if we loved our Souls as well as our Bodies; Rodly Diseases, be they never so foul or shameticover it, and then it much here be so much a great

y, by how much the Soul is more precious than doubtful persons to whom this Ad-Destrict. At vice might be useful; there are other Destrict. of another fort, whose considence is their disease, who presume very ground, of the goodness of their Estates: And for those most happy, if they could be brought to hear some than the result in the country in the first same to the country of the

ments than their own in this to weight The gruth is, we are generally to apt to fa Spiring Guide, to enable them to pass a right Judge on themselves; and not onely so, but to receive Dione law or subdue and mortific those fins they are which is a matter of fo much difficult e have no reason to despite any means that may April 1008

A I have now gone through those several parts of we are to perform Before our Receiving, in the next place I am to tell you, what is

At the time of

Soul former thy Greatest and Foulest Sins, thy Bre

les Receiving. Then mediane on those times Sufferings of Christ, which are The Sufferings have his Blessed Body was torn with Nails upon the Crowness thou seed the Wine poured out, remember how a precious Blood was spillt there; and then confider, a with sinst that caused both. And herethink how unworks a wretch thou are to have done that, which occasion such torments to him; how much worse than his we Crucifiers: they Crucify'd him once, but thou has much as in thee lay, Crucify'd him once, but thou has him because they knew him note, but thou has him because they knew him note, but thou has knew him because they knew him note, but thou has knew him the sin himself, she Lord of Glay, and what is to thee, a most tender and merciful Savious; and thou has fall continued thus to Crucifie him affelt. Confider this, and let it work in thee, First, a great forrow in the first past, and then a great hatred, and a him resolution against them for the time to come.

25. When thou hast a while thus thought on these Sufferings of Christ for the interest of the appealing of Great Wrath, and procuring his Favour and Mercies roward these. And therefore believingly, yet shumbly begue God to accept of that fatisfaction made by his innoces and beloved Son, and for the Meries thereof to parter they whatsoever is past, and to be fully reconsided nd beloved 8on, and for the Merits thereof to part hee whatfoever is path, and to be fully reconciled

26. In the third place confider them gain to raise thy Thankfulness. Think The Them how much both of shame and pain he ness many there endured but especially those great for them. Agonies of his Soul, which drew from him that bitter Cry, My God, my God, why half the shall me? Matth. 27. 45. Now all this he suffered ness to keep thee from perishing. And therefore consider what unexpressible thanks thou owest him, and can deavour to raise thy Soul to the most reasons and heart Thanksgiving: for this is a principal part of duty

this time, the artifing and magnifying that Mercy with Research us by so dear a price. Therefore it is been well become thee to say with David, I will take the desire, and call upon the Name of the Lord.

27. Fourthly, look on these sufferi

27. Fourthly, look on these suffering points love of Christ to thir up this love, and sure confidence of charge is for here the love of Christ of the Apostle, I John 3, 16. Herely persons tof the Apossle, t John 5, 16. Hereby perceive love of God towards w. because he laid down his we. And that even the highest degree of love; so himself tells us, t John 5, 13. Greater love than no Man, that a Man lay down his life for his fri ter even greater love than this had he, for he wely died, but died the most painful and most oschool death, and that not for his friends, but for ser enemies. And therefore if after all this love on in there be no return of love on ours, we are wo then the vilell fort of Men, for even the Publicans, Man 46. love those that love them. Here therefore chide when his to thee was so zealous and affectionate. A sienvour to enkindle this holy flame in thy Soul love him in such a degree, that thou may'ft be ready copy out his example, to part with all things, yea, e it felf, whenever he calls for it, that is, when so thy obedience to any command of his shall lay thee or to those sufferings: Bur in the mean time to resolve ne again to make any league with his enemies, to entertain arbour any fin in thy breaft. But if there have any f hicherto remained with thee, make this the feafon to I and crucifie it; offer it up at this instant a sacrifice him, who was Sacrificed for thee, and particularly for very end, that he might redeem thee from all inia Therefore here make thy folemn refolutions to for every fin, particularly those into which thou hast frequently fallen. And that thou mayeft indeed perfo ofe refolutions, earnestly beg of this Crucified Savio that he will, by the power of his Death, mortifie and all thy corruptions.

When shou are about to receive Confectated Bread and Wine, re- The benefits that God now offers to feal to the New Counce that New Covenant made with name feeled in think in his Son. For fince he gives the Secretary his Son in the Sacrament, he gives him all the benefits of that Covenant, to wit. Pardon of fins, fanctifying Grace, and a Title to an ever-linheritance. And here be aftonished at the infinite podness of God, who reaches out to thee so precious a master. But then remember, that this is all but on ordition, that thou perform thy part of the Covenant, d therefore fettle in thy Soul the most ferious purpose the Minister in that short, but excellent Prayer, and at the instance of giving the Sacrament, The Body of Lord, &c.

so. So foon as thou haft Received, fer up thy devoutest Praises for that Upon Receive ment Mercy, together with thy most give thanks, God's Spirit as may enable thee to perform the Vow thou half now made. Then remembring that Christ is a Propirition, not for our fine onely, but also for the

is of the sobole World; letthy Charity reach Proy.

mkind, that every one may receive the benefit of a Sacmice of his: Commend also to God the Estate of e Church, that particularly whereof thou art a Memedience, both in Church and State; and so go on to may for fuch particular Persons as either thy Relations, their Wants shall present to thee. If there be any Colfrom for the Poor, (as there always ought to be at this chair of others, there be no fuch Collection, yet do thou rivarely defign fomething towards the relief of thy poor conren, and be fure to give it the next fitting opporuity that offers it felf. All this thou must contrive to oin the time that others are receiving, that so when Publick Prayers after the Administration begin, thou myst be ready to joyn in them, which thou must like-Ca rife take care to do with all Devotion. Thus much for haviour Ar the time of Receiving.

30. Now follows the Third and laft this that is, what thou are to do After thy Secrement. ceiving. That which is immediately to done, is, as foon as thou are retired from the Congregation, to offer up again to God thy Sacrafice of Praise for all those precious Mercies conveyed to the that Holy Sacrament; as also humbs grang. Grace, to enable thee to make good a knowell thy felf most in danger, either in respect of any former habit, or matural inclination, there especially defire, and earneftly beg his aid.

3.1. When thou halt done thus, do not prefently lerathy felf loofe to the Not prefently to Worldly Cares and Bufinels, but find all that day either in Meditating, fall to Worldly Affairs.

Praying, Reading, Good Conference, the like, to as may belt keep up that holy same which is enkindled in thy heart. Afterwards when thy Calling requires thee to fall to thy ufual Affairs, do 'it, but ye still remember, that thou hast a greater business than the lutions still in nort.

Promifes thou to lately madeft to Go To keep thy refo- and therefore what-ever the outwar Employments are, let thy heart be for on that; keep all the particulars of thy Refolutions in Memory, and whenever thou are tempted to any of thy old fins, then can fider, this is the thing thou to folerally Vowedst agains, and withall remember, what a hor-The danger of rible guilt it will be, if thou shouldest

The danger of now wilfully do any thing contrary to that Vow, yea, and what a horbreaking them.

ble Milchief also it will be to thy felf. For at thy to ceiving, God and thou enteredit into Covenant, into Lesgue of Friendship and Kindness, and as long as thou keepest in that Friendship with God, thou art saie, all the Malice of Men or Devils can do thee no harm; for, Apolic faith, Rom. 8. 37. If God to for as, who can be four? But if thou breakeft this League, shou certainly doft, if thou yieldest to Making God wilful fin) then God and thou are stry many.

Nay, thou wilt get an enemy within Thy and ading thee; and when God and thine

Confidence are thus against thee, thou canst not but reactive expectation of Wrath which awaits thee in the next. Remember all this, when thou art fer upon by any Temptation, and then fure thou canft not but look upon that Temptation as a Cheat that comes to rob thee of thy Reace, thy God, thy very Soul; and then fire it will appear as unfit to entertain it, as thou wouldest think it so harbour one in thy house, who thou knowes gine to rob thee of what is dearest to thee.

Mercy in pardoning thee heretofore, encou. God's formage thee again to provoke him; for belides mer parminimum failness to make that goodness of his encou-regement in thy fin: Belides this, I say, the offiner thou hast been Pardon'd, the less reason thou hast to expect it again, because thy fin is so much the greater for having been committed against so much Mercy. If a King have several times pardon'd an Offen-der, yet if he still return to Commission of the same fault, the King will at last be forced, if he have any love to Julice, to give him up to it. Now so it is here, God is as well Just as Merciful, and his Justice will at last surely and heavily avenge the abuse of his Mercy, and there cannot be a greater abuse of his Mercy, than to fin in hope of h, so that it will prove a miserable deceiving of thy felf thus to prefume upon it.

24. Now this care of making good the Vow, must not abide with thee this Vow perpensal. Some few days onely, and then be cast this Vow perpensal.

64. The Whale Buty of Mail

afide, but it must continue with thee all thy days; to a shou break thy Vow, it matters not whether some values: may, perhaps the guilt may in some respects be more, if it be late; for if thou hast for a good while gore on in the observance of it, that shows the thing is possible to thee, and so thy after-breaches are not of infuring because thou can't not avoid them, but of perverseres because thou can't not avoid them, but of perverseres because thou wilt not. Besides, the use of Christian wall should need make it more easie to thee. For indeed, all the difficulty of it is but from the custom of the contrary. And therefore if all if some acquaintance with it, who thou hast overcome somewhat of the hardness, thou that then give it over, it will be most inexcusable. Therefore be careful all the days of thy life to keep such a watch over thy self, and so to avoid all occasions of remptations, as may preserve thee from all wisful breaches of this Vow.

25. Burehough the obligation of every function to be fuch fingle Vow reach to the utmost day of our lives, yet are we often to renew it we are often to receive the Holy Sacre-ment; for that being the means of conveying to us to great and unvaluable benefits, and it being also a Command of Christ, that we should do that in remembrance of him, we are in respect both of reason and duty to omit no fit apportunity of partaking of that holy Table. I have now showed you what that revorence is which we are to pay to God in this Sacrament.

3 E Cont 2 135

SUNDAY IV.

itment due to God's Name; Sins against it; Blafoberry, Swearing; Of Affortory, Premissory, Unlawful Oaths; of Perjury, wain Oaths, and the Sin of them, &c.

HE last thing wherein we are to express our Honour due Reverence to him, is to God's the honouring of his Name.

Name. Now what this honouring of his Name is, we shall best understand, by considering what are the things by which it is dishonoured, the avoiding of which will be our way of honouring it.

The first is, all Blasphemies, or speaking any evil thing of God, the highest degree Sins against it. whereof is Cursing him; or if we do not speak it with our mouthes, yet if we do it in our hearts by minking any unworthy thing of him it is look'd on by God, who sees the Blasphemy. heart, as the vilest dishonour. But there is allo a Blasphemy of the Actions, that is, when Men who profes to be the Servants of God, live so wickedly, that they bring up as evil report of him whom they own as their Matter and Lord This Blasphemy the Apostle takes notice of, Rams. 2. 24. where he tells those who profess to be observers of the Law, That by their wicked actions, the Nams of God was blasphemed among the Gentiles. Those Gentiles were moved to think ill of God, as the favourer of sin, when they saw those, who called themselves his servants, commit it.

A fecond way of dimonouring God's Name
by Swearing, and that is of two forts, Spearing, either by false Oaths, or else by rash and light ones, A falle Outh may also be of two kinds, as first, by which I afirm fomewhat; or, Secondly, the which I promise. The First is, when I st

Outs. confirm this faying of mine with an Outs if then I know there be not perfect trust is what I fay, this is a flat Perjury, a down-right being for fwom: Nay, if I Swear to the Truth of that whereof im onely doubtful, though the thing should happen to be true, yet it brings upon me the guilt of Perjury; for Swear at a venture of the thing might, for ought I knew be as well falls whereas I ought never to Swear any thing, the trust of which I do not certainly know.

2. But befides this fort of Oaths,

2. But belides this fort of Oaths, by other fort, that by which I promife forewhat: And that Promife may be either to God or Man. When it is to God, we call a Vow of which I have already spoken under the heads of the Sacraments I hall now onely speak of that to Man, and this may become a false Oath, either at, or after the time of taking it. At the time of taking it it is false, if either I have then no yeal purpose of making it good, or else take in a sense different from that, which I know he to whom I make the Promife understands it, for the use of Oaths being to affure the Persons to whom they are made, they must be taken in their sense. But if I were never so fincere at the taking the Oath, if afterwards I do not persons it, I am certainly Perjured.

3. The nature of an Oath being then thus binding, it nearly concerns us to loo

Ostbs. that the matter of our Osths be lawful, for elfe we run our felves into a woful finer. For example, Suppole I fwear to kill a Man, If I perform my Osth. I am guilty of Murder; if I break it, of Perjury: And fo I am under a necessary of finning one way or other. But there is nothing puts us under a greater degree of this unhappy necessary than when we Swear two Oaths, whereof the one is directly cross and contradictory to the other. For if I Swear to give a Man my whole Efface, and afterwards Swear to give all, or part of the to one of them, because it is impossible to perform it to and to I must be under a nevertity of being for some and so I must be under a nesessity of being for some. And into this unbepty Train every Man brings inself, that takes any Oath, which crosses some other which he hash fromerly taken; which should make all has love citize God or their own Soula, resolve never our miserably to intemple themselves by taking one oath cross and thwarring to another. But it may person here be asked. What a person that hath already brought himself into such a condition shall do? I Associate the mist first beautily Repent of the great sin of aking the unlawful Oath, and then stick onely to the await, which is all that is in his power towards the resource his Fault, and qualifying him for God's Paulen or it.

4. Having faid this concerning the kinds of this fin of Perjury. I shall onely add a God grastly few words to shew you how greatly dispensed God's Name is dishonoured by it. In all by Perjury. Onto, you know, God is solemnly called to witness the truth of that which is spoken, now if the thing be falle, is is the basest affront and dishonour that can possibly be done to God, for it is in scafon to signific one of these two things, either that we believe he knows not whether we say true or no; (and that is to make him no God, to suppose him to be at deceiveable and easie to be delined as one of out ignorant Neighbours) or else that he is willing to counternance out iye. The former sobs him of that great Antibure of his, his knowing all things, and is surely a great dishonouring of him, it being even amongst Men accounted one of the greatest disgraces, to account a Man sit to have Chears out upon him, yet even so we deal with God, if we put upon him, yet even so we deal with God, if we venture to forswear upon a hope that God discerns it not but the other is yet worse, for the supposing him willing to countenance our lyes, is the making him a party in them, and is not onely the making him to God, (it being impossible that God should either lye himself, or approve it in another) but it is the making him like the very Devil, for he it is that is a Liar, and the Father of it. the 8. 44. And furely I need not fay more to prove, the this is the highest degree of dishonouring. God's 68 The Mipole Duty of Pan.

The panish ness of this fin, let him but consider who ness of this fin, let him but consider who meets of it. God himself fays of it in the Third Communication, where he folerantly professes, will not hald him guiltless that takes his Name to vain. And fine the adding that to this Commandment, and note of the rest, is the marking this out for a most heinour Guilt. And if you look into Zach. 5. you will there find the punishment is answerable, even to the utter defination, not onely of the Man, but his House also. Therefore it concerns all Men, as they love either their Temporal or Exernal Welfare, to keep them most frickly from this fin.

But befides this of Fortwearing, I told Vain Oaths. You, there was another fort of Oaths by which God's Name is dishonoured; those are the vain and light Oaths, such as are so usual in our common discourie, and are expressly forbidden by Christ, Marth, 5.34. But I say was you, Swear not at all exter by heaven, for it is God's throne; nor by the earth, for it is specified: Where you see, we are not allowed to Swear by meer Creatures, because of the relation they have to God. How preat a wickedness is it then to propulate his Holy Name by rash and vain Oath? This is a fin that is (by I know not what charm of Same) grown into a fishion among us, and now its being so, draws daily more Men into it. But it is to be remembred, that when we shall appear before God's ludgment. Sea, to answer for those Profanations of his lame, it will be no encuse to say, it was the fashion so do so, it will rather be an increase of our guilt, that we have by our own practice helped to confirm that wicked custom, which we ought to have been down and discounternaced.

The Sin of Age thinks of it, this is a fin of a very high nature: Por befides that it is a direct breach of the Precept of Christ, it shows.

Fift, a very mean and low effeem of God: Every Out we Swear, is the appealing to God to Judge the Trush of what we speak, and therefore being of such greaness and Majesty, requires, that the matter concerning which we thus Appeal to him, should be of great weight and moment, formewhat wherein either his own glosy, forme considerable good of Man is concern'd. But when we was in common discourse, it is far otherwise, and the islingest or lightest thing serves for the matter of an Oath milingest or lightest ching serves for the master of an Ooth, any, often Men Swear to such vain and sposish things, as a considering person would be assumed barely to speak. And is it not a great despissing of God, to call him solemnly to judge in such childish, such wretched masters? God is the great King of the World; now though a King be to be resouted unto in weighty cases, yet such he would think himself-stack despissed, if he could be called to Judge between Boys at their Childish Games; and God, knows, many things whereto we frequently Swear, are not of greater weight, and therefore are a sign that we do not rightly effect of God. eftern of God.

17612

7. Secondly, This common Swearing is a in which leads directly to the former of They lead to sometimes of they lead to sometimes of they lead to sometimes of the so thanked, if he keep from Perjury. Nay further, he that Swear commonly, is not onely prepared to Forswear when a folern Oath is tendred him, but in all probability does a smally Forswear himself often in these suddener Oaths for supposing them to come from a Man ere he is aware. hich is the best can be faid of them) what assurance can any Man have who Swears ere he is aware, that h hall not lye fo too? and if he doth both together, he must nextfirily be Fortworn. But he that observes your Com-Swearers, will be put past doubt, that they are often Portworn, for they usually Swear indifferently to things me or false, doubtful or certain. And I doubt not but if Men, who are guilty of this fin, would but impartially camine their own practice, their hearts would second me in this observation.

hirdly, this is a fin to which there is No Temptatitation, there is nothing either on to them.

time or profit got by it, mest

The Tipole Duty of Han.

er time offer us formetwhit either of the one or the other, this is afterly empty of both. So that in this fin, the will does not play the Merchant for our Soult, as in each e does a teledoth not fo much as cheapen them, we give them freely into his hands without my ag in exchange. There feems to be but one thing pole for Men to hope to gain by it, and that is, to be bested in what they fit, when they thus bind it by an the thirt also they constraintly fail of a for there are ach. But this also they conflaintly still of a for there are the still little believed as the common Swearers. And and resion, for he that makes no Confessor thus to propose God's Name, way hall any Man believe he makes by of Lying! Nay, their forwardness to confirm every a flightest thing by an Oath, rather gives jealouse that my have some inward guilt of falleness, for which the art must be the Cloak. And thus you see in how little and it flaints them, even to this one y purpose for which ey can pretend it taleful; and to any other edvatures attakes not the leaft claim. ithour tempration, and confequently virtual careful in thems the greatest comment, may, unknown to od, when we will prove them thus, without as ing to tempt us to it. The tractore though the comments of this fin bath make it pass but for a finall one, it is very far from being 6. it is very far from being so, either in it self, or in

9. Let all therefore, who are not really of Alifain- yet fallen into the Cuttom of this from them. in, be most careful never to rield so the least beginnings of it.

yield to the leaft beginnings of it, and for those who are so miscrable as to be already charged in it, let them immediately, as they tender their Souls, get out of it. And let no Man plead the hardest of leaving an old custom, as an excuse for his continuity in it, but rather the longer he hath been in it, so much the more haste let him make out of it, as thinking it too too much that he hath gone on so long in so great a sin. And if the length of the custom have intreased the difficulty of leaving it, that is in all reason to make him fer immediately to the casting it off; left that difficulty at larger to an impossibility; and the harder he finds it as the present, so much the mare diligent and washful in

be in the use of all those means, which my tend to the overcoming that finful hat it, fine sew of chose means it will not be it.

mile here to mention.

10. First, Les him possess his Mind fully Souse of the first heinousites of the fin, and not to Guilt and measure is onely according to the common Danger.

see of the World. And when he is fully persuaded of the Guilt, then les him add to that the confideration of the danger, as that it puts him out of God's favour at the prefent, and will, if he continu God's favour at the prefent, and will, if he continue it, off him into Hell for ever. And fure, if this w her throughly laid to heart, it would reftrain this lin. Fo I would ask a Man, that presends impossibility of leaving the custom, whether if he were fure he should be Hanged the next Oath he Swore, the sear of it would not keep him from Swearing? I can scarce believe any Man in his wis so little Master of himself, but it would. And then, furely Damning is so much worse than Hanging, that in all reason the sear of that ought to be a much greater reftraint. The doubt is, Men do either not heartily believe that this fin will Donn them, or if they do, they look upon it as a thing a great way off, and so are not much moved with it: but both these are very unreasona-ble. For the First, it is certain, that every one that con-tinues wilfully in any sin, is so long in a state of Damnation, and therefore this being so continued in, must cer-tainly put a Map in the condition. For the Second, it is or how knows any Man that he thall not be struck deawith an Oath in his Mouth? Or if he were fure nor be so, yet eternal Dannard wis surely to be dreaded about things, be it at what difference sever. all that thou speakest, that all Men may be Truth eve thee on thy bare word, and then thou Speaking. wilt never have occasion to confirm it by very possible he may be deceived in thinking it so far off an Oath, to make it more credible, which is the one colour or reason can at any time be pretended for Swear

12. Thirdly, Observe what it is that Forfalling it not becays thee to this in , whether eccasions.

日屋在自日日本初日日里日配与山西

druk, or anger, or the company and example of other, what ever elfe; and then if ever thou mean to forfat

this lin, for fake those occasions of it.

Reverence of heart with a continual reverence of God, and if that once grow into a cuftom with thee, it will quickly turn out that contrary one of prophaning. Use and accustom thy self therefore this reverence of God, and particularly to fuch a re-fract to his Name, as, if it be possible, never to mention it, without some lifting up of thy heart to him. Eyen in thy ordinary discourse, when-ever thou takest his Name into thy Mouth, let it be an occasion of raising up the oughts to him, but by no means permit thy felf in le it in idle by words, or the like. If thou doll acculton thy felf to pay this reverence to the bare mention of his Name, it will be an excellent fence against the prophaning it in Oaths.

14. A Fifth means, is a diligent and Watchfulness, constant watch over thy felf, that thou thus offend not with thy tongue, withour which, all the former will come to nothing.
And the last means is Prayer, which must be added to all thy endeavours; therefore

Pray earnestly, that God will enable thee to overcome this wicked cultom, fay with the Pfalmift, Set a watch, O Lord, over my mouth, and keep the door of my lips.' And if thou doft fincerely fet thy felf to the use of means for it, thou may't be affured God will not be wanting in his affift. nce. I have been the longer on this, because it is fo reigning a fin ; God in his Mercy give all that are guilty of it a true fight of the heincomes of it.

What it is to nouring God's Name, you may underconcur God's fland what is the duty of honouring its wie. a first abitaining from every one of an awful respect and reverence to that Sacred Name which Great, Wonderful, and Holy, Pfal. 99.3. I have now self through the feveral branches of that great Dury lonouring of God.

SUNDAY

of Worship due to God's Name. Of Prayer and its several parts. Of Publick Prayers in the Church, in the Family. Of Private Prayer. Of Repentance, &c. Of Fasting.

God is WORSHIP, this is that great Dury by which especially we acknowledge his Godhead, Worthin leing proper onely to God, and therefore it is to be look'd on as a most weighty Dury. This is to be performed, first, by our Souls: secondly, by our Bodies. The Souls part is Praying. Now Prayer is a Prayer, its speaking to God, and there are divers parts parts, of it, according to the different things about which we speak.

the acknowledging our fins to God. And Confession.

this may be either general or particular, the general is, when we onely confess in gross that we are singular, the particular, when we mention the several forts and acts of our sins. The former is necessary to be always a part of our Solemn Prayers, whether Publick or hiver. The latter is proper for Private Prayer, and there the offerer it is used, the hetter; yea, even in our daily Private Prayer, it will be fit constantly to remember some of our greatest and foulest sins, though never so long since past to such we should never think sufficiently consessed and bewalled. And this bewalling soult always yo along with Confession; we must be heartly forty for the singular confess, and from our Souls acknowledge our own great unworthiness in having committed them. For our Confession is not intended to instruct God, who know our situ much better than our selves do; but it is to humble our selves, and therefore we must not think to have

Ca

3. The

3. The fecond part of Prayer is Persion Patition. that is, the begging of God whatfoever want, either for our Souls or Bodies. For our Souls, we must first beg pardon of Sins, and Souls. that for the fake of Jelus Christ, who thed is blood to obtain it. Then we must also be the grace and affishance of God's Spirit, to enable us forfake our fins, and to walk in obedience to him. And herein it will be needful particularly to beg all the several Vertues, as Faith, Love, Zeal, Purity, Repentance, and the like; but especially those which thou most wanted and therefore observe what thy wants are, and if thou herein the for Chastiry; and so for all other Graces, occording as thou findest thy needs. And in all these things that concern thy Soul; be very earnest and importunate, take no denial from God, nor give over, though thou has praisently obtain what thou sueff for. But if thou has a praisently obtain what thou sueff for. But if thou has praisently obtain what thou sueff for. But if thou has praisently obtain what thou fuest for. But if thou has a praisently obtain what thou fuest for. But if thou has praisently obtain what thou fuest for. But if thou has praisently obtain what thou fuest for. But if thou has never so long Prayed for a Grace, and yet sindest in now, do not grow weary of Praying, but rather search was the cause may be which makes thy Prayer so inessection. to God to enable there to conquer fome fin, and yet never goeft about to fight against it, never makelt any resistance but yieldest to it as often as it comes, nay, puttest they self its way, in the road of all Temptations. If it be thus, no wonder though they Prayers avail not, for thou wilt not leaten. Therefore Amend this, and set to the doing of the them. pair fincerely, and then thou needeft not fear but God will do his.

4. Secondly, we are to Perition also for our Bodies , that is, we are to Ask of God fuch Bedier. ceffaries of Life, as are needful to us while as his Wildom fees best for us: We must not prefun be our own Carvers, and Pray for all that Wealth or G ness which our own vain hearts may perhaps defire a concly for such a Condition, in respect of outward this as he fees may most tend to those great ends of our vine here, the Glorifying him, and the saving of nd 5. In Duty of Preyer, 300 and third part of Prayer is Deprecation, that is, when we Pray to God to Deprecation turn away fome evil from us. Now the svil may be either the evil of Sin, or the svil of Punishment. The evil of fin is Of Sin, that we are especially to Pray against, most easnessly begging of God, that he will, by the power of his Grace, preserve us from falling into sin, And what-ever sins they are, to which shou knowest the self most inclined, there be particularly earnest with God to preserve thee from them. This is to be done daily but then more especially, when we are under any preseattemparion, and in danger of falling into any sin, in which case we have reason to cry out as St. Peter did, when he found himself sinking, Save, Lend, or I prosphhumbly beseeching him either to withdraw the Tempuation, or strengthen us to withstand it, neither of which we can do for our selves.

6 Secondly, We are likewise to Pray

6. Secondly . We are likewife to Pray against the evil of Punishment, but principally against Spiritual Punishments, as the ment, against Spiritual Punishments, as the ment, against God, the withdrawing of his Grace, and exernal Damuation, Against these we can never pray with no much earnestness, But we may also Pray gainst Temporal Punishments, that is, any outward as suit Temporal Punishments, that is, any outward as suit on, but this with submission to God's Will, according to the example of Christ, Matth 26. 39, Not as I will, be as then wilt.

7. A fourth part of Prayer is Intercellion, that is, Praying for others. This in. Intercelling general we are to do for all Mankind, as well firangers as acquaintance, but more particularly those to whom we have any especial relation, either publick, as our Governours both in Church or State or givene, as Parents, Husbands. Wife, Children, Friends to. We are also to Pray for all that are in Affliction such particular persons as we discern especially to be constructed to Pray for those that have done as Paper, the that despitefully ase and persente as, for it is rerectly the command of Christ, Matth. 5, 44, and that thereof he bath likewise given in the highest example, in traying even for his very Cruciners, Link; 21, 34. Fatter
C. 10 7. A fourth part of Prayer is Intercelli-

76. The Mhole Duty of Han

firgive them. For all these sorts of persons we can propy, and that for the very same good things we begood for our selves, that God would give them in selveral places and callings all Spiritual and Temporal hings which he sees warking to them, and turn away fro them all evil, whether of in or punishment.

Thanksglving. giving, that is, the praising and blessen God for all his Mercies, whether to or own persons, and those that immediately relate to us, or to the Church and Nation whereof we are Members, or you more general to all Mankind; and this for all his Mercies both Spiritual and Temporal. In the Spiritual, first or those wherein we are all in common concerned, the giving of his Son, the sending of his Spirit, and those means he hath used to bring sinful Men unto him self. Then, Secondly, for those Mercies we have in own particulars received, such are the having been bowithin the Pale of the Church, and so brought up in Christian Religion, by which we have been partakend those precious advantages of the Word and Sacrament and so have had, without any care or pains of ours, the Mems of eternal life put into our hands. But before these, there is none of us but have received other Spiritual Mercies from God.

Spiritual fuffering, waiting for our Repentance, and Acroies. not cutting us off in our fins. Secondly, he calls and invitations of us to that repentance, not onely outward in the Ministry of the Woodbur also inward by the motions of his Spirit, But the if thou be one that but by the help of God's Grace betwrought upon by these calls, and brought from a prophn or worldly, to a Christian course of Life, their art furthin the highest degree tied to magnific and praise his good rules, as having received from him the greatest of Ministry.

Temperal. Temporal Bleffings, whether fuch as one ceft the Publick, as the prosperity of the Church or Nation, and all remarkable deliverances of forder to edge a or edge factor connects our particular.

all the good things of this life which we enjoy alth Friends, Food, Raiment, and the like, also have minutely preservations, whereby we are by gracious Providence kept from danger, and the deliverances which God hath given us in the time present Perils. It will be impossible to fer down the and they differ in kind and degree between one Man th yet enough to employ his whole life in Praifes to led. And it will be very fit for every Man to confider the coral passages of his Life, and the Mercies he hath in ach received, and so to gather a kind of List or Cata-gue of them, at least the principal of them, which he my always have in his Memory, and often with a thankis. These are the several parts of on Publickly, and Privately. The in the Church.

Publick use of them is first, that in the Church, where all Meet to joyn in those Prayers wherein they are in common concerned. And in this where the Prayers are fuch as they ought to be) we hould be very conftant, there being an electial bleffing promifed to the joynt-requests of the Faithful, and he that without a necessary cause absents himself from such Publick Prayers, cuts himfelf off from the Church, which hach always been thought so unhappy a thing, that it is the greatest punishment the Governours of the Church can midness for Men to inflict it upon themselves.

12. A fecond fort of Publick Prayer is that in a Family, where all that are In the Fas Members of it joyn in their common implications; and this also ought to be ry carefully attended to, first, by the Master of the Va much his part thus to provide for the Souls of his children and Servants, as to provide food for their so-Therefore there is none, even the meanest ho but ought to take this care. If either himse of his Family can read, he may use some Prayers of some good Book, if it be the Service Book of Church, he makes a good choice, if they cannot it will chembe necessary they should be taught will book some form of Prayer, which they may use in Family, for which purpose again some of the other Prayer should be taught will be very fit, as being most can their memories by reason of their shormess, and yet taking a great deal of matter. But what choice so they make of Prayers, let them be sure to have some let no Man, that professes himself a Christian, keep the strength a Family, as not to see God be daily won bed in it. But when the Master of a Family hath a his duty in this providing, it is the duty of every Men his duty in this providing, but the duty of every Men of it to make use of that provision, by being constant diligent at those Family Prayers.

The culture with the

14. Private or fecret Prayer is which is used by a Man alone Private Prayer. from all others, wherein we are to more particular according to our particular needs, in publick it is fit to be. And this of private Prayer dury which will not be excused by the performance of other of publick. They are both required, and one a not be taken in eathange for the other. And who e is diligent in Publick Prayers, and yet negligent in vate, it is much to be feared he rather feeks to approhimfelf to Men than to God, contrary to the Command our Saviour, Matth. 6. who enjoyns this Private Praying to our Father in feerer, from whom alone are to expect our reward, and not from the vain praise. of Men.

14. Now this duty of Prayer is to often performed by mone felder than Evening and Morning, it be most necessary that we should thus Ettenner in Prayall our works with God, and that not on owe him, but also in respect to biner prosperous or fafe, ommaine our felves to bim; and therefore floud the to venture on the perils either of day or night to in fareguard. How much officer this dury is a submural, must be judged according to the busin befined as Men improfitably trake to themselver, in moretary buttness of a Man's Calling, which is to move will not afford them much sime for sex and observer. But even these Men may often in a day lift has hearth to God in some short Frayers, even whill as at their work. As for those that have more leisting the in all reason to bestow more time upon this durant sex no Man that can find time to bestow upon and fer no Man that can find time to beltow upon his mindes, nay, perhaps his fins, fay, he wants leifure for hiver; but let him now endesvour to redeen what he han mil-spent, by imploying more of that leifure in this day for the future. And surely if me did but rightly weigh how much The Advantages is nour own advantage to perform of Proyer. This day, we should think it wisdom to be as frequent as we are ordinarily seldom in it.

GENERAL REPORT &

15. For First, it is a great Honour for a poor Worms of the earth, to be al-Honour, owned to speak so freely to the Majesty of Heaven. If a King should but vouchfase to let me of his meanest Subjects talk familiarly and freely with tim, it would be look'd on as a huge honour, that Man, to wdespicable soever he were before, would thus be did not of all his neighbours, and stere is little machine he would be willing to take all opportunities of meaning to

to be willing to take all opportunities of receiving to the last this is recthing to the host red us, who are allowed, may, invised to fresh to red us, who are allowed, may, invised to fresh to red us, who are allowed, may, and therefore how it should we in all reason be to it?

Scondly, It is a great Benefit, every scondly, It is a great Benefit, every stratefit that can be imagined. For each the infirment of fetching down and things to us, whether Spiritual or tryer, that is qualified to it ought to be ing them a Heffing, according to Man, Ecclos. 35. 17. The proper of the is stood, and will not turn actor till the try would think him a happy Manually means of helping him to whatever him were to coft him much pains and him.

thou thinkest thou wantest, yet all thus indeed thou doe that is, all that God sees it for thee. And therefore there never so much weariness to thy sees in the du yet considering in what continual want thou standed something or other from God, it is a madness to level uncasiness disheaven thee, and keep thee from this so in many of supplying the wants means of supplying thy wants.

Pleafantnefs.

17. But in the third place, this dury is in it felf to far from being uneafie, mar-happiness, and at his right-hand are pleasures for everyone, Plat. 16. 11. And therefore the nearer we draw to him, the happier we must needs be, the very Joys of Heaven arising from our nearness to God. Now i life we have no way of drawing so near to him, as by th of Prayer, and therefore furely it is that which in felf is apt to afford abundance of delight and p fire; if it feem otherwise to us, it is from some distemper our own hearts, which, like a fick palate, cannot the most pleasant Mean. Prayer is a pleasant dury, to is withall a Spiritual one; and the Carnality one reason fore if thy heart be carnal, if the

for of its feering fet either on the contrary pleasure the fless, or dross of the world marvel then if thou take no fure in it, if, like the Ifraelites, thou despile Moma, thou longest after the Flest-pots of Egyps. There shou find a wearine is in this dury, suspect thy self, parant refine thy heart from the love of all sin, and end your to put it into a heavenly and spiritual frame, a then then will find this no unpleasing exercise that fill ind this no unpleasant exercise, but full the duty, but of the untowardness of

18. But there may be also anot Went of afe, a reason of its seeming unpleasant to us, where that is want of use. You know there many things which seem unease at first trial, which yes, after we are accustomed to the form very delightful, and if this be thy case, then knowell a ready cure, vie. to use a ofiner: and so deration naturally enforces the exhortation, of being equens in this chay.

TO DUTY TOWN OF SELECT

the we are not onely to confider

to worken, but how well we perform To ask subling a Now to do it well, we are to reinch first the matter of our Prayers, to bok that we ask nothing that is unlawful, as revenge opor our Enemies, or the like: Secondly, the matter; and that must be first, in Faith; we must believe, that if we ask as we ought, God To Aik in will either give us the thing we ask for, or effe something which he sees better for a And then, Secondly, in Humility; we for must acknowledge our selves unterly unworthy of any of those good things we are for, and therefore suc for them unely for Christ's sake.
Thirdly, with attention; we must mind
what we are about, and not suffer our With Attenti-what we are about, and not fuffer our With of other things. I told you at the first, the Prayer was the business of the Soul, but if our minds be wandring, it is the work onely of the tongue and lips, which make it in God's account no better than vain ba-bling, and so will never bring a bleffing on us. Nay, as Jack said to his Mother, Gm. 27, 12, it will be more likely to bring a curse on us than a bleffing, for it is a profining one of the most solemn parts of God's tervice, to a piece of hypocrific, the drawing may to him with our lip, when our hearts are far from him, and a great slight-ing and despissing that dreadful Majesty we come before, and as to our selves, it is a most ridiculous folly, that we who come to God upon such weighty errands, as are all the concernments of our Souls and Bodies. Sould in the midd forget our business, and pursue every the lightest thing, that either our own vain funcies, or the Devil, whose butinels it is here to hinder us, can offer to us. It is just as if a Malefactor, that comes to fue for his life to th Ame, should, in the midst of his Supplication, happen to cipie a Burrer-flie, and then should leave his suit, and rem a chase after that Burrer-flie, would you not think it pity a Pardon should be cast away upon so wretched acrea-ture? And fure it will be as unreasonable to expect, that God Bould suchd and grant those suits of our, we do not at all consider our selves.

Cur medi.

the are to Ask. not be heard, ble; and yet th

This wanding in Prayer is a we are much concerned to arm felves against, it being that to whis are naturally wonderfully proceeds end it will be necessary. For possess, we are to the process of the selfy we are to approach, that may dread to be vain and triss his presence. Secondly, we are to fider the great concernment of the some whereof are such and to the some whereof are such and the some whereof are such and the some whereof are such and the some whereof are such as a such and the such as a such fider the great transmission of the times are to Ask, fome whereof are shelp, that if we so not be heard, we are of all consumes the most midble, and yet this wandring is the way to keep us from ing heard. Thirdly, we are to beg Garages for Aid in this particular; and there when thou fetted to Prayer, let the Precision be for this grace of Attention 21. Lastly, he as watchful as is put over thy hear in time of Prayer, or known all wandring thoughts; or, if have gotten in her them not find entertainment, but one moment, but tast them out with indignation, and God's parties for them. And if thou dott-this since and diligently strive against them, either God will enter in some measure to overcome, or he will in his Manually the wint thou can't not prevent; but if a intrough thy own negligence, thou are to expect near the long as that negligence continues.

o long as that negligence continues.

as. In the Fourth place, we must be Web Zed.

th Zeal. our Prayers be with zeal and earnest it is not enough that we so far a ern, as barely to know what it is we say, but we to the affection and devotion of our Soulant according to the several parts of Prayer beentlosed. It is not the cold faint request that wi stain from God, we see it will not from our selver a Beggar should ask relief from us, and do it in ornful manner, that he feem'd indifferent whet ar no, we hould think he had either little want, or pride, and so have no heart to give him. Now the things we ask of God are so much above the of an ordinary Alms, due we can never expect sould be given to slight and heartless perisonates in like manner will our Sacrifice of Praise and theiring ever be accepted by him, if it be not offered a heart truly affected with the sense of his mercies, as a kind of formal complementing, which will never proved by him who requires the heart, and not the nell. And the like may be said of all the other of Frayer. Therefore be careful when thou drawest to God in Priyer, to raise up thy Soul to the highest of year and expressible thou are able. And because the fire of Devotion, and when thou hast-obtained it, in that thou neither quench it by any wilful fin, nor go our again for want of stirring it up and employe as I fifthly, we must pray with purito I mean, we must pray with purito I mean, we must pray with purito I mean, we must purpe our hearts. With Purity, tom all affections to fin. This is furely to meaning of the Apostle, I lime 2. 8, when he commands there is one special fort of fin. Weath and Doubting, there by doubting is meant those unkind disputes and committee by doubting is meant those unkind disputes and committee which are so common amongst men. And musty he that cheristee that, or any other sin in his heart, an never lift up those holy hands which are required in the duty; then since his prayers, be they never a tom or earnest, will little avail him, the Pfalmist will all him he shall not be heard, Pfal. 66, 18. If I regard to the implicant, the Lord will not have made in a alpointation to the Lord. And thus to have the arrowers turned into sin, is one of the heavier chings that an alpoint in the same we see it is set down in that the lattice of Carries, Pfal. 100.7. Therefore let us not be to true to our selves, as to get it upon our own, he dethick we constitute do, if we offer an prayers from an

24. In the last place we must dire 25 right mais, our Prayers to right ends, and that eith in respect of the prayer it self, or the thir
we pray for. First, we must pray not to gain the pra of devotion amongst men, like those Hypocities, Man 6.5. nor yet onely for company or famion-lake to as others do, but we must do it, sirt, as attact of we thin to God, secondly, man acknowledgment; that he that prest Spring, from whence alone we expect all goo things; and thirdly, to gain a supply of our own of others needs. Then in respect of the things prayer we must be sure to have no ill sime upon them; to must not ask that we may employe it now are suffe, join 4.3. as those do who pray for wealth, that they may live in vice and excess; and for power, that they may able to mischief their enemies, and the like. But our enin all must be God's glory first, and next that, our own an others falvation; and all other things must be taken it onely as they rend to those, which they can heve do we abuse them to fin. I have now done with that first par of Worship, that of the Soul.

of Wormip, that of the Soul.
25. The other is that of the Body, me

Bedily Weship. that is nothing else but such humble an reverent gestures in our approaches working a may both express the inward reverence of our Souls, and may also pay him some Tribute from our very Bodies, with which the Apostle commands is glorific God, as well as with our Souls, and good reason, fines he hash created and redeemed the one us well as the other. Whenfoever therefore thou offerelt my process of mind, according to that of the Plalmift, P. 25. 6. O case let us werfore, let us fall down and knowledge the Lord was Plakes.

the Ninth DUTY to God is R PENTANCE: That this is a D Repeat ance.

to God, we are stught by the Apoli AG: 20.21. where speaking of Repentance, he styles topour one towards God. And there is good reason t would be a duty to him, fince there is no sin we comm is either mediately or immediately against him. the there be fine both against our selves and our ne jet they being forbidden by God, they are also erof his Commandments, and so fine against him, fall our former evils, and instead fin to God.

constantly practifing all those en duties which God requireth of us. And this is offery a duty, that without it twe certainly perish : have Christ's word for it, Lake 13. 5. Except ye fepant, all all likewise perish.

7. The directions for performing the feveral parts of duty have been already given in the preparation, to

Lord's Supper, and thither I referr the Reader. Onely out'd upon as a duty to be practifed on- Times for this yet the time of receiving the Sacrament. duty. for this being the onely remedy against the poison of fin, we must renew it as mean, we must every day repent of the fins of that day. For what Christ saith of other evils, is true also of this. Sufficient to the day is the evil thereof, we have fine merefore every men must thus daily call himself to

Daily?

28. But as it is in accounts, they who At fet-times. contantly fet down their daily exore, have yet some set times of casting up the whole imm, as at the end of the week or month; fo should it is be here, we should set aside some time to hum ble our felves folemnly before God for the line, nor of the day onely, but of our whole lives, and the frequency these times are, the better, for the offiner we thus cast up our accounts with God, and see what vall deby we are run in to him, the more humbly shall we think of our selves, and the more shall thirst after his meror, which two are the special things that must qualine as for his pardon. He therefore that can affigu himfelf one day in the week for this purpose, will take a driving course for his Soul: Or if any man's state of life to busie, es not to afford him time to do it so often, les him yet come as near to that frequency as is possible for him, remembring always, that none of his worldly ploymens can bring him in near to gainful a runthis spiritual one will do, and therefore 'tis very ill bandry to pursue them to the neglect of this.

86. The authors wat por wan

In the time of afare likewise occasional times for performance of this duty, fish esally are the sintes of calaming and fliction, for when any such betals us, we are to look of as a message sent from Heaven to call us to this duty, therefore must never neglect it when we are thus moned to it, left we be of the number of those who said the challes sent the Lord, Heb. 12.3.

At death. pentance, which, in the practice of hath porten away the custom from thole, and that is the time of death, which, it is true, if a to very fit to renew our repentance, but fure not proper to gin it, and it is a most desperare madness for men to at till then: for, to say the mildest of it, it is the verturi our Souls upon such miserable uncertainties as no wise a would trust with any thing of the least value.

would trust with any thing of the least value.

For hist, I would ask any a

The danger of dethat means to repent at his de ferring it till then, how he knows he shall have an h eime for it? Do we not delle thall not be his own case? But secondly, suppose he has more leisurely death, that some disease give him was ing of its approach, yet perhaps he will not understand that warning, but will fill flatter himself, as very of lick people do, with hopes of life to the last, and so death may be sudden to him, though it comes by me so flow degrees. But again, thirdly, if he do disease danger, yet how is he sure he shall then be able repent? Repentance is a grace of God, not at our mand, and it is just and usual with God, when have a long time refused and rejected that Grace sifted all his calls and invitations to conversion and amount, to give them over at last to the hardness of the own hearts, and not to afford them any more of Grace they have so despised. Yet suppose in the so that God in his infinite patience should ftill condie offer of that Grace to thee, yet thou that half d, it may be thirty, or forty, or fifty years together, knowest thou, that thou shalt put off that habit of ce upon a fudden, and make ple race afforded? It is fure thou The difadvamages my more advantages rowards of a death-bed re-

I. For first, the longer fin hath kept The custom of fine

the no drive it out. It is true, if repensance were ing but a present ceating from the acts of fin, the bodd were furest for it, for then we are disabled committing most fine; but I have formerly thewis, repentance contains much more than fo, there he in it a fincere harred of fin, and love of God. bow unlikely is it, that he which hath all his level fin, cherified it in his bosom, and on the may abhorred God and Goodness, should in an inquise change his affections, hate the fin he lo-and love God and goodness, which before he unthy hand?

1. And secondly, the bodily pains Bodily pains.

2. And secondly, the bodily pains Bodily pains.

3. And secondly pains.

3. And secondly pains.

3. And secondly pains.

3. And secondly pains.

4. And secondly pains.

4. And secondly pains.

4. And secondly pains.

4. And secondly pains.

5. And secondly pains.

6. And secondly p

the freshest.

1. Consider those disadvantages Danger of the must shee struggle with, and then successive must shee struggle with, and then successive me what shope there is thou shalt to that, which now upon much easier terms thou is not. But in the third place, there is a danger and beyond all these, and that is, that the repensation death drives a Man to, will not be a true cutance for in such a case it is plain, it is onely the total pass him on it, which though it may be a cold beginning, where there is time after to perfect it; where it goes alone, it can never avail for salvation, where there is time after to perfect it; within death-bed repentances are often onely of this is too likely, when it is observed, that many men, who have feemed to repent when they have death approaching, have yet, after it hath n to reftore them to health, been as wicked (perhaps as ever they were before, which shews plainly, it was no real change in them, and then such a man died in that seeming repentance. tries the heart, would not have accepted it, which was unfuncte. When all these dangers are laid or ir will furely appear a most desperate adventure man to truft to a death-bed repentance. Nor le the less for that example of the penitent Thief, I 43. which is by many fo much depended on fure, his case and ours differ widely; he had never of Christ before, and so more could not be exp him, than to embrace him as foon as he was tend him: but we have had him offered, nay, preft from our Cradles, and yet have rejected him. But i were not this difference, it is but a faint hope raifed only from a fingle example, and another nor in the whole Bible. The Ifraelites, we read fed wah Manna from Heaven, but would you not this flark mad, that should, out of expectation of th negled to provide himself any food? Yet it is reasonable to depend upon this example as the od conclude all in the words of the Wife man, Eccle

34. To this Duty of Repentance, is very proper to be annexed; the Sor usually joyns them rogisther. Among the the great day of Atonement was to be kept win string, as you may see by comparing Levit. 16. 31. Ma. 58. 5. and this by God's especial appointment in the Prophets, when the People are called on to and humble themselves, they are also called on to Thus it is, Joel 2. 12. Therefore now thus said the Thron 32 unto me with all your hearts, with saling with weeping, Arc. Yea, so proper hath salling becounted to humiliation, that we see even wicked would not omit it in his, 2 Kings 21. 27. nor the Hes Amonites in theirs, Jonab 3. 5. Nor is it less since acceptable fince Christ, than it was before him, to Remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth, be evil days come.

er it a a dury fometimes to be performed gives directions to avoid vain-glory in it, and also affores us, that if it be performed the performed the performed by him. And accordingly we find it practised Saints, Luke 3. 27. Anna Served God wirb fasting or of God, fit to be joyned with proyers. And the ans of the first times were generally very frein the practice of it. Now though fasting be esperager to a time of humiliation, yet is it not so red to it, but it may be seasonable, whensoever we any extraordinary thing to request from God. when Effice was to endeavour the deliverance of copie from defiruction, the and all the Year kept a ann Fait, Effh. 4. 16. and thus when Paul and Barna-gers to be ordained Apostles, there was fasting joyned tayer, Al. 13. 3. And so it will be very fit for us, calcever we have need of any extraordinary dire-tions or affistance from God, whether concerning our tors or spiritual concernments, thus to quicken our tay of the concernments. by falting. But above all occasions, this of huminiferms most to require it, for besides the advantor kindling our zeal, which is never more necessary when we beg for pardon of sins, fashing carries in it what of revenge, which is reckon'd as a special part of chance, 2 Cor. 7. 11: for by denying our bodies the ment of our ordinary food, we inflict formewhat of punishment Fasting a revenge

of what-ever other fin we at the time accuse our selves of, which is a proper effect of the indignation which every finner ought to have against himself. And truly he that is so tender of himself, the he can never find in his heart so much as to miss a meal, by way of punishment for his faults, shews he is not much fall'n our with himself for committing them, and so want that indignation which the Apost le in the forenamed Tens mentions as a part of true repentance.

boly revenges upon our felves for Such revenges ac-yet we must not think that either or any thing else we can do, confinishation for our Offences, for it thing but the Blood of Chris Tet no fatisfa-Him for fins.

do. And therefore on that, and not on any o performances, we must depend for pardon. Yes the Blood shall never be applied to any but tent sinners, we are as much concerned to bring for the fruits of repentance, as if our hopes depended them onely.

36. How often this dury of fatting is Times of fa- be performed, we have no direction Scripture, that must be allotted by mo fling.

ther confiderations will allow. But as it is in humiliation, the frequencer returns we have of fet-times for it, the better, fo it is likewise in fashing, the offerer, the better, so it is not huntful either to our healths, or to some other dur required of us. Nay perhaps, fashing may help some me to more of those times for humiliation, than they would otherwise gain. For perhaps there are some, who cannot, without a manifest hindrance to their Calling, allow a whole day to that work, wet such an one may at the whole day to that work, yet fuch an one may at le afford that time he would otherwise spend in eating. And so fasting will be doubly useful towards such a man's he miliation, both by helping him in the duty, and gaining him time for it.

37. I have now gone through the first branch of or Dury to God, to wit, the acknowledging him for our God.

The second is, the having no other Second branch Of which I need say little, as it is a few of our duty to bidding of that groffer form of Hennenh Idolatry, the worthipping of Idols, which though it were over common in though it were once common in the world, yet is now to fare, that it is not likely any the all read this will be concerned in it. Onely I m fay, That to pay Divine Worship to any Creature, be's Saint or Angel, yea, or the Image of Christ himself, sa transgression against this second Branch of our Duty o God, it being the imparting that to a Creature which is due onely to God, and therefore is strictly to be a thained from

of Inward Idolatry, &c.

there is another fort of Idolatry to we are generally guilty; and laward lie when we pay those Affections of larry.

Fear, Truft, and the like, to any Creata higher degree than we do to God; for that is ming up that thing, whatfoever it is, for our God, his inward kind of Idolatry is that which provokes to jealousie, as well as the outward of worshipping of I might enlarge much upon this, but because severals of it have been touch'd on in the former are, I suppose it needless, and therefore shall now and to the Second Head of DUTY, that to our LVES.

A Bolding St.

SUNDAY VL

De totale Dugar ge

SUNDAY. VI.

Duty to our Selves; of Sobriety; of Humilio the great fin of Pride; of wain-glory, the da ger, folly; the means to prevent it: Of Ma nels, 860.

Sed t. /

Duty to ou

His DUTY to SELVES is, by Paul, in the mentioned Text, 2, 12, firmured up this one word, Solerly. Now by [Solerly] is mean keeping within those due bounds which God hath set My business will therefore be to tell you what are the psiculars of this solviery: and that, first, in respect of the Body. The solviery the Soul, secondly, in respect of the Body. The solviery the Soul stands in right governing its passions and affect one, and to that are many vertues required. I shall go you the particulars of them.

3. The first of them is Humility, who themility. The brit of them is Humility, the line of the may well have the prime place, not on in respect of the excellency of the Virbut also of its usefulness towards the obtaining of the reft. This being the foundation on which all out must be built; and he that stopes to gain then with this, will prove but like that foolid Builder Cheld to of Lake 6. 49. We built his hooft to be find. Of the mility towards God I have directly spoken, and he the accessive of it. I am now to speak of humility to screffary than the former,

3. This Humility is of two forts; the fact is having a mean and low opinion of our fewer. The fee is. The being coursest, that others should have so of us. first of these is contrary to pride, the other to value of and that both these are table to procellary to scerns our felves, which will be found to be done by laying before you, First, the first Se-dite danger; Thirdly, the contrary vaca-ting first, for Pride; the fin of it is and first, for Pride; the fin of it is tent, that it cast the Angels out of The great Se-and therefore if we may judge of Pride.

by the punishment, it was not the first, but the greatest fin that ever the Devil of of the heinouthers of it, than the extreme hatefulthe Devil, we may frequently find in the Sailers: Prov. 16.3. Every one that is presed in heart, is on the land of feveral things the Lord hares, a Proud took is fee as the first of them. So James 4. 7. God rolling Press, and divers other Texts there are to the purpole, which shews the great hatred God bears the fin of Pride. Now since it is certain, God, who is a goodness, hates nothing but as it is needful, it must need follow, that where God hares in so great a degree, here must be a great degree of evil.

5. But Secondly, PRIDE is not onely that, first, in respect of drawing us to Drawing into other size; Secondly, of bearing us to other size; Secondly, of bearing us to other size; Secondly, Pride draws us to other size; wherein it shows it self indeed to be the distance size; wherein it shows it self indeed to be the distance size.

where time; wherein it shows it self indeed to be the direct contrary to humility; for as that is the root of all same to is this of all vice. For he than is proud, feet himself to as other Rules or Laws than what he makes to himself to as other Rules or Laws than what he makes to himself to another Rules or Laws than what he makes to himself to add, feet the Pfall to 4. where you see, it is his paide to that he is prepared for the commission of all see that he is prepared for the commission of all see that he is prepared for the commission of all see that he wise that he is prepared for the commission of all see that he wise that he is prepared for the commission of all see that he wise that feet as the effect of bride. Prov. 11. 22. This is transfer to the off-spling of Pride, Prov. 11. 22. This has gone to be the off-spling of Pride, Prov. 11. 22. This has gone to be the off-spling of Pride, Prov. 11. 22. This has pride contact Contention.

indeed most natural effects of Pride; for he observance from others, and therefore cannot b e and quarrel when ever he thinks it not fufficien It would be infinite to mention all the fruits of ri inter root; I hall name but one more, and that is, Pride not onely betrays us to many fins, but also make hem incurable in us, for it hinders the working of all emedies.

6. Those remedies must either come from God or Man, if from God, the Frustrating must be either in the way of meekness Remedies. and gentleness, or else of sharpness and

Now if God by his goodness essay to lead a unithment. Proud Man to repentance, he quite mistakes God's meaning, and thinks all the Mercies he receives are but the reward of his own defert, and so long 'tis fure he will n ver think he needs Repentance. But if on the other fid God use him more sharply, and lay Afflictions and Punishments upon him, those in a proud heart work nothing but Murmurings and Hating of God, as if he did him inury in those Punishments. As for the remedies that can e used by Man, they again must be either by way of Correction, or Exhortation. Corrections from Man will fure never work more on a proud heart, than those from God; for he that can think God unjust in them, will much rather believe it of Man. And Exhortations will do as little; for let a proud Man be admonished, though never to mildly and lovingly, he looks on it as a diffrace. and therefore inflead of confessing or amending the fault. falls to reproaching his reprover as an over-buffe or ious Person, and for that greatest and most precious kindnes, looks on him as his enemy. And no te that thus stubbornly relists all means of Cure, must be oncluded in a most dangerous estate.

7. But befides this danger of fin Betraying to told you there was another, that of nithment, and of this there will no Panifbment. little proof, when it is confidered.

God is the Proud Man's profess'd enemy, that he and relifts him, as appeared in the Texts forestred, then there can be little doubt, that he which hash ides this general ground of conclusion, it may not be saides this general ground of conclusion, it may not be saides this general ground of conclusion, it may not be saides this general ground of conclusion, it may not be said to mention some of those Texts which particularly threaten this sin, as Prov. 16. 18. Pride goeth before a fall. Again, Prov. 16. 1. Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the Lord; Though band joyn in hand, jut they shall not go on particular. The decree it seems is unalterable, and whatever endeavours are used to preserve the proud Man, they are but vain, for he shall go impunished. And this is very remarkable in the story of Nibuchadnet.c.ar, Dan 4. who though a King, the greatest in the World, yet for his side was driven from among Men to dwell and seed with Boand And it is most frequently seen, that this sin meets with very extraordinary Judgments even in this life; but if it should not, let not the Proud Man thisk that he hather aped God's vengeance, for it is sure there will be a most said reckoning in the next; for if God spared not the langels for this sin, but cast them into Hell, let no Man hope to speed better.

The Sin of Pride, &c

8. In the Third place I am to thew you the great folly of this fin , and to do that, The Felly.

it will be necessary to confider the feveral things whereof Men use to be proud; they are of three fores, either those which we call the Goods of Nature, or the Goods of Forume, or the Goods of Grace.

9. By the Goods of Nature I mean Beauty, Strength, Wir, and the like; and Is reflect the being proud of any of these is a huge the Unit of folly. For first, we are very spt to mistake Nature, and think our selves handsome, or witty.

when we are not; and there cannot be a more ridiculous folly than to be proud of what we have not, and fuct every one effects it in another Man, though he never tippoles it his own case, and so never discerns it in himself. And therefore there is nothing more despicable smoogh all Men, than a Proud Fool; yet no Man that enterrains high opinions of his own Wie, but is in danger to be thus acceled, a Man's own Judgment of himself being of all then the least to be trusted. But, Secondly, suppose we be not out in our Judging, yet what is there in any of these times. Endowments which is worth the being Proud.

there being fearce any of them which force course of the hard not in a greater degree than Man? How make the whiteness of the Lily, and the redress of the Kose exceed the white and red of the fairest base. What a Multimade of Creatures is there, that far supposed in frength and swiftness? and diven others them are, which, as far as concern any useful end of them act much more wisely than most of us, and are therefore the most of us, and are therefore finely great unreasonableness for us to think highly of our selves for such things as are common to us with Beatts and Plants. But Thirdly, if they were as excellent as we fainle them, yet they are not at all durable, they are impaired and lost by sundry means; a Phrenzy will destroy the rarest wir, a fickness decay the freshelp beauty, the greatest strength, or however, Old Age will be sure to do all. And therefore to be Proud of them is again a folly in this respect. But lastly, what ever the are, we gave them not so our selves. No Man can think he did any thing towards the procuring his named beauty or wit, and so can with no reason value himself for them.

The Goods of great to be proud of the Goods of Forume, by them, I mean Weakh, and Hopour, and the like; for it is sure, they add nothing of true worth to the Man, somewhat of ourward comp and Bravery they may help him to, but that makes no change in the Person. You may load an Assum Money, or deck him with rich Trappings, yet full you will not make him a whit the nobler kind of Beast by extret of them. Then Secondly, these are things we take no hold of, they vanish many times ere we are a true, he that is rich to day, may be poor to morrow, and then well be the less pixted by all in his powery, the Pouler he was when he was rich. Thirdly, we have them all but as Stewards, to lay out for our Masser's us and therefore should rather think how to make our Account, than pride our selves in our Receipts. Lating what ever of these we have, they, as well as the form are not owing to our selves, but if they be lawfill gotten, we owe them onely to God, whose blessing it maketh rich, Prov. 10. 22. If unlawfully, we have estupon fuch terms, that we have very little reason to them. And thus you fee in thefe feveral refeets. filly of this fecond fort of Pride.

The third is that of the Goods of Grace, that is, any Vertue a Man hath. And here I cannot fay, but the things are ve- Grace.

n valuable, they being infinitely more prethe reft the highest folly: and that not onely in the foregoing respect, that we help not our selves to it, Grace being above all things most immediately God's work in as, but especially in this, that the being proud of Grace, is the fure way to lose it. God, who gives Grace to the Humble, will take it from the Proud. For if, as we fee in Parable, Marth, 25.28. the Talent was taken from him who had onely put it to no use at all, How shall he hope to have it continued to him that hath put it to so that instead of trading with it for God, buth traffixed with it for Satan? And as he will lose the Grace for the future, fo he will lose all the reward of it for the time patt. For let a Man have done never fo many good acts, yet if he be proud of them, that pride shall be charg'd on him to his destruction, but the good shall never be remembred to his reward. And this proves it to be a most reached folly to be proud of Grace: It is like that of Children, that pull those things in pieces they are most fond of, but yet much worse than that of theirs, for we not one-ly tose the thing, (and that the most precious that can be suggisted) but we must also be eremally punished for do-ing to, there being nothing that shall be so tally reckon'd for in the next World as the abuse of Grace, and certainly there can be no greater abuse of it, than to make it serve for an end fo directly contrary to that for which it was gi-God, not our felves.

13. Having flewed you thus much of this I improfe it will appear very necessary be eschewed a to which appear it will View

chewed; to which purpole it will mility.

In the confider what hath been had concerning it, and that fo feriously, as may thee not some slight dislike, but a deep and D a preconcleable harred of the fin. Secondly, to be very eachful over thine own heart, that it cherifi not my beginnings of it, never fuffer it to feed on the fancy of thine own worth, but whenever any fuch thought arifes, beat it down immediately with the remembrance of some of thy Follies or Sins, and so make this very motion of Pride an occasion of Humility. Thirdly, never to compare thy self with those thou thirtkest more foolish or wicked than thy felf, that so thou may'st like the Pharifa, Luke 16. 11. extol thy self for being better; but if thou will compare, do it with the wise and godly, and then thou will find thou comest so far short, as may help to pull down thy high esteem of thy self. Lastly, to be very earnest in further, that God would root out all degrees of this sin in thee, and make thee one of those poor in spirit, Matth.

The first of the part of aban.

3. to whom the blessing even of Heaven it self is promised.

Vain-glory. The fecond contrary to Humility I told you was Vain-glory; that is, a great thirst after the Praise of Men. And first, that this is a sin, I need prove no otherwise than by the words of our Saviour, John 5. 44.

How can ye believe that receive Hower one of another? Where it appears, that it is not onely a fin, but fuch a une as hinders the receiving of Christ into the heart, for to believing there fignifies. This then in the second place them you likewise the great dangerousness of this fin, for if it be that which keeps Christ out the Danger. of the heart, it is fure it brings infinite danger, fince all our fafety, all our hope of elements the wrath to come, stands in receiving him but besides the Authority of this Text, common experience show, but where ever this sin hath possession, it considers the praise of Men, that he must at no hand pair with it, whenever the greatest fins come to be in this and Credit (as God knows many are now aday) he will be sure to commit them, rather than the disgrace of being too Single and Precise. I doubt there are many Consciences can wimest the truth of this, so that I need say no more to prove the danger of this Sin.

The Third thing I am to flew, is the folly of it; and that will appear, first, The Felly ther, nothing but a little air, a blaft, the breath of Men. is brings us in nothing of real advantage, for I am male never the wifer nor the better for a Man's faying, I am wife and good. Befides, if I am commended, it mult be either before my face, or behind my back : If the former, it is very often flattery, and so the greatest abuse mar can be offered; and then I must be very much a have not then to much as the pleasure of knowing it and therefore it is a strange folly thus to pursue what is so utterly gainless. But secondly, it is not onely gainless, but painful and uneasse also. He that eagerly seeks praise, is not at all Master of himself, but must fuit all his actions to that end, and in stead of doing what his own Reason and Conscience (nay perhaps his Worldly conveniency) directs him to, he must take care to do what will bring him in commendations, and so enslave himself to every one that hath but a Tongue to com-mend him. Nay, there is yet a further uncasiness in it, and that is, when fuch a Man fails of his aim, when he miffes the praife, and perhaps meet with the contrary reproach, (which is no Man's lot more often than the vainglorious, nothing making a Man more despited) than what disturbances and disquiets, and even torrures of Mind is he under? A lively inftance of this you have in Achitrophel, 2 Sam. 17.23. who had to much of this upon Alfalom's despiting his Counsel, that he chose to rid himself of it by hanging himself. And fure this painfulnes that thus attends this fin, is fufficient proof of the folly of Yet this is not all, it is further very huntful, for if this vain-glory be concerning any good or Christian action, it delitroys all the fruit of it: He that Prays, or gives Alms to be seen of Men, Marth. 6. 2. must take that is his reward, Verily I say unto you, they have their remand, they must expect none from God, but the portion of those Hypocrites, that love the praise of Men more than the praise of God. And this is a miserable folly to make such an exchange: It is like the Dog in the Fable. who feeing in the Water the shadow of that Meat he held in his worth, carch'd at the studow, and so let go he were. Such Dogs, such unreasonable creatures are we were we thus let go the eternal rewards of Heaven to carch at a few good words of Men. And yet we do not such lose those eternal joys, but procure to our selves the contary eternal Miseries, which is sure the highest pitch of folly and madness. But if the vain-glory be not concerning any virtuous action, but onely some indistrementating, yet even there also it is very hurtful; for vain-glory is a in, that wheresoever it is placed, endangers our eternal estate, which is the greatest of all mischaess. And even for the present its observable, that of all other single stands the most in its own light, hinders it self of that very thing it pursues. For there are very sew that thus hurt after praise, but they are discerned to do so, and that a sure to ecclipse what ever praise worthy thing they do and brings scorn upon them instead of reputation. And then certainly we may justly condemn this sin of folly, which is so ill a manager ever of its own design.

DA

Melor against a thing this vain-glory is in these sovain-glory. veral respects, the serious consideration whereof may be one good means to subdue it; to which it will be necessary to add, first, a great warchfulness over thy self; observe narrowly whether in any Christian Duty thou at all considerest the praise of Men, or even in the most indisferent action, look whether thou have not too eager a desire of it; and if thou findest thy self inclined that way, have a very strict eye upon it, and where ever thou findest it stirring; check and resist it, suffer it not to be the end of thy actions: but in all matters of Religion, let by bury be the Motive; in all indifferent things of common life, let Reason direct these: and though thou may'st four a tider in those things the opinion of Men, as no observe the Rules of common decency, yet never think in passe that comes in to thee from any thing of that tind, worth the contriving for. Secondly, set up to the self another aim, viz. that of pleasing God; let the be thy enquiry when thou goest about any thing; whether it be approved by him; and then thou wilt not be at leisure to sousider what praise it will bring the Men. And furely he that weight of how much more moment it is to pleafe God, who is able eternally to reward us, than Man, whose applause can never do us any good, will furely think it reasonable to make the some his onely care. Thirdly, if at any time thou are studed, do not be much over-joyed with it, nor think a to the better of thy self, but if it be vertue thou are mailed for, remember it was God that wrought it in thee, and give him the glory, never thinking any part of belongs to thee. If it be some indifferent action, the remember that it cannot deferve praise, as having no goodness in it. But if it be a bad one, (as amongst Men, such are fometimes likelieft to be commended) then it ought to fer thee a trembling instead of rejoycing, for then that woe of our Saviour's belongs to thee, Luke 6, 26. We water you when Men speak well of you, for so did their fathers to the fa heart, than when Men can make their has the matter of their glory. In the last place, let thy Prayers affift in the fight with this corruption. 16. A fecond VERTUE is MEEK-NESS, that is, a calmness and quiet-ness of Spirit, contrary to the rages and impariences of Anger. This Vertue may be exercised, either in respect of God, or his Neighbour. That to-wards God I have already spoken of, under the Head of Humility; and that towards our Neighbour, I shall hereafter. All I have here to fay of it, is, How it becomes a Duty to our felves : That it does, in reect of the great advantage we reap Advantages of by it, which in meet kindness to our it.

elves we are to look after. And to power that it brings us this great advantage, I need fay to more, but that this meekness is that to which Charlest pronounced a blessing, Marth. 5. 5. Biffed are the and not onely in the next World, but even in this to try shall inherit the earth. Indeed none but the Meek Person hard the true enjoyment of any thing in the World, for the Angry and Impatient are like fict people, who, we use to say, cannot enjoy the great a properties: For les things be never so fair without, they

I raile florms within their own Breatls. And fur poever bath, either in himfelf, or others, observed to near presidents of this passion of Anger, cannot chase but tank Meekness a most pleasant thing. 17. Besides, it is also a most honourable thing, for it is that whereby we resemble Christ; Learn of me, taith he, for I am meek and lowly in heart, Matth. 11.28, It is also that whereby we conquer our selves, overcome our own unruly effions, which of all Victories is the greatest and mor oble. Laftly, it is that which makes us behave our felve ike Men, whereas Anger gives us the herceness and wild-ness of savage Beasts. And accordingly the one is by all fleemed and loved, whereas the other is hated and aborred, every Man thunning a Man in Rage, as they ould a furious Bealt.

Farther yet, Meekness is the sobriety of the Mind. eas Anger is the direct madness; it puts a Man holly our of his own power, and makes him do fuch things as himself in his sober temper abhors! How many Men have done those things in their rage, which they have Repented all their lives after? And therefore furely is nuch as a Man is more honourable than a Beaft, a fober Man than a Mad Man; fo much hath this Vertue of Meekness the advantage of Honour above the contrary Vice of Anger.

19. Again, Meeknels makes any condition tolerable and easie to be endured. He that meekly bears any suffering takes off the edge of it, that it cannot wound m, whereas he that frets and rages at it, whers it, and makes it much sharper than it would be; noy in some sales makes that so, which would not else be so at all arricularly in the case of reproachful words, wh mielves can do us no harm, they neither hure or nor letten our Estates; the onely mischief ous is to make us angry, and then our anger ous many more; whereas he that meekly palies to is never the worse for them, pay, the better, for the rewarded by God for that patience. Much no the faid to recommend this Virtue to us, in refer four own present advantage, but I suppose this is be to gain them to the practice of it, wherein Mendel know not what difficulties of natural confliction and the like; yet fure there is no Man of so choose temper, but if he did heartly fer about k, would be were not impossible in some good measure to substitute to the but then he must be diligent in thing means to end. Divers of these means there are, I shall mention ne few.

20. As first, the imprinting deep in our Minds the loveline's and benefits of Means of meetine's, together with the ugline's and taining it.

mithiefs of Anger. Secondly, to fet befire us the example of Chrift, who endured all reproaches, year torments, with perfect patience; that was led as a flee to the flaughter, Ifa. 53. 7. That when he was reviled, reviled not again, when he fuffered threatned i Pet. 2. 23. And if he, the Lord of Glory, suffered meekly and unjustly from his own creatures, with whe face can we ever complain of any injury done to us. Thirdly, to be very watchful to prevent the very first beginnings of Anger, and to that purpose to mortifie all inward previouses and frowardness of mind, which is a fin in it felf, though it proceed no further, but will also be fure, if it be cherished, to break our into open effects of inger. Therefore, whenever thou findest the least arising if it within thee, make as much haste to check it as thou wouldest to quench a fire in this house, but be fure thouse the no fire to it, by entertaining any thoughts that may increase it: And at such time especially keep a most strick watch over thy tongue, that it break not out into any any speeches, for that breath will fan the fire, not onely in thine adversary, but thy self too; therefore though thy team be not within, stiffe the slame, and let it not break out; and the greater the Tempetrion is, the more carrier is lift up they heart to Good it. ly lift up thy heart to God to affift thee to overcome to southly, often remember how great punishments thy find have deferved, and then, whether thy sufferings be from God or Man, thou wilt acknowledge them to be far flow of what is due to thee, and therefore, wilt be assumed to be invarient at them.

21. The third Verice is CO DERATION, and this in a richour it we shall, as rash unadvised people us a rash the role that it is either of our State, or of our State.

Actions. By our State, I mean, what our condition is to God-ward, whether it be ch that we may reasonably conclude our selves in h wont. This it much concerns us to confider and en-nine, and that not by those easie Rules Men are apt to the themselves, as, Whether they believe that wiff died for their fins; That they are of the number riff died for their fins; That they are of the number he Elect, and shall certainly be fived. If these and like were all that were required to put us into God's your none but some melancholy persons could ever be of it, for we are apt enough generally to believe compably of our selves. But the Rules God hath given in his Word, are those by which we must be tried at a last day, and therefore are certainly the tonely sate "ones by which to try our selves now.

And the summ of those are, That who seek to the forever consinues in any one wilful sin, is foever continues in any one wilful fin,is ich to try not in his favour, not can, if he to die, hope for any mercy at his hand. Rate. . 22. Now it is highly necessary we should consider what a condition is in this respect: For since our life is noting but a pust of breach in our nostrils, which may, in ght we know, be taken from us the next minute, it ariy concerns us so know how we are provided for ther World, ther so in case we want at present the in our Lamps, wherewith we are to meet the Match. 25.8. we may timely ger it, and of it be ever that out, like the fooling. Virgins, from his presence. The asgleet of this Confideration hath una belief, that they were not in condition, without confidering and trying them-by the foregoing Rule, but prefuming either up-me flight outward performances, or upon fach a or left going on, without fo much as acting them over that their condition is, but hope they hould do will as their Neighbours, and so never enquiring family which wrenched carelessess will as certainly undo the spinial, as the like would do the temporal chate, yet in the every Man is wise enough to foresee, that a Man that move takes any accounts of his chate to see whether he be worth something or nothing, will be sure to be a beggain the end: But in this far weightier matter, we can go nerally be thus improvident.

Versue of Confeder on

21. The second thing we are to con-

23. The second thing we are to confider, is our actions, and those either Our affective or after the doing of them. In the first place, we are to consider before we act, and not to do any thing than rashly or headily, but first, to advise with our Consciences, whether this be lawful to be done for he that follows his own inclination, and does ever thing which that many thing which that many thing which the many things which the many than the

with our Confeiences, whether this be lawful to be done for he that follows his own inclination, and does every thing which that moves him to, thall be fure to fall most a multitude of fina. Therefore confider foberly, and be affured of the lawfulness of the thing before the ventured to do it. This advisedness is in all worldy thing accounted to necessary a part of wildom, that no han accounted wife without it; a rash Man we look upon a the next degree to a fool. And yet it is fure, there is hot fo much need of looking about us in any thing, as in what uncerns our Souls, and that not onely in respect of the great value of them above all things else, but also in regard of the great danger they are in, as hath been they do more at large in the beginning of the Treatise.

A. Secondly, we are to confider the actions when they are past also, that Asserting are to examine whether they does not been such as are allowable by the Law of Christ. This is very necessary, whether they be

Laws of Christ. This is very necessary, whether they be good or bad, if they be good, the recalling them helped us to the comfort of a good Conscience, and thus confort again encouragest us to go on in the like; and besides in thin us up to thankfulness to God, by whose that there we were enabled to do them. But if they be then it is especially necessary that we thus examine

D-7

hem

this is impossible we should ever co for unless we observe them to have be ever think it needful to amend, but s from one wickedness to another, which is the Curie any Man can lie under.

25. The other therefore we use this confideration, the better, for the left likely knowledge. It is much to be wift'd, that is to, if he have done any thing smile, he may foon intelled for it, and lettle us refolutions against it. ler is grow on to a habit and course. And that the carry beg God's Partich, which will the bad the Goner it is asked; every delay of the fire a prest increase of the fire. And furely who is to take an account of himfelf at all, will be easier course; it being much easier to do it the at a time, and while passages are fresh in his than to take the account of a long time together. Now if it be considered, that every wilful fire must have a particular repetitance before it can be Pardoned, meetings. Man shalls tremble to the me-thinks Men should tremble to sleep out that Repensance, For what Affurance hath any that life down in his and, that he shall ever rife a-And then how dangerous is the condition of that that fleeps in an Unrepented Sin! The weighing of feveral Motives may be a means, by God's blefting. gus to the Practice of this Duty of Confideration, in the entry of it.

SUNDAY. VII.

of Contentednoss, and the Contraties to it; Murmuring, Ambition, Governments, Euroy. Helps to Contentednoss; Of Duties which cancers on Bodies; Of Chastity, &cc. Helps to it; Of Temperance.

HE Pourth VERTUE is

CONTENTEDNESS; Contental

and this furely is a neft.

Duty we must owe to out felves, it being that will co our leives, it being that varies which it is impossible to be happy. This Contendents is a well-pleasedness with that condition, who were it is, that God hath placed us in, not murmuring and remining at our Lot, but chearfully welcoming what he was great, and withall how pleasant a versal great and psinful vices; so that where this is rooted in the heart, it subdues not onely some such single sin, but a cluster of them together.

muring in general, which is a fin most Convey the Wilderneis, as you may read in feveral places in the Books of Exidus and Numbers. And furely it is also very painful and meafie to a Man's felt, for the Pfalmift faith, it be a justile and busiless time the Manhard we may, by the Rule of Communication and unpleafant thing to be Marmuring, and the last and unpleafant thing to be Marmuring, and the last and unpleafant thing to be marmuring, and the last and unpleafant thing to be marmuring.

The Cutty of the Control

liking his prefent condition, and in liking his prefent condition, and in liking his prefent condition, and in makes to greedily to feek a higher; whereas he in comens with his own, lies quite out of the road of the content. Now ambition is not onely a great fin in it felt into it puts Men upon any other: there is nothing to hourd, which a Man that eagerly feeks greatness will that at; lying, perjury, murther, or any thing will down with him, if they feem to tend to his advancement; and the uneathress of it is answerable to the fin. This none can doubt of, that confiders what a multitude of fears and features, cares and defractions there are that attend any time in its progress, besides the great and publick mines to usually besilt it in the end. And therefore fure Contracted it, in this respect, as well a Happiness as a Thirdly, it is contrary to CoverousThe Covered-inels, this the Apolle wirnefleth, Heb.

13.5. Let your convertation be without covetowfiest, and be content with such thints as a late. Where you see, Contentedness se for as the direct contrary to Coverousness. But of this there needs not other proof than common experience, for we see, the coverous Man never thinks he hath enough, and therefore can never be content, for no Man can be said to be so, that thirst after any thing he hath not. Now that you may see how excellent and necessary a virtue this is, that secures us against coverousness, it will not be amiss a little to consider the nature of that sin.

is most certain, for it is contrary the very foundation of all good life.

I mean, those three great duties, to God. to our selves, to our Neight are first it is so contrary to our duty to God, may himself rellous, Luke 15, 13. We cannot serve that sets his heart upon wealth, most are taken it off from God, and this we daily see in covern Man's practice, he is so eager in the games of Riches that he hash no time or care to perform duty God, let but a good Bargain, or opportunity of the one in his way. Prayer and all Duties of the commenced to append it. Nay, when the comment in against God may be either likely see him coghe, his love of wealth quickly perfe to commit it.

6. Secondly, it is contrary to the duty we owe to our felves, and that both in respect of our Souls and Bodies. The corespect of our Soult and Bodies. The covectors Man despites his Soul, sells that to eternal desion for a little pelf: for to every Man does that is unlawful means (ceta to enrich himself; nay, thoug do it not by unlawful means, yet if he have on his heart-upon Wealth, he is that coverous Perfor whom the Apostle hard pronounced, that is follow into the kingdom of God, I Cor. 6. 10. Not does he by offend against his Soul, but his Body too, for he denies that those necessary refreshments it wants, which his weakth (as fir as it concerns simplest) was which his wealth (as far as it concerns himfelf) was grahim. This is to containely the cultom of rich Miles, at 1 seed not prove it to you.

17. In the third place, Coverounels

Neighbours, and that in both the parts fours.

Of it, Juffice and Charity. He that loves Money immoderately, will not care whom he chest defrauds, to he may bring in Gain to himfelf: and f hence foring those many tricks of deccir and course to common in the World. As for Charity, that is never be haped for from a coverous Man, who dreads the latening of his own hears more than the flarving of his political. You fee how great a fin this is, that we may my of it as the Apolitic doth, I Tim 6. Io. The law are is the rost of all evil. And it is not much left un as wicked; for between the care of genting, and it of lofting, the coverous Man enjoys no quiet refere every Man is deeply concerned, as he to happiness either in this World or the next material against this fin, which he can no way to his heart with this verme of Com fourth place, it is contrary or condition, bath no transact Myole Duty of Pan.

in the worle this fin is, the more excellent frill is on the except this fin is, the more excellent frill is one of the worle this fin is, the more excellent frill is one of the worle this fin is, the more excellent frill is one can be world this fin is, the more excellent frill is one can of Contentedness, which frees us from it. I furnous have faild enough to make you think this is a very love and desirable virtue; and fure it were not impossible to be gained by any, that would but observe these few discussions.

9. First, to consider, that what ever cur estate and condition in any remarkable specific is that which is allowed as by God, and therefore is certainly the terms, he being much better able to judge for us.

c for our felves, and therefore to be displeased as effect to say, we are wifer than he. Secondly, conthroughly the vanity of all worldly things, how uncertain we are to keep them; but above all, in itale flead they will fland us at the day of Death or near, and then thou canft not think any of them worth the defiring, and fo wilt not be discontented ant of them. Thirdly, suffer not thy fancy to run on with what they have, onely by thinking what they have conely by thinking what they he that fees his Neighbour possess somewhat himself hath not, is ape to think how happy he do be if he were in that Man's condition, and it the ime never thinks of enjoying his own, which in many respects may be much happier; this Meighbours which he so much admires.

The upon the outside of other Mens conditions. my a Mon that is envied by his Neighbours, trul happy Person, hath yet some secret tro nakes him think much otherwise of himself. T ver compare thy condition in any thing countest more prosperous than thy self on thou wilt find cause to rejoyce in the Fourthly, Confider how far thou are of Diligence, 80

with Jacob, Gen. 12. 10. confell the of the leaft of these Mercies than of murmuring that they are no more, will to admire, and praise the bounty of God, that may. Fifthly, be often thinking of the joys e in Heaven; look upon that as thy hor orld onely as an Inn, where thou are fain to tak paffage, and then, as a Traveller espects me conveniences at an Inn that he hath at hom A reason to be content with what-ever enter ou findest here. knowing thou are upon thy place of Infinite Happiness, which will make as surends for all the uncasiness and hardship thou in the way. Lastly, Pray to God, from who hings do come, that he will, to all his other bleffu this of a contented Mind, without which, thou can to tafte or relift of any oth to A fifth Duty is DILIGENCE : This is made up of two parts . Warchfulness, and Industry , and both these we owe to our Souls.

11. First, Watchfulness, in observing all the dangers that threaten them. Now fince Wardful nothing can endanger our Souls but lin, this again

Dilige

Watchfulne B is principally to be employed against that. And as in a belieged City, where there is weak part, there it is necessary to keep the strongest guar to it is here, where-ever thou findest thy inclinations so are most likely to begray thee to fin there it concer see to be especially watchful. Observe therefore of ully to what fins either thy natural temper, thy compa r thy course of life do particularly incline thee, and wa ly felf very narrowly in those; yet do not so lay our a by care on those, as to leave thy suffopen to any other, so may give Saran as much advantage on the or but let thy watch be general, against all fin tho special manner sgainft those, which are like ofmest fecond part of Diligence is or Labour; and this also we Industry in its ttle proper, as the vineyard gard, which Selamon describes, Pr. Husbandry of the Soul as well as of f the one, as of the other, is the in inproving of its riches. Now the riches of the Souther Natural or Divine. By the Natural I mean in tries or Reason, Wit, Memory, and the like, by the I mean the Graces of God, which are not the Natural Portion, but are given immediately by Go och thefe we are to take care to improve, they being

Talents intrufted to us for that purpole,

13. The way of improving the Munral, is by employing them lo, as may bring in most honour to God; we must let them lie idle by us through floth, neither must be which is the case of too many, but we must inthem and fet them on work: But then we mult be be not in the Devil's fervice, like many, who fet wit onely to the profitting of God, or cheating their bours, and fluff their Memories with such filthmen never once enter their thoughts. Our use of be such, as may bring in most Glory to God Accounts, when God shall come to recken us for them.

14. But the other part of the Soul's riches is yet more precious, that is, Grace, Grace. and of this we must be especially careful husband and improve it. This is a duty exprelly comnded us by the Apostle, 2 Pet 5:18. Grew in Grace.
Id again, in the first Chapter of that Epistle, ver. 5. Gra diligence to add to your faith, vertue, and to vertueled the second to vertue the second to the seco ace, is by imploying it, that is, by doing those thines combine us whereunto it was given us. This is a fine case, not onely in respect of that casiness, which a flow of any thing brings in the doing of it, but pro-ally, as it hath the promise of God, who hash pro-ised, Matth. 25, 29. That to him that hath (that is, had ade use of what he hath) shall be given, and he shall in sendance. He that diligently and faithful to first beginnings of Grace, shall yet have of Diligence, exc.

in like manner husbands that more, shall yet here degree. So that what Solomon faith of Teates, is also true of Spirimal, The hand of the dil

Therefore whenever thou findent To improve any good motions in thy heart, remem-good motions in thy heart, remem-good motions in the for this spiritual authority: If thou hast but a check of conscience a-gainst any fin thou livest in , drive that on till it come to a hatred; and then that hatred till it tome no resolution; then from that resolution, proceed to one endeavours against ic. - Do this faithfully and finerely, and thou shalt certainly find the Grace of God enabling thee not onely in every of these steps, but also enabling thee to advance still higher, till thou come to some victory over it. Yet to this industry thou must not failto add thy prayers also, there being a promile, the God will give the hely Spirit to them that ask it, Matth. 7. But it must be asked with such an earnesiment which being infinitely more precious than all the world, both in respect of its own worth, and its usefulness to us we must, beg it with much more zeal and carneline than all temporal bleffings, or elfe we thew our felves defpifers of it.

16. Having directed you to the means The do-of improving Grace, I shall, to quicken the coverage, you to it, mention the great danger of the contrary, and that is not as in other things, the loing onely those further degrees, which our indusfor might have helped us to, but it is the lofing out of what we already have; for, From him that have, (that is again, hath not made use of what hath) shall be taken away even that which be hath, M. 21. 29. God will windraw the Grace which he fees neglected, as we see in that Parable; the Talent was brought in no gain to its Lord. And this is a most too punishment, the greatest that can befall any man, be-be he comes to Hell; adeed it is some kind of for-take of it, it is the deliving him up to the power of evil, and it is the banishing him from the which are not the least parts of the misery need: And it is also the binding a Man over portion of wretchedness in another World, for the At ye the improfitable Servant into outer darkness, they hall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. You see there are a light dangers that attend this neglect of Grace, and no light dangers that attend this neglect of Grace, and therefore if we have any love, nay, any common pity a our Souls, we must fet our felves to this industry. It now done with those VERTUES which respect ou SOULS, I come now to those which concern our BO-DIES.

17. The first of which is CHASTITY or PURITY, which may well be fer in the front of the Duties we owe to our Bodie fince the Apostle, 1 Cor. 6. 18. fees the contrary as the for cial fin against them, He that committeth formication, simust

8. Now this Verme of Chaftiry confifts in a perfe oftaining from all kinds of uncleannels, not only the ultery and Fornication, but all other more una with any other. In a word, all acts of that kind are ulriver and the Chaftiry, fave onely in lawful Marriage. And wen there. Men are not to think themselves let loose to lease their brutish appendes, but are to keep themselves ithin fuch Rules of Moderation, as agree to the ends of arriage, which being these two, the begetting of Chil-ten, and the avoiding of Fornication; nothing must be one which may hinder the first of these ends, and the cond aiming onely at the subduing of Lust, the keeping on from any sinful effects of it, is very contrary in end to make Marriage an occasion of heightning and amine it.

19. But the Vertue of Chaffin reacheth not onely to the restraining of the groff all, but to all lower degrees, it fees a guard upon on eyes, according to that of our Savi Matth. c. 28. He than look home stomen to last bath committed Adultery into her adventy in his hea

the place of the control of the cont here, puts himself in very great danger of the other, it being much more easie to abstain from all, than to de-ture against the one, when the other is allowed. But above all it is to be confidered, that even these lower degrees are such, at make Men very odious in God's eyes, who feeth the heart, and loves none that are not pure

The lovelines of this Vertue of chility needs no other way of de- The Military seeds no other way of de- The Military fundaments and mischiefs of the contrary fin, which is first, very brutish; those desires are but the same that the Beasts have, and then how far are they fund below the nature of Men, that can boast of their fin of that kind, as of their special excellency? when, if that be the measure, a Gost is the more excellent creature. ture. But indeed, they that eagerly purthe this part of beftiality, do office leave to the Sail, themselves little, befides their Humane mape, to difference them from Beatts, this fin to clouds the materitanding, and defaceth the reasonable Soul. Therefore Solomon very well describes the young Man that was going to the Harlots House, Prov. 7. 22, His goath after the as an On youth to the flaughten:

at. Nor Secondly, are the effects of it core to the Body than to the Mind. To the Body that many foul and filthy, besides paintenance, which mich follow this an, are inflicient Windowser, which mich follow this an, are inflicient Windowser, which mich follow this an, are inflicient Windowser, which mich follows this and are inflicient with the second To the Budy

e Tayole Duty of the how mithiefone it is to the body. And then, are there that have the made themselves the will assess a fuffered fact torment in the partie of in, as would exceed the invention of the greates I man? Surely they that pay that dear for dampaton, we well deferve to enjoy the purchase.

The judgments of ral fruits of this fip, it is attended we got against it.

Yet y great and heavy judgments for God; the most extraordinary and the section of the contraordinary and the section of the miraculous judgmens that ever befell any place. In and Brumbone from Heaven upon Solom and Gomes was for this fin of uncleannels: And many examplification of God's vengeance may be observed upoperacular persons for this fin. The incest of some cost him his life, as you may read, 2 Sam. 13. Zimi and Cozby over flain in the very act, Numbers 25. Land no person that commits the like, hath any affine it shall not be his own case. For how seems to sever it be committed, it cannot be hid from Gowh is the sure avenger of all such wickedness. Note that very particularly threamed this sin, 1 Co. 2. If any man defile the Temple of God, him shall see the This sin of incleanness is a kind of facrilege, pollume those bodies which God hath chosen for in Temples, and therefore no wonder if it be thus heavily tanised.

23. Lafely, this fin house us our from the Kingdom of Heaven, wherein the Kingdom of Heaven, wherein the impure thing can enter. And we never find any lift of those line which has men thence, but this of uncleanness bath a potal place in it: Thus it is, Gal. 5. 19. and so again, a Cor. 6. 9. If we will thus pollute our selves, we are to company onely for those black Spirits, the Devil and the mels, and therefore with them we must expect the portion, where our slames of lust shall end in that so of fire.

24. All this laid together, may fine like to Chaftity. recommend the Verme of Chaftity to for the preferving of which, we much

Vertue of Chaffity,

first to check the beginning off away the very func-if you case fall to pe the first part of the party and talk with being till more upon you, and then it will be to refin; therefore your way in me semptation life rather than fight with it. This way necessary one of the fin, but also in respect of the present falls of termining such functes, which of it self, though it should we proceed further, is, as has been shewed, a great mination before God. Secondly, have a special can the idleness, which is the proper soil for these sharp too grow in, and keep thy self always bused in the inference of virtuous imployment, for then their sider thy self to recall any unclean passages or my timer life with delight, for that is to all over the finger, and will be so reckoned by God; hay, perhaps and deliberately to think of it may be a greater gull the ching of it: For this both shews thy hear plants of the finding of self-energy to think of a preparation to make the fourthy, forbear the company of fash light make many persons, as either by the althiness of cheir differences, or any other means, may be a share to the. String only carneftly, that God would give thee the Sources and the company of such that any carneftly, that God would give thee the Sources. especially at the time of any present the unclean Devil to Christ to be cast our as of in the Gospel; and if it will not be cast our Prayer slone, add Fasting to it, but be fure tho The last remedy, when the former prove variage, which becomes a duty to him that cannot occur without it. But even here there mult be en, left this which should be for his good, become to him an occasion of filling for want of sobsery in the use of Marriage. But this I have touch don already, an herefore need add no more but an earnest intreaty, the men would consider seriously of the soulness and dangers of this sin of uncleanness, and not let the commonness of this sin of uncleanness, and not let the commonness of the seriously of the soulness and dangers and their harred of it, but rather make them also that shareless impudence of the world, that can make int of this lin, against which God hath propose furtheavy curies. Whereaugus and Malteres and backs, Has 1 s 4, and to be will certainly do all fore anclean persons wharloever.

Imperious to Bodies, is TEMPERANCE; and a countiles of that are divers, as first. To perance in Earing; secondly, in Drinking; thirdly, sleep; fourthly, in Recreation; fifthly, in Apparel, shall speak of them severally, and first of Temperan in Earing. This Temperance is observe when our Fating is agreeable to those and to which Earing is by God, and Nature of Signed; those are first, the Being; seconds the well-being of our Bodies.

26. Man is of flich a frame, that Pan becomes necessary to him for the preserving in a factoral Disease.

If the well-being of our Bodies.

26. Man is of flich a frame, that Pan becomes necessary to him for the preserving the well-being a natural Disease.

Which will prove deadly, if not prevent the only Phylick for it is Patting, which is therefore an excellary means of keeping us alive. And the straight End of Eding, and as men use not to all the for Pleasure, but remedy, so neither should be Eding.

bounciful, as to provide not onely for the Being, but the Well-being of our Bodie therefore we are not tied to fuch firsteness, that we may eat no more than will just keep us from starving, in we may also car whatsoever either for kind or many most tends to the health and welfare of them to that Earling which is agreeable to these ends, it is the bounds of Temperance; as on the contrary, at the tends of the many to them is a transgression against the therefore that sets up to himself other ends of cathing as either the pleasing of his taste, or (what is yet worse) the pampering of his Rody, that he may he better serve his suff, he directly thwarm and crosses the which is very contrary to health, yes, to life it self, as the winds it very contrary to health, yes, to life it self, as the case by the many disease, and unumely destinated.

25.17. 在17.00至16.17.17.15.17.15.17.15.17.15.17.15.15.15.15.15.15.15.15.15.15.15.

the therefore that will practife this of Temperance, must neither ear Rule of Temperance, must neither ear Rule of Temperance, must forts of meat, property E. burful to his health; what the forts quantities should be, is impossible to fet down, for differs according to the feveral conflictions of men me men may with temperance car a great deal, because at flomachs require it; when another may be guilty of temperance in eating but half to much, because it is Meat, it may be niceness and luxury for the some entries in them, when yer some degree of it may encoularly to the infirmities of a weak stomach, which not our of wantonness but disease cannot cat the courses. But I think it may in general be said, That to eathful Bodies, the plainest meats are generally the not wholesome; but every man must in this n judge for himfelf, and that he may do it aris mal be careful, that he never fuffer himself to be end to his Palare, for that will be fure to fatisfie it felf. ver becomes of health or life.

19. To secure him the berter, let him Mem milder first, how unreasonable a his one Sense of Fasting, that it must run all that the Diviner part, the Soul should thus enflaved, and yet thus it is in an intempera-for, he very Soul must be facrificed to his brus-pense, for the fin of intemperance, though it be the Body, yet the Soul must there in the eremain and vanishing this pleasure is, it is gone in a mome to me pains that attend the excess of it are much me durable; and then furely is agrees nor with that co reason, wherewith, as men, we are endued, to learns upon it. But then in the third place, it agree with the temper of a Chailtian, who should be an & surfeed and refused with the expectation higher and spiritual joys he looks for in more world that he should very much despite these ground world that he should very much despite these ground and an enter we may well be contented to leave them, being the highest their natures can reach to: but for a who have so much more excellent hopes, it is an smooth that we should account them as any part of our happiness. Lastly, the sin of Gluttony is so great and dangerous, that Christ thought fit to give an especial warning against it; Take beed to your selves, that warning against it; Take beed to your selves, that was the end of the rich Glutton Luberts be not overcharged with suffering, &cc. Luke 21.31. And you know what was the end of the rich Glutton Luberts he that had fared deliciously every day, at less wants a drop of mater to cool his tengue. So much for the full fort of Temperance, that of Eating.

SUNDAY

SUNDAY VIII.

of Temperance in Drinking ; falle Ends of Drinking, viz. Good-fellowship, putting away teres, &c.

HE fecond is Temper Temper ance rance in Drinking, and in drinking.

the ends of eating and drinking being much the fame. I can ive no other direct Rules in this, than what were given in the former; to wit, that we drink neither of fuch forts of Liquor, nor in such quantities as may not agree with the right ends of drinking, the preserving our lives and healths: onely in this there will be need of putting in one Cauti-on, for our Understandings being in more danger to be hurt by drinking, than meat, we must rather take care noteep that safe, and rather not drink what we might diftemper our Reason. This I say, because it is possible fome Mens brains may be fo weak, that these heads cannot bear that ordinary quantity of drink which would do their bodies so harm. And whoever is of this temper mult firitly abltain from that degree of drink, or that fort of it which he finds harh that effect; yes, though it do in other respects appear not only safe, but useful to his health. For mough we are to preferve our healths, yet we are not to do it by a fin, as Drunkenness most certainly is.

2. But alas! Of those multitudes of Drunkirds we have in the world; this is the case False and of

but of very few, most of them going drinking, far beyond what their Health requires, yea, or an bear, even to the utter destruction thereof. And therefore it is plain, Men have set up to themselves some other ends of drinking, than those allowable ones formentioned; it may not be amils a little to explain what they are, and withal to shew the unreasonableness of

3. The first and most owned which they call Good-fellowship is drinks to keep another company as I would ask such an one, whether

Man were drinking rank poison, he would bledge have company? If he say, he would not; I must rell him by the very same, may far greater reason, he is not to this. For immoderate drinking is that very poison, pe haps it doth not always work death immediate (yearne want not many instances of its having done even the very many have died in their drunken sit) but that the oftom of it does usually bring Men to their ends, is pedoubt; and therefore the the possion work slowly, yet a still possion. But however, it doth at present work the which a wise Man would more abhor than Death; it would madness; and phrenzy turns the Man into a Beast, by drowing that Reason which should difference him from one. Company the effects of drink are such, that had being any been sirft enjoyn'd as a punishment, we should have those turn a more than ordinary Tyrant, that had invented

Preserving the maintaining of Friendship and Rindon friends is firengely under this is firengely under the maintaining of Friendship and Rindon friendship

fonable, that Men should do that towns the maintaining of Friendship, which is really the greater mischief that can be done to any Man. Did ever any thing to best rend a Man, by helping to destroy his estate, his life? Yet he that thus drinks with a Man, does not much more, he ruins his Reason, yea, his Soul and yet this must be call d the way of preserving of Friend this is fo ridiculous, that one would think nor could own it, but when he were actually drunk, befides, alas I Experience shews us, that this is fitter to be get quarrels, than preserve kindness; as the many drunks was we every day see, with the Wounds, and some sames Murders that accompany them do witness.

times Murders that accompany them do witness.

5. A third end is faid to be the chean Grazing of their spirits, making them merry that prints, jolly. But sure if the mirch be fuch, in Reason must be turned out of doors to one is begin, it will be very little worth, one manich Solomon, Rockest 2. 2. The lampter of fuch for

Temperancoin Drinking. 143

And fure, they that will be drunk to purties in this temper, must by the same reason be a frenzy, if they could but be sure it would be many fort. But little do these merry folks think, the same in this world, when by some mad pranks are play in their jollity, they bring mischief upon themsitive, but however certainly in another, where this and will be sadly reckoned for.

6. A fourth end is faid to be the putting my of cares: But I shall ask what their Putting aare? Be they such as should be put may cares.

way? Perhaps they are some checks and morfes of Confcience, which must be thus charmed. and I doubt, this hath proved too effectual with many, the laying them affeep. But this is the wickedeft felly in the world, for if thou thinkest nor these to they crouble thee? But if thou do, it is impossi thou can't hope this can long fecure thee from them.

Thou mayeff thus ftop their mouths for a while, but they will one day cry the louder for it. Suppose a will one day cry the louder for it. Suppole a Thef or Murderer knew he were purfued, to be brought to Justice, would he, think you, to put away the fear of being hanged, fall to drinking, and in the mean time take no care for his escape? Or would you the very case here; thy Constience tells thee of thy danger, that thou must e're long be brought before God's judgment Seat; and is it not madness for them. infend of endeavouring to get thy Pardon, to drin swy the thought of thy danger? But in the fector place, suppose these cares be some worldly ones, an fuch at are fit to be put away; then for fhame do not to disprace thy Reafon, thy Christianity, as not to lettern be as forcible to that end as a little drink. The calon will tell there it is in vain to care, where ca will bring no advantage; and thy Christianity will thee to one on whom thou mayest fafely call and for he carests for there. 1 Per. 5. 7. And there an acres beaks there to this pitiful thiff deed neither: for though it may at the prefer the state of the cares, yet when that is over, the second any conference, bring a new care with them, even which ariseth from the guilt of so foul a fin.

Passing away of Time. This, though it be unreasonable as any of the former, yet the way, it serves to reproach idlend which is, it feems, fo burdenfome a thing, that e vilest employment is preferr'd before it. But this miny a very falle plea: For they often spend time a Por, nor only when they have nothing elfe to do, by to the neglect of their most necessary business. How it is in all a most unreasonable one , for there is no but he may find somewhat or other to employ him If he have little worldly bufiness of his own, he m do somewhat to the benefit of others: But however, is no man but hath a Soul, and if he will look car that he need not complain for want of b Where there are fo many Corruptions to mortificany Inclinations to watch over, fo many Tem ons (whereof this of Drunkenness is not the le relift, the Graces of God to improve and thir up former neglects of all these to lament, sure there were want sufficient employment, for all these re time, and fo men at their deaths find : For those we all their lives made it their bufiness to drive a neir time, would then give all the world to rede and fure, where there is much leifure from effairs. God expects to have the more time the oyed in spiritual Exercises. But it is not like e meaner fort of persons, to whom this Book nded, will be of the number of those that have ly I fall fay this, that what degrees of leifure by time have, it concerns them to employ to the they do, who foend it in drinking.

a firsh end is faild to be the preting of that reproach, which is by the Preming of that reproach. Neighbours. But in done to this, I shall first ask, What is the harm of the reproach? Sure it cannot equal the least of shole mileties Drunkenness betrays us to. Nay, if we will take our Saviour's word, it is a happities, Blossel, faith he, are ye when men shall revise and so all mamme of onle against you, for my the repreached for the Name of Christ, happy are and sure to be reproached for obedience to any ommand of Christ's, is to be reproached for his Namecondly, Let it be remembred, that at our Baptism re solemnly renounced the world; and shall we now to fir consider it, as for a few scotts of it, to run our selves on all the temporal evils before mentioned a and which is much worse, the wrath of God and exerall Destruction? Bur thirdly, if you fear reproach, why do you do that which will bring repreach upour
you from all wise and good Mcn; whose opinion alone is to be regarded? And it is certain, drinking to the way to bring it on you from all such. And to comfort thy self against that, by thinking thou art fill applauded by the sholish and worst fort of Men, is at all the Mad-men in the world should agree in account themselves the onely soler persons, and all others mad; which yet fure will never make them the self mad, nor others the self soler. Lastly, Consider the newy doom Christ hath pronounced on these the save down the self soler. Tastly, Consider the save down the sal

26 Cipacimic Diny

Mad-men, deferver well to have it befull him after all this, it is not fure that even these will desthe for thy sobriety: It is possible they may see do so to fright thee out of it, but if their heart searched, it would be found they do even against will bear a secret reverence to sober persons, and offall, more often under their scorn and despiting those that run with them to the same exacts of so so even he that sticks not to be drunk himself yet laugh at another that he sees so.

9. There is a feventh end, which there is a feventh end, which there is too plain it prevails with many that is the bare pleasure of the drink to these I confess is will not be fit to say much ; for is come to this lamentable degree of fortifline like to receive benefit by any thing that can be let me tell even this man, that he of all others most means of discerning his fault, for this bein ground of drinking as no body will own, he is demned of himfelf; yes, and all his fellow-dru no; for their denying it, is a plain fign they ledge it a most abominable thing. And if Established a prophane person, Heb. 12. 6. for felling terrib right for a meli of potroge, and that too, when he had the necessity of hunger upon him: What name of reproach can be bad enough for him, who fells his Health, Reason, his God, his Soul, for a cup of drink, and when he is so far from needing it, that perhaps already more than he can keep? I shall fay no this fort of persons; but let me warn all chose me in this fin, on any of the former grounds, that a li outh, it being them even to this which they pouth, it being daily feen, that those which is traver into the fin for the love of the company cinue in it for love of the drink.

Io. I can think but of one end me that is, that of Bargaining. Men for is specificary for them to drink in the adjustment of trading with their neighbours, Bargain ag most conveniently to be thruck up at such men er a worse end than all the rest, for the motifie an aim of cheating and defrauding others when Men are in drink, we shall the better be over reach them; and so this adds the fin of is indeed the intent, is manifelt, for if it were the disparch of bargains were aimed at, we should pocake Men with their Wits about them: Therethe taking them when drink hath diftempered them. he for nothing but to make advantage of them. Yes mis often proves a great folly, as well as a fin , for he that and then he gives the other that opportunity of cheating m, which he deligned for the cheating of the other, we this end of drinking is fo far from becoming an exule, that it is a huge heightning of the fin: for if we y not drink intemperately upon any occasion, much less upon to wicked an one, as is the cozening and defrauding of our Brethren.

is I suppose I have now showed you Degrees of the intrasonableness of those Motives, this fin. which are ordinarily brought in excuse of this fin. I am yet further to tell you, that it is not onely that huge degree of Drankenness, which makes men able neither to go not speak, which is to be lookt on as a sin, but all lower degrees which do at all work upon the Undustranding, whether by dulling it and making it less fit for any imployment, or by making it too light and viry, apt to apish and ridiculous mirth, or what is worse, by instaming then into rage and sury. These, or whatever else make any change in the Man, are to be reckoned in to this sin of Drunkenness. Nay, further, the drinking beyond the natural ends of Drinking, that is, beyond moderate Refressment, is a fin; though by the strength of a Man's Brain, it makes not the least change in him, and therefore those that are not actually drunk; yet can spend whole days, or any confidenable part of them in drinking, are so far from being innocent, that that greater woe belongs to them thich is pronounced, 1/a, 5, 22, against those that are uncertainty to drink. For shough such a Man may make a

this to preserve his Wits, yet that Wit ferred by little purpose, when his imployment is that if the with him that is the most fortifily drunk, to pour down drink.

The great guilt of the firing drinkers. 12. Nay, this Man is guilty of greatest walte, First, of the good tures of God: That drink which God's Providence intended for the reling and relieving of us, is abuse

mif-spent, when it is drunk beyond the measure those ends require: And fure there is not the of these creatures we enjoy, but the at them shall one day be accounted for, and h drinks longest hath the most of that guilt. the fecond place, this is a waste of that which is more precious, our time, which is allowed us by to work out our Salvation in and must be reckoned for, and therefore ought every minu of good life, but when it is thus laid out, it to the direct contrary, even the working out Damparion. Befides, he that thus drinks, though c being drunk himself, he is yet guilty of all theness that any of his company fell under he gives them encouragement to drink on by his le especially if he be one of any Authority if he be one whole company the reft are fond of company is then a certain enfiating of them; then they will drink too, rather than lose him. The syer a greater fault that many of these strong train'd drinkers are guilty of, that is, the sec chemielves purpoiely to make others drunk; play in it were a prize at it, and counting it make riumph and victory to see others fall before the Thir is a most horrible wickedness, it is the make the felves the Devils Factors, endeavouring all can to draw our poor breshren into exernal misery. raying them to fo grievous a fin; and then may well be reckoned as the highest step of this of drinking, as having in it the fin of mischievithers, added to the excess in our selves. And it is be looks upon in the world as a matter onely o merriment to make others drunk, that we may but felves with their ridiculous behaviour. ye Mirth will have a fad conclusion, there being a secretly threatned by God to this very fin Hab. 215 is not him that givest his Neighbour drink, that pasself little to him, and makes him drunk that then mayes in their nakedness: And fure he buys his idle passen me very dear, that takes it with fuch a woe attend-

it. I have now gone through the feveral motives to, and degrees of this fin The gree of Drunkenness, wherein I have been the Mifebia particular, because it is a fin so this fin, gely reigning amongst us: No Con-

no Age, or scarce Sex from it, to the great difmour of God, repreach of Christianity, and ruine not prefert advantages and happiness in this Life; there being no fin which berrays each finale committee to more mischiess in his understanding, his health, his credit, his estare, than this one doth. And we have resion to believe this sin is one of those common crying gulls which have long lain heavy upon this Nation and nulled down those many fad Judgements we have grouned under 14. Therefore, Christian Reader, lex me now increat, nay conjure thee, by all Exbertation to at tenderness and love thou oughtest for fake it.

to have to the honour of God, the cre-dit of thy Christian Profession, eternal welfare of thine own Soul, the prosperity of the Church and Nation, whereof thou are a Member, may, by that love which mainly thou haft to thy own temporal wellfare, to hink fadly of what hath been spoken; and then ladge, whether there be any pleasure in this fin,: which can be any rolerable recompence for all e Mischiefs it brings with it. I am confident no. on in his with can think there is and if there be then be assumed to be any longer that Fool inflant a firm and faithful resolution, never once ne to be guilty of this Swinish Sin, how often forer thou haft bescrofbre fallen into it? and in the of God betake thee to a ftrict temperance which when thou haft done, thou wilt find thou haft made net onely a gainful, but a pleasant exchange : for there is no Man that hath tried both courses, but his own heart will rell him there is infinitely more prefent comer and pleasure in Sobriery and Temperance, than ever all his Drunken Revellings afforded him.

120 The Tabole Duty of Man

15. The main difficulty is the first

deink

The Difficulties breaking off the Cuftom, and that aof daing fo tenrifes partly from our felves, partly from others. That from our felves may be of two form; the fieft is, when by the Seeming ne habit of drinking, we have brought fuch fatte thirlts upon our felves that our bodies feem to require it : and this wants nothing but a little patience to overcome. Do but refrain fome few days, and it will afterwards grow safe: for the hardness arising onely from Custom, the breaking off that does the business. If thou say, it is very uncase to do so, consider, whe-ther if thou hadst some Disease which would certainly kill thee if thou didft not for fome little time refrain immoderate Drinking, thou wouldest not rather forbear than die. If thou wouldest not, thou are so Brurich a Soc, that it is in vain to perswade thee; but if thou hadft, then confider how unreasonable it is for thee not to do it in this case also. The habit of Drinking may well pass for a Mortal Disease; it proves so very often to the Body, but will most certainly to the eafiness in the Cure of this, which thou wouldst sub-mit to in a less danger. Set therefore but a reso-lute Purpose to endure that little trouble for a small time, and this first Difficulty is Conquered; for siter thou hast a while refrained, it will be perfectly calle to do fo fall

16. The fecond Difficulty is, that of Want of Imfeending the time; which those that have made Drinking their trade and business. know scarce how to dispose of. But the very naming of this Difficulty, directs to

Sund 8. Of Temperance in Drinking. 121

the Cure; get thee some business, somewhat to employ thy self in; which, as I have aheady shewed, will be saily found by all form of Persons; but those meaner, to wham I now Write, can sine never want it ready at head they being generally such as are to be maintained by their labour; and sherefore to them I need only give this Advice. To be diligent in that business they have to follow that close as they ought; and they will have since accasion to seek out this way of spending their

17. There is enother fire of Difficuland thise is either from their Perfwa- and Reproach fions, or Reproaches. It is very likely, if es of Managers they old Companions fee thee begin to fall off, they will fer hard to thee, to bring thee back to they old courses they will unge to thee the unkindness of forfaking the Company of thy Friends, the fadness of remounting all that Mirch and Jollicy, which Good-fellows (as they call them) enjoy. And if thou can't not thus be won, they will affright thee with the reproach of the Worldon and for the inches of the second of the call they will affright thee with the reproach of the World and id my if they can mock thee out of thy Sobriety. and ever to overcome this difficulty.

18. The way to overcome this difficulty.

19. is to forcise it: Therefore, when The means of rance thou art to make account thou that mer with these (perhaps many other) Temptations:
And that thou mayest make a right Judgement, who ther shey be worthy to prevail with thee, take them before hand and weigh them; consider whether that falle kindness that is maintained among Men by Drinking, be worthy to be compared with that real and everlathing kindness of God, which is loft by it; whether that foolish, vain Weigh the mith hear any weight with the prefent vantages with the burr, ear any weight with the prefent vantages with the greater of Heaven hereafter.

Aftily Whether the unjust reproach of wicked Men, the malos the World be so terrible, as the just reproof this count Conference at the present, and that evernal ntulion of face that thath befall all those, that go on 132 The withole Buty of Pan.

In this fin, at the last day; weigh all these, I say, I need not say in the balance of the Sanctuary, but even in the Scales of common Reason, and sure thou wilt be forced to pronounce, that the motives to temperance infinitely outwelgh those against it. When thou hast thus advisedly judged, then six thy resolution accordingly; and whenever any of these temptations come to stagger thee remember thou hast formerly weighed them, knowest the just value of them, and that they are a most unworthy price for those precious advantages thou must give in exchange for them. And therefore hold fast thy resolution, and with indignation reject all motions to the contrary.

Reject the Temptation at the very be19. But be fure thou thus reject them at their very first render, and do not yield in the least degree; for if once thou givest ground, thou are lost, the fin will by little and little prevail upon thee. Thus we may see many, who have professed to be resolved upon great temperance, yet for want of this care, have adventured into the company of Good Fellows; when they have been there, they have at the first been over-intreated to take a Cup, after that another, till at last they have taken their counds as freely as any of them, and in that stood of drink, drowned all their sober resolutions. Therefore whoever thou are, that dost really defire to forsike the fin, take care to avoid the occasions and beginning of it; to which end it will be good openly to declare and own thy purposes of Sobriety; that so thou mayest diffeourage Men from assaulting thee. But if either thou are assaulted to own it, or seemest to be so; they will quickly make use of that shame to bring thee to break it.

The fecurity thee from the first beginning, thou of doing fo. are then fire never to be over-taken with this fin, for it is like the keeping the out-works of a Belieged City, which, so long is they are stoutly defended, there is no danger, but if they be either surprized or yielded, the City cannot long hold out. The Advice therefore of the Wife Man and 8. Of Temperance in Drinking.

very agreeable to this matter, Ecles. 19. 1. Hethat de little mall things, shall perish by little and little. But b as the Pfalmift faith, Pfal. 127. 1. Except the Lan the City, the watchman waketh but in vain : there that he will also watch over thee, and by th of his Grace, enable thee to refift all Temprati o this fin.

se. If thou do in the fincerity of thy an life thefe means, there is no doubt The Efficacy of but thou wilt be able to overcome this, these means . Vice, how long soever thou hast been acunlamed to it; therefore if thou do Rill by low of the ale thy felf by the impossibility of the his fill fuch a love to this fin, that thou wilt not fes

roundly to the means of fubduing it.

as. Perhaps the great commonnels of the fin, and thy particular cuftom of That Louis is, may have made it to much thy makes a Mafamiliar, thy Bosom-acquaintance, that lasts to be how are loath to entertain hard thoughts of it, very unwilling thou art to think that it means thee any hurt, and therefore lieve it dan TOMS.

arcapt to speak peace to thy felf, to hope that either this is no fin, or at most but a frailty, fuch as will not ber the out of Heaven: but deceive not thy felf, for thou myeft as well fay there is no Heaven, as that Drun-leaness shall not keep thee thence; I am fure the e word of God which rells us there is fuch a Place of Happiness, tells us also that Drunkards are of the number of those that shall not inherit is. I Cor. 6 to. And again, Gal. 5. 21. Drunkennels is reckoned among those works of the Flesh, which they that do, Shall not inherit the Kingdom of God. And ind, had not these plain Texts, yet meer reason d tell un'the fame, that that is a place of infinite ourey, fuch as flesh and blood, till it be refined and purific in no capable of, as the Apostle tells us, I Cor. 15.5 s. pure for it, we must fure be more so when we have

34 The authole Duty of Man.

ninged our felves into Swine, the foulest of Beats, a are then prepared for the Devils to enter jato, and did into the herd, Mark 5, 23, and that not onely me one or two, but a Legion, a Troop and Multimad them. And of this we daily fee examples: for when e fin of Drunkerness bath taken possession, it when comes as an Harbinger to abundance of others; each act of Drunkerness prepares a Man not onely for another of the same sin, but of others: Luft and Rage, and all ora-rish Appenies are then let loofe, and so a Man brings himself under that Curfe; which was the faddelt David knew how to foretel to any. Pfalm 63. 28. The fatough to affright thee out of this Drunken fit, thou may fe fill wallow in the Vomic, continue in this Socials, Senfe-less Condition, till the Flames of Hell rowse there and then there will, by fad experience, find what now then will not believe. That the end of those things, as the Apolite faith, Rem. 6, 21, is death. God in his infinite Mercy timely awake the hears of all that are in this fin, that by a rimely forfaking in they may fly from the wrath to that by a rimely forfaking in they may fly from the wrath to the with this fecond part of Tenperante bonceming Drinking What ours upon path to you are the

that is more the sorthurs and decision ing fin, we so to give a family take as will rise bee and all forms on western the to the former carry the other contractions of our the other than the carry that the carry of the Place of Happing the contract of the contract

The boy to be been set to be sent the feet

the state of the control of the state of the the design out the man and the second of the diamed

the wife palent and toroval us

reclin

dimention of the plant with any in SUNDAY IX.

Temperance in Sleep : The Rule of it, Bec. Mission chiefs of Sloth; Of Recreations, Cautions to be observed in them; Of Apparel, &c.

H E Third part of TEMPERANCE concerns SLEEP : And Temperance in that also Sleep. must be measured by the end for which Sleep was ordained by God, which was only the refreshing and supporting of our frail Bodies which being of fuch a Temper, that continual about and toil tires and wearies them out, Sleep comes as a Me-dicine to that weariness, as a repairer of that decay that to we may be enabled to fuch labours as the Duries of Religion, or Works of our Calling require of us. Sleep was rended to make us more profitable, not more idle, as give reft to our Beafts, not that we are pleased with doing nothing, but that they may do us the better fe 'a Tallor or vice.

2. By this therefore you may judge what is temperate fleeping; to wit, that which rends to the refreshing and making us more lively, and fit for action; and so that end a moderate degree ferves belt. It will be impossible to set down just how many hours is that moderate degree; because, as in Earing, so in Sleep, some Constitutions require more than others: Every Man's own experience must in this judge for him; but then let him Judge aprightly, and not confult with his Sloth in the case; for that will full with Solomon's Sluggard, ery, a little more Sleep, a little more sleep, a little more sleep. Slamber, a little more folding of the hands to Sleep. Prov. 24-23. But take onely to much as he really finds to tend to the end fore-mentioned.

136 The Whole Duty of spin?

The many fins the follow the Transgraffen of it:

3. He that doth not thus limit himfelf falls into feveral fine under this general one of floath: as first, he wastes his einer that precious talent which was committed to him by God to improve, which he that steeps away, doth like him in the Gaspel. Match 25. 18. Hides it in the earth, when he should be trading with it; and you know wh e doom of that unprofitable fervant, Verfe 30. Caff m into atter darkness: he that gives himself to d s of seep here, shall there have darkness withour fleep, but with meeping and gnashing of teeth. Secondfull of Difeafes , makes it a very fink of Humours . as daily experience thews us. Thirdly, he injures his Soul alfo, and that not onely in robbing it of the fervice of the Body, but in dulling its proper faculties, making them useless and unfit for those uployments to which God hath defigned them; of all which ill husbandry, the poor Sout must one day give acrount. Nay, laftly: he affronts and despites God infelf in it, by croffing the very end of his Creation, which was to ferve God in an active obedience; but he that fleeps away his life, directly thwarts and contradistribut; and when God faith, Man is born to labour, his practice faith the direct contrary, that Man was born to reft, Take heed therefore of giving thy felf to immoderate Sleep, which is the committing of to many fin in one.

4. But belider the fin of it, it is also other mil-very hurtful in other respects, it is the chiefs of fure bane of thy outward estate, wherein the stuggish Person shall never theire; according to that observation of the Wise Man, Prov. 23, 21. Droughess shall cover a Man with rags; that is, the stockful Man shall want convenient Cleathing; nay, indeed, it can scarce be said that the stuggered lives. Sleep you know is a kind of Death; and he that gives himself up to it, what doth he but die before his time? Therefore if untimely Death be to be lookt upon as a Curse, it must needs be a strange folly

o chuse that from our own sloth, which we dread so much from God's hand.

1. The south part of Temperance concerns Recreations, which are fornessines Temperanes needlary both to the Body and the Mind in Recreation of a Man, neither of them being able to menture a confern toll, without tomewhat of Refreshments between, and therefore there is a very lawful use of them; but to make it to, it will be recessary to observe these Gautions.

6. First. We must take care that the kind of them be lawful, that they be Continue to be such as have nothing of fin in them we observed in must not, to recreate our selves, do any them.

thing which is dishonourable to God, or injurious so our Neighbour, as they do who make profine or filthy Backbiring Discourse their Recreation.

Secondly, We must take care that we use it with moderation: and to do so, we must be sure not to spend soo much time upon it, but remember that the end of recreation is to fie us for business not to be whemens and carrielt in it, nor fer our hearts too much apon it; for that will both enfrare us to the using too much of it, and it will divert and take off our Mittle from our more necessary imployments: like School-boys, who, after a Play-time, know not how to fit themselves to their Books again. Lastly, we must not fet up to our selves any other end of recreations, but that lawful one, of giving us moderate Refreshment.

7. As first, we are not to use Sports Under ends easly to pass away our time, which of Sports, we ought to findly how to redeem, to fing away; and when it is remembred how great a work we have here to do, the making our calling and dellion fure, the fecuring our Title to Reaven hereafter, and how uncertain we are what time shall be alleged. be allowed us for that purpole, it will appear, our time is that which of all other things we ought most adultriously to improve. And therefore sure we have which which flies to fast of it felf, and is to impossible mecover. Let them that can spend, whole Days and Nights an Cards and Dice, and idle passimes, confider this, and withal, whether they ever bestowed a quarres of that time towards that great business of their lives, for which all their time was given them, and then think what a World Reckoning they are like to make, when they come at last to account for that Precious Treasure of their Time, Secondly, We must not let our Covetousness have any thing to do is our Receipters. one if we play at any Game, let she end of our doing it be meetly to Recreate our felves, not to win Money; and to that purpole be fure never to play for any confiderable matter. for if thou do, thou wilt bring thy felf into two dangers, the one of Coveroulness, and a greedy defire of winning, the other of rage and anger as thy ill fortune, if thou happen to lose, both which will be ant to draw there into other fine betides themselves. Cove-contines will tempt there to cheat and course in Gaming, and Anger to Swearing and Curing, as common expe-rience shews as too often. If thou, find the left are to fall into either of these in the Gaming, thou must either take some course to secure the fall against them, or thou must not permit they self to play at all: for though moderate Play be in it felf not unlawful, yet if it pe the occa-tion of fin, it is so on thee, and therefore multinos be ventured on. For it Christ Communitude us to strictly one void Temperations, that if our very eyes or hands offend us (that is, prove fnares to us) we must rather part them, than to be drawn to fin by them; how much er must we part with any of these unnecessary Sports, than run the hazard of offending God by them? He that to Plays, lays his Soulpe flake, which is see great a Prize to be plaid away. Befides, he loke all the Recreation and Sport he pretends to sim at and, inflead of thet, feet him-felf to a greater roll then any of those labours are, he was to ease by it. For fure the defired and fears of the coverous, the imparience and rage of the Angry Man, are more real pains than any the most laborious work can all report so teprove And the note force to

138. The ambale Duty of Man.

had a third it are wall to part of Temperance APPAREL which we are again. The meafing by the agreembleness to the safe which Classing flouid be at the hiding of Nakedness. This fig.

the first cosation of Apparel, as you keed, Gm. 3-2 roand was the effe the first fin; and therefore when we member the original of Cloarba, we have so linke on to be proud of them, that on the contrary of ve cause to be humbled and alhamed, as havin in innocency which was a much greater Ornames an any the most glorious Apparet can be. From the d of Clothing we are likewise engaged to have to parel Modest, such as may answer this end of cover g our figure! And therefore all immodest Bushing Apparel, which may either argue the wantonnels wester, or provoke that of the beholder, are so b o A Second end of Apparel in the slout of the Body from Cold, thereby to Fencing for melerve the Health thereof. And this Cold. and the Cold. and the Cold. and the Cold. The cold the Cold. The cold the col from Cold, or is some other way so uneasie, that it is rather is hare than a benefit to our Bodies to be so chall This is a most ridiculous folly, and yer that which People that take a Pride in their Cloaths are ufu quilty of, start unds exce risks gray of artis yours sum

10. A third end of Apparel, is the Diffinition that first in respect of Sex is secondly, in respect of Qualities. First, Closths are to make difference of Sex , this hath been observed by all Nations, the Habits of Men and Women have always been divers. And God himself expresty provided for among the Jobs, by commanding that the Mar blied out the which the Record will said to be field

140 The Mihole Buty of Pani

should not wear the Apparel of the Woman, nor the Woman of the Man. But then Secondly, there is also a diffinction of Qualities to be observed in Apparel God hard placed fome in a higher condition than others, and in proportion to their condition, it being their Cloathing to be. Gorgeous Apparel, our Savious tells us, is for Kings Courts, Luke 7. 25. Now this end of Apparel found also be observed. Men and Woman should coment themselves with that fort of Cloathing which agrees to their Sex and Condition, no striving to exceed and equal that of a higher Rank, sor yet making it matter of envy among those of their own liftate, vying who shall be meets; but it every Man cloath himself in such sober Artite as before his Place and Calling, and not think himself disparaged, if another of his Neighbours have better than which add no true worth to any, and therefore it is an intelerable vanity to spend any considerable part either of their thoughts, time, to wealth upon them, or to value themselves ever the more for them, or despite their poor Brethen that want them. But if they desire to adorn themselves, let it be as St. Perus advisors the Women of his time, I Perus, 4. In the hidden Mon of the best, suas as the Ornament of a Most and suite Spirit. Let them closes themselves as richly as is possible, with all Christian Vertues, and that is the raiment that will fer them out lovely in God's eyes, yes, and in Mens too, who, unless they be Foots and idents will more using thee for being good than sine; and sure one plain Constitute upon a Poor Man's Back, will better become thee, than twenty rich ones thou shalt put upon thing own.

To much feveral parts of Temperance, I shall sparing a now in Conclusion add this General Pasts as well Caurion, that though in all these Particulars I have taken notice onely of the one fault of excess, yet it is possible there may be one on the other hand: Men may deny their Bodies that which they necessarily require to their

Suppos

ger and well-being. This is, I believe, a fault norfo mon as the other, yet we formerines fee fome very partir perform that are guilty of it, that cannot find in hearts to borrow to much from their Chefts, a may fill it lieflies, or clouth their backs, and that are fo interest the Works. To moiling and drudging in it, that they not shoot themfelves that competent time of fleep or ention that it accellary. If any that hath read the forpart of this Difcourie be of this temper, fer him not furthinfield, that he is not guilty of those excellent complained of and therefore complained of an access to the complained of and therefore complained of an access to the complained of a comfort himself, that he is not guilty of those excellenties complained of and therefore conclude himself a good Christian, because he is not intemperate; for whoever in this coverous Creature, his abstraining shall not be counted to him as the Vertue of Temperance; for it is not the love of Temperance; but Weshis, that makes him refraint and that is so far from being praise-worthy, that it is than goes fin which the apost teetle us, 1 Tim. 6. 10. It the rest of all and, such a Man's Body will one day rife in purposent against him, for defranding it of its due Portion, those modessue refreshments and comforts which Good hard allowed it. This is an Idolatry beyond that of offering the Children to Molech. Lev. 20. 3, they offered is the Children to Moloch, Lev. 20. 3. they offered bur their Children, but this coverous Wretch Sacrifices himself to his God Mammon, whilst he often defines his heigh, his life, yes, finally his Soultoo, to fave his purfe. I have now done with the Second Head of Duty, that to our felves, constined by the Apostle under the word Soball of an e spine of empt, in so on Land of the star form 1992.

Land of complete to star for the Best 1

Land of complete to the star for the Star of the Star of Alexandra Abode or edite with a call water.

To he are the color between the call with the call of the

the are conversed of the part of the

the control of the second of t

the same of the contract of the same of th

Of Duties to our Neighbours of Inflice, Negarive, Possive. Of the Sin of Mariber of the Prainciples of it, the Punishments of it, and the fraing Discoveries thereof. Of Matin.

Selfe 200 Come now to the Third Daty to our all part of Duties, those to Neighbours in Selfe in the form of Duties, those to Neighbours in Gools in the found distribute of the Apolle In which are by the Apolle In which is mentic not onely have judice, but all kind of Charity alfo, for that is now by the factor of Christ tecome a debrate our Neighbour, and it is a piccoof unviationally all the process Duties we own to our Neighbour, and it is a piccoof unviationally all the process Duties we own to our Neighbour, and it is a piccoof unviationally all the process Duties we own to our Neighbour, on those two General ones, J. W. S. T. D. E. and C. H. A. R. L. T. Velle at the process of the process of the control of the process of the control of the c there are two parts the one blegative, the other politics. The blegative foliation is to do no wrong or injury to any. The Politics foever appertains or is due unto them.

Negative. I shall surft speak of the Negative Justices the not injuring or wronging any. Now because a Man is capable of exceiving wrong in several respects, this first part of justice extends it felt into several branches, answerable to those capacities of injury. A man may be injured either in his Soul, his Body, his Possessions, or Credit, and therefore it is Duty of Negative Justice lays a referaint on is in every of these. That we do not wrong to any Man in respect either of his Soul, his Body, his Possession, or

Sund 10. Of Aufrice to the Arighm

s. First, this justice ties us to do no many to his Soul: And here my first work. To the must be, to examine what huma it is that "SOUL," ne Soul can receive? It is, we know, an white substance, which we cannot reach with our eye, such less with our (words and weapons; yet for all this, it is capable of being humand wounded; and that yet to death!

Now the Soul may be confidered

Now the Soul may be considered, there is a natural of formula fence, in the Natural tence is a natural of formula fence, in the Natural tence is a finished, ally call the Mind of a Man and this, we all know, may be wounded with grief or fadness, we all know, may be wounded with grief or fadness, as Solomon faith, Prov. 12. 13. By former of boars the Spirit to brokes. Therefore whoever dott cautletly stilled or grieve fits Neighbour, he transgretten this pare of furtice, and hurts and wrongs his Soul. This fift of injury malicious and spiteful Men are very other guilty of they will do things, by which then felve reap no good, may often much having only that they may ver and grieve mother; this is most favage, following the tumour, thus to take pleature in the fadness and afflictions of others; and whoever harbours it in the fact, may truly be faid to be policit with the Dethe heart, may truly be faid to be pollett with the Devil for it is the Nature onely of those Accurred Sprint to Delight in the Mifferies of Men; and all that be cult out, they are fit onely to dwell, as the pollet retion did, Mark; a mony Graves and Timbs, where there are none capable of receiving Affiliation by them.

3. But the Soul may be confidered alfo in the Spiritual Sence, and to it fignifies In the Spiritual that Immortal Part of us which must live rual."

Eternally, either in Blifs of Wo in another

World. And the Soul thus understood, is capable of two forts of harm; First, that of fin : Secondly, that of punishment, the latter whereof is certainly the confequent of the former. And therefore, though God be the inflicter of Punishment, yet fince it is but the effect of fin, we may justly reckon, that he that draws a Man to fin, is likewife the betrayer of him to punithment, as he that gives a Man a Mortal Wound, is the ranks of his death a therefore under the evil of fin both are contained, so that I need speak only of that.

6. And sure there cannot be a higher fore of wrong than the bringing this great sin, the evil upon the Soul. Sin is the different wound of the Soul, as being the direct contrary to Grace, which is the health and soundness of it. Now this wound we give to every Soul, whom we do by any means whatloever draw mee fin.

7. The ways of doing that are divers, Direct sugars. I shall mention fome of others, whereof is, though fome are more direct than others, yer all tend to the same end. Of the more lived ones, there is, first, the commanding of fin, that is, when a Person, that hash commanding of fin, that is, direct ones, there is, first, the commanding of sin, this is, when a Person that hath power over another, shall require him to do something which is unlawful: an example of this we have in Nebuchaster and a commanding the Worship of the Golden Image, Dan. 3.4. and his Copy is interested by any Parent or Matter, who shall require of his Child or Servant to do any unlawful act. Secondly, there is Counfelling of sin, when Men advice and perswade others to any wickedness. Thus Job's Wife counselled her Husband to Curse God, Job 2.7. And Achitebell advised Abfalow to go in to his Father's Concubints, 2 Sam. 16. 21. Thirdly, there is enticing and alturing to sin, by fetting before Men the Pleasures or Profits they shall reap by it. Of this fort of Enticement Sciences gives warning, Prov. 1. 10. My Son, if sometimes these, confest them not; if stoyles, Come with us, let us let thee, confest them not; if stoyles, Come with us, let us let mait for Bland, let us lark privity for the innocent without a Cause, St. and Verse the 13th, you may see what is the batt, by which they feek to allure them; We shall find all precious substance; we shall fill our longer hall find all precious substance; we shall fill our houses with spail. Cast in thy lot among us, let us all have when Men aid and help others either in contriving or acting a fin. Thus Jonadab helpt Annon in plotting the ravishing of his Sifter, 2 Sam. 13. All these are diect means of bringing this great evil of fin upon our Brethren.

Sund to. Of Juftice to our Neighbour.

2. There are also others, which though y frem more indirect, may yet be as established towards that ill end: As first, Exmple in fin , he that fets others an ill pattern, close he to make them imitate it, and too often it bath distinct; there being generally nothing more forcible bring Men into any finful practice, than the fet it used by others; as might be infranced in man ins to which there is no other temperation, but the in fin, when either by approving, or elfe at leaft by not fiewing a diffike, we give others confidence to go on in their wickedness. A chird means is by sufficient and defending my finful act of anothers, for by that we do not onely confirm him in his evil, but enthat we do not onely confirm him in his evil, Out en-danger the drawing others to the like, who may be the more inclinable to it, when they shall hear it so pleaded for. Lastly, the bringing up any represent up-on first and Christian living, as those do who have the ways of God in derifion; this is a means to af-fright Men from the practice of duty, when they fee in-will bring them to be formed and despised this is worse thin all the former, not onely in respect of the Man who is guilty of it (as it is an evidence of the great profunc-ncia of his own heart) but also in regard of others, it having a more general ill effect than any of the onely to some single acts of disobedience to Christ. t even to the cafting off all fubjection to him. I all these means we may draw on our selves this rethren.

9. It would be too long for me to inhance in all the feveral fins, in which it Men fadly to is usual for Men to enshare others; as Drunkemes, Uncleannes, Rebellion, and a multitude more. But it will concom every Man for his own particular, to confider fadly what mischiefs of this confider w they have the Injured.

kind he hath done to any, by all or any of thefe means, and to weigh well the greatness of the injury. Men are apt to boast of their innocency towards cheir

Tishe Tought and of the same

their Neighboury, that they have done wrong to no Man; but God knows, many that thus brag, are of all others the most injurious persons; perhaps they have not mainted his Body; not frola this Goods; but also the Body is but the Case and Cover of the Man, and the Goods some appartenances to that; the the Soul is the Man, and that they can wound and plette without Kernorse; and yet with the Adulterest, Prov. 30, 20, 160, they have done to mickedies; but glory of their friendly behaviour to those whom they thus betray to Ecernal Ruine; for whomsoever thought drawn to any fin, thou has done thy part to after the first of the senders that they felf, how base a creathery this is; thou would all film a Treatherous Villain; that mothed, while he prevends to imbrace a Man, secretly stab him; but the call him a Treacherous Villain, what mould, while he precedes to imbrace a Man, fecreally flab him: but this of thine is as far beyond that, as the Soul is of more value than the Body, and Hell worfe than Death. And amended yot farther, that belides the cruelty of it to the Poor Brocher, it is also most dangerous to the left, is being that against which Christ hath pronounced a World Matter, is, 7, and Verte 6. The tells as, that where faill offend (that is, draw into fir) any of stole tests ones it were better for him that a Millione were houseful about his nets, and that he were deviated in the depict of the Sed. Thou mayest plunge thy Poor Brocher into Persistion? but as it is with Wrestlers, he that gives another a fall, commonly falls with him to thou at like to bear him Company to that place of Tormetri.

To. Let therefore thy own and his Heartify to be danger, beget in thee a fenfe of the of injuffice to the precious Soul of the Neighbour. Bethink thy felf feriously to whom thou hast enticed to Drinking, advised to Rebellion, allured to Lust, stirred up to Rage; whom thou halt affifted or incouraged in any ill Course or discouraged and discarred by thy Prophase Scotlings at Piety in General, or at any Confronable first walking of his in Particular, and then draw up a Bill of Indicament; Accuse and ConSund 1 Q. Of Juffice to our Neighboth . 1 47

denn thy felf as a Can, a Murderer of thy Bro-ter, heartily and deeply bewall all thy guilts of this sind, and refolve never once more to be a flunthing blocky in St. Pant calls it, Rose 14, in thy Brocher', way, 1720 . And the property to the form fruit of this Repensance brought Endeavour to form. Now in all fins of Injuffied, to Repair it.

fruition is a necessary fruit of Repensance, and so it is here; thou hast committed an act (propage many) of high Teinfile.

penhip many) of high injuffice to the Soul of the soule of the soule of the soule of the interest of its innocency, of its interest of the soule of all this to it again, by being more earnest and industrious to win him to Rependence, than ever thou were to draw him to fin : use now as much are to convince him of the danger, as ever thou didft to flatter him with the pleasures of his Vice; in a word, countermine thy self, by using all those Methods and Means to recover him; that thou didft to destroy him; and be more diligent and zealous in it; for its needlay thou shoulds; both in regard of him and thy tell. First in respect of him, because there is in Man's use of the property of the content of the the formach a greater prompanels and readiness to evil that to good, that there will need much more pains and diligence to intell the one large him, than the other beside the Man is supposed to be already accustomed to the contary, which will add much to the difficulty of the work. Then in respect of thy self, if thou be a true penirent the wife think thy self obliged, as St. Paul did, To labor abundantly, and will be ashamed, that when thou in trading for God, bringing back a Soul to him, thou ould it not purfue it with more earn stress than white that wert an Agent of Satan's, befides, the remembrance that thou were means of bringing this poor Soul into this Stare, must necessarily docken thy diligence to get him out of it. Somuch for the first part of Negative Justice, in respect of the Souls of our Dectaren.

Percent as builted to be district the deal the Land out with Fro land 148 The un hole Duty of Pan.

Negative Juflies to the bedy.

In respect of Several ways of being guilty of Murder.

13. The fecond concerns the bodies and to those also this Justice binds there to do no wrong nor violence. Now of wrongs to the Body, there may be several degrees, the highest of them is killing, taking away the Life; this is forbid in the very letter of the Sixth Communication. Those shall do so Marketer the several degrees.

18. Murder may be committed either by open violence, when a Marether by Sword, or any other inftrument takes away anothers life, immediately takes away anothers life, immediate roufly, as David Murthered Vriah, not with his own ord, but with the Sword of the Children of 2 Same 11.17. And Jexebel Maberb by a falle Accept of Murther by Poylon, Falle Witness, or force such con-cealed ways. The former is commonly the effect of a studen rage, the latter bath several originals, sometimes it proceeds from fome old Malice fixt in the heart towards the Person ; sometimes from some covetous or ambitious delires, fuch an one flands in a Man's way to his Profit or Preferment, and therefore he Infants, that they may not betray their filthiness. But besides these more direct ways of killing, there is mother, and that is, when by our perswasions and enticements we draw a Man to do that which tends to the flortning of his Life, and is apparent to do fo , he that makes his Neighbour Drunk, if by that Drunkenness the Man comes to any Mortal hutt, which he would have escaped if he had been so that made him Drunk is not clear of his Death; if he die nor by any fuch fudden accident, yet if Drinking cast him into a Disease, and that Disease kill him, I know not how he that drew him to that Excess, can acquir himself of his Murther in the eyes of d, though Humane Laws touch him not. I will those who make it their business to draw in Customers the trade of Debauchery, would confider it. There we another way of bringing this guilt upon our files; and that is, by inciding and filtring up or the tis, or to that degree of anger and revenge with produces it; and he that fers two Perfors as manner, or feeing them already fo, blows the coals, if Marder enfort, he certainly bath his share in the guilt; which is a consideration that ought to affright all from large my thing to do in the kindling or increasing of Concertion.

Sund 1 a. Several ways of Murder.

Murcher, I suppose none can be The beinous for the morant, that it is of the deepest ness of the deepest ness of the morant of the suppose of the ever was committed a Abel's Blood crieth from Earth, as God rells Cain , Gen. 4, to. Yea, the of this fin is fuch, that it leaves a flain even on the Land where it is committed, fuch as is not he washed out, but by the Blood of the Murhere; as appears, Dest, 15, 12, 13; The Land annot be purged of Blood, but by the Blood of him her field it; and therefore though in other cases the fring to the Alter fecured a Man, yet in this of wil-ful Murder no fuch refuge was allowed, but fuch a one was to be taken even thence, and delivered up to justice. Exod. 21. 14. Those shall take him from my dist. And it is yet farther abservamentions, as given to Noah after the Flood, were both in relation to this fin , that of not cating Blood, Go. 3.4. being a Ceremony to heger in Men a greater horrour of this fin of Murther, and fo intender for the preventing of it. The other was for th nilhment of it, Gen. 9. 6. He that feeldeth Ma Blad, by Man Shall, his Blood be feed; and the reafer if this strictness is added in the next words, For in his in or enely an injury to our Brother, but even the highest contempt and despight rowards God himself. in it is the defacing of his Image, which he hath amped upon Man. Nay yet farther, it is the narping to The Mihole Duty of Man.

unimping of God's proper right, and authority. It is I God alone, that hath right so dispose of a life of Man; rwas he alone that gave it, and the alone that hath bower to take it away; but that fourthers a Man; does as it were, well this power. trof God's hand, which is the highest pitch of librapreflympion of about ment more to de thing administratives And detale his is great to like The great pie- liwife is the punifument s we fee it fresending it. in this World (belides those most fear nor only cries, but is cries for Vengerne, and the great God of recompenes, as he filler himself, will not fail to hear it: very many examples the Scripture gives us of this think and Yezabel, that murthered innocent Nabuth, for greedingly of his Vine-yard, were themselves stain, and the Dogs licked their Blood in the place where they had shed his, as you may read in the place where they had hed his, as you may read in that Story; so Absume that flew his brother canonic after he had committed that fin, sell into another, that of Rebellion against his King and Father, and in id miserably perished. Rashab and Branch, and they shought to death, and that by the very Person they thought to endea by die of the Sacred Story; and many also son of thumane, where having been no age but hash yielded multiplies of examples of this kind. multiplies of examples of this kind, of that ever Many may furnish himself out of the observations of h The many stier the Mood, venila boold notice to re. And it is worth our notice, The france dif- what frange and even miraculous interier of it: means it hath often pleafed God w - of the difference of this fin the brute Creatures have often been made inflitte ments of it; nay, often the extream horror of a Man's for that it is not any cloteness a Man uses in the vengeince of it, for he can never that our his own

Six asi

1984 Dana Januar

Contones that will in fpiglit of him be privy to be fait, and that year after prive the mean of differenting into the World; or if it should not do that ye it will store ach revenge on him, it will be such a still within thim, as will be worfe than Deeth's thin have never been able to enjoy a minute with but have that intolerable to guilt of minds that they live chosen to be their own Muntherens rather than live in it. These are the usual effects of this finite we in this World, but those in another are yet more deadful, where surely the highest degrees of comment belong to this high pitch of wickedness for if, as otherwise training that high pitch of wickedness for if, as otherwise training that he call his flatcher fool, when designed of those bearings can we think proportionable to this so much greater that but call his flatcher fool, when designed of those bearings can we think proportionable to this so much greater an injury?

fall of our felves, what we never fall into our leives, that we never that into our leives, that we never that those occasions which may infantibly draw the into this Pit of Is multiplied at a first several things which are worte to be originals of it? and et those we mish be single fixed will surely guard our felves. If there is fore those will be five never to it ill a Man in they age, he forenesses to be in the rage of for if those personnels the felt to that, thou can't have an fecturity much the selections. against the other, anger, being a madness that suffers us not be confidet, or know what we do, when it has once possess us. Therefore when thou findest thy self begin to be inflamed, think berimes whither this lead thee, if thou lettelt loofe to it, and inmedian ely put the Bridle upon this head-flavore passion So min if thou wile be fare thy maler shall not draw. to it , be fure never to harbour one malicious thought in thy Heart, for if it once fettle there, it will, saher fuch strength, that within a while thou will be filly under the power of it to that it may lead thee

172 The wilhole Buty of spent

thee even to this horrible fin at its pleasure, be there fore excell at the very first approach of this creatherous Guest, so thus the doors squint it, never to let it enter thy mind; so also if thou will be fare thy oversustress, thy ambition, thy lust, or any other inful defire, that not begay there to it, be fare thou rever permit any of them to bear any fivey with thee; for if they get the dominion, as they will from do, if they be once entertained in the Heart, they will be past thy controul, and hurry there to this or any other fin, thus may ferve their ends. In like manner, if thou would-eft not be guilty of any of the moral effects of thy cft not be guilty of any of the mortal effects of thy beighbours Drunkenness, be fure not to emite him to it, nor accompany him at it; and to the purpose do not allow thy felf in the same practice, for if thou do, thou wilt be labouring to get. Company at it. Lastly, if thou wilt not be guilty of the Murther committed by another, take heed thou never give any oncouragement to it, or contribute any thing to that handly at committed, hat may be the cause of it. For when thou hast either kindled or blowed the Fire, what knowed thou whom it may consume? Bring always as much water as thou canst to quench, but never being one drop of Oyl to encrease the same. The like may be said of all other occasions of this sin, not here mentioned; and this careful preserving our selves from these, is the only fore way to keep us from this sin? Therefore as ever thou fore way to keep us from this fin: Therefore as ever thou wouldest keep thy felf innocent from the greet offence, guard thee warily from all fuch in-less, those fleps and approaches towards it has many . The on

Maining a greatest, yet it is not the only injury great injury, that may be done to the Body of our Neighbour; there are others which are also of a very high nature; the next in degree to this is Maining him, depriving him of any Member, or at least of the use of it, and this is a very great wrong and mischief to him, as we may discern by the Judgment of God himself, in the case of the Bond-fervant, who should by his Masters means lose a Member, Exed. 21. 26. the freedom of his whole the was thought but a resionable recompense for it.

Its shall tet him to free, faith the Text; for his Eye a may though it were a tell considerable part, if it were hat a tooth, which of all others may be lost with the sait damage, yet the same amends was to be made him, refe 27.

19. But we need no other way of mailining this injury, than the judg. That which evenued every man in his own case, 77 Man deads how much does every man dread the for himself.

10 of a limb 2 for that if he be by any coulent or differs in danger of it, he thinks no pains or out too much to preserve it. And then how great an injustice how contrary to that great rule of doing, a me most be done to, is it for a Man to do that to another, which he forumvillingly suffers himself?

10 if the person be poor, one hat if the person be poor, one in the ment should for his living, the: Tet worse if the next should for his living, the: Tet worse if the next should for his living, the: Tet worse if the next is seen to the former in of adurthers for as the Wise man says, Ecclesias. At the poor Man's Bread is his Life, and he than terious these thereof is a Bleed-shedder. And therefore he that deprives him of the means of getting his Bread, by distibiling him from Labour, is surely no less guilty. In the Law it was permitted to every man that had sustained such a damage by his Northbour, to require the Manistrage to inside the like Neighbour, to require the Magistrase to inflict the like whim, Eye fer Eye, Tooth for Tooth, as it is, Exedus

20. And though unprofitable re-Venge be not now allowed to us Necessity of ma-Christians, yet fure it is the part king what satis-of every one who hath done this faction we can, lies in his power, its true, he cannot reflere a limb again (which by the way should make Men way how they do these mischies which it is so impelible for them to repair) but yet he may sa-tisse for some of the ill effects of that loss. If that have brought the Man to want and penury, he may, may he must, if we have but the least ability, relieve 354 The impole waty of span.

and furport him, yea, though it be by his own extraordinary labour; for if it be a duty of us all to be Pyra to the Blind, and Feet to the Lame as Job speaks, such more mill; we be so them whom our selves have made Blind and Lame. Therefore whosever had done this injury to any of his poor Breathren, let him know he is bound to do all that is possible towards the repairing of it; if he do not, every new sufficingular the poor Mili's wants bring upon him, becomes a sevencharge and accusation against him, at the Tribinal of the just sudge.

Wands and an impury on the Body of our Neighborn fries alfa. I shall mention only two more. Wounds with alfa. I shall mention only two more. Wounds and stripes, a Man may wound now there, which though it finally cause lost mether of Life nor Limb, my yet as endangering of boths, and the like may be said of Stripes; both of which however are very painful at the present, may, perhaps very long after and pain, of all remposal evils, is to be accounted the greatest, for it is not only an evil in it said, but it is such arrowe, that permits us not whilst we are under it, to enjoy any other tood; a Man in pain having no taste of any the greatest delights. If any Man despite these, as light injuries, set him again as himself, how he would like it, to have his own hold stanked or bruised, and put to pass under those painful means of cure, which are many times recessive in the go this from another, and why then houseless thou offer it to him?

This cruelty to othere the effect of pride. 22. The truth is, this firings of elly to other is the effect of a great pride, and haughtines of licentive look poor others with fact con-

we look upon others with foth collections, that we think it no matter how they are used, we think they must bear blows from us, when in the mean time we are so render of our selve, that we cannot hear the least word of disparagement, but we are all on a fluid. The provocations to their injuries are commonly so slight, that did not this invariant of disparagement, but we are all on a fluid. The provocations to their injuries are commonly so slight, that did not this invariant of the state of the reake firest every thing, it were impossible we should be moved by them. Noy, fome are advanced to make a wantonness of criefly, that without any proposition at all, in cool Blood, as they fay, they can have wrong their pope Bouldren with make it parts of their passime and recreation to cause pain to others. This fome tyrannous humours take fuch a pleasure n tormenting those under their power, that they are glad when they can but find a pretence to punin them, and then do it without all moderation, and others will fer Men together by the Ears, only that they may have the sport of seeing the scusse. like the old Roman, ther made it one of their publicle note to fee Mrn kill one another, and fure we have a lime Christianity as they, if we can take delight in inch spectacles.

23. This favageness and cruelty of mind is so unbe-23. This lavageness and cruency or minutes to unoccoming the nature of a Man, that he is not allowed to use it even to his beast; how intelegable is it then towards choses their ore of the same natures and which is more; are helps of the same evental hopes with us? They should thus transfered another help beighbours in any of the foregoing particulars, of whatever else is hurten the body are unjust persons: want even this lowest for of turbice, the negative to their Neighbours, in respect of their Bodies.

A Neither can any Man excise himself by faying he has done was only to recurn of fome injury fired him by the other; for fuppose it be so, that c have indeed received some considerable wrong, yet annot be be his own revenger without injury to him Man who is not, by being thine enemy, become by tassal, or slave, to do with him what thou lift, or half never the more right of dominion over him, cause he hash done thee wrong, and therefore if our halft, no power over his Rody before, the rain thou half none now it and therefore thou are not only uncharitable (which yet were fin enough to damn thee) but unjust in every act of violence thou dost to him. Nay, this injustice ascends higheven to God himfelf, who hath referved vengeance as lindwn peculiar right, Vongeance is mine. I will repay, 756 The Muhole Duty of Man.

fathithe Lord, Rom. 15. 19. and then he that will at sevenge for himself, what does he, but increach upon this special right and prerogative of God, finish the Sword, as it were, out of his hand, as if he knew bester how to wield in? Which is at once a cobbery and consempt of the Divine Majesty.

SUNDAY XI.

one chall take a method exactly the said

Of Justice about the Possessions of our Neighbury, against injuring him, as concerning his Wife, his Goods. Of Oppression, Thesi. Of paying of Debts, &cc.

Sect. 1. HE Third part of Negative Juffice concerns the Policifions of our He policifions. I cannot better explain than by referring you to the Tenth Commandment, the end of which is to bridle all coverous Appetites and defines towards the Policifions of our Neighbour. There we find rectoned up, not only his House, Servants and Cattel, which may all pass under the one general name of his Goods or Riches, but particularly his Wife, as a principal past of his possession, and therefore when we consider this duty of Negative Justice, in respect of the possessions of our Neighbour, we must apply it to both, his Wifess well as his Goods.

2. The especial and peculiar right

He Wife. that every Man hath in his Wife is for well known, that it were vain to fay any thing in proof of it; the great impatience that every

Husband hath to have this right of his invaded, there that it is sufficiently understood in the World, and therefore none that does this injury to another, can be ignorant of the greatness of it. The corrupting of a Mana wie, enricing her to a firange Bed, is by all acknowled to be the work fort of Theft, infinitely beyond the of the Goods.

3. Indeed there is in this one a heap the oricing of the greatest injustices together, some the greatest injustices together, some the greatest injustices together, some the greatest injustices to the Woman there are the greatest imaginable; it is that injustice to her Soul, which was before mentioned to the highest of all others; it is the robbing her of her innecency, and setting her in a course of the horridest wickedness (no less than To the Woman. Luft and perjury together) from which it is probable the may never return, and then it proves the damning of her Eternally. Next, it is in respect of this World the robbing her of her Credit, making her abhorred and despised, and her very name, a reproach among all Men; and besides, it is the depriving her of all that happiness of Life, which arises from the matual kindness and affection that is between Man and Wife. Instead whereof, this brings in a loathing and abhorring Inited whereof, this brings in a loathing and abhorring of each other, from whence flow multirades of mil-chiefs, too many to rehearle, in all which the Man hath his there also.

I But befides those, there are to To the Man.

him many and high injustices; for it is fift the robbing him of that, which of all other things he accounts most precious, the Love and Faithfulness of his Wife, and that also wherein he hath such an communicable right, that himself cannot, if he would, alte is over to any other; and therefore size it y any. Nor is this all, but it is farther the ingul-ing him (if ever he come to differ it) in that most og him (if ever he come to difcern it) in that most menong pation of jedoofie, which is of all others a most painful, and which of pur Men upon the most before exempts; it being as Selomon fays, Pres. 14. The rage of a Man. It is yet farther, the range upon him all that fcorr and contempt which by the unjust measures of the World fails on them which are to abufed, and which is by many efteemed

178 The Mihole Duty of Man.

cheemed the most insufferable part of the wrong, and though it be true, that it is very unjust he should fall under reproach, only because he is injured, yet unless the World could be new moulded, it will certainly be helot, and therefore it adds much to the injury. Again, this may indeed be a robbery in the usual sense of the word, for perhaps it may be the thrusting in the child of the Adulterer into his family, to share both in the mintenance and portions of his own Children, and this an errant thest; first, in respect of the Man, who surely intends not the providing for another Mans shringly intends not the providing for another Mans Child; and then in respect of the Children, who see by that means destrauded of so much as that goes away with. And therefore whosever hath this circumstance of the sin to repent of, cannot do it effectively, without restoring to the Family as much as he hash by this means robb'd it of.

The most cree make this the greatest and most preparable. When a make the greatest and most prevoking injury that can be done to a Man, and (which heightens it ye

Man, and (which heightens it yes more) it is that, for which a Man can never make reparations: For unless it be in the circumstance before mentioned, there is no part of this sin, wherein that can be done. To this purpose it is observable in the lewish Law, that the Thief was appointed to reflect fourfold, and that freed him; but the Adultere having no possibility of making any reflicution, any satisfaction, he must pay his life for his offence, Leu, 20 to, and though now adays Adulterers speed better, live, many days to renew their guile, and perhaps to laugh at those whom they have thus injured, yeller them be affured, there must one day be a sat reckoning and that whether they report or not. If by God's Grace they do come to Repentance, they will then find this to be no cheap fin; many anguishes Soal, terrour and perplexities of Conscience, groun and tears, it must cost them; and indeed, were Man's whole Life spent in these pentennial candians, tweeter little causes to wipe off the guilt of any one single act of this kind; what over-whelming forrows then are requisite for such a trade of this sin, as many drive? Certainly it is to great a teak, that is highly necessary for all that are so concerned, set to it immediately, lest they want time to so hough with it; for let no Man flatter himself, that a milt of a course and habit of such a sin can be will a sway with a single act of Repentance; no, he must proportion the Repentance to the fault, and a man bath been a habit and course. So must she call. one hath been a habit and course, fo must the other fo. And then how firange a madness is it for Men to run into this fin, (and that with such painful purin as many do) which he knows must at the best hus dear? But then if he do not repent, infinitely barer? It lofes him all his Thie to Heaven, that pl former, it tole min an his back heaven, the paster of purity, and gives him his portion in the Lake of the where the burnings of his Luft shall end in those which his fin, be it for how closely foever he hath and this fin, be it for that he may have faid with the dedictorer in Jub 25; 15. No Bys forth me, yet fire he could not in the greatest obscuriey the is in Markeels, Plate 139. 12. And he is is the markeels, Plate 139. 12. And he is is the express the express of the express o

the exposure of social Acceptance with a fit of the effective of a Longbor of the analysis of the effective of the effective in damage in any of them, or to get any of them n our felves: I make a difference between these two because there may be two several grounds or motives this injuffice; the one malice, the other coverous design and trade definition of the following the following

160 The milyole Duty of Man

Walicious in- Work his Neighbours Mifchief, though the get nothing by it himfelf, it for quently feen, that Men will make in work and spoil of the Goods of one, to whom the bear a grudge, though they never defign to get any ahing to themselves by it, but only the pleasure of doing a spight to the other. This is a most hellish amour, directly answerable to that of the Devil, who bestows all his pains and industry, not to bring in any good to himself, but only to ruine and undo the there and how contrary it is to all rules of juffice you may fee by the Precept given by God to the Jews concerning the goods of an Enemy, where they were to far from being allowed a liberty of spoil and defiruction, that they are expuelly bound to powent is, Exed. 29. 45. If then must thine manier vent is, Exed. 29. 45. If these meet thine emmiss of six Ali going afteray; then shalt swelly bring is back to him again: If then fee the Ali of him this backto these lying under his borden, and wouldest foreign to help, these shalt swelly help with him. Where you fee is a debt we owe to our very Enemies, to prevent that loss and damage, which by any accident he is in danger of: and that even with some labour and pairs so our ceives. How horrible an injustice is it then, purposely to bring that loss and damage on him? Whoever is multy of this let him never except him. Whoever is guilty of this, let him never excuse himself by faying he bath not enricht himself by the hold of his Neighbour, that he bath nothing of it cleaves to his Pinger, for fure this malicious injustice is no left full than the covetous one; pay, I suppose in respect of the principle and cause from which it flows, it may be greater, this hatred of another being worse than the immoderate love of our selves; whoever bath this misshiest his Neighbour, he is as much bound or mischieft his Neighbour, he is as much bound so re-

he had enriched himfelf by it.

8. But on the other fide, fer north coverous injucoverous defrauder therefore judge himfer, because there is another than in some one respect our-weight it; for in this one, that he that is unjust for greedings and, is like to multiply more acts of this fin, than be that is for out of malice; for 'this impossible any Man and have so many objects of his malice; as he may have of his coverous set; there is no Man at so general a defining with all Mankind, that he hates every Body; but the coverous Man hath as many objects of the vice, is there be things in the World he counts makable. But I shall not longer stand upon this comdiable. But I finall not longer trains upon this conprint, its fure they are both great and crying finad that is ground enough of abhorring each: let us from my to the feveral branches of this fort of overous injuffice; it is true, they may all bear the me of robbery, or thefi, for in effect they are all the methods (see it will not be amile to diyes for methods take it will not be amis to dimuch them into these three, Oppression, These, and

p. By Oppression, I mean that open oppression, and bare-faced robbery of teining upon the possessions of others, and owning and moving the doing so. For the doing of this them are several infiruments; as first, that of power, by which many Nations and Princes have been turned out of their rights, and many private Men out of their estates: Sometimes again, Law is made the infirument of it; he that covers his Neighbourn fand or Goods, pretends a claim to them and then by corrupting of Justice, by Bribgs and Gifts, or else over-ruling it by greatness and Authority, gets judgment on his side: This is a high oppression, and of the worse fort, thus to make the Law, which and of the worse fort, thus to make the Law, whi Highs, to be the means of over-throwing them, and it is very heavy guilt, that lies both on him there pronounces such a feature, and on him that pronounces such a feature, yea, and on the Lawyer and that pleads such a cause, for by so doing, he affists in the opprelion. Sometimes again, the very necessities of the oppressed are the means of his oppression; thus it is in the case of Extortion, and griping Usury; a sun is in extream want of Money, and this gives opportunity to the Extortioner to Wrest unconstants from him; to which the poor Man is forced to just to supply his present wants. And thus also it is easy with exacting Landlords, who, when their poor I mante know not how to provide themselves essuber rack and skew them beyond the worth of the man. All these, and many the like, are but several ways of acting this one sin of Oppression, which become yet the more hainous, by how much the more helpless on of the Widow and Fatherless, is in Scripture memorial as the height of this sin.

162 The Whole Duty of Pan.

To. It is indeed a most crying guilt, and God's venges that against which God harm threatned his mest against heavy vengeance, as we read in directly the season of Scripture; thus it is, Erek, 18.

Texts of Scripture; thus it is, Erek, 18.

The thus hard sport field the poor, and hard sport for the poor and oppositely used to be the regaged as it were in honour to be their wenter; and accordingly. Plalm 12. we fee God solemnly declare his resolution of appearing for them. Veri 1.

For the appropriate of the poor, for the lighting of the mest, we will tartle, faithful the poor because he is poor; neither application of the poor because he is poor; neither application of the poor because he is poor; neither application with gard, for the Lord mill plead their confident with gard, for the Lord mill plead their confident in the gard, for the Lord mill plead their confident in the end to have little joy of the boncy it bring them in, when it thus engages God against them.

The fectors for of this injuffice is The The feet all there are two kinds, the one with holding what we fould pay, and the distance from one Neighbour what is already in his profession of the or the feet of the same of the order of the ore operation be the rise at his opportions thus.

These the cute of Exercises, and giping Units the fill have the green water of the green, and this green of the first fort is the not pay-Debta, whether such as we Not paying what rowed or fuch as by our me borrow.

The state of the state of them them them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a Thefrence with holding of either of them is a them. bening from my Neighbour that which is his a the former of them is rather the more injurious, by that I take from him that which he once actually (be it Money or whatever elfe) and so make him. then I found him. This is a very great, and or common injustice. Men can now a-days with as m that asks an Alms; nay, many times tis made ner of quarrel for a Man to demand his own: tides the many attendances the Creditor is put to in minit of it, are a yet farther injury to him, by wasting in one, and taking him aff from other business, and he is made a loter that way too. This is to great flice, that I fee not how a Man can look upon any thing he possesses as his own right, whilest he thus es, rather to ftrip himself of all, and cast himself in maked upon God's providence, than thus to feaher his nest with the spoils of his Neighbours. And indy it would prove the more thriving course, not only in select of the blefling which may be expected upon justice, compared with the curie that attends the courary, but even in worldly prudence also; for he that defers paying of debts, will at last be forced to to by Law, and that upon much worse rerms than might have done it voluntarily, with a greater aree, and with fuch a loss of his credit, that afternd in his greatest necessities he will not know where to berrow. But the fure way for a Man to fecure himself from the guilt of this injustice, is never to bornow more than he knows he hath means to repay, unlefa it be of one, who knowing his difability, is willing to run the hazzard. Otherwise he commits this sin at the ver time of borrowing; for he takes that from his Neighbour

164 Wie Wibole Buty of Shin

eighbour upon promife of paying, which he is never likely to relicate to him, which is a fi

The fame justice which the bear of open their own Debus ties also tree of furcing to pay their Debus of other for which he funds bound, in one to principal either cannot or will not: for by being bound he hash made it his own debt, and must in all lustice answer it to the Creditor, who, it's prefumed, was drawn to lend on confidence of his fecurity, and therefore is directly cheated and betrayed by him, if he see him not satisfied. If it be thought hard, that a Man should pay for that which he never received benefit by. I shall yield it, so far as to be just married by a great blanch has been a to be just married. pagements, but it can never be made an excuse for the breaking them.

What we have which is thought upon a Man by practifed. which we have which is thought upon a Man by pressifed. his own voluntary promife, that also cannot without great injultice be with-holden, for it is now the Man's right, and then his no matter by what means it came to be for Therefore we fee David makes it part of the defeription of a just Man, Pfalm. 15. 4, that he keep his promifes, yes, though they were made to his emdifasionatage: And furely he is utterly unfit to attend to that holy Hill, there spoken of, either as that fignifies the Church here, or Heaven hereafter, that does not punchually observe this part of justices. To this fort of Debe may be reduced the wager of the this fore of Debe may be reduced the wager of the Servant, the hire of the Labourer; and the with-holding of these is a greater sin, and the complaint of those that are thus injured, ascend up to God. Behold (faith St. James) the higher of the Labourers mad have Reaped down your Fields, which is of you kept lack by fraud, cryeth, and the cries of them that have Reaped are entred into the Ear of the Lord of Sabbath. De 24. 14, 15. we find a ftrict command in this mater Thou shalt not oppress a hired Servant that is poor and needs at his day then shalt give him his hire, neither shall the Sa to the spen it, for he is poor, and fetteth his heart upon it, for any other to the Lord; and it be fin onto these or of the those loud clamorous fine which will not create all it bring down God's Vengeance; and prefere though thou halt no Justice to thy poor Broner, yet have at least fo much Mercy to thy self, as not to pull down Judgments on thee by thus wronging him.

SUNDAY XII.

of Thest; Stealing; Of Deceit in Trust, in Traffick; Of Restitution, &c.

Sedat. He Second part of Theft, Stealing the is the taking from our Goods of one Neighbour that which is Neighbour.

already in his Possessiin; and this may be done either more violently and openly, or elfe more closely and fliely, the first is the manner of those that Rob on the Way, or Plunder Houses, where, by force, they take the Goods of their Neighbour; the other is the way of the Pilfering Thief, thet rakes away a Man's Goods unknown to him. I shall not dispute which of these is the worst, 'sis enough that they are both fuch acts of Injustice, as make men odious to God, unfit for Humane Society, and berray the Actors to the greatest Mischiefs even in this World, death it felf being by Law appointed the reward of it; and there are few that follow this Trade long, but at last meet with that fruit of it. I am fure tis madness for any to believe he shall always Steal securely, for he is to contend with the Industry of all those whom he shall thus Injure. whole Loffes will quicken their Wits for the finding him our, and which is infinitely more, he is to ftruggle with luftice of God, which doth usually pursue such Men to defiruction, even in this World; witness the many frange discoveries that have been made of the craftieft Thieves. But however, if he were fecure from the vengeance

166 The Whole Buty of Man.

vengeance here, I am fure nothing but repentance in reformation can fecure him from the hereafter. And now when thefe-dans swill fure appear, that the Thief make gain, he fleals his Neighbour's Money n exchange for it he must pay his Life or his Sou perhaps both; and if the whole World be too mean a price for a Soul, as he tells w. Mark 8. 36. who belt knew the value of them, having himfelf bought them, What a strange Madness is it, to barrer them away for every petty trifle as many do, who have got fire habit of Stealing, that not the meanest worthless thing can escape their fingers? under this head of Thefr may be ranked the Receivers of Stoln Goods. whether those that take them, as Partners in the Th or those that Buy them, when they know or believe they are Stoln. This many, (that pretend much to abhor Thefi) are guilty of, when they can by it Buy the thing a little Cheaper than the Common Rare. And here also comes in the concealing of any goods a Man finds of his Neighbours, which, who verreftores not, if he know, or can learn out the owner, is no better than a Thief; for he withholds from his Neighbour that which properly belongs to him: and fure 'twill not be uncharitable to fay, that he that will do this, would likewite commit-the groffer Thef, were he by that no more in danger of Law than in this Deceit. The third part of Injustice is Deceit; and in that there may be as many acts as there are occasions of entercourse and dealing be sween Men and Man.

2. It were impossible to name them all, but I thin they will be contained under these two general declar, in matters of Trust, and in matters of Trustick, or largaining; unless it be that of Gaming, which therefore here by the way. I must tell you, is as much a Fraud and Deceit as any of the rest.

3. He that deceives a Man in any Trust for sraft. that is committed to him, is guilty of a great Injustice, and that the most treather to the force of the joyning of two great fins in an analysis.

etravos

frauding, and Promife-breaking; for in all truffs re is a Promise implied, if not exprest, for the accepting of the trust, contains under it a Prothefe Trufts are broken fomerimes Living formerimes to the Dead; to the Living there are many ways of doing it, according to the feveral kinds of the Trust; sometimes a Trust is more general, like that of Portiphar to Joseph, Gen. 39. 4. a Man commission another all that he hatb, and thus Guardiana of Children, and sometimes Steward wards are intrusted: sometimes again it is more liited and restrained to some one special thing; a Man intrufts another to bargain or deal for him in fuch a particular, or he puts fome one thing into his hands manage and dispose: thus among servants it usual for one to be intrusted with one part of th Mafter's Goods, and another with another part of them Now in all these, and the like cases, whosoever ad not for him that introfts him, with the same faith hels that he would for himself, but shall either care elly lofe, or prodigally imbezel the things committee him, or else convert them to his own use, he illy of this great fin of berraying a Trust to the Living like manner, he that being intrufted with the Execu on of a Dead Man's Testament, acts nor according the known intention of the Dead Man, but enriches him felf by what is affigned to others, he is guilty of this in, in respect of the Dead, which is so much the gre ter, by how much the Dead hath no means of remed and redreft, as the Living may have. It is a kind of Robbing of Graves, which is a Thefr of which Me murally have fuch a horrous, that he must be a ve sy hardned Thief that can attempt it. But eith of these Frauds are made yet more hainous, when either God, or the Poor, are immediately concern ed in it; that is, when any thing is committed to this adds Sacrilege to both the Braud and the Treachery, and so gives him Title to all those Curses that attend mole feveral fins, which are for heavy, that he th for the present Gain will adventure on them, make will, nay a worfe Bargain than Gehati, 2 Kings 5. 2 F 2

768 The Wilhole Duty of Pan.

who by getting the Raiment of Naaman, get his Lepros

4. The second fort of Fraud is in ters of traffick and bargain, wherein may be deceir both in the Seller and Buy er; that of the Seller is commonly either in concealing the Faults of the Commodity, or elfe in Over-rating it.

The Soller's concealing the faults of his mare,

3. The way of concealing in faulty are ordinarily use ; either first by denying that it hath any such fault; nay, perhaps commending it for the direct contrary quality; and this is down-right Lying, and so adds that fin to the other; and if that Lye be confirmed by an Oath, as it is too usually, then the yer greater guilt of Perjury comes in alfo; and then what a heap of Sins is here gathered rogether? Abundantly enough to fink a poor Soul to destruction. and all this only to skrew a little more Money out of his Neighbour's Pocket, and that fometimes fo very little, that 'tis a Miracle that any Man that thinks he has a Soul, can set it at so miserable a contemptible price. A fecond means of concealing, is by ufine fome Art to the thing, to make it look fair, and the hide the faults of it; and this is acting a Lye, though it be not speaking one; which amounts to the same thing, and has furely in this case as much of the Intention of Cheating and Defrauding, as the most Impudent Forfwearing can have. A third means, is the picking out ignorant Chapmen , this is, I believe, an Art too well known among Tradefmen, who will not bring out their Faulty Wares to Men of skill, but keep them to put off to fuch, whose unskilfulries may make them paffable with them, and this is still the same deceit with the former i for it all tends to the fame end, the Cozening and Defrauding of the Chapman, and then it is not much odds, whether make use of my own Art, or his Weakness for the purpose. This is certain, he that will do justly, must let his Chapman know what he Buys; and if his own skill enable him not to judge, (nay, if he do not actually find out the fault) thou art bound to tell it him, otherwise, thou makest him pay for Gonewhat which is not there, he prefuming there is that good quality in it, which thou knowest is not, and therefore thou mayest as honestly take his Money for some Goods of another Man's, which thou knowest thou canft never put into his possession, which I suppose Man will deny to be an arrant Cheat. To this head of Concealment may be referred that Deceit of falle Weights and Measures, for that is the concealing from the Buyer a defect in the quantity, as the other was in the quality of the Commodity, and is again the making him pay for what he hath not. This fort of Fraud is pointed at particularly by Solomon, Prov. 11. 1. with this Note upon it, that it is an Abomination to the Lord.

6. The fecond part of Fraud in the Seller, lies in over-rating the Com- His over-ramodity: though he have not diffuifed or concealed the Faults of it, and to have dealt fairly in that respect, yet if he set an unresionable Price upon it, he defrauds the Buyer: I call that an unreasonable Price, which exceeds the true worth of the thing, confidered with those moderate gains, which all Tradefmen are prefumed to be allowed in the Sale: Whatever is beyond this, must in all likelihood be fetche in by some of these ways: As first, by taking advantage of the Buyer's ignorance in the value of the thing, which is the same with doing it in the goodness, which hath already been shewed to be a Deceit; or fecondly, by taking advantage of his Necessity: Thou findest a Man hath present and urgent need of fuch a thing, and therefore takest this Opportunity to fet the Dice upon him; but this is that very fin of Extortion and Oppression spoken of before: for it is fure, nothing can justly raise the price of any thing, but either its becoming dearer to thee, or its being fome way better in its felf, but the necessity of thy Brother causes neither of these s his nakedness doth nor make the Cloaths thou sellest him fland thee in ever the more, neither doth it make them any way better; and therefore to rate them ever the higher, is to change the way of Trading, and Sell even the Wants and Necessities of thy Neighbour, which F 2 which fore is a very unlawful Vocacion. Or Thi ly, it may be by taking advantage of the indife of the Chapman, A Man perhaps carnelly for fuch a thing, and then fuffers that Fancy to to over rule his Reafon, that he refolves to have it upon an Terms. If thou findelt this in him, and thereus raifest thy rate, this is to make him buy his folly ; which is of all others the desreft purchase; 'ris fure his Fanc adds nothing to the real value, no more than his Necessi did in the former case, and therefore should not add to the Price. He therefore that will deal justly in the be finels of Selling, must not catch at all advantages which the temper of his Chapman may give, but confider fo-berly, what the thing is worth, and what he would afford it for to another, of whom he had no fuch advanrage, and accordingly rate it to him at no higher Price.

170 The Whole Duty of Pani

Fraud in the Buyer. not ordinarily so many opportunities of Fraud; yet it is possible a Man may sometimes happen to fell somewhat, the worth whereof he is not acquainted with, and then it will be as unjust for the Buyer to make gain by his innorance, as in the other case it was for the Seller, but that which often falls out is the case of next-sity, which may as probably fall on the Seller's side, as the Buyer's: A Man's wants compel him to sell, and permit him not to stay to make the best Bargain, but force him to rake the first offer; and here for the Buyer to grate upon him, because he sees him in that strait, is the same fault which I before shewed it to be in the Seller.

Many Temptafick there are fo many opportunities tions to deceit of Deceit, that a Man had need fence himself with a very firm Refelution, nay, love of Justice, or he will be in danger to fall under Temperation; for as the Wife Man speaks, Ecclust 27. 2. As a Nail field fast between the joynings of the Stokes; so doth in stick close between Buying and Selling; it is so interviewed with all Trades, so mixt with the second of Principles and Grounds of them, that it is Taught ngether with them, and fo becomes part of the Art that he is now adays force thought fit to manage a rade, that wants ic, while he that hath most of this ck Art of Defrauding, applauds and hugs himfelf, nay, haps boafts to others, how he hath over-reache his ahbour.

What an intolerable shame is this . that we Christians, who are The commonness by the Precepts of our Mafter fet of injustice a reto those higher Duties of Charity, preach to Christishould, inflead of practifing them. anity.

mire unlearn those Common Rules of lutice, which meer Nature teaches? For, I think I may fay there are none of those several branches of Injustice rowards the Possessions of our Nei bour, which would not be adjudged to be so by any fober Heathen ; fo that, as St. Paul tells thou of the Circumcifion, That the Name of God mas Blasphemed among the Gentiles, by that unagrecableness that was betwirt their Practice, and their Law. Rom, 2. 24. So now may it be faid of us, That the Name of Christ is Blasphemed among the Turks and Heathers, by the vile and scandalous Lives of us who call our felves Christians, and particularly in this fin of Injustice : for frame let us at last endeavour to wipe off this Reproach from our Profession, by leaving these Practices; to which methinks this one fingle confideration should be enough to perswade m.

o. Yet befides this, there want not other - among which , one there is It is not the way to enrich a of such a nature as may prevail with the arrantest Worlding, and that is, Man.

that this course doth nor really tende to the enriching of him; there is a fecret Curle goes along with it, which like a Canker ears out all the Benefit was expected from it. This no Man can doubt that believes the Scripture, where there are Multitudes of Texts to this purpose: Thus Prov. 22. 16. He that oppresseth the Poor to encrease his Riches, Shall furely come to want. So Habak, 2. 6. Wo

171 The Whole Daty of Man.

so him that encreafeth that which is not his! How los and he that ladeth himself with thick Clay: Shall the not rife up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake the shall vex thee ? And thou shall be for booties to the This is commonly the fortune of those that fooil ar deceive others; they at last meet with some that do the like to them. But the place in Zuchary is mod full to this purpose, Chap. 5. where, under the fign of a Flying Roll, is fignified the Curfe that goes forth sekinft this fin, Verle an I will bring it forth, faiththe Lord of Hofts, and it shall enter into the House of the Thief, and into the House of him that Syveareth fally by my Name, and it shall confirme it with the Timber thereof, and with the Stones thereof. Where you fee, Thefr and Perjury are the two fins, against which this Curfe is aimed (and they too often go rogether in the matter of Defrauding) and the nature of this Curse is, To consume the House, to make an utter deftruction of all than belongs to him that is guilty of either of these fins. Thus whilst thou are ravening after thy Neighbour's Goods, or House, thou art but gathering Fuel to burn thine own. And the effect of these Threatnings of God we daily see in the Arange improsperousness of ill-gotten Estates, which every Man is apt enough to observe in other Mens cases: he that fees his Neighbour decline in his Eftare, can prefently call to Mind, This was gotten by Oppression or Descit, yet fo fortis are we, fo bewircht with the love of Gain, that he that makes this Observation, can seldom turn it to his own use, is nevertheless greedy, or unjust himfelf for that Vengeance he differns upon others.

for them in another World, thou haft little reason to brag of thy prize. Thou thinkest thou haft little reason were cunning, when thou haft over-reacht thy for them is another world, thou hast little reason to brag of thy prize. Thou thinkest thou hast been very cunning, when thou hast over-reacht thy further; But God knows all the while there is sue ther over-reaching thee, and cheating thee of what is infinitely more precious, (v.s. Aby Soul: the Declaration of the control of the herein deals with thee as Fifhers use to do, those that with each a great Fish, will bair the hook with a lefs, and for great one coming with greedines to devous that, is himself raken: So thou that are gaping to swallow up thy poor Brother, art shy felf made a prey to that great Devourer. And alas! What will it ease thee in Hell. what thou haft left Wealth behind thee upon Earth. when thou shalt there want that, which the meanest Regar here enjoys, even a drop of Water to cool thy Tongue? Confider this, and from henceforth refolve to imploy all that pains and diligence thou haft used to deceive others, in rescuing thy self from the frauds of the Grand Deceiver.

11. To this purpose it is absolutely necessary , that thou make Re- The Necessary of flitution to all whom thou haft wrong- Restitution.

ed. For as long as thou keepeft any thing of the Unjust Gain, 'tis as it were an earnestpenny from the Devil, which gives him full right to thy Soul. But perhaps it may be faid, It will not in all cases be possible to make Restitution to the wronged Party, peradventure he may be dead; in that case then make it to his Heirs, to whom his right descends. But it may further be objected, that he that hath long gone on in a course of Eraud, may have Injured many that he cannot now remember, and many that he has no means of finding out ? In this case all I can Advise is this: First, to be as diligent as is possible, both in recalling to Mind who they were, and endeavouring to find them out: and when, after all thy care, that proves impossible, let thy Restirutions be made to the Poor , and that they may not be made by halves, be as careful as thou canft to reckon every the looft Mite of Unjust Gain: but when that cannot exactly be done, as 'tis fure it cannot by shole who have multiplied the acts of Fraud, yet even there let them make fome General Measures .. whereby to proportion their Restitution: As for example, a Tradefman that cannot remember how much he hath Cheated in every fingle parcel, yet may possibly guess in the gross whether he have usually over-reacht to the value of a third, or a fourth part of the Wares ;

174 The Mihole Bury of Pani

and then what proportion foever he thinks he has fo defrauded, the fame proportion let him now give out of that Effate he hath railed by his Trade: but herein it concerns every Man to deal uprightly, as in the presence of God; and not to make advantage of his own forgerfulnels, to the cutting thort of the Restitution, but pather go on the other hand, and be fure rather to give too much, than too little. If he do happen to give fome what over, he need not grudge the Charge of fuch a Sinffering ; and 'tis fure he will not; if he do heartily de-ire an Atonement. Many other difficulties there may be in this business of Reflication, which will not be free feen, and fo cannot now be particularly spoke to ; but the more of those there are; the greater horror ought Men to have of funning into the fin of Injustice, which it will be so difficult, if not impossible for them to repair and the more careful ought they to be to Mortie that which is the Root of all Injuffice; to win Coveioufneft.

SUNDAY XIII.

of Palse Reports, Faise-witness, Slanders, Whisperings; Of Scoffing for Instructies, Calamiries, Sins, &c. Of Positive Justice, Truth, Of Lying. Of Envy and Detraction. Of Gratitude, &c.

HE Fourth Branch of Negative Justice concerns
the Credit of our Neighbours, which we are not to leffen or Impair by any means, particularly not by False Reports. Of false Reports there may be Two forts: the one is when a Man fays fomething of his Neighbour, which he directly knows to be falle, the other, when possibly he has some slight surmise, or Jealousie of the thing, but that upon such weak grounds, that tie as likely to be faife as true. In either of these cases, there is a great Guilt lies upon the Reporter. That there doth so in the first of them, no body will doubt, every one acknowledging that it is the greatest baseness to invent Lye of another: but there is as little reason to question the other; for he that Reports a thing as a Truch, which is but uncertain, is a Lyar alfo, or if he do not Report it as a Certainty) but only as a Probability, yet then tho he be not guilty of the Lye, yet he is of the Injustice of Robbing his Neighbour of his Credit; for there is fuch an apmels in Men to believe ill of others, that any the lightest Jealonsie will, if once it be spread abroad, serve for that purpole; and fure it is a most horrible injustice upon every flight furmife and fancy, to hazard the bringing fo great an evil upon another; especially when it is confidered, that those Surmises commonly spring rather from some censoriousness, peevishness, or malice in the Surmifer, than from any real Fault in the Person so ful-

275 The Whole Buty of Man.

Palse Witfalse reports of both kinds, is not always the same; sometimes it is more open and avowed, sometimes more close and private: the open is many times by falle witness before the Cours of Justice: and this not onely hurts a Man in his Credit, but in other respects also: 'tis the delive ing him up to the punishment of the Law, and according to the nature of the Crime pretended, does him more or less mischief, but if it be of the highest kind, it may concern his Life, as we fee it did in Naboth's Cale, I Kings 21. How greet and crying a fin it is in this respect, as also in that of the Perjury, you may learn from what hath been faid of both those tins. I am now to consider ir only, as it touches the credit; and to that it is a most grievous wound, thus to have a Crime publickly Witnesfed against one, and such as is scarce curable by any thing that can afterwards be done to clear him, and therefore whoever is guilty of this, doth a most oursgeous Injustice to his Neighbour : this is that which h expressy forbidden in the Ninth Commandment, and was by God appointed to be punifar by the inflicting of the very fame fuffering upon him, which his falle Testimony aimed to bring upon the other, Deut. 19. 16.

Publick Slaning these Reports, is by a publick and common declaring of them, though not before the Magistrate, as in the other case, yet in all Companies, and before such as are likely to carry it farther, and this is usually done with bitter Railings and Reproaches, it being an ordinary Art of Slanderers, to Revile those whom they Slander, that so by the sharpness of the Accusation, they may have the greater impression on the Minds of the Hearers: this both in respect of the Slander, and the Railing, is a high Injury, and both of them such, as debar the Committees from Heaven; thus, Psalm 15, where the Upright Man is described that shall have his part there, this is one special thing, Verse 3. That he slandereth not his Neighborn. And for Railing, the Apostle in several places reckum ir amongst those works of the Fight, which are to that Men' our both from the Church here, by Escommunication, as you may see, 1 Cor. 15. 11. and from the Kingdom of God hereafter, as it is 1 Cor. 6. 10.

4. The other more close and pri-that of the Whilperer, he that goes about from one to another, and privately vents his Slanders, not out of an intent by that means to make them es publick, but rather more: this trick of delivering them by way of fecret, being the way to make them both more believed, and more fpoken of too; for he that receives fuch a Tale, as a fecret from one, thinks to please some body else. by delivering it as a Secret to him alfo; and fo it paffes from one hand to mother, till at laft it spreads over a whole Town. This fort of Slanderer is of all others the most dangerous, for he works in the dark, eyes all he speaks to, not to own him as the Author; to that whereas in the more publick Acculations, the Party may have some Means of clearing himself and Detecting his Accuser, here he shall have no possibility of that; the Slander, like a fecret Poylon, works incurable effects, before ever the Man discern it. This sin of Whispering is by St. Paul mentioned among those great Crimes, which are the effects of a Reprobate Mind, Rom. 1. 29. It is indeed one of the most Incurable Wounds of this Sword of the Tongue; the very bane and peft of Humane Society: and that which not onely robs fingle Perfors of their Good Names, but oftentimes whole Families, may Publick Societies of Men, of their Peace: What Ruines, what Confusions hath this one in wrought in the World? 'Tis Solomon's observation, Prou 18. 28. That a Whilperer Separateth Chief Friends: And fure one may truly fay of Tongues thus employed, That they are fet in Fire of Hell, as St. James faich, Chap. 3. 6.

4. This is such a guilt, that we are to beware of all the degrees of Several steps to approach to it, of which there are mards this sin. several steps; the first is the giving cur to, and cherithing of those that come with sin-

1278 The Whole Buty of Man.

ders: for they that entertain and receive them, en courage them in the practice; for, as our common Proverb fays, If there were no Receivers, there would be no Thief; so if there were none than would give an Ear to Tales, there would be no Tale-bearers. A fecond step is the giving too easie credit to them, for this helps them to attain part of their end. They defire to get a general ill opinion of fuch a Man, but the way of doing it, must be by causing it, first, in particular Men : and if thou suffer them to do it in thee, they have so far prospered in their ffice to thy Neighbour, to believe ill of him without a fust Ground, which the Accusation of such a Person certainly is not. A third ftep is the Reporting to others, what is thus told thee , by which thou makeft thy fell directly a Parry in the Slander, and after thou haft Unjuftly withdrawn from thy Neighbour thy own Good Opinion, endeavourest to rob him also of that of others. This is very little below the guilt of the first Whisperer, and tends as much to the ruine of our Neighbour's Credit. And these several degrees have so close a dependance one upon another, that it will be very hard for him that allows himself the first, to escape the other; and indeed, he that can take delight to hear his Neighbour Defamed, may well be prefumed of fo malicious a humour, that is not likely he should stick at spreading the Slander. He therefore that will preserve his Innocence in this matter, must never in the least degree cherish or countenance any that brings these False Reports. And it is not less necessary to his Peace, than to his Innocency; for he ther once entertains them, must never expect quiet, but shall be continually incited, and stirred up even against his nearest and dearest Relations; so that this Whisperer and Slanderer is to be lookt on by all, as a Common Fnemy, he being to as well to those to whom, as of whom he fpeaks.

Despising and Sandering, there is another whereby of our Neighbour, and that is by Contempt and Despision

Sund. 1 2. Scoffing for Infirmities, &cc. 179

Delpiting, one common effect whereof is Scoffing and Deriding him. This is very Injurious to a Man's Reputation. For the generality of Men do rather take up eninions upon truft, than judgment; and therefore if they fe a Man despised, and Scorned, they will be apt to do the like. But belides this effect of it, there is a prefent Injustice in the very act of despising and scorning others. There are ordinarily but three things which are made the occasions of it, (unless it be with such, with whom vertue and godliness are made the most reproachful things, and fuch despising is not only an injury to our Neighbour, but even to God himself, for whose sake it is, that he is so despised) those there are, first, the Infirmities, secondly, the Calamities, thirdly, the fins of a Man; and each of thefe are very far from being ground of our Triumbhing over him.

7. First, for Infirmities, be they either of Body or Mind, the deformity For Infirmiweakness and folly of the other, they are things out of his power to help, they are not his faults, but the wife dispensations of the great Creator, who bellows the excellencies of Body and Mind, as he pleales, and therefore to fcorn a Man because he hath them not, is in effect to reproach God who gave them not to him.

8. So also for the Calamities and For Calamities.

Miseries that befal a Man, be it want or fickness, or whatever elfe, these also come by the Providence of God, who raifeth up and pulleth down, as feems good to him, and it belongs not to us to judge what are the Motives to him to do fo, as many do, who upon any Affliction that befals another, are prefently concluding that fure it is some extraordinary guilt, which pulls this upon him, though they have no particular to lay to his charge. This Rash Judgment our Saviour Reproves in the Jews, Luke 13. where on occasion of the extraordinary Sufferings of the Galileans; he asks them, Verse 2, 3. Suppose ye that these Gathen swere sinners above all the Ga'ileans, because they suffered such things? Thell you, Nay, but except you repent, ye shall all likewise perish. When we see God's hand heavy upon others, it is no part of our business in Judge them, but our selves, and by Repentance to prevent what our own sins have deserved. But to Reproach, and Revile any that are in Affliction, is that Barbarous Gruelty, taken Notice of by the Psalmis, as the height of Wickedness, Psalm 69-26. They periecute him whom thou hast smitten, and they talk to the grief of them whom thou hast wounded: In all the Mileries of others, Compassion becomes a Debt to them; How Unjust are they then, that instead of Paying them that Debt, Afflick them with Scorn and Reproach.

180 The Whole Duty of Pan.

9. Nay, the very Sins of Men. For Sins. though, as they have more of their wills in them, they may feem more to deferve Reproach, yet certainly they also oblige us to the former duty of Compassion, and that in the high ft degree, as being the things, which of all others make a Man the most miserable. In all these cases, if we confider how subject we are to the like our selves, and that it is onely God's Mercy to us, by which we are preferved from the worst that any Man else is under, it will furely better become us to look up to him with Thankfulness, than down on them with Contempt and Defailing. Thus you fee the direct Injuffice of Scoreing and Contemning our Brethren, to which, when that other is added, which naturally follows, as a confequent of this, to wit, the begetting the like contempt in others, there can fure be no doubt of its being a great and horrible injustice to our Neighbour in respect of his Credit.

Destroying the destroying a Man's Credit is, may be credit, a great measured by these two things; first, the linury, value of the thing he is robbed of, and secondly, the dissipations. For the first, 'tis commonly known, that a Man's Good Name is a thing he holds most precious, oftentimes dearer than his Life, as we see by the hazards Men sometimes run to preserve even a mistaken Reputation, but 'tis sure, it is that, which hath even by fober Men been eftermed one of the greatest happinesses of Life: And to some fort of Men, such especially as subsist by dealings in the Worst, its so necessary, that it may well be reckoned as the Means of their Livelihood, and then sure, its no slight matter to rob a Man of what is thus valuable to

12. Secondly, the Difficulty of ma- and Irreparaking Reparations encreased the Injury, ble.

tion, that I may rather call it an Impossibility, than a Difficulty. For when Men are possest of an Ill Opinion of a Person, 'tis no easie matter to work it out: so that the Slanderer is herein like a young Conjurer, that raises a Devil he knows not how to lay again. Nay, suppose Men were generally as willing to lay down ill conceits of their Neighbours, as they are to take them up, yet how is it possible for him that makes even the most Publick Recantation of his Slander, to be sure that every Man that hath come to the hearing of the one, shall do so of the other also? And if there be but one Person, that doth not, (as probably there will be many) then is the Reparation still short of the Injury.

12. This confideration is very fit to make Men afraid of doing this wrong to their Neighbour; but let it not be made use of to excuse those that have Tet every guilty Person must do all he can to vepair the Injury.

made use of to excuse those that have pair the Injury, already done the wrong, from endeavouring to make the best Reparations they can; for though 'tis odds, it will not equal the Injury, yet let them however do what they are able towards it. And this is so necessary towards the obtaining Pardon of the sin, that none must expect the one, that do not perform the other. Whosever therefore sets himself to Repent of his Faults of this kind, must by all prudent means endeavour to restore his Neighbour to that degree of Credit he hath deprived him of; and if that be not to be done without bringing the shame upon himself of Confessing. Publickly the Slander, he must rather submit to that than be wanting to this Necessary part of Justice which he Owesto the Wronged Parry.

F 9

182 The Whole Duty of Man.

12. Thus I have gone through these Four Br of Negative Jultice to our Neighbour, wherein must yet farther observe, that this Jultice binds not only in respect of our word Fulfice in the actions, but of our very thou Thoughts. . affections also; we are not col bid to hurt, but to hate not only

Brained from bringing any of these evils forem ned upon him, but we must not so much as them before, nor delight in them after they are be len him : We must take no pleasure either in the fin of his Soul, or hurt of his Body: We must not envy him any good thing he enjoys, nor fo much as wish to possess our selves of it: neither will it suffice us; that we so bridle our Tongue. that we neither flander, nor revile, if we have that Malice in our Hearts, which makes us with his Discredit; or rejoyce when we find it precured, though we have no hand in procuring it. This is the peculiar property of God's Laws, they reach to the Heart: whereas Mens can exten only to the Words and Actions; and the reason clear, because he is the onely Law-giver that can fee what is in the Heart, Therefore if there were the perfecteft Innocency in our Tongue and Hands, yet if there be not this Purity of Heart, it will never ferve to acquit us before him. The Counsel therefore of Solomon is excellent, Prov. 4. 23. Keep thy Heart with all diligence, for out of it are the iffues of Life. Let us frictly guard that, so that no malicious unfult thought enter there; and that not only, as it my be the means of betraying us to the groffer act, but also as it is in it self such a pollution in God's fight, as will unfit us for the Bleffed Vision of God. whom none but the Pure in Heart have Promise of seeing, Matth. 15. 8. Bleffed are the pure in heart, for they shall fee God.

14. I come now to fpeak of the Positive Justice. Positive part of Justice, which is the yielding to every Man that which by any kind of right he may challenge from us. Of these dues there are some that are general to all Mankind stockind, others that are reftrained within fome cerconditions and qualities of Men, and become due on by virtue of those qualifications.

re. Of the first fort, that is, those are due to all Men, we may rec- Speaking Truth kind; Speech is given us as the Inftrument of intercourse d fociety one with another, the means of discovering Mind, which otherwife lies hid and concealed; fo et were it not for this, our Conversations would be but the fame as of Beafts: Now this being intended for e good and advantage of Mankind, 'tis a due to to that it be used to that purpose; but he that Lyes, is fo far from paying that Debt, that on the contrary, he makes his Speech the Means of injuring and deceiving him he speaks to.

16. There might much be faid to Lying express for hew the several forts of Obligations bidden in Scripwe lie under to fpeak Truth to all ture.

Men , but supposing I write to Chriflians, I need not infift upon any other, than the Commands we have of it in Scripture , thus Ephol, 4. 25. the Apostle commands, that putting away ining, they Speak every Man the truth with his Neighbour, And again, Col. 3. 2. Lye not one to another. And Prov. 6. 17. a Lying Tongue is mentioned as one of those things that are abominations to the Lord. Yea, fo much doth he hate a Lye, that it is not the most pique and religious end, that can reconcile him to it; the Man that Lyes, though in a zeal to God's Glory, shall yet be judged as a Sinner, Rom. 3. 7. What shall then become of those Mulitudes of Men that Lye on quite other ends? Some out of Malice, to mischief others fore out of coverousness to defraud their Neighbour , one out of Pride to fet themselves out; and some Fear, to avoid anger, or hide a fault. But of a yet for than all thefe, are those, that do it withthe differnable Tempration; that will tell Lyes by in which themselves reap nothing, but the reputation dimpertinent Lyars. ALO ZO

F IO

17.Among

184 The Wilhole Duty of Want

The great commenness and folly of this fin.

17. Among these divers kinds of Falsehood . Truth is become suc Rarity among us, that it is a most difficult matter to find fuch a Man as Das vid describes, Pfal. 15, 2. That freak eth the Truth from bx heart. Men have so glibbed their Tongues to Lying, that they do it Familiarly upon any or no occasion, never thinking that they are observed either by God or Man. But they are extreamly deceived in both a for there is scarce any fin (that is at all endervoured to be hid) which is more discernible even to Men: they that have a Cuftom of Lying, feldom feil (be their Memory never to good) at some time or other to berray themselves, and when they do, there is no fort of fin meets with greater Soorn and Reproach . a Liar being by all accounted a Title of the greatest Infamy and Shame. But as for God, 'tis Madness to hope that all their Arts can disguise them from him. who needs none of those casual ways of discovery which Men do, but fees the Heart, and fo knows at the very inftant of Speaking, the Falsehood of what is faid: and then by his Title of the God of Truth, is tved not onely to hate, but punish it: and accordingly you fee . Rev. 22. that the Liars are in the number of those that are thut out of the New Jerusalem; and not onely fo, but also have their part in the Lake that burneth with Fire and Brimstone. If therefore thou be not of the humour of that Unjust Judge Christ fpeaks of Luke 18. 2. Who neither foared God, nor regarded Man, thou must resolve on this part of Justice, the putting away Lying, which is abhorred by both.

18. A fecond thing we owe to all is Hu-Courteous bemanity and Courtefie of Behaviour, conhaviour a due trary to that Sullen Churlifunes we find to all Men. fooken of in Nabal, who was of fuch a temper , that a Man could not freak to him, I Sam. 25. 17. There is fure fo much of respect due to the very Nature of Mankind, that no accidental advantage of Wealth or Honour, which one Man hath above another , can acquir him from that debt to it, even in the person of the mesnett; and therefore that crabbed and harsh behaviour to any that bears but the form of a Man, is an injustice to that nature he partakes of. And when we consider how much that nature is dignified by the Son of God his taking upon him, the obligation to reverence it is yet greater, and consequently the sin of thus contemning it.

19. This is the common guilt of Not pased by the

are to butie in admiring themselves, that they overlook all that is valuable in others. and to think they owe not to much as common Cfvilies to other Men, whilft they fer up themselves, as Nebuchadnez zar did his Image, to be morshipped of all. This is fure very contrary to what the Apostle exharts. Rom. 12. 10. In honour prefer one another; and again, Phil. 2. 4. Look not every Man on his own things, but every Man also on the things of others: And ler fuch remember the Sentence of our Bleffed Saviour, Luke 14. 11. He that exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himfelf shall be exalted, which we often find made good to us, in the ftrange downfals of proud Men. And 'tis no wonder, for this fin makes both God and Men our Enemies; God, as the Scripture every where testifies, abhors it, and all that are guilty of it, and Men are by means of it used fo contemptuously and unkindly by us, that they are by nothing more provoked against us; and then whom God and Man thus refift, who shall fecure and uphold?

20. A third thing we owe to all, is Meekness; that is, such a pari- Meekness a due coce and gentleness towards all, as to all Men.

may bridle that mad passion of anger, which is no only very uneafie to our felves, as both already been shewed, but also very mirchievous to our Neighbours, as the many ourrages, that are of committed in it, do abundantly restifie. That this dury of Meckness is to be extended to all Men, there is no doubt: For the Aposse in express words commands it, I Thess. 5. 14. Be pair ent sowards all Men, and that, it should feem, in spight all provocation to the contrary, for the very next word are, See that none render evil for evil, or railing for rail ing and Timothy is commanded to excreife this me knell even rowards them who oppose themselves against the Doctrine of the Golpel, 2 Trm. 2, 25, Which was a cafe. wherein fome hear would probably have been allowed. if it might have been in any.

186 The Whole Duty of Man

Brawling very infufferable.

21. This vertue of Meekness is for necessary to the preserving the peace of the World, that it is no wond that Christ who came to plant peace among Men, should enjoy Meckness to all. I am fore the contrary effects of rage and anger are every where discernible, it breeds disquier in Kingdoms, in Neighbourhoods, in Families, and even between the nearest Relations , 'tis fuch a humour, that Solomen warns us never to enter a Friendship with a Man that is of it. Prov. 22.24. Make no Friendship with an Angry Man, and with a Furious Man then Shalt not To. It makes a Man unfit to be either Friend or Companion, and indeed makes one infufferable to all that have to do with him, as we are again raught by Solomon, Prov. 21. 19. where he prefers the dwelling in a Wilderness rather than with a contentious and Angry Woman and yet a Woman has ordinarily onely that one Weapon of the Tongue to offend with. Indeed to any that have not the fame unquietness of humour, there can scarce be a greater uneafines, than to Converse with those that have it, though it never proceed farther than words. How great this fin is, we may judge by what our Saviour fays of it, Matth. ted to feveral degrees of it: but alas! we daily out-go that which he there fets as the highest step of this fin ! the calling, Thou Fool, is a modest fort of Reviling, compared with those Multitudes of bitter Reproaches we use in our Rages.

fing.

22. Nay, we often go yet high-It leads to that er ; Reproaches ferve not our min great fin of Cur- but we must Curse too. How commen is it to hear Men use the porridit Execuations and Curlings upon every the flightt aufe of displeasure? Nay perhaps without any cause at all; so unterly have we forgot the Rule of the Apofile, Rom. 12. 14. Blefs, and Curfe was; Yea, the Prefor thefe that despitefully use you. Chrift bide us Pray for those who do us all Injury, and we are often Cursing those who do us none. This is a kind of saving our Prayers backward indeed, which is faid to be part of the Ceremony the Devil uses at the making a Witch; and we have in this case also reason to look on it, as a mesns of bringing us into Acquaintance and League with that Accurred Spirit here, and to a perperual abiding with him hereafter. Tis the Language of Hell, which can never fit us to be Cirizens of the New Jerusalem, but Marks us out for Inhabitants of that Land of Darkness. I conclude this with the Advice of the Apostle, Eph. 4. 11. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice.

berriett

23. Having spoken thus far of those common Dues, wherein all Men are Particular dues.

concerned and have a right, I am now to proceed to those other forts of dues, which belong to particular Persons, by vertue of some special qualification. These qualifications may be of three kinds a that of Excellency, that of Want, and that of Relation.

24. By that of Excellency, I mean any extraordinary Gifes or Endow- A Respect due to ments of a Person, such as Wisdom. Men of extraordi-Learning, and the like, but especial-nary Gifts. by Grace. These being the fingular

Gifts of God, have a great value and respect due to them, wherefoever they are to be found; and this we must readily pay by a willing and glad Acknowledgment of those his Gifts in any he has bestowed them on, and bearing them a reverence and respect, answerable thereunto, and not out of an overweening of our own excellencies, despise and undervalue those of others. as they do who will yield nothing to be Reafon, but what themselves speak, nor any thing Piery, but what ences with their own practice.

188 The Whole Duty of Man.

25. Also we must not envy or grudge that they have those gifts, for that is not only an injustice to them, We are not to dury them. but injurious also to God who gave them , as it is at large fer forth in the Parable of the Labourers, Matth. 20. where he asks them who grumbled at the Master's bounty to others, Is it me tauful for me to do what I will with my own? Is thine Eye evil because mine is good? This envying at God's goodness to others, is in effect a murmuring against God, who thus disposes it i neither can there be a greater, and more direct opposition against him. than for me to hate and with ill to a Man, for no other reason, but because God has loved and done well to him. And then in respect of the Man, 'tis the most unreasonable thing in the World, to love him the less, meetly because he has those good qualities, for which I ought to love him more.

Nor detraff the excellencies of others, we must not from them. feek to eclipse or darken them by demying either the kinds or degrees of them, by that means to take off that efteen which is due to them. This fin of detraction is generally the effect of the former, of envy; he that envies a Mans worth, will be apt to do all he can to leften it in the opinions of others', and to that purpose will either freak slightly of his excellencies, or if they be so apparent, that he knows not how to cloud them, he will try if he can by reporting some either real, or feigned infirmity of his, take off from the value of the other, and so by casting in some dead Flies, as the Wile Man speaks; Eccles. 10. 1. Strive to corrupt the fations of the Ometiment. This is a great injustice, and directly contrary to that duty we owe, of acknowledging and reverencing the Gifts of God in our Brethren.

The folly of both degraction do usually prove as great those fins.

follies as wickedness; the envy confrantly brings pain and torment to a Man's felf, whereas if he could but chearfully and gladly.

glady look on those good things of anothers, he could never fail to be the hetter for them himself: The very pleasure of seeing them would be some advanther may be many ways helpful to him; his Wifdom and Learning may give him instruction; his Piery and Verrue, Example, &c. But all this the envious Man lofeth, and hath nothing in exchange for it, but a consinual freting, and gnawing of Heart.

28. And then for detraction, that can hardly be fo managed, but it will be found out; he that is ftill outting in Caveats against Mehs good thoughts of others. will quickly discover himself, to do it out of envy, and then that will be fure to leffen their efteem of himfelf. be not of those he envies, it being a fort of bearing reftimony to those excellencies, that he thinks them worth the envying.

29. What hath been faid of the A respect due to value and respect due to those excel- Men in regard of lercies of the mind, may in a low- their ranks and er degree be applied to the outward qualities. advantages of honour, greatness, and the like. These though they are not of equal value with the former (and fuch for which no Man is to prize himfelf) yet in regard that these degrees and diffinctions of Men are by God's Wife Providence difpoled for the better ordering of the World, there is such a civil respect due to those, to whom God hath dispensed them, as may best preserve that order, for which they were intended. Therefore all Inferion are to behave themselves to their Superiors with modely and respect, and not by a rude boldness confound that order, which is hath pleased God to set in the World; but according as our Church Catechilm teaches, Order themselves lovely and reverently to all their betters. And here the former Caution against Envy comes in most seasonably, these outward advantages being things. of which generally Men have more take, than of the other, and therefore will be more apt to Envy, and Repine to fee others exceed them therein: To this therefore all the former Confiderations against Envy will be very proper, and the

190 The Withole Duty of Man.

the more necessary to be made use of, by how much the Tempration is in this case to most minds the greater.

jo. The second qualification is the Dues to those of Want; whoever is in diffrest for that are in any thing wherewith I can supply fort of Want. him, that diffrest of his makes it a Duty in me fo to supply him, and the in all kinds of wants. Now the ground of its bein a duty is, that God bath given Men abilities not of for their own use, but for the advantage and be of others; and therefore what is thus given for their use, becomes a debt to them, whenever their need requires it. Thus he that is ignorant and wants Knowledge, is to be instructed by him that harh it and this is one special end, why that knowledge is given him, The Tongue of the Learned is given so freak a more in Seafon, Efay 50. 4. He that is in fadness and affi-Ction, is to be comforted by him that is himself in chearfulness. This we see St. Paul makes the end of God's comforting him, that he might be able to comfort them that are in any trouble, 2 Cor. 1. 4. He that is in any course of sin, and wants reprehension and counsel, must have that want supplied to him by those who have such Abilities and Opportunities as may make it likely to do good. That this is a Justice we owe to our Neighbour, appears plainly by the Text, Levit. 19. 19. Thou shall not hate the Brother in the theart, thou Shalt in any wife reprove him, and not fuffer fin upon him; where we are under the same obligation to reprove him, that we are not to hare him. He that lies under any flander, or unjust defamation, is to be defended and cleared by him that knows his innocence, or elfe he makes himfelf guilty of the flander, because he neglects to do that which may remove it; and how great an Injustice that of flandering our Neighbour is, I have already flewed.

To the Poor. and need, must be relieved by him that is in plenty; and he is bound to it, not only in Charity, but even in Justice.

Salemen calls it a due, Prov. 3. 27. With-hold not good from him to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it : and what that good is, he explains in the very next verle: Eay not to thy Neighbour, is and come again, and to morrow I will give, when thou haft it by thee. It feems 'tis the withholding a due, fo much as to defer giving to our poor parate a certain portion of every Man's encrease to the use of the Poor, a tenth every third Year, (which is all one with a thirtieth part every Year.) Dent. 14. 28. 20. And this was to be paid, not as a Chariry, or Liberality, but as a Debt; they were unfuft, if they with held it. And furely we have no reason to think, that Christian Justice is funk so much below the Tewish: that either nothing at all, or a less proportion is now required of us. I wish our practice were but at all answerable to our obligation in this point, and then furely we should not fee fo many Lazarus's lie unrefieved at our doors, they having a better right to our funerfluiries; than we our felves have; and then what it but arrant robbery to bestow that upon our vanishes. nay our fins, which should be their portion?

that hath ability is to look upon God withdraws himself as God's Steward, who hath those Abilities put it into his hands to distribute which are not to them that want, and therefore thus implement

not to do it, is the same injustice and fraud, that it would be in any Steward to purse up that Money for his private benefit, which was intrusted to him, for the maintenance of the Family, and he that shall do thus hath just reason to expect the doom of the unjust Steward, Luke 16. to be put out of his Stewardship, to have those abilities taken from him, which he hath so unfaithfully employed. And as for all the rest, so particularly for that of wealth, 'tis very commonly to be observed, that it is withdrawn from those that this defraud the Poor of their parts, the griping Mistremany of the potenty; and no wonder, he having no Title to God's being on his heap, who does not consecrate a part to him in his poor Members. And therefore we fee the Israelites before they could make that challenge of God's promise to bless them, Deut. 26. 15. Look down from thy boly babitation and bless thy people Israel, &c. they were first so pay she Poor Man's Tithes, werfe 12. with our which they could lay no claim to it. This withholding more than is meet, as Solomon says, Prev. 11. 24. tends to Poverty; and therefore as thou woulded play the good Husband for thy self be careful to perform this justice according to thy ability to all that are in want.

194 The Whole Butpof Man.

Duties in respect of relation, and of that there may be divers forts, arising from divers grounds, and duties answerable to each of them. There is first a relation of a Debter to a Creditor; and he that stands in that relation to any, whether by virtue of bargain, loan or promise, it is his duty to pay justly what he owes, if he be able (as on the other side, if he be not, 'tis the Creditor's, to deal Charitably and Christianly with him, and not to exact of him beyond his ability.) But I need not infift on this, having already, by shewing you the sin of with-holding Debts, informed you of this dury.

Gratitude to beoblig'd person to his Benefactor, that nefactors.

is, one that hath done him good, of what kind soever, whether Spiritud

what kind loever, whether Symulor Corporal; and the dury of that person is, first than fulness, that is, a ready and hearty acknowledgement of the courtesse received: secondly, prayer for God's bleffings, and rewards upon him; and thirdly, an endeavour, as opportunity and ability serves, to make returns of kindness, by doing good turns back again. This duty of gratifude to Benefactors is so generally school-ledged by all, even the most barbarous and swages of Men, that he must have put off much of his human nature, that refuses to perform it. The very Publicus and Sinners, as our Saviour says, do good to them.

in this! How frequent is it to fee The contrary too the not only neglect to repay common.

d of them? It is too observable in many partiother, but in none more, than in the case of advice. and admonition, which is of all others the most precious part of kindness, the reallest good turn that on be done from one Man to another. And therefore those that do this to us, should be looked on as our prime and greatest Benefactors. But alas! How few are there that can find gratitude, shall I fay, Nay patience for such a courtefie? Go about to admonish a Man of a Fault, or rell him of an Errour, he prefently looks on you as his Enemy: You are as St. Paul tells the Galatians, Chap. 4. 16. become his Enemy, because for tell him the truth : Such a Pride there is in Mens Hearts. that they must not be told of any thing amis, though it be with no other intent, but that they may amend ir. A strange madness this is, the same that it would be in a Sick Man, to fly in the Face of him that comes to cure him) on a fancy that he disparaged him in suppoling him Sick , fo that we may well fay with the Wife Man, Prov. 12.1. He that hateth reprocf is brutish. There cannot in the World be a more unhappy temper. for it fortifies a Man in his fins ; raifes fuch Mounts and Bulwarks about them, that no Man can come to affault them; and if we may believe Solomon, deftruction will not fail to attend it, Prov. 29. 1. He that being often reproved hardneth his Neck, Shall Suddenly be detroyed, and that without remedy. But then again in respect of the admonisher, tis the greatest injustice, I may say cruelry that can be, he comes in tenderness and compassion to rescue thee from danger, and to that purpose puts himself upon a very uneasie task for fuch the general impatience Men have to admonition, bath now made it; and what a defeat, what a grief is it to him to find, that instead of reforming the first fault, thou art run into a second, to wit. that of caufless displeasure against him? This is one of the worft, and yet I doubt, the commonest for of unth mikfulness to Benefactors, and so a great failing in that dury we owe to that fort of relation. Bur per haps these will be looke on as remote relations (se ris fure they are fuch as challenge all that dury I's affigned to them.). I shall in the next place process those relations, which are by all acknowledged to be of the greatest nearness.

Ш

194. The Withole Duty of Man.

SUNDAY XIV.

Of Duty to Magistrates, Paftors. Of the duty of Parents to Children, &cc. Of Children Duty unto Parents, &c.

H E first of those pearer form of Sect. r. relations, is that of a Parent: and Daty to here it will be necessary to con-Parents. fider the feveral forts of Parents according to which the Duty of them is to be mealired. Those are these three, the Civil, the Spiring. the Natural Duties to the giftrate.

Honour.

2. The Civil Parent is he whom God bath established the Supream Magistrate, Supream Ma- who by a just right possesses the Thron in a Nation. This is the common Father of all those that are under his Authority. The Dury we owe to this Parent, is first Honour and Reverence, looking on him, as upon one, on whom God hath stamped much of his own Power and Authority, and therefore paying him all Honour and Effeem, never daring upon any pretence whatfoever, to Speak evil of the Ruler of our People, Acts 23. 5.

3. Secondly, paying Tribute; This is expresty commanded by the Apolle Tribute. Rom. 13. 6. Pay ye Tribute alfo, for they are God's Ministers attending continually upon this very thing. God has fet them apart as Ministers for the common good of the people, and therefore 'tis alllatice, they should be maintained and supported by nem. And indeed when it is confidered, what are the cares and troubles of that high calling, how many Thorns are platted in every Crown, we have very little reason to envy them these dues, and it may truly be hid, there is none of their poor labouring Subjects that earns their living to hardly.

a. Thirdly, we are to pray for them : Prayers for this is also expresly commanded by the them.

Apoftle, 1 Tim. 2. 2. to be done for Kings, and for all that are in Authority. The bufineffes of that calling are fo weighty, the dangers and hazards of it fo great, that they of all others need Prayers for God's direction, Affiftance, and Bleffine, and the prayers that are thus poured out for them, will return into our own Bosoms, for the Bleffines they receive from God tend to the good of the people, to their living a quiet and peaceable Life, as it is in the close of the Verse forementioned.

f. Fourthly, we are to pay them O-Obedience.

bedience. This is likewise ftrictly charged by the Apostle, I Pet. 2. 13. Submit your selves to every Ordinance of Man for the Lord's Sake; whether to to the King as Supream, or unto Governours as the supresum power, that whoever is Authorized by him, we are to submit to; and Saint Paul likewife is most full to this purpose, Rom. 13. 1. Let every Soul be Subject to the higher Powers : And again, Verse a. Whosever resisterh the Powers, resisteth the Ordinance of God. And 'tie observable that these pricepts were given at a time, when those Powers were Heathens, and cruel persecutors of Christianiby; to shew us that no pretence of the wickedness of our Rulers can free us of this duty. An Obedience we must pay either Active or Passive; the Active is in the case of all lawful commands; that is, when ever the Magistrate commands something, which is not contrary to some command of God, we are then bound to act according to that command of the Magistrate, to do the things he requires. But when he enjoyns amy thing contrary to what God hath commanded, we are not then to pay him this active Obedience ; We may, nay we must refuse thus to act, (yet here we must be very well affored that the thing is to contrar and not prerend Conscience for a cloak of Stubborns We are in that case to obey Gal rather than Mon. But even this is a feafon for the Passive Obedience, we me patiently fuffer, what he inflicts on us for fuch a refer fal, and not to fecure our felves, rife up against him For who can stretch his hand against the Lord's ansinted and be guiltles? Tays David to Abishai, 1 Sam. 26. 2. and that at a time when David was under a great perfecution from Saul, nay, had also the affurance of Kingdom after him; and Sr. Paul's sentence in th case is most heavy, Rom. 13. 2. They that refift shall receive to themselves Damnation. Here is very small encouragement to any to rife up against the lawful Magiftrare, for though they should so far prosper here. as to fecure themselves from him by this means, ye there is a King of kings from whom no power can helser them, and this damnation in the close will prove a fad prize of their Victories. What is on the other fide, the dury of the Magistrate to the people will be vain to mention here, none of that rank being like to read this Treatife, and it being very useless for the people to enquire, what is the duty of their Supream, wherein the most are already much better read, than in their own: It may fuffice them to know, that wha foever his dury is, or however performed, he is countable to none but God, and no failing of his part can warrant them to fill of theirs.

196 The Mhole Duty of Man.

Duties to our spiritual; that is, the Ministers of the Pastors.

Word, whether such, as be Governous.

in the Church, or others under them, who are to perform he same offices to our Souls, this our natural Parents do to our Bodies. Thus St. Paul tells the Corinthians, that in Christ Jesus he had be gotten them through the Gospel, i Cor. 4: 13, and the Galatians, Chap. 4. 19. that he travails in Birthes than till Christ be sormed in them: And again, i Cor. 3: 4. He had fed them with Milk, that is, such Dockring were agreeable to that infant state of Christianity were then in , but he had from Meat for theme fell offe, Heb. 5. 14. All these are the offices of a d therefore they that perform them to us may vell be accounted as fuch.

Our dury to thefe is first to love Love.

m to bear them that kindness, which belongs to those who do us the greatest benefits. This is required by Se. Paul, 1 Thefi. 5. 13. I befeech you, pretires, mark them which labour among you, and are ner sun in the Lord, and admonish you, and esteem them say highly in love for their works sake. The work is such a ought in all reason to procure them love, it being of the highest advantage to us.

Secondly, 'ris our duty to value and elem them, as we fee in the Text now Efteem. mentioned and furely this is most rea-able, if we confider either the nature of the Work, or who it is that employs them. The nature of their Work is of all others the most excellent. We ife to value other professions proportionably to the figury and worth of the things they deal in. Now rely there is no Merchandize of equal worth with a Souls from perdition. And if we confider further, who it is that imploys them, it yet adds to the rereceive due to them. They are Ambassadors for Cirif. 2 Cor. 5. 20. And Amballadors are by the Laws of all Nations to be used with a respect anfwerable to the quality of those that fend them. Therefore Christ tells his Disciples, when he fends them out to Preach, He that despiseth you despiseth me, and he that despiseth me despiseth him that me, Luke 10. 16. It feems there is more depends on the despiting of Ministers, than Men ortily confider, 'tis the despising of God and Christ both Let those think of this, who make it their patime and sport to affront and deride this calling. And let those also, who dare presume to exercise the Offices of it, without being lawfully called to it, which is a most high presumption; 'tis as if a Man of his own head should go, as an Ambassador from his Prince. The Apostle says of the Priest of Law, which yet are inferior to those of the Goldel, The no Man taketh this honour to himself , but h mas called of God; Heb. 5. 4. How shall then Man dare to affirme this great honour to himelf h is nor called to it? Neither will it fuffice to fay, if have the inward call of the Spirit, for fince God had established an order in the Church, for the admir Men to this Office, they that shall take it upon the without that Authority, relift that Ordinance, and are but of the number of those Thieves and Robbers, as our Saviour fpeaks, John 10. which came not in by the Door. Belides, the fad experience of these times thews, that many who pretend most to this inward call of the Spirit, are called by some other Sp than that of God, the Doctrines they vent, being usually directly contrary to that word of his, on which all true Doctrines must be founded. Such are to be looked upon as those Seducers, those false Prophers. whereof we are so often warn'd in the Epittles of the Apostles. And whosever countenances them, or follows them, partakes with them in their guilt. It is recorded of Fereboam, as a crying fin , that he made of the meanest of the People Priests; that is, such as had by God's inflicution no right to it; and who ever hearkens to these uncalled Preachers, runs into that very fin; for without the encouragement of being followed, they would not long con inue the course, and therefore they that give them that encouragement, have much to answer for, and are certainly guilty of the fin of despising their true Pattors, when they shall thus set up these false Apostles against them. This is a guit this Age is too much concerned in. God in his Mercy fo rimely convince us of it, as may put a ftop to that confusion and impiery, which breaks in so fast upon w by it.

198 The Whole Duty of Man.

Maintenance.

Obedience.

9. Thirdly, We owe to them Maintenance: But of this I have spoken already in the first part of this Book, and shall not here repeat. Fourthly, We owe them Obedience. Objection, saith the Apostle, that have the ming are as because the best of the contract o

rule over you, and fubmit your felves, for they wateb for your Souls, Heb. 13. 17. This Obedience is to be paid them in spiritual things, that is, whatsoever they out of God's word shall declare to us to be God's Commands, that we are diligently to obey. cemembring that it is not they but God require it. according to that of Christ, He that beareth you heareth m, Luke 10. 16. And this, whether it be delivered by the way of publick Preaching, or private Exhorrule, which is God's Word, they are the Meffingers. of the Lord of Hofts, Mal. 2. 7. This Obedience the Apostle inforceth from a double Motive, one taken from the Ministry, another from themselves. They match, fays he, for your Souls, as they that must give an account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief The People are by their Obedience to enable their Pastors to give a comfortable account of their Souls, and it is a most unkind return of all their care and labours, to be put to grieve for the ill fuccess of them. But then in the fecond place, 'ris their own concernment also; they may put their Ministers to the discomfort of seeing all their pains cast away, but themselves are like to get little by it; that (says the Apostle, Heb. 13. 17.) will be unprofitable for you; tis your selves that will finally prove the losers by it, you lofe all those glorious rewards, which are offered as the Crown of this Obedience; you get nothing but an addition to your fin and punishment; for as our Saviour tells the Pharifees, if he had not come and foken to them, they had not had fin, John 15. 24. that is, in comparison with what they then had, so certainly they that never had the Gospel Preached to them, are much more innocent than they that have heard and relifted it. And for the punishment, what Christ told those to whom he had Preached, that it should be more tolerable for Tyre and Syden, which were Heathen Cities, than for them, the fame undoubtedly we may conclude for our felves.

to. Laftly, We are to pray for them; Frayers for This St. Paul every where requires of them. his spiritual Children , thus Eph. 6. 7, 8.

having commanded prayer for all Saint he And for me that atterance may be given and shat I may open my Month boldly, to make home Mystery of the Gospel a and so again, Col. 4. 3. A pray for such affiftances of God's Spirit to the may enable them rightly to discharge that holy C I shall omit to set down here what is the dury nisters to the People, upon the same consider on which I forbear to mention the duty of ftrates.

tt. The third fort of Parent is the Duties to our natural; the Fathers of our Flefs, as the natural Pa- Apostle calls them, Heb. 12. 9. And m rents. these we owe several duries; as full, Reverence, we owe them Reverence and Respect we must behave our selves towards them with all Humility and Observance, and must not unon any presence of infirmity in them despite or con-term them, either in ourward Behaviour, or so much as inwardly in our Hearn. If indeed they have in-firmicies, it must be our business to cover, and conceal them; like Shem and Japher, who; while cuted Cham published and diffelefed the Nakedness of their Father, covered it ; Gen. 9. 23. and that in fuch a manner too, as even themselves might not behold it. We are as much as may be to keep our felves for looking on those nakednesses of our Parents, which may tempt us to think irreverently of them, very contrary to the practice of soo many Children, who do not only publish and deride the infimiliar of their Parents, but pretend they have those infirm ties they have not; there is ordinarily fuch a pride in headiness in Youth, that they cannot abide to sub-to the counsels and directions of their Elders, an therefore to hake them off, are willing to have t pass for dorage, when they are the fruits of sobi and experience. To fuch the exhoration of lomon is very necessary, Prov. 24. 22. Wharten is Father that begat thee, and despise not the Mother the is old. A multitude of Texts more there are in Book to this purpose, which thewe that the wi chaught it necessary for Children to arrend to the the third in necessary for Children to artend to the content of their Parents. But the Youth of our Age is an for Wildom the quite contrary way, and think they are become Wits, when they are advanced to the despite the Countel, yes, Mocking the Persons of their Parents. Let such, if they will not practise the Extrocusion, yet remember the threatning of the Wise Man. Prot. 3c. 17. The off that mecketh his Pather, and despite the sery his Mother; the Ravens of the Valley shall pick to man, and the young Loyles shall ear it.

11. A fecond duty we owe to them Tave we are to bear them a real Love. idness, such as may make us heartily defines of all manner of good to them, and abher to so my thing that may grieve and disquiet them. This will appear but common Gratitode, when 'tis rememhad what our Parence have done for us, how they were not onely the Instruments of birth bringing us into the World, but also of fultaining and supporting us after and carried they that rightly weigh the Carr and form that go to the bringing up of a Child, will judge the Love of that Child to be but a moderate return for This Love is to be express several ways, such, in all kindness of Behaviour, carrying our selves nor order with awa and respect, but with kindness and Affection and therefore most gladly and readily doing these things with they bring Joy and Coinfort to them, and carefully mixing whatever may grieve and afflict them. Secondly this bore is to be express in Praying for them. The Debe cold ower to a Parent is so great, that he can never to bitinish to discharge it. he is to the to a Parent is to great, that he can been been himself to discharge it, he is therefore to call in Gold Ale, to beg of him, then he will reward all the part in Parents have done for him, by multiplying a little upon them; What fall we then by to thinken, that inthesis of calling to Heaven for thinken, that inthesis of calling to Heaven for thinken, their Parents, ransfeld heal for Corfes on their Parents, ransfeld heal for Corfes on their parents of the blackest Executions stands and pour out the blackest Executions stands that the would turn be the blackest and the blackest that one would turn be the top of the stands of the stand erefore tack the heaviest sunification of (wifeth Father or Mather let him and 21, 17. And alas! Our daily extra not only possible but common, using Curics. But 'in to be femal, wer more common, that is, the w for or thame keep them from so nany Children are there, that either to of the Government, or presdir on of their Parents, have without the cover doth so, let him remember, the ever doth to, er him remember, that ho wirly forers he carry it before Men, there shole ferretels wither of his Heart, and affuredly patter for this hainout offer. his Parents. And then let it be confident as well the power of punishing a sterefore fince he hath pronounced toward of that his, its not therefore may himself inflict it a that they who may of their Parents, may unumely over The fifth Commandment properties of the seward of Honouring the Parents, were successful that untimely Deam and the contrary, and fire there is a hay contrary to that duty, than the we are of the Curing our Parents.

H W I I

9

202 The talkale Duty of a

TA. The third duty We one up the in Obedence: this is not only us suited in other fifth Commissations, is called in other phase of Scrutter, the College say from Parent in the Lora for the college say from Parent in the Lora for the college say for the college of the college in any rate one duty to God must be printed to the printed one duty to God must be printed to the first that th of Duy to Parents.

in fitch a mostell, and respectful manner of the fitch a mostell, and respectful manner of the a mostell, and respectful manner of the appear its Confidence only, and not Stubborns of the manner him to it. But in case of all sawful makes there is when the thing communicate means of a new cyll, when it hath nothing in it consists that the communication is to make the communication in the weightier or only as the communication in the weightier or only as where his day is regarded, is too manner where his the world; where Parent search the Oblidition no longer under communication was under the Root, when they do one does not they think menticipes fee from all Obedients and be if lone do commune to pay its year in the world, padence therefore the fear to only and the parents of the examiner, and twill in our many the pays feel me should though mean mean hand and the pays feel me should though mean mean hand and the pays feel me should though mean mean hand and the pays feel me should though mean mean hand and the pays feel me should though mean mean hand and the pays feel me should though mean mean hand and the pays feel me should though mean mean hand and the pays feel me should be pumiliable who is you have the same of Diobeticate to be presented to with their Children, and manner food make meanfelves Childles.

It. But of all the acts of Dilobedia Epecalisms that of Marrying against the content of the Parent, is one of the highest age.

Children are so much the Goods, the collesions of their Parent, that they can be without that of Their, give away themselves without therefore we see under the Law, the head the most see Now was not Japaness to perform to the colless of the Parent, Nistab. 20 5. The sight the Parent was thought of some chough to the Parent was thought to be so much considered by the colless of the Obligation, even of a treative furely it ought to be so much considered by the sight to teep us from making any suchs where

ed. The Muhale Water of to affift and Minister to the their wants of what kind to ther weakness and sickness of Boo cavedness of understanding, or povery and in effects, in all these the Child is bound, across the ability, to relieve and affift them: for the ru or, weakness of Body, and infirmity of mind, non an doubt of the dury, when they remember how ever Child did in his Infancy receive the very (ame ber from the Parents; the Child had then no fire sport, no understanding to guide it felf , the care of ne Parents was fain to supply both these to it, in refore in common gratifude, whenever either of ge broomes the Parents cafe, as fometimes by great ge, or some actident both do, the Child is to germ the same Offices back again to them. As for that relieving their Poverty, there is the very same Obstation to that with the former, it being but just to that the parent who has formerly sustained thee; but this is this, Christ himself Teaches us. That this is contained within the Precept of honouring their Paseurs for when, Mark 7, 13, he accuse the Pharifes of rejecting the Commandment of God, to cleave to they can Traditions, he instances in this particular concerning the relieving of Parents, whereby 'ris manifest, this is a part of that Duty which is enjoyined in the Fifth Commandment as November 1989. fth Commandment, as you may fee at large in the ext, and such a Duty it is, that no pretence can above, or acquit us of it. How then shall those mver it, that deny Relief to their Poor Parents, that trare indeed their Sins, to fatisfie the Necessia of those to whom they owe their being? Nay, force there are yet worle, who, out of Pride, Scorn to own when the Child is advanced to Dignity or Wealth, the chink it a Dilparagement to them to look on their Pa traying, as they think to the World the meannels of Birth, and so the Poor Parent fares the worse for rolperity of his Child. This is fuch a Pride and U mainels together, as will furely find a tharp vengeance on God; for if Salaman observe of Pride alone, that it the Forerunner of Destruction, Prov. 16. 18, we may

17. To this that hath been faid of y of Children to their Parents, I Duty to be hall add only this; that no unkindness, paid even to on fault of the Parent, cap acquir the the world of Child of this Duty; but as St. Peter tells Parents.
Servants, 1 Pet. 2. 182 that they must be light, not onely to the good and gentle Masters, but all in Duty, but onely to the kind and virtuous, but even to the horacelt, and wickedest Parent. For though the granual due to a kind Parent, be a very forcible Morive to nthe the Child pay his duty, yet that is not the onely, nor hiefest ground of it; that is laid in the Command of God, who requires us thus to Honour our Parents. And therefore though we should suppose a Parent so unnatural, as never to have done any thing to oblige the Child (which can hardly be imagined) yer fill the Command of God continues in force, and we are in Confidence of that, to perform that Dury to our Parents, though none of the other tye of Grantude flould lie

But as this is due from the Child to Parents, fo on the other fide there Duty of Paare other things also due from the Pa- vent to Chathe feveral Stares and Ages of it.

First. There is the care of nourishing and fostaining it, which begins To Nourish from the very Birth, and continues a them. Duty from the Parent, till the Child be able to perform is to himself; this is a Duty which Na-me Teaches, even the Savage Beafts have a great care and senderness in nourishing their Young, and there-fore may serve to Reproach and Condemn all Parents who shall be so Unnatural as to Neglect this. I shall control to give the Child its first Nourishment, by growing

G 3

206 The Mulpole Witte of

it Suck ber Self, because 'twill not be possible as univerfally in the Cafe, there being many circum which may alter it, and make it not only law best not to do it, all I shall say, is, that where ediment of Sickness, weakness, or the like does tis furely best for the Mother her felf to perform the which a good Mother ought to far to confider, as not fell them to her own floth, or nicensely, or any luch unworthy Motive; for where such only are the Grounds of forbearing it, they will never be while the omition, they being themselves un

But befides this first care, which be-Bring them to longs to the body of the Child, there is another, which should begin near a carly, which belongs to their Soul, as thereby to procure them an early right to all those persons adventages, which that Sacrament conveight them. This is a duty the Parents ought not to deld it being most reasonable, that they who have been struments to conveigh the stain and pollution of the the poor Infant, should be very earnest and indi me to have it washe off, as foon as may be: Beliden life of to tender a Creature is but a blaft, and m times gone in a moment , and though we are not to d pair of God's Mercy to those poor Children, who d Without Baptilm, yet furely those Parents commit a p Fault, by whose neglect it is that they want it.

Educate them.

19. Secondly, the Parents mul vide for the Education of the Chi they must, as Solomon speaks, Prov. Train up the Child in the gray he fi

As foon therefore as Children come to the use of Re they are to be Instructed, and that first in those t which concern their Eternal well-being, they are by and little to be Taught all those things which Go commanded them as their Duty to perform what Glorious Rewards he hath provided for t they do it, and what grievous and eternal Pu if they do it not. These things ought, as carly as to be instilled into the Minds of Children, which w Veffels) do usually keep the favour of that chiefs in the put into them; and therefore it nearly con-entall Parents to look they be at first thus seasoned with resue and Religion. Tis sure if this be neglected; the Devil will be diligent enough to infill into them all Wickedness and Vice, even from their Cradles and there being also in all our Natures to much the pracer appeals to evil, than to good, there is need to make the care and watchfalness to prevent those endeavour of that Enemy of Souls, which can no way be; but to offering them at first with good things, bree m a Love to Vertue, and a hatred of Vice, that her the Temptation come, they may be armed them. This furely is above all things the Dury of reme to look after, and the neglect of it is a kortible Grueley; we justly look upon thing Parents, so most unnual Wretches, that take away the Life of their Childy but also! that his Mercy and Tenderness, compared to this of neglecting his Education, for by that his Ruines his Soul, makes him Miferable eternally ; and God knows Multitudes of fuch Cruel Parents there are in the World, that thus give up their Children to be with the Ways of God; nay indeed, how few there ar that do Confcionably perform this Duty, is too appu rent by the strange Rudeness and Ignorance that is nerall among Youth; the Children of those who ca themselves Christians being frequently as Ignorate God and Chrift, as the meerest Heathers. Bur who ver they are that thus neglect this great Duty, I men know that it is not onely a fearful Milery the bring upon their poor Children, but also a horrib Guile upon themselves. For as God says to the car less Warehmen , Exek. 3: 18. That if any Soul per by his Negligence, that Soul Shall be required at his hands; to forely will it fare with all Parents who has this Office of Watchmen Intrufted to them by Go over their own Children. A fecond part of Edu it is the bringing there up to fome Imployment, b the bringing them up to lome Imployment, buly them in fome honest Exercise, whereby they may

208 The Minole Duty of Man

evoid that great finere of the Devil, Idleness, and a be Taught fome useful Art or Trade, whereby when they come to Age, they may become profesole to the Common-wealth, and able to get an honest Living hemicives.

20 To this great dury of Education Means teneards of Children there is required as means the Education first, Encouragement a fectually Correction of Children on Encouragement is first to be med. we should endeavour to make children in love with Duty, by officing them to wards and invitations, and whenever they do we take notice of it, and encourage them to go on an ill course fome Parents hold, who think the out never appear to their Children but with a Face of Paul forewarms Parents of, when he bids Fathers, on to Prevoke their Children to Wrath, Col. 3. 21. To as harfs and unkind to them, when they do well, as if they do ill, is the way to provoke them; and when the Apostle tells us in the same Versit, what will be the iffue of it, they will be discouraged, they will be the iffue of it, they will be discouraged, they will be a heart to me on in any mood tours. re no heart to go on in any good course, wh deens is Correction, and this becomes fessionable, when the former will do no good, when all fair Means, Perwalions, and Encouragements, prevail not, then there is necessity of using marper; and let that be first mid in words, I mean nor railing and foul Language, but fober, yet harp reproof, but if that fail too, then need to Blows; and if this cafe, as Solomon fave that fareth his Red hateth his Son , Prov. 13. 24. Tis a cruel fondness, that to spare a few stripes at pre-Cent, will adventure him to those sad Mischiefs, which nmonly befal the Child that is left to himfelf. But shen this Correction must be given in such a more, as may be likely to do good; to which purpo of be given timely, the Child must not be suffer ed to run on in any ill, till it hath got a habit; and a stubbornnels too. This is a great error in many Parents, they will let their Children alone for diverwars to do what they lift, permit them to Lye scal, without ever fo much as rebuking them, may, per-Child, and think it marrers not what they do while they are little: but alas! all that while the Vice gers root, and that many times fo deep an one, that all they can do afterwards, whether by words or blows, can never pluck in up. Secondly, correction must be moderate, not ex-ceeding the quality of the fault, nor the tenderness of the Child Thirdly, it must not be given in rage, if it be, it will not onely be in danger of being immoderare, but it will loke its effects upon the Child, who will think he is Corrected, not because he has done a fault, but because his Parene is Angry, and fo will rather blame the Parent than himfelf: whereas on the contrary, care thould be taken to make the Child as fentible of the Fault, as of the Smart, withour which he will never be throughly

21. Thirdly, after Children are grown up, and are past the age of Education, there are yet other Offices for the Parent to perform to them , the Parent is fill to watch over them, in respect of wen when the their Souls, to observe how they pra-dise those Precents which are given them in their Education, and accordingly to exhort, incours or reprove, as they find occasion. 22. So allo for their outward effate, they are to put them into some course of living in the World; if God have helt the Parent with Wealth, according to what he hath, he must distri-

The Parent to match over their Souls are grown up.

To provide for bute to his Children, remembring that fince he was the infirmment of beinging them are the World, he is, according to his ability, to provide for their comfortable living in it; they are therefore to be looks on as very Unnatural Parents, who, fo they may have enough to foend in their own Riots and Excell, care nor what becomes of their Children, never think of providing for them. Another Fault is usual among for them, till themselves be dead, heap up, perhaps, great Matters for them against that time, but in the mean time afford them not fuch a competency, as may dischiefs that come from this : First, it letters it Child's Affection to his Parent, nay, sometimes to pro-ceeds so far, as to make him wish his Death; which, shough it be such a Fault, as no Tempration can ex-cuse in a Child, yet its also a great Fault in a Parent, so ive that Temptation. Secondly, it puts the Child up-on this and tricks, many times dishonest ones, to sup-ly his necessaries; this is, I doubt not; a common elof it, the hardness of Parents has often put Men on very unlawful courses, which when they are once the partial of the content of the property of the first occasion cease; and therefore Parents ought to be were how they run them upon those hazards. Besides, the Parent loses that Contentment, which he might have in seeing his Children live Prosperously and Comfortably, which none but an arrant earth worm would exchange for the vain imaginary pleasure of having Money in his Cheft. But in this business of roviding for Children, there is yet another thing to e heeded, and that is, that the Parent ger that Wealth formelly, which he makes their Portion, elfe tis very far from being a Provision; there is such a Curse gree ing with an ill-gotten Estate, that he that leave makes him believe he has left him Wealth, butha white t fuch a Canker in the Bowels of it, that is fure to s is our. This is to common an observation, that I need fay nothing to confirm the Truth of it , would Got it were as generally laid to heart, as it feems to be generally taken notice of: Then furely Parents would not acmay thereby provide for their Children, for this is not a way of Providing for their; nay, 'tis the way to follow of whatever they have lawfully gathered for them the least mite of unlawful Gain being of the nat Leaven, which Sours the Whole Lump, bringing Curies upon all a Man pofferierh. Let all Parents the fore fariafie themselves with such Provisions for Children, as God shall enable them honefully to make a ting themselves how little soever it be; 'tis a bente Po und Fa. Parques Duey to Children. 214 tien than the greatest Wealth unjustly gotten; according to that It Solomon, Prov. 16. 8. Bester is little with Rightsonfines, than great Revenue with at Right.

210 The Mhole Duty of Pan.

28. A fourth thing the Parent owesto the Child is Good Example, he is not only To give the to fer him Rules of Vertue and Godlines, good Example

but he must himself give him a Pattern in his own practice, we see the force of Example is infinitely beyond that of Precept, especially where the per fon is one to whom we bear a Reverence, or with wi we have a continual Convertation; both which uso eet in a Parent. It is therefore a most necessa in all Parents to behave themselves so before their dren, that their Example may be a means of wins them to Vertue. But alas I this Age affords little of care, nay, fo far 'ris from it, that there are none more mently the Instruments of corrupting Children. their own Parents. And indeed how can it be oth While Men give rhemselves liberty to all wicked not to be hoped, but that the Children which oblers will imitate it; the Child that feet his Father Drunk, furely think he may be so too, as well as his Father. he that hears him Swear, will do the like, and fo all other Vices; and if any Parent that is thus wick himself, should happen to have so much more care his Child's Soul than his own, as to forbid him t things which himself practises, or Correct him for the doing them, 'tis certain the Child will account this great Injustice in his Father, to punish him for that his fif freely does, and so he is never likely to be wrough upon it. 'This Consideration lays a most strick type upon all Parents to live Christianly, for otherwise they do notly hazard their own Souls, but those of their Children and the constant of t alfo, and as it were, purchase an Estate of inheritance

24. A fifth Dury of Parents is blefling their Children; the way of doing To BLESS that is double, first, by their PRAYER, ey are by daily and carneft Prayers to Commend them to God's protection and bleffing, both 212 The Whole Ducy of Man.

for their Spiritual and Temporal Efface, and Secondly. by their piety; they are to be such a fons themselves, as that a Bleffing may descend from them upon their posterity. This is often promised in Scripture to Godly Men . That their seed (hall be Bleffed. Thus in the Second Commandment, God promites to shew Merey the Jews, that though they were a Stiff necked Generaon, and had very grievoully provoked God, yet the Godlines of their Fore-fathers, Abraham, Ifaac, and Tacob. did many times move God to fave them from Deftructi. on the other fide we fee that even Good Men hive fared the worle for the Iniquities of their Fathers ; thus When Josiah had destroyed Idulary, Restored God's Service, and done Good beyond all the Kings that were behims yes there was an Old Arrear of Manafeh his Grandfather, which all this piery of his would not blot our, but he resolves to cast Judah also out of his fight, as ou may read at large, 2 Kings 23. If therefore Parents have any Bowels, any Kindness towards their Children. any real Defire of their Prosperity, let them take upon them.

To five no upthat they use their Power over their real public Children with Equity and Moderation, not to oppress them with unreasonable Commands, only to exercise their own authority, but in all things of weight to confider the scal Good of their Children, and to prefit them to nothing, which may not confift with that. This is a tile whereof Parents may often have use, but in none reater than in the business of Marrying their Children, wherein many that otherwise are good Parents, have been to blame; when out of an eagering of bestowing them Wealthily, they force them to Marry utterly against their own Inclinations, which is a great Tyranny, and that which frequently betrays them to a Multitude of Mischiefs, such as all the Wealth in the World cannot repain. There are two things which Parents oughts ought especially to consider in the Matching their Children; the first, how they may live Christianly; and to that purpose to chuse a Vertuous and Pious Person to link with them; the second is, how they may live chearfully and comfortably in this World; and to that end, though a competency of Estate may be necessary to be regarded, yet surely abundance is no way requisite, and therefore that should not be too vehemently sought after: that which much more tends to the happiness of that state, is the mutual kindness and liking of the Paratics, without which Marriage is of all other the most momentorable condition, and therefore no Parent ought to thrust a Child into it. I have now done with the first fort of Relation, that of a Parent.

Sund 14. Parenes Ducy to Children. 213

and the second of the second of the second

are in entire to the second of the second of ra The minois with of Sing nice of the manufacture of the price SUNDAY XV.

man to I stay to the party of the

Ours to our Brethren, and Relations, Husband, Vife, Briends, Masters, Servants;

Section in H E Second fort of Relation is that of a Brother; now Brother-hood may be two fold, either natural, or spiritual, the latter may in the largest extent contain under it all tankind, all that partake of the fame Nature, but I ed those general Duties which belong to all as such. I now speak of that natural Brotherhood that is between those that are the children of the fame immediate Parent; and he duty of these is to have united hearts and affectinet this Nature points out to them, they partaking in a are special manner of each others substance, and therement, why there should be no Contention between him and because they were Brethren, Gen. 13. 8. And though Brethren there is meant onely Coufins, yet that helps the more strongly to conclude, that this nearer Reation is in reason to be a greater barr to STRIFE, also that this kindness is in some degree to be extended to all that have any nearness of Blood to

The Necessity of Love 4-

2. This kindness of Love between Brethren and Sifters ought to be very firmly grounded in their hearts, if it be mong Brethren, not, they will be of all others in most danger of disagreeing, for the continual Conversation that is among them while they are as Mome in the Father's House, will be apt to Minister occasion of far. Besider the equality what is among them in respect of Birth, often makes them inclinable to how each other, when one is in any respect advanced above the other. Thus we see Joseph's Brechgen enviel him, because he had most of his Father's Love; and Radul envied her Sifter Leah, because she was fruitful therefore for the preventing of such Temprations, let all who have Brethern and Sifters, possess their Mind with a great and Real Kindness to them, look on them as pares of themselves, and then they will never think he eather to Quarrel with them, or to envy them any advantage any more than one part of the Body does another of the me Body, but will strive to advance and help forward the good of each other.

3. The fecond kind of Brotherhood is spiritual; that contains all those who Spiritual Branches the same Faith with us: the therboad.

Church in our Baptifin becomes a Me-ther to each Baptized Person; and then surely they that have the Relation of Children to her, must have also the Relation of Brethren to each other; and to this fort of rethren also we owe a great deal of cenderness and atction; the spiritual Bond of Religion should, of all o thers, the most closely unite our hearts. This is the Broth hood which St. Peter exhorts us to love, I Pet. 2. 17. And to it we are in an effecial manner bound to do good Offices, Dogood, faith the Apostle, to all, but offe-Our compassions are to be most melting towards them of all others, in all their Needs, Christ'sellsus, that's figure gives but a Cup of cold water to any in the Name of a Descripte, shall not lose his Reward. Matth. 10. 42: From whence we may assure our selves that this peculiar. Love to Christians as Christians, is very acceptable in his

4. Several Duties there are required of us to these Brethren; one principal, is the holding Communion with them, and that hist in Doctrine, we are confuntly to continue in the belief and profestion of all those necessary Truths, by which we may be mark'd out as Followers and Disciple f Chrift. This is that Faith which St. Jude (peaks o which was once delivered to the Saints, Jule 1. By tual Brotherhood, in respect of Protestion, which we mult confinity do, what froms and Perfecutions for attern it, according to the Exhortation of the Apolite Heb. 10, 22. Let us hold fast the profession of our Fa without wavering. Secondly, we are also, as opportunity serves, to communicate with them in all holy Offices we must be diligent in frequenting the Aftembles of the saints, which is as it were the Badge of our Profession and elerefore he that willingly withdraws himself from thele, gives ground to fuspect he will be apr to renounce the other alfo. But these parts of Communion we and firictly maintained by the first Christians, Acts 242 They continued fledfaftly in the Apostle's Dostrine and Vallengthip, and in breaking of Bread, and in Propers, They continued, and that steedfastly, they were not fightned from it by any Perfecutions, though that were time wherein they were tried with the Sharpest offerings; which may Teach us, that it is not

Out Duty hold Com on with the Brethren.

216 The mibole Duty of Man.

5. Secondly, we are to beer with the Infirmities of our Christian Brethren, according to the Advice of St. Paul. Rom. 15. 1. We that are firms ought to bear the Infirmities of the Weak. If one that holds all necessary Christian Truths, happen yet to be in some Error, we are not for this, either 20 forsake his Communion, or despise his Person. This St. Paul Teaches we in the case of that weak Brother, who by error made a caseless sample steat Monts, Rom. 14. where he blids the tronger Christians, that is, those who being better introduced, discerned him to be in an Error, yet so receive him nevertheless, and not to despise him; as on the other side, the bids that weak one not to Judge the stronger. The Jesser Differences in Opinion must be born with on both sides, and must not in the least abute our Erotherly Chapity towards each other.

Thirdly, We are to endeavour

the Reftoring of any fallen Brother. To refere that is, to bring him to Repentance, after after the hath fallen into any Sin. Thus Falls.

S. Faul commands the Galatians, that they floudd refere him that thus evertakes in a Fault, custleing themselves left they were also tempted. We are not to look on him as a Caft-away, to give him over as unterly desperate, neither are we to Triumph over him, in respect of our own Innocence, like the proud Phariles over ne poor Publican, Luke 18. 11. but we are mackly to adeavour his Recovery, remembring that our own frailty is fuch, that we are not fecure from the like

7. Fourthly, We are to have a Sympathy and fellow-feeling with these To Sympa-brethren, to be nearly touche with thing with whatsoever befalls them, either as they them. are confidered in Society, or in Single Persons. In Society first, and so they make up Church, and that either the Universal, which is made up of all Believers throughout the World, or any particular Church, which is made up of all the Believers in that particular Nation; and whatever hatneral, or any fuch fingle part of it, especially that whereof our selves are Members, we are to be much affected and moved with it, to Rejoyce in all the Prosperities, and to Mourn and Bewaii all the Breaches and Defolations thereof, and daily and come to to Pray with David, Plalm 51. 18. 0 to favourable and gracious unto Sion, Build thou the Walls of Jerufalem ; and that especially when we fee her in Diffresses and Persecution. Whosoever is not thus touche with the Condition of the Church, if not to be lookt on as a Living Member of it a for as in the Natural Body every Member is concerned in the Prosperity of the Whole, so certainly is here; It was the Observation of the Pfalmitt, That God's Servants think upon the Stones of Sionand pity to fee her in the duft, Pialm 102. 14. and furely all his fervance are fifth of the fame temper, cannot look an the Ruines and defolations of the Church, with out the greatest Sorrow, and Lamentation. Second, We are to have this Fellow-feeling with our Brethre confidered as fingle persons; We are to account our felves concerned in every particular Christian, so as to elves concerned in every particular Christian, to as to sattake with him in all his occasions either of joy or forow. Thus the Apostle exhorts, Rom. 12, 14. Rejust with them that rejoyee. Week with them that week. And gain, 1 Cor. 12. under the similitude of the Natural Boy he urges this Dury. Whether me Member suffer, all the sambers suffer with it; or one Member be bonoused, all the sambers rejoyee with it. All these several effects of Love, we owe to these Spiritual Brethren. And this Love is which Chrift hath made the Badge of his Disciple in 13. 35. By this shall all Men know that ye are my societies, if ye have Love one to another; so that if we can not to cast off Discipleship to Christ, we must not Take this Love of the Brethren.

218 The Cathole Dury of Ban-

8. The third relation is that between Husband and Wife: This is yet much nearer than either of the former, as an te. pears by that Text. Ephel 5.31. A Ma feel leave Father and Morter, and clean to this Wife, and they two shall be me fell everal duties there are owing from one of these Per the other, and first for the Wife, the owe Obedince. This is commanded by the Apostle, Col. 3. 12. Fives submit your situes to your own Husbands, at it is fit to Lord. They are to render Obedience to their tusbands in the Lord, that is, in all lawful Commands, or otherwise its here, as in the case of all other Sup mes, God must be obeyed rather than Man, and the ite must not upon her Husbands Command do any which is forbidden by God. But in all things ch do not croß some Command of God's, this Pre is of force, and will ferve to condemn the peeville bosoness of many Wives who relift the Lawful Comthis dury of subjection, which God himself rethe Husband command formerhing, which though it be me unlawful, is yet very inconvenient, and imprusers, both the Wife fubrait to fluch a Command? To this? Answer, That it will be no Disobedience in her, but Draw calmily and milely to show him the inconveniencies desired, and to perforable him to retract that Command? but in case the cannot win him to it by fair intreasies, the must aemier my sharp Language, not yet finally refore as deep nothing but the unlawfulness of the Command beeing softicient warrant for that.

The Scondly, The Wife owes Fidelity to the Huband; and there of two Fidelity. Fore; first, that of the Bed, she must keep her self Pure and Chast from all strange Embraces; and therefore must not so much as give an East of any that will allure her; but with the greatest abborrence reject all Motions of that fort, and never give any Man that has once made such a Motion to her, the East opportunity to make a Second. Secondly She owes him likewise Fidelity in the managing those te feet apportunity to make a second be owes him likewife Fidelity in the managing thole worldly Affairs he commiss to her , the must orer them to, as may be most to her Husbands adn, employ his Goods to fuch uses as he allows kindness of Conversation: She is to en-Life, as is possible, that so the may answer that special and of the Womans Creation, the being a belp to her Husand, Gen. 2. 13. and this in all conditions, whether Health, or Sickness, Wealth or Poverry, whatsoever ete God by his Providence shall cast him into, she must be as much of comfort and support to him, as the can-To this all fullenness and harshness, all brawling and unquietness is directly contrary, for that makes the Wife the Burden and Plague of the Man, instead of a Help and Comfort: And fure, if it be a Fault to behave one felf to any Person, as hath already been shewed, How great must it be to do so to him. to whom the greatest kindness and affection is owing?

To. Thirdly, She owes him Love, and ner with that all Friendlines and Love.

G 10

to The falling south of Acquit not from these Duties,

11. Nor let fuch Wives thin the Faulti of my faults, or provocations of the they will not either in refe gion of Discretion. Not in Religi for where God has absolutely comm ed a Duty to be paid, 'tis not any un chines of the Person can excuse from it, not in Discretion, for the worse a Husband is, the more need there is for the Wife to carry her felf with that gentleness and (weerness, that may be most likely to win him. This is the advice St. Peter gave to the Wives of his time in Pet. 3. 1. Likewise ye Wroes be in subjection to jour own Husbands, that if any obeyout the Word, they may with-not the Word be soon by the Conversation of the Wives. It forms the good Behaviour of the Wives was thought a werful Means to win Men from Heathenism to Chrionity; and fure it might now adays have fome good if Women would have but the Patience to try it: the leaft, 'twould have this, that it would keep fome enable quiet in Families, whereas on the other fide, Ill fruits of the Wives unquietness are so notorious there are few Neighbourhoods, but can give some moe of it. How many Men are there, that to avoid poile of a Froward Wife, have fallen to Companyeping, and by that to Drunkenness, Poverry, and Multitude of Mischiess? Let all Wives therefore were of Administring that Temptation. But whenever there happens any thing, which, in Kindness her Husband, she is to Admonish him of, let be with that Softness and Mildness, that it may opear 'tis Love, and not Anger that makes her Tropical By gove

12. There are also on the Husbands part feweral Duties, there is The Husband first Love, which St. Paul requires wes to the to be very tender and compassionate towards the Wife, as appears by the Wife Love.

smilleudes he useth in that matter, Ephef. 5. The one, that of the Love a Man bears to his Natural Body. No Man, lays he, Verfe 29, ever bateth his gas but nourisheth and cherisheth it. The other of this Love of Husbands towards their Wives. This arrerly forbids all harftmess and roughness to them Men are to use them as parts of themselves, to love that may be hartful and grievous to them, no more them as their own Bodies, and therefore to do nothing those Husbands that Tyrantize over their Wives, that fearce use them like Humane Creatures confider whether that be to love them as their own Bodies.

13. A Second duty of the Husband, is Faithfulness to the Red. This is by God as well required of the Husband, as the Wife; and though the World do from to look on the breach of this duty with left shorrence in the Husband, yet fure before that july the offence will appear no less on the Man's fide, than the Woman's. This is certain, it in both a breach of the Vow made to each other at their Marriage, and fo befides the uncleanness, a downright perjury; and those differences in the case, which feem to cast the scale, are rather in respect of civil and worldly confideration, than meerly of the fin.

Tt. A third part of the Husband is to maintain and provide for the Wife. He is Mainteto let her partake with him in those out- name. ward good things, wherewith God hath bleft him, and neither by niggardlines debar her of what is fit for her, nor yet by unthriftines to walte his Goods, that he shall become unable to support her. This is certainly the duty of the Husband, who being as hith been faid, to account his Wife as a part of his own Body, must have the very same care to fuftain her, that he hath for himfelf. Yet this is not fo to be understood, as to excuse the Wife from her part of libour and Industry, when that is requifite, it being unreasonable the Husband should roil to maintain the Wife in Idleness

222 The Cabole Puty of Man

truck the Wife, in the things which Intruction. ignorant of them. Thus St. Paul bids the Wisselfe of their Husbands at home, 1 Cor. 14. 36. Which supposes that the Husband is to Teach her. Indeed it be es to every Master of a Family to endeavor all under his charge be Taught all necessary things of this kind, and then fore more especially his Wife, whe is fo much nearer to him than all the reft. This make Men rareful to get knowledge themfelver, th they may be able to perform this dury they owe to other.

Husbands and Wives mutually to Pray for and affift each other in all

16. Laftly , Husbands and Wives are murually to Pray for each other, to beg all Bleffings from God both Spiris tual and Temporal, and to endeavour, all they can to do all good to one mother, especially all good to each o Souls, by firring up to the performance of Duty, and diffiwading and drawing back from all fin, and by being like true yoke fellows, helpful and affiftant to each other in the doing of all forts of Good, both to their own Family and all othere within their reach. This is of all other the truest and most valuable love. Ney indeed, how can a be faid they do love at all, who contentedly let each other run on in a course that will bring them ro erecal Mifery? And if the Love of Husbands and Wive were thus grounded in Vertue and Religion, two make their lives a kind of Heaven on Barth; cwould prevent all those contentions and brawlings, so common ong them, which are the great Plagues of Families, and the leffer Hell in paffage to the greater; and to where it is not thus founded, there is little comfort to be expected in Marriage.

riare.

17. It should therefore be the care The Vertue of of every one that means to enter upon the Person the that flate, to consider advisedly tion in Mar-with whom they may have this four-tual friendship, that is, such a one as truly fears God. There are many ends of Marriage looks upon in the World: Marry for Wealth, others for Beauty, and generally they are only Worldly respects that are at all confidence to but certainty he that would Marry as he ought, sould contrive to make his Marriage useful to those beats ends of serving God, and saving his one Soul; at least he must be sure it be no hindrance to them. and to that purpose the vertue of the Person chosen is more nducing than all the Wealth in the World, though I nfidered

18. But above all things let all take eed, that they make not fuch Marriages may not only be ill in their effects.

Unlawful

are actual fine at the time; fuch are e Marriages of those that were furmerly Promised to fome other, in which case 'tis fure they rightly belone to those, to whom they past the first Promise; and the any other to Marry them, during the Life of that Person, is to take the Husband or Wife of that other, which is direct Adultery, as Sr. Paul tells us, Rom. 7. 3. The like unlawfulness there is also in the Marriage of , who are within those degrees of Kindred forbidden by God, the particulars whereof are fet down in the 18th and 20th of Leviticus, and whoever Marries any that is within any of those degrees of nearness. either to himself, or to his deceased Wife, which is as bad, commits that great fin of Incest, and so long as h continues to live with fuch his unlawful Wife, remains it that fearful Guilt. This wariness in the choice of the Person to be Married, would prevent many sad effects. which we daily fee follow fuch rath or unlawful Marche It were well therefore if people would look on Marri age, as our Church advises, as a thing not to be undertaken lightly, smadwifedly, or wantonly, to farisfic Mens carnal tuffs and appetites; but reverently, diferently, advised soberly, and in the fear of God; and in so doing, no doub Bleffing would follow, which otherwise there is little ground to expect. I have now done with this Relation berween Husband and Wife, 224 The Milhole Buty of Pan.

10. The next is that between Friends and this relation if it be rightly founded, it is of great nearness and usefulness? But there is none more generally mistaken in the World, Men usually call them their Friends. with whom they have an intimacy and frequency of Conversation, though that intimacy be indeed nothing but an agreement and combination in fin. The Drunkard thinks him his Friend that will keep him Company, the deceitful Person, him that will aid him in his Cheats, the proud Man, him that will flatter him; And to generally in all Vices, they are looked on as Friends that advance and further us in them. But God knows this is far from friendship fuch a Friend as this the Devil himself is in the highest degree, who is never backward in such officas. The true friendship is that of a direct conrary making; 'tis a concurrence and agreement in Virtue, not in Vice: In faort, a true Friend loves his Friend fo, that he is very zealous of his good; and cerment of bringing him to the greatest evil.

The general duty of a Friend then multibe resolved to be the industrious pursuit of his Friend's real advantages, in which there are several particulars contained.

Eccluf. 22, 22.

20. As first, faithfulness in all trusts

Faithfulcommitted to him by his Friend, whether these that of Goods, or Secrets; he that betrays the trust of a Friend in either, is by all Men lonked upon with abhor-tence, it being one of the higheft fallenesses and treacheries, and for such treacherous wounds the Wise Man tells us, Every Friend will depart,

27. Secondly, its the duty of a Affifance. Friend to be affifting to his Friend in all his outward needs; to comfel him when he wants advice; to cherr him when he needs comfort: to give him when he wants relief; and to endeavour his refeue out of any trouble or danger. An admirable example we have of this fisiendfriendship in Jonathan to David he loved him as his said, and we fee he not only contrives for his lifer when he was in danger, bur runs hazards himto refcue and deliver his Friend, draws his Fathers er upon him, to turn it from David, as you may read at large, I Sam. 20.

22. The third and highest duty of a Admonition,

Friend is to be aiding and affiffing to the Soul of his Friend, to endeavour to advance that in Piery and Vertue, by all means within his power, by exhortations and incouragements to all Vertue, by smelt and vehement diffwations from all fin , and not only thus in general, but by applying to his parritular wants, especially by plain and friendly reproofs, where he knows or reasonably believes there is any full committed. This is of all others the most pecu-lia duty of a Friend, it being indeed that which none elfe is qualified for. Such an unwillingness there is in most Men to hear of their finits, that those that underrake that work, had need have a great prepoffestion of their Hearts, to make them parient of it. Nay it is fo generally acknowledged to be the proper work of a Friend, that if he omit it, he berrays the offender into fecurity; his not reproving will be apt so make the other think he does nothing worthy of reproof, and fo he taciely acts that bafelt part of a flatterer, fooths and cherishes him in his fin. When yer farther it is confidered how great need all Men have at fome time or other of being admonifhed, 'twill appear most unfriendly, yea, cruel thing to omit it. We have that natural partiality to our felves, that we cannot fo readily differn our own militar-riages, as we do other Mens, and therefore its very necessary they should sometimes be shewed us by thole, who fee them more clearly; and the doing this at the first may prevent the multiplying of more: Whereas if we be fuffered to go unreproved, it often comes to fuch a habit, that reproofs will do no good. And then how shall that Person be able to answer it either to God or himfolf, that has by his filence betrayed his Friend to this greatest Mischies? The the expression of God himfelf, speaking of a Friend, Thy friend which is at this is so Soal, Deut. 13. 6. And sure we should in this respect account our Friends of our own Souls, by having the same jealous tenderness and warchfulness over their Souls, which we ought to have of our own. It will aherefore be very fit for all that have entred any strict Friendship, to make this one special Article in the Agrement, that they shall mutually admonish and reprove each other; by which means it will become such an avowed part of their Friendship, that it can never be mistaken by the reproved party for censoriousness or unkindness.

226 The Mi bole Duty of Man.

23. Fourthly, to these several parts of PRATER. kindness must be added that of Prayer, we must not only affish our Friends, our selves, in what we can, but we must call in the Almighties aid to them, recommending them earnessly to God for all his Blessings, both Temporal and Spiritual.

constance, our Friendships, and not our of a light-ness of humor grow weary of a Friend, only because we have had him long. This is great Injustice to him, who, if he have behaved himself well, ought the more to be valued, by how much the longer he has consisted to do so; And it is great folly in our selves, for it is the casting away the greatest Treasure of Humane. Life, for such certainly is a tried Friend. The wiself of Hengives warning of it, Prov. 27, 16. Thinsown friend, and the Fathers Friend forside not. Nay, farther, it not were light offence of a Friend, that should make the resource his Friendship, there must be some allowance made to the Infirmities of Men, and if thou hast occasion to pardon him somewhat to day, perhaps thou may be give him opportunity to require thee to Morrow; therefore nothing but Unfaithfulness, or incorrigible Vice thould break this Band.

as. The last relation is that between directed and Servants, both which owe Servants of the to each other. That of the Servants is first Obedience to all lawful fters Obedience to all lawful fters Obedience to the Apostle Ephel. 6. 6. Servants oley in all things your Malters, &cc, And this Obeout ready and chearful, as he there proceeds to exhelp them herein, they are to confider, that it is to the Lord, and not unto Men. God has commandof Servants thus to Obey their Mafters; and therefore the Obedience they pay is to God which may well make them do it chearfully; how harfn or unworthy foever the Mafter be, especially if what the Apostle farther urgest, Verie 8. be considered, That there is a reward to be expected from God for 26. The Second dury of the Servant Fidelity!

is faithfulness, and that may be of two lors, one as opposed to Eye-fervice, the other to Purloyning or Defrauding. The first part of faithfulness is the doing of all true Service to ble Mafter, not only when his Eye is over him, as he expects punishment for the Omission, but at times, even when his Mafter is not likely to dilo his failing, and that Servant that doth not make C stience of this, is far from being a faithful want, this Eye-fervice being by the Apoftle for police to that fingleness of heart, which he requ of Servants . Ephol. 6. 5. The fecond for of fair falmes confists in the honest managery of all this mrusted to him by his Master, the not walter w Goods (as the unjust Steward was accused to have done, Luke 16.) whether by careless embe-zelling of them, or by converting any of them to is own use without the allowance of his Master The latter is that Purloyning of which the Apoll warms Servants, I'm. 2. 10. and is indeed no bere than arrane Theft; of this kind are all those ways, than the Servant hach of gaining to himself, by the los and damage of his Mafter, as the being bribed to make ill Bargains for him, and many the like; Nay, indeed this fort of unfaithfulness is worse than common These, by how much there is a greater trust reposed, the betraying whereof adds to the crime. As for the other fort of unfaithfulness, there of wasting, though without gain to themselves; it differs not much in effect from this, the Master may lose as much by the one as the other, and then what odds is it to him, whether he be robbed by the coverousness or negligence, of his Servant? And it is still the same breach of must with the former; for every Master is supposed to instust his affairs as well to the care as to the honesty of his Servant. For 'twould be little adventage to the Master to be secured that his Servant would not himself chear him whilst in the mean time he would by his carekiness give opportunity to others to do it. Therefore he that does not carefully look to his Masters profit, deceives his trust, as well as he that unjustly provides for his own.

228 The Mhole Duty of Maning

27. A third duty of a Servant is passibilition to the end meekness under the reproofs titale.

of his Master, not anspering again as the Apostle exhorts, Titue 2. 9. that not making such surely and rude replies, as, may necesse the Masters displeasure, a thing too frequent mong Servants, even in the justest reprehensions, whereas St. Peter directs them patiently to suffer even most undeserved correction, even when they do well and suffer for it, 1 Pet. 2. 20. But the patients suffering of weblies is not all that is required of Servants in this matter, they must also mend the fault they are rebuted for, and not think they have done enough. When they have (though never so durifully) given the Master the hearing.

Diligence: He must constantly attend to all those things, which are the duties of his place, and not give himself to Idleness and Sloth, nor yet to Company keeping. Gaming, or any differded by course, which may take him off from

Mafter's business. All these are necessary duries of the vane which they are carefully and conscionably to a fami, not to much to escape the Master's larger as and, who will certainly call every one of them to an how they have behaved themselves towards,

10 Kow on the other fide there are Maftersome things also owing from the Ma- to their forto their Servants: As first the wants fieher is bound to be just to them; in sice.

forming those conditions, on which Wages, and that Mafter that with-holds these, is The said the said n opprefict.

so, secondly, the Master is to admo- Admontton. and that not only in faults against them, where-Mefters are backward; but also and more especially in faults egainft God, whereat every Mafter one to be more troubled than at those which send my to his own lots, or inconvenience, the difference God, and the hazard of the meanest Man's Sou being infinitely more worthy our disquier, than any thing of the other kind can be. And therefore when Masters are presently on fire for any little religence or fault of a Servant rowards themselves, and yet can without trouble see them run into the greatest fine against God, tis a fign they consider their own concernments too much, and God's Glo-Mand their fervants Souls too little. This is too commonly the temper of Mafters, they are generally Careles how their Servants behave themleves towards God , how difordered and prothe their Families are and therefore never below any exhortation, or admonition to perswade them to Verrue, or draw them from Vice, fuch Mathes forget that they must one day give an account how they have governed their Families. It is certainly the dury of every Ruler to endeavour to ad-Price Piety and Godline's among all those that are weder his Charge, and that as well in this leffer dominion dominion of a family, as in the greater of a Real dominion of a family, as in the greater of a Realm or Nacion. Of this David was so careful that a see he professes, Plate 101. 7. That so decempers should decell in his besse, that he that sold you should not tarry in his light, so much he though himself bound to provide, that his family might he a kind of Church, an Affenbly of godly apright persons: And if all Masters would endeavour to have their so they would besides the enternal rewards it hereafter, find a present benefit by it, their world business would thrive much the better; for if their services were brought to make Conscience of the ways, they would then not dare either to be negligible. gent or falle.

2.20 Whe Whole Duty of Mans

gent or falle.

37. But as it is the duty of Matters to admonife and reprove their fervants, fo they must also look to do it, in a due manner, that is, in as may be multipled to do good, not in passion and rage, which on never wook the fervant to any thing but the despites or having him; but with such sober and grave species as may convince him of his fault, and may also affor him, that it is a kind define of his amendment (and him, that it is a kind define of his amendment (and e a willingness to wreck his own rage) which m the Mafter thus to rebuke him.

Steal year and I size A third dury of the Mafter to Good Exem- to fet good example of honest ple. out godlineli to his fervants, without which the can use, will ever do good; or elfe he pulle down more with his example, than it possible for him to build up with the other, and its madness for a drunken, or prophane Mafter to expect a fober and godly family and old word of boy

Means of In- vide that his fervants may not want firection. means of being infructed in their duty, frant times of worthiping God publickly, by having rayers in the family: But of this I have spoken b fore under the head of Prayer, and therefore shall here fay no more of it. to the chart of 34. Fif.hly.

14. Fifthly, the Mafter in all affairs own, is to give reasonable and Moderation ate Commands; not laying greater in Comdens on his fervants than they are mands. much work, that they shall have no time to be-

ow on their Souls; as on the other fide, he is not permit them to live fo idly as may make them eiufeles to him, or may betray themselves to any

s. Sixthly, The Mafter is to give his Encouragewants encouragement in well-doing, by ment in the them with that bounty and kind-well deing, is which their faithfulness, and diligence, a piety deserves, and finally in all his dealing with mem, he is to remember that he himself hath, as the apolite fairh, Ephel. 6. 9. A Malter in Heaven, to whom he must give an account of the usage of his brough those several relations, to which we owe parlar Duty, and to have done with that first branch of Day to our Neighbours, that of Juffice.

Committee of the second second second second A Street of the the state of the text of the state of the A Comment of the Control of the Control South as the state of the Assessment Last of my many of the me of the part of the second The state of the s Carl and Art of the Land

A Section Control Administration Co.

SUNDAY XVI.

O her Branches of our Duty to our Neighbour, Of Charity to Mens Souls, Bodies, Goods and Credit.

Neighbours, is Charity, or Love.

Neighbours, is Charity, or Love.

This is the great Gospel-dury of otten enjoyned on by Christ, the

New Commandment as himself calls it, Joh. 13, 14, that ye lave one another, and this is agoin repented twice in one Chapter: John 15, 12, 17, and the first Boissle of St. John is almost wholly speec in the persuation of this one dury, by which we may find is no matter of indifference, but most still read red of all that profess Christ. Indeed himself has given it as the B dge and Livery of his Disciples, John 18, 25,

By this shall all Man know ye are my Disciples, if ye have here me to another.

This Charity may be confidered two far the Affect ways; first, in respect of the Affections, see Affections is a fineere kindness, the Affections is a fineere kindness, the Affections is a fineere kindness, with all good to others, and that is all their capacities, in the same manner that justice dide obligeth us to wish no hurt to any Man. in respect of his soul, his Body, his Goods, or his Crede, so this first part of Charity binds us to wish all good to the in all these.

And first for the Soul. If we have To Mens any the least spark of Charley, we Souls. cannot but with all good to Men Souls; those precious things with Christ thought worth the Ransoming with bis own Blood, may surely well challenge our wadness and wither; and therefore if we do not thus love another; we are far from obeying that Command of loving as he hath loved; for itwas the soil of Men which he loved fo renderly, and both it and fuffered fo much for. Of this love of his to Souls here are two great and special effects: The first, the missing them here by his Grace, the second, the maining them here by his Grace, the second, the maining them everlastingly happy in his Glory; and both here we are so far to Copy out in our kindness, as so extressly desirous that all Men shall errive to that unity and holiness here, which may make them capable of Eternal happiness hereafter: It were to be hoped, but none, that himself carried a Soul abour himse could be fortued to that of ano her Mana, as not sincerely in wish this, did not experience show us there are once persons, whose malice is so devilish, as to reach the the direct contrary; the wishing not only the in, but the damnation of others. Thus may you have one, who, in any injury or appression they suffer, make it their only comfort, that their Enemies will damn themselves by it; when also. That should to a make it their only comfort, that their Enemies will dame themselves by it i when alse. That should so a Christian be much more recrible, than any suffering they made bring upon him. He that is of this remper, is a Disciple of Saran, not of Christ, it being directly convery to the whole scope of that grand Christian precept, of Louing our Neighbours as any setues. But it is sure, on Man, that believes there is such a thing as a sure states. demnation, wither it to himself; be he never for fond of the ways that lead to it, yet he wishes that may of Charity thould as much dread it for his Neigh-

Secondly, We are to with all good to the Bodies of Men, all Health and To their Bodies, Welfare, we are generally render e- Goods and Cre-

it pain or ill that can befal them : Now Charity, by Vertue of the forementioned pre-true, extends this tenderness to all others; And whatever we apprehend as grievous to our selves. we must be unwilling should befal another. The like like is to be faid of the other two, Goods and the chart at we wish our own throng and remarks we should mewic that of other, or tile we can use be faid to love ser Negleter as we filter.

This Charty tilthe affections of the Remarks of this fance, will occasing have their two charts, cately, which are for information that they are often in Serpane account that they are often in Serpane account to Will, it will keep the mind in a peace ble and meaning towards others, for far from fetking occasion contentions, that no provocation shall draw us to far where we have kindness we faill be map quarrel, it being one of the special qualities of that that is have easily reversed a Course of the chart that is have easily reversed. char is in an englis prompted, a Corney, y. And there whoever is ungenerable, thems his Heart is detta-of this Chartey. Secondly, it will breed compatitoward all the miseries of others; every miliap that betals where we with well, is a kind of define and disafter to our selves; and therefore if we will well to all, we shall be thus concerned in the calamate of all, have a real grief and forcew to see any in milery, and that according to the proportion of the offering. Thirdly, it will give us joy in the P specinies of others. Solomon observes. Prin. 13. that the defire accomplished is faves to the Sold, a then whoever has this real defire of his Neighbor welfare, his defire is accomplished in their process, and therefore he cannot but have constituted. ment and fatisfaction in it. Both there are to mmanded by Sc. Paul, Rom. 12. 12. Rejoyce them that rejoyce, weet with them that weep. P we are of our felves impotent, feeble Creatures, able to beflow bleffings, where we most wish the sherefore if we do indeed defire the good of one we must feek it on their behalf from him when every good and perfell gift cometh, James 1, 17, 18 to necessary a part of Charity, that without a kindness is but an infignificant thing, a kind of emp Complement. For how can he be believed to will well and are fill gradging, and repining at a part others, and it keeps down Price and Haugh. Print is also taught us by the As in the forementioned place, Charity usuatists in the forementioned place, Charity usuatists in the passed up 1 and accordingly we find, this Vertue of Love is commanded, there huming the term of Alexand, Kindagis, Hamblenest of Mindage, Kindagis, Hamblenest of Mindage, Love in Hanour, preferring one there you see how close an attendant him have feel to be price and value upon the thin makes us effected and price it; thus we too find it in Self-love, it makes us chink he selves, that we are much more excellent.

beger Pride, her us but divers the sourie, and man the Love of our likethren, and is will as farely beger Homility, for their we footld fee and value those gifts and excellences of theirs, which now our Pride, or our Harred make us to over look and neglect, and not think it reasonable either to despite them; or vaunt and magnific our felves appoin such a Comparison; we mould certainty find cause to put the Apostic's Eabstraction in practice, Phil. 2, 4. That we mould efferm attern batter than our felves. Whoever therefore is of so houghty a Temper, as to village and distain others, may conclude, he hash not this Charity rouged in his heart.

Thirdly, It cafe out centoriounels

Thirdly, it cafe out conformation and rath judging; Charity, as the Asposite faith, I Cot. 13: 5 shinkesh as wift is not apt to emergin ill concens of others, but on the contrary, as it follows, Terie 7. Believeth all shings; Repets all shings; that he is forward to believe and hope the best of all Man; and furtly our own Experience tells in the lime for where we Love we are utilally anapt to different where we generally have towards our own) and therefore the different where the coverage them, where fore shall certainly not be like to create them, when they are not, or to aggravate them beyond their and fize and degree! And then to what shall we impose those Unmerciful Centures and Rath Judgments of the there, to frequent among Men, but to the want of this Charity:

Fourthly, It caffs out Diffembles

Difference and frigned kindness, where this us terfeit one flies from before it.

this is the Love we are commanded to have, is is without Diffirmulation, Rom. 12. 5. Indeed a this is rooted in the heart, there can be no possible of Diffirmulation: because this is in truth all that falle one would feath to be, and fo is as far bero
as Nature is beyond Art; nay indeed as a D yerme is beyond a Keyl Sin. Versue is beyond a Boul Sin; for fuch is that Hyp tical Kindness; and yet 'tis to be feared, that enerally usure the place of this real Charity, the election are too wifible among us, there being nothing common, than to see Men make large Profession whom, as soon as their backs are sunted, they are de or michief.

derido or mischief.

Fishly, it casts our all mercenarines, and fishly in a generous Soft-fash

compen, that it despites all Projection for ing in or advantage, Love fesheth as her own,

Co. 13. 3. And therefore that headlesing kind of the formuch used in the World, which places is fell only there where it may forth in benefit; it very for this Chestre. m this Charity

Liftly, It rurns out of the hour all lake and delire of Revenge, which is Revenge to unetly contrary to it, that it is impossible they should both dwell in the fame breast, 'in the property of Love to bear all things, i Core 13:7, we can ure the greatest injuries without thought of making and the return to them than Prayers and Bleffings and class ne the Malicious Revengeful Perfor is of all others the reacht firanger to this Charley.

The true, if this versue were to be exmiled but toward fome for of persons. This Charity might consist with Malice to others, it to be extended the possible for a Man that bitterly coes to line the one, to love anothers but we are miss,

to take notice that this Charity must not be to confined, but must extend and stretch is selfall Men in the World, particularly to Enemies, or it is not that Divine Charity commended to us Christ. The loving of Friends and Benefactors low a piech, that the very Publicans and Sinner worst of Men were able to ausin to it; Mark.
And therefore vis not counted rewardable in a ple of Christ, no, he expects we should fore and therefore hath set us this more sprintual and less Precept of Loving of Enemies, March. 4-44 ne you, love your Enemies, bless there thus the pray for them that despitefully use you you, and wholoever does not thus,

The Whole Duty of Tay.

coclude, that all which both been faid coocerning this inverty of the Affections, must be understood to belong well to our fpightfullest Enemy, as our most obligant and. But because this is a Duty to which the from the Nature of Mari is apt to object much, 'twill not be units to infift a little on some considerations which may

And first, confider what bath been already tought on, that it is the Command of Christ, both in the Texts above mentioned of christ, both in the Texts above mentioned of count and multitudes of others a there being fearer any Precept to often repended in the New Testament, as this of the good of the country of our Enemies. Thus, Ephel. 4.32. It had no it another, tender-bearted, forgiving one action. And again, Col. 3. 13. Forbassing one another, if any Man have a quartel ngainful action as Christ forgiving one, fo also do ye. So also t Pet. Not rendring evil for evil, nor railing for railing, but the rendring evil for evil, nor railing for railing, but the brought to this purpose, but these are certainly enough to convince any Man that this is strictly required of us by Christ, and indeed I think there are few that ever the card of the Gospel, but know it is so. The more progiously firange is it, that Men that call themselves Chilns, thould give no degree of obedience to it, nay, not ley fo, but even publickly avow, and profess the conary, as we daily fee they do, it being ordinary to have on refolve, and declare that they will not forgive fuch, such a Man, and no confideration of Christ's Conand can at all move them from their purpole. Cer-In these Men understand not what is meant by the v word Christian, which fignifies a Servant and Disciple Christ, and this Charity is the very badge of the one, deflor of the other, and therefore his the greatest diry, and contradiction, to profess themselves Chri-and yet at the same time to resist this so express and of that Chrish, whom they own as their Ma-Wile a Master, faith God, where it me fear i Mal. Obedience and reverence are so much the Duties of that so Man is thought to look on him as a Ma-whom he pays them not, Why call ye me Link,

るのでしていまいらいしいかいよ

Lord, and its not the things I for faith Chrift, Lake Chrift's and Saran's, and the obedience each Man pays somities to which of these Matters he belongs; if he obey Chrift, to Chrift's if Saran, to Saran. Now this for of Malies and Revenge is so much the dictate of the cicked spirit, that there is nothing can be a more direct coeying of him, 'the taking his livery on our backs, the Proclamation whose servants we are. What redicts descriptions is it then, for Men that have thus entre themselves of Sazan's Family, to presend to be the fer vants of Christ? Let such know affuredly, that the all not be owned by him, bur at the Great Day Accompt. be turned over to their proper Mafter, to receive their Wages in Fire and Brimttone.

A Second Confideration is the Ex-Example God. le of God; this is an Argument Christ himself thought fit to use, to impress this Duty on us, as you may fee, Luke 6. 35. 36. Where, after having given the Command of Loving Enemies, he encourages to the Precision of it, by telling, that it is that which will make us the Children of the highest (that is, twill give us a likeness and resemblance to him, as Children have to their Parents) for he is kind to the authorities and to the maketh his Sun to rife on the evil and the good, a indeth Rain on the just and on the unjust, and fure this is most forcible consideration to excite us to this duty. God, we know, to the fountain of perfection, and the being like to him, is the fum of all we can with for a and though it was Lucifer's fall, his Ambition to be like the Most Bigh, yet had the likeness he affected been onely that of Holiness and Goodness, ha might still have been an Angel of Light. This delige of Imitating our Heavenly Father is the especial Mark of a Child of his Now this kindness and goodnels to Enemies is most eminently remarkable in God. and that not onely in respect of the temporal Mercies which he indifferently bestows on all, his Sun and Rus

Lo Mbe Mibole Muty of Wan.

the sojult, as in the Text forementianed, but chiefly in his Spiritual Mexico. We are all by our wicked Works. Col. 21. Enemies to him, and the Milituid of that enemity, would have fillen wholly upon our felpes. God had no Motive befides that of his pity to us, no wife a Reconciliation; yet so fir was he from returning our Enemity when he might have revenged himself to our area and Ruine, that he designs and contrives how he may bring to to be at Peace with him. This is a huge desired of Mexcy and Kindness, but the means he used for effecting this, is yet far beyond it, he sent his own Son tom Heaven to Work it, and that not onely by Persuations, but Sufferings also; so much did he prize us Milegable Creatures, that he rhought us not too dear bought with the Blood of his Son. The like Example of Mercy and Patience we have in Christ, both in laring down his late for as Enumies, and also in that Meck Mannes of doing is, which we find excellently set forth by the Apartic. I Pet 2, 22, 23, 24, and commended to our limitation. Now surely when all this is considered, we may well make St. John's Inference; Beloved, if God so level as, we sught to leve one anothers. I john 4, 11. How shameful a thing is it for us to retain Displessings against our Brethren, when God thus lays by his towards us, and that when we have so highly provoked him.

The disproportion between ear Offences against God, and Meas against ass, This directs to a third confideration, the comparing our fine against God, with the offences of our Brethsen against us, which we no some shall come to do, but there will appear a vast difference between them, and the in several respects: For first store is the Majesty, of the Person against whom cainft as, in several respects: For first there is the Majesty of the Person against whom we sin, which exceedingly encreases the guilt, whereas between Man and Man, there cannot be so great a distance; for though some Men are by God advanced to such eminency of Dignity, as may make an Injury affered to them the greater, yet still they are but Men of the same nature with us, whereas he is God biesled for ever. Secondly, There is his Soveraigny and power, which is original in God, for we are his Creatures, we have received our whole being from him, and therefore are in the deepest manner bound to perfect obedience, whereas all the Soversigney that one Man can possibly have over another, is but imerred to them by God, and for the most part there none of this neither in the case, quartels being a usual among equals. Thirdly, There is his innite bounty and goodness to us; all that ever we now, whether in relation to this life or a better seing wholly his free gift, and so there is the soulest operations added to our other Crimes; in which elect also the impossible for one Men to offend a-minst another in such a degree, for shough one may be (and too many are) Guilty of Unthankfulnels mwards Men, yet because the greatest Benefits that Man anwards Men, yet because the greatest Benefits that Man case bestow, are infinitely short of those which God doth, the ingraticude cannot be near so great as anwards God it is. Lastly, There is the greamest and multirude of our situs against God, which do infinitely exceed all that the most Injurious Man can do assist us; for we all fin much other and snore hairoully against him, than any Man, be he never to malicious, can find opportunities of Injuring his Brethren. This inequality and disproportion our Saviour intimores in the Parable, Marting 8, where our offences against God are noted by the Ten thousand Talents, whereas our Brethrens against us are described by the Hundred Pence; a Talent hugely our weights a Penny, and Ten thousand out-numbers a Hundred, yet so and much more does the weight and number of our sine exceed all the offences of others against us; much more might be said to shew the sail inequality between the Faults which God sargives us, and those we can possibly have to forgive our Brethren; but this I suppose may suffice to tilence all the objections. but those we can possibly have to torgive our Breches but this I suppose may suffice to filence all the objection of cruel and revengeful Person, against this kindness themics. They are apt to look upon it as an about and unreasonable thing, but fince God himself after in 6 much an higher degree, Who can without Bla phemy say, 'tis unreasonable ? If this, or any color printial duty appear so to us, we may learn the season to us, we may learn the season to us. More or wood ones Had very the same to come

242 Hige Whole Buty of Pan

por the shings of the Spirit of God, for they are folliflengle make him; "is the carnality and flettiliness of our hearts that makes it form fo, and therefore instead of disputing against the duty, let us purge our hearts of that, and then we shall find that true which the Spiritual Wildom affirms of her Doctrines, Prov. 8, 9. They are all plain to him that makes headers, and the substitution of her Doctrines, Prov. 8, 9. They are all plain to him that makes headers, and the substitution of her Doctrines, Prov. 8, 9. They are all plain to from the Apolite, 1 Cor.2.14. The carnal Man received hirs that understanders, and right to those that find has ledge.

Nay, This loving of Enemics is not leafantness onely a reasonable, but a pleasant Dary, this Dary, and that I suppose as a fourth Confidentation, there is a great deal of sweetnefer and delight to be found in it. Of this I confess none can lo well judge as those that have practised it. tis the enjoyment onely that can make a Man trilly know them. No Man can to describe the tatte of any delicious thing to another, as that by it he hall know the relift of it; he must first actually taste of it; and fure, 'tis no more to in foiritual pleasures,' an pleasanthesis of this Duty, let him set to the practice, and then his own experience will be the best tubermen. But in the mean time, how very unjust, yes, and foolish is it, to pronounce sill of it before trial? For Men to say, This is inklow and intolerable, who naver so much as once offered to very whether indeed it were so no? Yes by this very means an ill opinion is brought up of this most delightful Duty, and puffer any runs unong Men, whereas in all justice the religious

f it should be taken only from those who have nied and they would certainly give another account f it.

But though the full knowledge hereof be to be hid ally by this nearer acquaintaince, yet methicks even hole who look at it but at a diffance, may discert some what of amiableness in it, if no other way, yet at least of amiableness in it, if no other way, yet at least oy comparing it with the uneaffiness of its contrary. Make and revenge are the most reftless, tormenting particles that can possess the Mind of a Man, they keep that the care how to effect that in perpetual fludy and care how to effect the michievous purpoles, it diffurbs cheir very fleep, as seemen observes, Prov. 4.16. They floop was except they made done mischief, and their step is taken analy, except they and some they copy, so that they have no instead they cannot they have no instead they cannot and Felicity of the World, yet the Mulice to had to a poor despicable Man, Adredecai, kept him from sasting consentment in all this, as you may see, where, after he had related to his Friends all this Prosperities. Verse III. he concludes alms, Verse is the few sisting in the King's Gare. On the other side, the peaceable spirit, that can quietly pass by all Insures and affronts, enjoys a continual calm, and is above the Malice of his Enemies, for, let them do what they can they cannot rob him of his quier, he is sum as a Rock, which no strome or winds can move, when the Furious and Reverngeful Man is like a Ware, which the least blast rosses and sumbles from its place. But, besides this inward disquiet of Revengeful Man is like a Ware, which the least blast rosses and cannot a Revengeful Man is like a Ware, which the least blast rosses and cannot rose so winds can move, when they can they often bring many outward Calantities upon themselves, they exassperate their Enemies, and the sum of the support themselves, they exassperate their Enemies, and the sum of themselves, they exassperate their Enemies, and provoke them to do them greater Milchiefs in oftenames they willingly run themselves upon greatest Miseries in partial of their Revenge, which its ordinary to see Men Sacrifice Goods Pale. Credit, Life 3, nay, Soul it felf, not carle what they suffer themselves, to they may foir them before and blind them. On the contrary, to make Person, he often melts his Advertism, pacific Anger; A soft Answer turneth awai life it, Giller and Life it. Selemen, Prov. 15, t. And fure there is meeting Enemy be so inhumane, that he miss of doing that, he is fall a gainer by all he can suffer, For first gains an opportunity of exerciting that most Christ grace of Christy and Forgiveness, and so at once of eying the command, and imirating the example Cold State of the Cold State of the State of 244. The Mhole Bury of Man.

Seviour, which is, to a true Christian Spirit, a most relative advantage, and then, Secondly, He gains an average to his reward hereafter. And if is be objected, That that is not to be reckoned in no the prefere plenture of the Dury: I Answer, That the experience plenture of the Dury: I and that alone is a delight infinitely more ravishing than the profess enjoyment of all sensus pleasure on be.

The Fourth Confideration is the DanIf we forgive gere of not performing this Duty to of me, God soll (which I might reckon up divers, her I me) forgive half infift enery upon that Great One, which contains in it all the reft, and that is the forfeiting of our own Pardons from God, the having our aim against him keep ftill on his Score and not forgiven. This is a confidential, that methicks should affright us into good No ration, that methinks should affright in into good Nature; if it do not, our Malice is greater to our lelves than to our Enemies. For also! What hurr is it possible for thee to do to another, which can bear any comparison with that thou dost thy felf, in losing the Pardon of thy Sins? which is so unspeakable a Mischef, that the Devil himself, with all his Malice, cannot wish a greater. This all he aims at, first, that we may fin, and then that those Sins may never be Pardoned, for then lie knows he has us sure enough. Hell, and Danisation being certainly the Portion of every unpardoned Sinner, besides all other effects of Good's Wrath in this life. Consider this, and then tell me what shou this Life. Confider this, and then tell me what thou half got by the highest revenge thou ever actedit upon ther. Tis a Devilish Phrase in the Mouth of Men, it Revenge is sweet ! But is it possible there can be (even to the most distemperate Palate) any such sweemess it is, as may recompense that everlating Minemel that attends it? Tis certain, no Man in his also we give not our felver time to weigh things, (but pay for it: like the filly Ree, that in Anger leaves once her fliog and her life behind her; the finances, perhaps give some thors Pain to the Field it flicks in, but yet there is none but differing the Bee has the worst of it, that pays her Life for so pour a revenge: So it is in the greatest Act of our Malice, we may per-haps leave our Stings in others, put them to some has leave our Stings in others, put them to fome prefent trouble, but that compared with the hurr reddounds to our felves by it, is no more than that inconfiderable Pain is to Death; Nay, not so much, because the Mischiefs that we bring upon our felves are ternal, to which no finite thing can bear any proportion. Remember then, whensoever thou are contriving and plotting a Revenge, that thou quite mistakest the Mark; thou thinkest to his the Enemy; and also! thou wounded the self to death. And let no Man speak peace to himself or think the these are vain terrors, and that he may obtain pardon from God, though he give none to his Brethren. For he that is Truth it self has assured us the contrary, Martin. 6. 15. If ye forgive not Man their Traspasses, maither will your Father forgive your Traspasses. And left we should forget the accessity of this Duty, he has inferted it in our daily Prayers, where we make it the Condition, on which we beg Fardon from God; Forgive as our Traspasses, as we forgive them that Traspasses as were traspasses, as a forgive them that Traspasses as were traspasses, as a forgive them that Traspasses as were traspasses, as the verigeful person lay upon himself, when he saye this Prayer? He does in effect beg God not to forgive him and its too fure that part of his Prayer will be heard. and tis too fire that part of his Prayer will be heard, he shall be forgiven just as he forgives, that is, not at all. This is yet farther set out to us in the Parable of the Lord and the Servant, Marth. 18. The Servant had obtained of his Lord the forgiveness of a se Debt, Ten thousand Talente, yet was to cruet to his Fellow-Servant, as to exact a poor trilling Summ of a Rendred Pence, upon which his Lord recalls his former forgiveness, and charges him again with the whole Debt: and this Christ applies to our prefers purpose. Verse 35. So likewife shall my Heavenly Barber do unto you, if ye from your heavest forgive my warry has his Brother their Pospass. One such act of uncharitableness is able to forset us the Pardon God harh practed us, and then all our line return again upon us, and link us to steer ruine. I suppose it specific reliesp up more Testimonies of Scripture for the truth of this; these are so clear, as may surely serve to personal any Man, that acknowledges Scripture; of the great and fearful danger of this Sin of Uncharatableness. The Lord possess all our Hearrs with such a just sense of it as may make us avoid it.

146 The Cubote Bury of man.

Gratitude to on, is that of Gratitude: God has code flewed wonderful Mercies to to Christ has fuffered heavy things to bring us Into a capacity of that Mercy and pardon from God, and shall we not then think our felves obliged to fome returns of thankfulnes? If we will take the Apothe judgment; he rels us; 4 Cor. 5. 14. That fine Christ died for us all; "sis but reasonable that me Thuds or henceforth live onto our felvet; but unto him that died fecrated to his immediate Service, tweete no more than common gratitude requires, and far less than fuch inestimable benefits deserve; What a shametal unthankfulness is it then to deny him to poor a fatisfaction as this, the forgiving our Brechren? Suppose a Man that were ransomed either from Death or Slavery, by the bounty and fufferings of another, should, mon his Release, be charged by him that so freed him in un of that kindness of his, to lorgive some slight Debt, which was owing him by some third Person, would you not think him the unthankfullest wretch in the World, that should refuse this to great a bene-factor? Fer such a wretch, and much worse, is every revengeful Person: Christ hath bought to out of everthe livery, and that not with corresponds things, at paper and gold, 1 Pet. 1. 10. but with his own most precious Blood, and bath carnettly recommended to us the love of our Brethren, and that with most moving Argument, drawn from the greatness of his love to us and if we shall oblitinately reduce him in to just, formoderate a demand. How unspeakable a vilences is it? And yet this we do down-right, if we keep any Malice; of Gradge to any Person whatsoever, Nay farther, this is not barely an unthankfulness, but there is also joyned with it a horrible contempt and despising of him. This

Peace and Unity of Brethren was a thing so much prized and valued by him, that when he was to leave the World, he thought it the most precious thing he could bequeath, and therefore left it by way of Leaves to his Disciples, John 14, 27. Peace I leave with year. We use to set a great value on the slightest bequests of our dead triends, to be exceeding careful not to lose them; and therefore if we wilfully bangle away this io precious a Legacy of Chrift, itis a plain tign we want that Love and Efteen of him, which we have of our earthly Friends, and that we despite him as well as his Legacy. The prest prevailing of this fin of Uncharitableness has made me stand thus long on these considerations, for the subduing it. God grant they may make such supression on the Reader, as may be available to that purpose.

I shall add onely this one Advice, that there, or whatfoever other remedies against this fine must be used timely: it of rimes the frustrating of bodily Mefo in Spiritual: therefore if it be possible, let these and the like considerations be so constantly and habitually sate in thy heart, that they may frame it to full rife. The feel rife.

of Rancour of Revenge in thee, for it is a Rancour to much better they should serve as Armone to prevent, than as Balsam to oure the PREST.

Wound. But if this passion be not yet fo subdued in thes, but that there will be some stirrings of it, yet then be fire to take it at the very first rise; and let not thy fancy chew, as it were, then the Irijury, by often rolling it in thy Mind; but temember betimes the foregoing considerations, and withal, that this is a time and season of trial to thee, wherein thou mayest new thou hast profited in Christ School, there now being an opportunity offered thee cither of obeying and pleasing God, by passing by this offence of thy Brother, or else of obeying and pleasing Sagan, that Lover of Discord, by nour issues the seasons that I cover of Discord, by nour issues, before thou be inflamed, for if this Fire be throughly kindled; it will cast such a smooth, as will blind thy reason, and make thee unfit to judge even in this so very plain a case. Whether it be better by obeying God, to purchase to thy self-eternal Bliss, or by obeying Satan, eternal Tormenes. Whereas, if show our the question to thy self before this Commorton, and Diffurbance of Mind, its impossible but thy Understanding must pronounce for God; and then unless thou wilt be so perverse that thou wilt deliberately chuse Death; thou wilt surely practice according to that sentence of thy understanding. I shall add no more on this first part of Charity; that of the Affections.

248 The Abole Duty of Man.

I proceed now to that of the Actions, Charity in And this indeed is it, whereby the forthe Addison, mer must be approved: we may pretend great Charity within, but if none break forth in the Actions, we may say of that Love, as & James doth of the Faith he speak of, that it is dead, James 2, 20. It is the Loving in Deed, that must approve our Hearts before God, I John 3, 18, Now this Love in the Actions may likewise sitly be distributed, as the former was, in relation to the four district capacities of our Brethren, their Souls, their Bodies, their Goods and Credit.

The Soul I formerly told you, may Towards the be confidered either in a Natural or Mind of new Spiritush Sence, and in both of them Neighbour. Charity hinds us to do all the good we can. At the Soul fignifies the Mind of a Man, to we are to endeavour the comfort and refreshment of our Brethren, define to give them all true raufe of Joy and Chestfuluefs, especially when we fee any, under any fadness or heaviness, then to bring out all the Cordials we can procure, that is, to labour by all Christian and for Means to chear the troubled spirits of our Brethren, to comfort them that are in any heaviness, is the Apostle focake, 2 Cor, 14

the But the Soul, in the Spiritual fence, a His Soul, yet of greater concernment, and the foreign of that is a matter of much greater manners, than the refreshing of the saind only, in armach as the eternal forrows and fiducifies of Hell exceed the deepett forrows of this Life; and therefore the most must be former, yet on this was are not to concent our felives with a bare within well to the Souls of our Brethren, this alone is a figural fort of kindnels unworthy of those who are to impute the Great Redeemer of Souls who did and an fixed to much in that purchase: No, we must add all our endeavour to make them that we wish them; this purpose it were very reasonable to proposed to our selves, in all our conversings with others, this purpose were fixe in our Minds, we thould then different perhaps many opportunities, which now we overlook, of doing something towards it. The brusting soverness of one would call upon thee to endeavour his instruction; the open fin of another, to reprehend and admonish him; the fairs and weak views prehend and admonife him; the faint and weak vicuse of another, to confirm and enourage him. Everry Spiritual want of thy Brother may give the formoccasion of exercising some part of this Charity of if thy circumstances be such, that upon tober Judging, thou think it vain to anompt any thing thy selfing if either thy measures, or thy unacquaintenines, or any the like impediment be like to render thy cahumaions fruitless were if they are inclusive. or any the like impediment be like to render thy exhorations fruitless, yet if thou are industrious in thy Charity, thou may it probably find out some order Instrument, by whom to do it more successfully. There cannot be a nobler study than how to benefit Mens Souls, and therefore where the direct means are improper, it is fit we should whet out Win for arthing of others. Indeed it is a shame, we should not as industriously contrive for this great Spiritual concernment of others, as we do for every Worldly mixing invests of our own, set in them we are investigated, and my one means after another, till we compassione end, but if ther all our ferious endeavours, the abblinacy of Man do not suffer ut, or themselves rathers, to map any fruit from them. ves rather, to map any fills the bare Mer. Vocings and increatings of Men to have Mer.

de The whitely puty of Dank be to continue still to exhore by thy example. The great care and tenderness of thy own Soul Practice are not over thy competition the value of their, and give not over thy competition. to them, but with the Prophet, Jer. 19,17. Cond weep in fecret for them; and with the Plateill ders of water ran down thy eyes, because they have all Law, Pfal. 119. 198. Yea, with Christ himse gover them, who will not know the things that belonger Peace, Luke 19.42. And when no importunities the chem will work, yet even then cease not to im-more God for them, that he will draw them a him-Thus we see Samuel, when he could not distingue People from that finful purpole they were upon, yet professes notwithstanding, that he will not cease pray for them, may, he lookt on it as fo much a Dury, at it would be fin for him to omit it. God forbid, fays that I should fin against the Lord in consing to pray so I Sam. 12. 23. Nor shall we need to fear that Prayers will be quite loft, for if they prevail not for e for whom we pour them out, yet however they Il be fure not to mili of the Reward of that Cha-

In the Second place, we are to exer-

In the Second place, we are to exercise this active Charity towards the Boolfest to the dias of our Neighbours; we are not one ly to compassionate their paint and miscries, but also to do what we can for their ask and relief. The good Samaritan, Luke 10, had need been proposed as our pattern, had he not as well help the pained the wounded Man. The not good wiskes, as not good words neither, that avail in such cases, as The good words neither, that avail in fuch eafer, as form cells in If a British or Sifter be taked, and officers of daily find, and one of you far and there. Described in the second and silled, instrictly and one of the second and silled, instrictly and of the tells there is a second of the seco er we find it for down, Matth. 25, as the effectal thing the first by st the Last Day, on the omitted shereof is grounded that dreadful Sentence, Verse 4 to Depart from me re cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared or the Devil and his Angels. And if it shall now be need, What are the particular acts of this kind which are to perform? Lithink we cannot better inform felves for the frequent and ordinary ones, than from Chapter; where are fer down these severals. The several was meat to the hungry, and drink to the thirsty, harbourtee transer, cloathing the naked, and visiting the first imprisoned. By which visiting is meant, not a barring to see them, but so coming to comfort and we them: for otherwise it will be but like the Levil in Gospel, Lake 10. Who came and looked on the wound-Mm, but did no more, which will never be accepted.

God. These are common, and ordinary growing. d. These are common and ordinary exercises of Charity, for which we cannot want frequent opporiries. But belides these there may sometimes, by is especial providence, fall into our hands, occasions doing other good Offices to the Bodies of our Neighe Samariten, and then its our Duty to do as he did death, as Sufanno was, and then are, with Daniel, to le all possible endeavour for their deliverances. This is Solomon forms to refer to, Prov. 24. 11. If thou forms to deliver him that is drawn ento death; and themse had ready to be fain; if thou fajest, behold we know it not; ath not be that pendereth the heart consider? and he that each thy Soul, doth not he know it? Shall not be rendered every Man according to his Deeds? We are not lightly put off the matter with vain exceller, but to remem the God, who knows our most fecret choughts, will carely examine whether we have willingly amined the formance of fuch a Charty: formained again (nay a knows, often now a days) we may fee a Man, that a course of intemperature is in danger to define his to former his days; and then it is a due Charty onely to the Soul lant to the Body alfo, to ensure that from its it is impossible to fee down all the fible acts of this corporal Charty, because there more iometimes happen (ich opportunities as none can forefee, we are therefore always to carry about us a ferious reformation of doing withtever good of this kind we final at any time different occasion for; And then when ever that occasion is offered, we are to look on it as a Call as it were from Heaven, to our that refoliation in practice. This pare of Charry frems to be to much implanted in our Natures, as we are Men, that we generally account them not onely Unchriftian, but Inhumane that are void of its and therefore I hope there will not need much perfection to it, fince our very Nature incline us, but containly that very confideration will ferve hugely to exceed the will of those that are wanting in it; For fince differential to those that are wanting in it; For fince differential is for agreeable even to fieth and blood, one diffusedience to it can' proceed from nothing but a flubbornness and resistance ugainst God who gives

SUNDAY XVIL

Charity, Alms-giving, &c. Of Charity in retest of our Neighboura Credit, &c. Of Peace-taking: Of going to Law: Of Charley to we

HE Third way of expressing this Charity is cowards the Goods or Estate of Neighbour, we are to ende his Thriving and Profession in the chings, and to that end, he willing to at fift and further him in all honest was a improving a improving or pro Neighbourly and portunities of this our own store, it requires it of us: Nay, if the damage but light to us in comparison of the advantage to him, will become us rather to hazard that light damage, than lofe him that greater advantage

2. But towards our poor Brother, Chamy ries us to much more, we are there Towards the only to confider the supplying of his Peer.

wans, and not to flick at parting with what is our own, to relieve him, but as far as we are able give freely what is necessary to him. This Dury of Almativing is perfectly necessary for the approving our love not onely to Men, but even to God himself, as St. Jakon and the Brother have need, and shatteth up his Bowels of Compassion from him, How dwelleth the love of God is and? The vain for him to pretend to love either God or Man, who loves his Money so much better, that he will see his poor Brother (who is a Man, and bears the Image of God) suffer all extremities, rather than Pare mage of God) fuffer all extremities, rather than Part with any thing to Relieve him. On the other fide, the performance of this Dury is highly acceptable with God as well as with Men.

3. Tis called, Heb. 13. 16. A Sacrifice wherewith God is well pleafed; And again, Phil. 4. 18. St. Paul calls their Alms to him, A Sacrifice acceptable, well-pleafing to God, and the Church harh always look on it as such; and therefore joyned it with the following part of Worthip, the Holy Sacrament. But bell 19.

254 The Withole Duty of Pan.

caule even Sacrifices themselves, under the Law, were been made unacceptable by being mained and blemined it will here be necessary to enquire what are the due qualifications of this Sacrifice.

Motives of spect the Motive, some the manner of Alms-givour giving. The Motive may be threeings.

and our selves. That which respects

God, is obedience and thankfulness to him: he has com-manded we should give Alms; and therefore, one special end of our doing for must be the obeying that Precept of his. And it is from his Bounty alone that we receive all our Plenty, and this is the properest way of expressing our Thankfulness for it : for, as the Pal 16. 2. That Tribute which we defire to pay our of our Estates, we cannot pay to his Person. the Poor that are, as it were, his Proxy and Reof Thankfulness, give back again unto God, our Alms is the way of doing it. Secondly, In respect of our Neighbour, the Motive must be a true love and compassion to him, a tender Fellow-feeling of his Wants, and defire of his Comfort and Relief. Thirdly . In respect of our selves, the Motive is to be e hope of that Eternal Reward promifed to this ermance. This Chrift points out to us, when he bicle us, Lay up our Treasure in Heaven, Marth. 6, 20 And, to make us friends of the Mamman of unrighteenle Luke 16. 9. that is, by a charitable differning of our Temporal Goods to the Poor, to lay up a flock in Meaven, to gain a title to those endless Felicities, which God hath promised to the Charitable. That is the Harvelt we must expect of what we low in these Works of Mercy, which will be so rich as would abundantly recompence us, though we flould, as the and the Poor. But then we must be fire we make is our fole aim, and not instead of this, propole on Cares the praise of Men, as the morive of our Charity, that will rob us of the other: This according told us by Christ, Matth. 6. They that their Hearts on the Credit they shall gain with Men; must take that as their Portion, Verse 3. Verse 1 fay anto you, they have their remark. They chuse it steems, rather to have Men their Pay-Matters, that Good, and to them they are runned off and they have their pay-Matters, that Good, and to them they are runned off and they have their pay-Matters that Good, and to them they are runned off and they have their paying they are from them. then than God, and to them they are furned off that little Airy praise they get from them, is all the reward they must expect: It have no reward in Eather which is in History, Veric 1. We have therefore need to watch our Hearts narrowly, the defire of Vain-glory freal not in, and befool the property of the miserable exchange of a Vain blast of Menselle and Fresch for those Substantial and Eternal Joys of Heaven gen.

s. In the fecond place, we must take Mamor of the of our Alms-giving, in respect of the manner, and in that, first, we must my live cheatfully, Men usually value a small thing that is given chearfully, and with a good Heart more than a much greater, that is wrong from Man with grudging and unwillingness: And God is of the same round.

the same mind, he loves a chearful gimakes the reason of the foregoing exhorization of not giving gradingly, or as of need-fit), Verse 6. And sure is no unre-fonable thing, that is herein required of us, there being no dury thas to Humane Nature more of Pleasure and De ight, unless it be where Coverousness or Cruelty have Best in his stead. Is it not a most Ravining pleafure to him that hath any Bowels, to see the lathat a seasonable Alms bring to a paor wretch that a seasonable Alms bring to a paor wretch that a seasonable Alms bring to a paor wretch that a seasonable Alms bring to a paor wretch that a seasonable Alms bring to a paor wretch that a seasonable Alms bring to a paor wretch that a seasonable and purs new Spirits in him that we even finking? Certainly the most sensitive knows not how to bestow his Money of the season that shall bring him in so great a delate and therefore methicks it should be no and matter to give, not only without gradging are even with a great deal of Alagary and Chest

H Io

256 The Miliole Duty of Hour.

fulness it being the farthing in of Pleasure to on

The foot of insimproveding out felves and improves of imbe made against this, and that is, the ishing the danger of impoverishing one fel is and by what one gives may take off the pleasure, and make Men either not give at all, or not so chearfully. To this univer: That first, were this hazard never to apparent, yet it being the Command of God that we should that give, we are yet to obey chearfully, and be as well content to part with our Goods in pursuance of this Duty, as we are many times called to do upon some other. In which case Christ tells us, He that for lake and all that he hath, cannot be his Disciple.

g. But Secondly, this is fure a vain Supposition; God having particularly promifed the contrary to the Charitable's that it should bring blessings on them, e ven in these outward things. The liberal Soul Shall b made fat, and he that watereth hall be watered all half set lack, Prov. 18. 25. He that giveth to the Poer half wet lack, Prov. 28. 27: And many the like Term there are, fo that one may truly fay, this Obit is we dare not truft God for this. Giving to the poor is directly the putting our Wealth into his Hands, The that greath to the Poor lendeth unto the Lord, Prov. 19. 17. and that too on folemn promife of repsyment, as it follows in that Verse, That which he hath gives will be pay him again. It is amongst Men thought a tent disparagement, when we refuse to trust them, it shows we either think them not sufficient, or not beaut. How yile an affront is in them. A. How vile an affront is it then to God thus o diffrust him? Nay, indeed, how horrid Blasphemy, to doubt the fecurity of that, for which he h thus exprestly past his word, who is Lotd of all, a of Trush, and therefore will not fail to make a Promise? Let not then that Insidel fear of future sparred and thur up thy Bowels from thy poor

d becomes his furery, and enters Bond with his will most affacelle pay thee with enterage surface it is so far from being damage to thee, thus use. That is is thy great advantage. Any being tild nather chuse to sut his Money in some sure hand, here he may both improve, and be certain of it at need, than to let it he unprofitable by him, excially if he be in danger of Thieves, or other actions, by which he may probably lose it. Now also I that we posses is in minutely danger of losing a numerable accidenty there are, which may in an time bring a Rich Man to Beggery, he that doubte is let him but read the Story of Jos, and he will see find an example of it: And therefore what so under course can we take for our Wealth, as so it out of the reach of those accidents, by thus relief it to God, where we may be sure to find it it to God, where we may be fure to find it dy at our greatest need, and that too with inmemore, and increase? In which respect it is that Apostle compares Alms to Seed, 2 Cor. 9. 10.
know it is the nature of Seed that is Sown, to thiply and increase, and so do all our acts of Merthey represents the finale and contacts. y resum not fingle and naked to us, but bring their Sheaves with them, a most plenteous an untiful Harvelt. God deals not with our Alms, as Napkin, so that they shall never bring in any advantage us, but makes us most rich returns: And therefore e have all reason most chearfully, yea, joyfully to fer to this Duty, which we have fuch invitations to. well in respect of our own interests, as our Neighsours needs.

s. Secondly, we must give featonay the is true indeed there are fome fo Give feafonas on that an Alma can never come bly. feafonably, because they always want, even to them there may be some special seasons of Alms may not only deliver a poor Man from fome extremity, but by the fight timing of it, may m in some way of a more comfortable subfishance

258 The Mibale Bury of Mi

Bule to differnie what we mend to any a bon as may be, for delays are nurriul oftentimes bon to them and our felves; first, as as them. It is first the longer we delay, the longer they grown under the medical want; and after we have designed mean relief, it is in some degree a cutelry to desir bestowing of it, for so long we prolong their sufferings. You will think him a hard-heared Physician, that having a certain cure for a Man in Tam, should, when he make presently apply it, make unnecessary delays, and so there. We want of the due compassion, if we can be soment, our poor Brother should have one hour of unnecessary suffering, when we have present opportunity of selicing him; or if he be not in such an extremely of want, yet whatever we intend him for his greater constort, he loses so much of it, as the time of the delay amounts to Secondly, in respect of our selves, delay amounts to. Secondly, in respect of our selver Tempration, either of Satan, or our own covernor ten with many Christian Duries; for want of a speed So, many resolve they will repent; but because they look immediately upon it, one delay succeeds another and keeps them from ever doing it at all; and it is very apt to fall out in this case, especially with Men who are of a Coverous Temper, and there-fore they of all others should not trust themselves thu to delay.

9. Thirdly, We should take care to give Prudently, that is, to give most, Prudently. where it is most peeded, and in such a manner as may do the receiver most good. Chanties do often miscarry for want of this care, for a we may fomerimes give more to thole, whole fle and lewdness is the cause of their want, than to the who best deserve it; and so both encourage the me their litteness, and disable our selves from to the other. Yet I doubt not such may prefent wants, even of the most unworthy are to relieve them? But where no such preferenced is we shall do belt to chuse out the mer about of Charity, such as are chose who either are not the to fabour, or else have a greater charge than their hour out maintain a and to chose our 'Alma should be given also in such manner as may be most likely to do them good! The manner of which may history in my to some be best perhaps, to give them by little and little, to others the giving it all at once may tend more to their benefit; and sometimes a feasonable loan may do as well as a gift, and that may be in the power, sometimes, of those who are able to give but little, but when we thus lend on Charity, we must lend freely without Use; and also with a purpose, that if he dould prove unable to pay, we will forgive so much of the Principal as his needs require, and our shilling will permit. They want much of this Charity, who day up door Debtors in Prison, when they know shey have nothing to answer the Debt, which is a great cruely, to make another miserable, when nothing is gained to our selves by it.

Sund 17:0 1 Of Abrigating 259

to our felves by it.

To. Fourthly, We fould give liberally, we must not be first-handed in our Alms, and give by fuch pitful feardings, as will bring almost no relief to the receiver; for that is a kind of Mockey; its as if one should prevend to feed one that is almost femished by giving him a crumb of Bread : Such Doles as the would be most ridiculous, yet I feer to new the proportion of fome Men's Alms, fuch Men are below those Distriples we read of, who knew only the Baptist of Jalm; for its to be observed, that John Baptist, who was but the fore-runner of Christ, makes it a special part of his Doctrine, that He than the two Coats should impart to hise that hath note, Luke 11. He says not, he that hath some great Wardrobe, in even he that bath but two Coats must part with one than: From whence we may gather, that whatsoe above (not our Vanity, but) our needs, should us be disposed of, when our Brethren's needling relief, that the of the we hall find Christianity for exceeded the

of John's, the Convent officed not a particularly give all to the afe of the Bratery, and though that being upon an extraording, will be no measure of our confirm profession, the measure of Christianity, this of Chiciny is, that at the conding of the Church, fuch vall degrees of chiled, and if we further confider what are the control and if we further confider what are the control and if we further confider what are the control and if we further confider what are cepts of love are given us in the Golpel, even to the Lyne down our Lives for the Ereptron, 1 John 3, 16, we cannot imagine our Good's are in God's account to much more precious than our Lives, that he would command us to be prodigal of the one, and yet allow us to be sparing of the other.

11. A multisude of Arguments might be brought to recommend this bounty to all that profess Christ, I shall mention only two, which I find used by St. Paul to the Countries on this occasion. The first is the example of Christ, 2 Cor. 8. 9: For ye know the Grace of our Lord Jelus Christ, who though his was rich, get for your fakes his became poor, that he through his poverty might be rich. Christ emptied himself of sall that Globy and Greatness he enjoyed in Heaven with his Father, and submitted himself to a Life of much meanness and poverty, only to earth un And therefore for flame, let us not grudge to empty our Coffen, to Jeffen fomewhat of our heaps to relieve his poor Members. The second, is the expedi-tion of reward, which will be more or less, according to the degrees of our Alms, 2 Cor. 9, 6. He that Someth Spaningly shall read spaningly, and he that Someth bountifully. We think him a very improvident Husband-man that to save a little Seed at prefert, Sowa so thin, as to spoil his Crop, and the same folly 'twill be in us, if by the sparingness of our Alma we make our selves a lank Harvest hereafter, lose either all, or a great pare of those rewards which God hash provided for the liberal Alma-giver. What a the proportion which may be called a liberal given. I hall not undereake to fet down, there b grees even in liberality, one may give and yet another give more liberally than he liberality is to be measured, not so much by the given, as by the ability of the given. A Man of a mean Estate may give less than one of a great, and to be the more liberal person, because that little easy be more out of his, than the greater is out of the others. Thus we see Christ pronounces the poor Widow to have given mach more to the Treasury, than all the rick son, Luke 21-3, not that her soo Mises were more than their sich Gista, but that it was more for her, the having lest nothing behind, whereas they gave out of their abundance what they might easily spare. Every than must herein judge for himself; we see the Apostle, dough he carnestly press the Carbithians to bounty, yet prescribes not to them how much they shall give, but leaves that to their own Breasts, 2 Cor. 9, 17. Every Man according as he surposeth in his Heart, so less himselfs, that most immediately depend on us) the more acceptable it will be to God, and the more rewardable by him. And to secure the performance of the content of the performance of the performance of the content of the performance of the p while and little the expence would become left feed in which are apt to attend Men in greater differences; and for the any of a mental when any occasion offered it felf, and by giving low that a difference would be the bury of the Whet let every one of you tay by him in flore at God hat professed him. If Men would do thus, lay by found the first way not to be unprovided of formewhat to live when any occasion offered it felf, and by giving to by little and little the expence would become left fentiles, and fo be a means to prevent those grudgings and entities, and for the strength of the transfer out of the strength If any will fay they cannot fo well Weekly reekon their Gains, as by longer spaces of time, I shall not contend with them for that precise time, let it be done Monthly or Quarterly, so it be done. But that somewhat monthly is laid by in bank for these uses, rather than

262 The Mithole Muty of Main.

fr loofe to our fudden Charities, is fure, very ent, and I doubt not, whoever will make tripl of it, will thou experience acknowledge it to be for

12. The Fourth Exercise of our Chafeel of the bour: And of this we may have man occasions; fomerimes towards the in nocent, and fomerimes also towards the Guilty. If one whom we know to be an innocent perfon, be Slandered and Traduced, Charity binds in to do what we may for the declaring his Innocency, and delivering him from that falle imputation, and that, not only by witnessing when we are called to it, but by a voluntary offering our Testimony on his behalf, or the acculation be not before a Court of luftice, and there be no place for that our more folern Tellimobut that it be only a flander toft from one to another yer, even there, we are to do what we can to ber him, by taking all occasions publickly to declare that we know of his Innocency. But even to be guilthere is some Charity of this to be performed a o other part of Charity to others make it necessary discover, or it be not so notorious, as that is puration are of all others the most incurable, and therefore, it may well become Christian Charity to prevent them, even where they have been deserved, and perhaps such a tenderness in hiding the fault. may fooner bring the offender to Repensance, if it be feconded (as it ought to be) with all carneliness of private admonition. But if the fault be such that it be not to be concealed, yet fill there may be place for this Charity, in extenuating and leftening it. as far as the circumfrances will bear: As, if it were done fuddenty and rashly, Charity will allow some abasement of the centure, which would belong to a designed and deliberate Act, and so proportionably in other circumfrances. But the most frequent exercises of this Charity happen towards those of whose, either innocency or Guilt we have no knowedge, but are by some doubtful actions brou de property of love not to think evil to judge the best and therefore we are both to abstrain from untharitable condusions of them our felves, and, as much as lies in a ne keep others from them also, and so endeavour to projeve the Credit of our Neighbour; which is of a rimer as much staken by unjust suspicions, as it would be by the truest accusation. To these cases, and the best of the second of the suspicions of the second of the suspicions. inspire, belongs that precept of Christ, Matth. 7. 1. a the following words, That we be not Judged, we the the cause to believe it no such light matter as the World I be paid home to us, in the firid and fevere Jude ment of God.

18. I have now gone through this A- The Alls we Charity, so is relates to the four Charity veral Capacities of our Brethren; ma- femerelies fulfice. If any think is improper, the time Acts thould be unde part of Justice and charity too. I shall defice them to combiler, that Charity being by Christ's Command become a Debt so can be them; all the parts of it may, in that respect, be maded under the Head of Justice, fince it's sure, paying of Debts is a part of that? Yet because in our common as we do distinguish between the Offices of Justice. Charity, I have chose to inlarge on them in parcular refrence to Chargey, But I delire it may its he temembred, that whatfoever is under precept, a fe much a due from us, that we fin not only against Charley, but Justice too, if we neglect it; which deon the performance shand the rather, because the remain to be a common error in this point. Men look their Acts of Mercy, astrhings purely voluntary they have no obligation to; and the effect of themselves, when they have performed any, those performed any, those performed any though the

264 The Militie Duty of Man

conit all: Which is a very diagerous, but within a very natural fruit of the former persuation. If there is any Charities wherein justice, is not concerned, they are those which for the height and degrees of them are toole which for the languaged degrees of them are made maner of first Dury, that is, are not in choice degrees commanded by God: And even after their will be very reasonable for us to Labour; but that consider be done without raking the lower and recessing degrees in our way, and therefore let our first care be

The To help in therein, there will be no better means, than to keep before and of the our Eyes that grand Rule of loving as Neighbours as our friver: This the Apollic makes the filmm of our wholeduty to our eighbours, Rom. 13. 9. Let this therefore be the tendard, whereby to measure all thy actions, which class to others; whenever any necessity of the Neighbours are force in Colf or these are the following.

steindard, whereby to measure all thy actions, which relate to others; whenever any necessity of the Neighborr presents it self to thee, ask thy self, whether if thou were in the like case, thy love to thy self would not make thee industrious for relief, and then resolve ity love to thy Neighbour must have the same effect for him. This is that Royal Law, as S. James calls it, James 2. 3. which all shar profess themselves Subjects to Christ, must be ruled by 7 and wholoever is so, will not first of performing all Charities to others, occasion for the first end of performing all Charities to others, occasion for the first end of the would upon the like occasions have all such a formed to himself. There is none but wither to make his good Name defended, his Power relieved, his bodily suffering succounted, only it may be faid, that in the spiritual wants, there are some so careless of membelves, that they wish no supply, they define an region them; it may therefore feem that such Man are not by vertue of this Rule tied to shole forts of Charities. To this I answer, that the love of our selves, which is here set as the measure of that to our Neighbour, it has the love he ower himself, yet his reighbour has no thereby sorseized his right, he has still a claim to the reby sorseized his right, he has still a claim to the effect of our love, as is answerable to the local a degree of our love, as is answerable to in right we should best to our felves, and such that is this care of our spiritual Estate, and there is not our despising our own Souls, this will about the control Charity to other Mens: Yet I shall not note that duty in such Men, it being neither they will be perswaded to it, or do any by it, their ill example will over whelm all their Exhoristions, and makes them unfruitful.

There is per one Act of Charity be which does not properly fall un-

There is ver one Act of Charity be which does not properly fall un-peace which does not properly fall un-peace was one of the former Heads, and tags, and may relate to them all, and that is, as making Peace and Amisy among others: By doing thereof we may much benefit both the Soulis Bodies. Goods and Credit of our Brethen; for all these are in ansert by firife and contention. The reconciling of the peace, by firife and contention. The reconciling of the peace, by firife and contention. The reconciling of the peace, by firife and contention. The reconciling of the peace, Maker, Matth. 5.9, and therefore we may be accounted diligently to lay hold of all opportunities of doing this office of Charity, to use all our Art and indexvour to take up all grudges and quarrels we discent among others; neither must we only labour to retore Peace where it is loft, but to preserve it where it is loft, but to preserve it where it is lift, generally, by firting to begat in the Heans of all we converte with, a rue value of that most put to likely to fall our. It may many times be in the power of a discreet Friend or Neighbour, to care those mis fiakes, and mil-apprehensions, which are the lift beginning of quarrels and concentions; and it will be both more easie and more profitable, thus to prevent, during the falls. 'Tis sure 'sit more easie, for when specific firifes.' Tis sure 'sit more easie, for when you file firifes. 'Tis sure 'sit more easie, for when you file firifes. 'Tis sure 'sit more easie, for when you file it was bur a fmothering Fire. And then its which cannot so some a fmothering Fire. And then its which cannot so some a fmothering Fire. And then its which cannot so some a fmothering Fire. And then its some which it was bur a fmothering Fire. And then its some which it was bur a fmothering Fire. which cannot so soon be quencht, as it might have which cannot so soon be quencht, as it might have whilk it was bur a smothering Fire. And then so more prositable, for it prevents many fins, where progress of an open contention, are almost to be committed. Solomos says, In the multitude there remutes not Sin, Prov. 10. 19, which cannot ruly be said of any fort of words, than the pass in Anger, and then, though the quarrel be afterwards composed, yet those fins will still remain on their account; and therefore it is a great Charity to prevent them.

266 The Mibale Duty of Pan.

16. But to fit a Man for this to exPle that uncellent an Office of Peace making; the dereades it, necessary that he be first remarkably must be peaceable himself; for with what Face peaceable canst thou perswade others to that which himself. thou will not person thy sees the peaceable how canst thou expect the person to how canst thou expect thy perswassion should Work? Twill be a ready reply in every Man's Mouth, Thou Hyporrite, tast out first the Beam out of thine own Eye. Marth. 7. 5. and therefore be sure thou qualifie thy self for the Work. There is one point of Peaceableness which seems to be little regarded among Men, and that is in the case of Legal persons.

paffes, Men think it nothing to go to Law about every petry trifle, and as long as they have but Law on their fide, never think they are to blame : But fi had we that true peaceableness of Spirit which we ought, we should be unwilling for such slight matters to trouble and disquier our Neighbours. Not that all Suits electrally as are upon Contentiousness, and thousness of Humbur, so defend such an inconsiderable tight as the parting with will do us little or no ham, or which is yet worle, to avenge fuch a trefpals. And even in great matters, he that that part with fornewhat of his Right for love of Peace, does furely the most christiatily, and most agreeably to the advice of the apostle, a Cor. 6. 7. Rather to take wrong, and suffer our selves to be defrauded. But if the damage be to unsupportable, that it is necessary for us to go so Law, yet even then we must take care of preserving reace; hirl by carrying Rill a friendly and Christian at all effranged from him; fecondly, by being wilthey shall be offered; and truly if we carry temper of mind in our fuits, I see not how any can be reconcileable with that peaceableness to a large required of all Christians. Let those consider mis who make it their pleasure themselves to disquiet meir Neighbour, or their Trade to stir up others to do it. This tender regard of Peace, both in our selves, and others, is absolutely necessary to be entertained of all chose, who own themselves to be the Servans of him, whose Title it is to be The Prince of Peace, life 9.66.

oncerning this Charity of the Actions, of the Actions is the extent of it; which must be as one must large as the former of the affections, reach to Even to the taking in, not only Strangers, nemier.

and those of no Relation to us, but e-ten of our bitterest Enemies. I have already spoken to much of the Obligation we are under to forgive them, that I shall not here Ly any thing of that, but that being supposed a Dury, 'twill sure then appear no untersomable thing to proceed one step surther, by doing them good turns; for when we have once formire, and so twill be on hard matter, even to Flesh and Blood, to do all kind things to them. And ind, the is the way, by which we must rry the fincerity of our forgiveness. The easie to fay, I forgive such a Man; but if when an opportunity of doing him good is offered, thou declined it, his apparent, there yet lurks the old Malice in thy Heart: where there is a through forgiveness, there will be as great a radiness to benefit an Enemy as a Friend; nay, perhaps in some respects, a greater, a true charitable Person looking upon it as an especial Prize, when he has an opportunity of evidencing the rroth of his reconciliation, and obeying the Precept of his Saviour, by some good to them that hate him, Matt. 5. 44. Let us occeptore resolve that all actions of kindness are to be performed to our Enemies, for which we have not onthe command, but also the example of Christ, who d not only fome inward scientings towards us his collingte and most provoking Enemies, but thewed in Acts, and those no cheap, or easie ones but (uch

ser suche actions with or wan

fuch as cost him his descript Blood. And furely we can never present to be either obsyche of his Command, or followers of his Example, if we grudge to reflife or over to our Enemies by those so much cheaper ways or the time in the feet, and the like, recommended to by the Apolitic, Rom. 12, so. But if we could perform these sets of Kindress to Enemies in such manners might draw them from their country, and win the to Peace, the Charity would be doubled. And this we should aim at, for that we see the Apolitic sense the end of the forementioned acts of feeding, or char we may heap Coals of Fire upon their Heads No Coals to Burn, but to Melt them into all love and terrodictions towards us: And this were indeed the most complear way of imitating Christ's example, who is all he did and fuffered for us, deligned the reconciling of us to himfelf.

18, I have now thewed you the feveral parts of our Dury to our Neighbour bindrance of towards the performance whereof, this Charity, know nothing more necellary, than turning our of our Hearts that Self is which to often pollettes them, and that to the charity has no room for Charity, any nor Just seither to our Neighbour. By this Self-love I may not that true love of our felves, which is the love a care of our Souls (for that would retrainly help, as hinder us in this duty), but I mean that immodes fore of our own wouldly interests and advantages which is apparently the toot of all both injustice an uncharitableness, towards others. We find this in a elf-love fet by the Apostle in the head of a whole Proop of fine, a Tim. 3. 2. as if it were some paint pal officer in Satan's Camp; and certainly, not will out reason; for it never goes without an accuratrain of many other fins, which, like the Drugor Tain, Rev. 12, 4. (weeps away all care of Duty to them. We are by it made to vehement and intention to the pleasing our felves, that we have his regard any Body elfe, contrary to the direction of S. Rom. 15, 2, which is, not to please our felves, Barrier Men. 20 Med. his hour land. very Man to please his Neighbour for his good to for your Christ pleased not himself. If there-have any sincere define to have this venue of round in our Hearts, we must be careful to round in our Hearts, we must be careful to the when we have removed this Prayer, a meany more we must remember that this supresses is, other Graces, proceeds not from two, it is the gift of God, and therefore we estably pray to him to work it in us, to fend the print, which once appeared in the form of the meek and gall-left Creature, to frame out to the same temper, and enable us to perform

Have now past through those se- Christian Du-veral Branches I at first proposed, ties both pojand thewed you what is our Du- fible and pla God, our Selves, and our Neigh- i lant.

of which I may fay as it is, Luke 10. 28. This and thou half live. And furely it is no impossible to perform this in fuch a measure, as God will gradly accept, that is, in Sincerity, though post in persons for God is not that Auftere Maker. Luke 30. The Reaps where he is not form: He requires nothing is which he is not ready by his Grace to enable us to to the second of wing into it, to fright us with I know not what Gyus we shall meet with; But let us not thus be cheatif it us but take the courage to try, and we shall inled, find it a Canaan, a Land flowing with Milk and may: God is not in this respect to his People a Wilnot, a Land of Darbuels, Jer. 2. 31. His Services not bereave Men of any true joy, but helps them to a great deal? Chriff's Yoke is an ease, pay, a pleasant Yoke; his burthen is light, yes, a gracious for them. There is in the practice of Christian During a great deal of present Pleasure, and if we feel it not it is because of the resistance our vicious and finful customs make, which by the contention raises on unessenes. But then first, that is to be charged only on our selves, for having got those ill customs, and thereby made that hard to us, which in it self is most pleasant, the Duries are not to be accused for in. And then secondly, even there the pleasure of subduing those is like, as hugely ourweigheth all the upuble of the combat.

Even when they fome parts of Piety are of such a naexpose us to conture, as will be very apt to expose us to ward sufferings.

persecutions and sufferings in the World, and that those are not joyou but give-

Vous.

I Answer, that even in those there is matter of love We see the Apolles thought it so, They rejuyced that they were accounted worthy to Suffer for Christ's Name, Acts 4. And St. Peter tells us, That, if any fuffer as a Ch fran, he is to Glorifie God for it, I Pet. 4. 16. There is fuch a force and vertue in the teltimony of a good Conscience, as is able to change the greatest suffering into the greatest Triumph; and that testimony we can never have more clear and lively, than when we fuffer for Rightcoulness sake, so that you see Christianity is very amia even in its faddeft drefs; the inward comforts of it do far furpals all the ourward Tribulations that attend it, and that even in the instant, while we are in the state of War-fare upon Earth. But, then if we look forward to the Crown of our Victories, those Eternal rewards in Heaven, we can never think those tasks sad, though we had nothing at present to sweeten them, that have such recompences await them at the end , were our Labours never To heavy, we could have no cause to faint under them. Let us therefore, whenever we meet with any discouragements in our course, fix our Eye on this rich Prize, and then run with Patience the Race that is fet before us,

12. 2. Follow the Capr in of our Salvation through greneft fufferings; yea, even through the fime Red of Blood which he hach waded, whenever our Obenoe to him thall require it; for though our fidelity to him old bring us to Death it felf, we are fure to be no lofers it for to fuch he hash promited a Crown of Life, the expediation whereof is able to keep a Christian more arful in his Fetters and Dungeon, than a worlding can e in the midft of his greatest profecrities.

All that remains for me firther to id is earneftly to intrest and befrech the Reader, that, without delay, he pur himelf into this to pleafant and gainful a courfe,

to

g

The danger of delaying our turning

by ferring fincerely to the practife of all those things, which either by this Book, or by any other means he different to be his Dury and the further he hath formerly gone out of his way, the more haft it concerns him to make to get into it, and to use the more diligence in walking into it. He that hath a long journey to go. and finds he hath loft a great part of his day in a wrong way, will not need much intreaty, either to turn into the right, or to quicken his pree in it. And this is the ale of all those that have lived in any course of fin, they are in a wrong Road, which will never bring them to the place they aim at , nay, which will certainly bring them to the place they most fear and abhor: Much of their day is spent; how much will be left to finish their Journey in, none knows; perhaps the next hour, the next minute, the Night of Death may overtake them: What a madness is it then for them to defer one moment to turn our of that path which leads to certain Deftrudion, and to put themselves in that, which will bring them to Bliff and Glory? Yet fo are Men bewirched, and enchanted with the Deceitfulness of fin, that no intreaty, no perswafion can prevail with them, to make this fo reasonable, so necessary a change, not but that they acknowledge it needful to be done, but they are unwilling to do it yet, they would enjoy all the pleasures of fin as long as they live; and then they hope at their Death, or some little time before it, to do all the business of their Souls. But, alas! Heaven is too high to be thus jump'd into; the way to it is a long and leifurely afcent, which re-

272 School added a Duch of Wall.

Quires time to walk. The hazards of fuch deferri are more largely speken of in the Discourse of Reportance: I shall not here repeat them, but define the Reader seriously to by them to Heart, and then sine he will think it feaforable Couniel that is given by a Wife Man, Estlist. 3. 7. Make no tarrying to turn to the Lord, and put not off from Day to Day,

> State (18 a State of a line of the State State

Controllers half the de out the Time to the fire to have the following the second of of deposit and the Congress Contraction of a tarbus palders due service.

ENGLISH TO THE PARTY OF THE PAR description of

burnett or ent

FINIS.

A STATE OF THE STA

The production of the

For Several

Occasions,

ORDINARY

A N D EXTRAORDINARY.

LONDON,

Printed for Edw Pawlett, at the Sign of the

PKINTE

Cocalions,

ORDINARY

EXTRAOPDINARY.

LONDON

Printed for E. in Powlet at the Sign of the CHRISTIAN READER.

most Change which the

in our wat out private extract by

Have, for the Help of thy Devotions, set dozon some FORMS of PRIVATE PRAYER, upon Several Occasions. If it be thought an omission that there are some for Families. I must answer for my self, that is was not from any Opinion, that God is not as will to be worshipped in the Family, as the Closes; but became the Providence of God and the Church hath already furnished thee for that purpose, infinisely beyond what my stomps care could do. I mean the PUBLICK LITURGY, or COMMON-PRAYER which, for all Publick Addresses and Useful, that we may say of it as David did of Goliah's Sword, I Sam. 21.9. There is notice like it.

DIRECTIONS for the MORNING.

SHE THE ALL CONTROL OF THE PARTY OF THE PROPERTY.

centre to forme by ourse there, and there effer its to

As foon as over those awakest in the Morning, lift up thy Heart to God in this, or the like short Prayer.

LORD, as theu haft awaked my Body from Sleep, so by thy Grace awaken my Soul from Sin; and make me so to walk before thee this day, and all, the rest of my Life, that when the last Trumper shall awake me out of my Grave, I may rise to the life immortal, through Jesus Christ.

TOT

Within them hast thus began, suffer not (without lone argent nocasisty) any Worldly thoughts to fill the dind, till the hast also paid the most splenm Droving to Almighty God, and therefore desiring the time than are drossing they self (which should be no longer than common decency requires) exercise the owind in some Spiritual thoughts: " as for example, consider to what Temperation the pulincis or company that day are most like to say the own, and arm they self with Resolutions of doing Service to God, or good to sig Neighbour are that day most likely to prospect themselves; and resolute to morrace them; and also converte how some majest improve them to the uttermost. But appealing, it will be so for thee to examine whether there have any so asserted that since they last night i examination. If size the considerations, any switcher leisure remain, thou mayes the development of the General Resurrection (where over existing from one Bed is a Representation) and the dreadful sudgment which solld follow it; and this limb with they for it in what preparation thou are for it, and asserted to be based according to the General Resurrection (where of the first what for the what preparation thou are for it, and asserted to bushand carefully every Minute of the This towards the sixting thee for that great Account. As some as then are peadly, retire to some private place, and there offer up to the they Morning Sacrifice of Praise and Prayer.

DIRECTIONS

Prayers for the Morning.

At the first Kneeling down, far,

O Holy, Bleffed, and Glorious Trinity, Thee Performent and one God, have Mercy upon me a milestale finner.

chi.

2.77

ORD, I know not what to Pray for as I quelt. It let thy Spiric help my Infirmities, and enable to offer up a Spiritual Sacrifice acceptable to there by lefus Christ.

A Thanksgiving.

Gracious Lord, whose Mercies endure for eve thy unworthy fervant, who have to deeply talk of them, defire to render thee the tribute of my bu bleft Praises for them. In thee, O Lord, I live move and have my being: thou first madest me to and then, that I might not be miferable, but happ thou sentest thy Son out of thy Bosom to Redeem from the power of my fins by his Grace, and from punishment of them by his Blood, and by both bring me to his Glory. Thou haft by thy Mercy a hian Church, where I was early confecrated to thee Baptilm, and have been partaker of all those spirits helps which might aid me to perform that Yow I th made to thee; and when by my own wilfulness nifold Mercies haft not fortaken me; but haft gene oully invited me to Repentance, afforded me all mean both ourward and inward for it, and with much pa ence haft attended, and not cut me off in the act those many Damning Sins I have committed, as I h most justly deserved. It is, O Lord thy restrains Grace alone, by which I have been kept back from a the greatest fine, and it is thy Inciting and Affish Grace alone, by which I have been enabled to do the least good; therefore not unto me, not unto but unto thy Name be the Prailes. For thele, as other thy Spiritual Bleflings, my Soul doth Ma the Lord, and all that is within me Praise his Ho Name. I likewife graife thee for those many outw Bleffings I enjoy; as Health, Friends, Food and ment, the comforts as well as the necessaries of it Life, for those continual Protections of thine hand, which I and mine are kept from dangers, and those gracious Deliverances thou hast often afforded out of such as have befallen me, and for that Mercy of thine whereby thou hast sweeped and allayed those Troubles thou hast not seen fit wholly to remove; for thy particular preservation of me this Night, and all other thy goodness towards me. Lord, grant that I may render thee hot onely the fruit of my lips, but the obedience of my Life, that to these Blessings here may be an earnest of those riches hissings thou hast prepared for those that Love thee, and that for his sake, whom thou hast made the Author of Evernal Salvation to all that obey him, even Jesus Christ.

A Confession.

Righteous Lord, who hateft Iniquity, I, thy Sinful Creature, cast my felf at thy Feet, acknowed and forfaken by thee; for I have drank Iniquity ike Water, gone on in a continued course of fin and sebellion against thee, daily committing of those things thou forbiddeft, and leaving undone those things thou commandeft; mine heart, which should be an habitation for thy Spirits is become a Cage of Unclean Birds of Four and Difordered Affections; and out of this abundance of the Heart my Mouth fpeaketh, my Hands act; fo that in thought, word and deed, I continually transgress against thee. (Here mention the Greatest of thy Sins.) Nav. O Lord, I have defpiled that Goodness of thine which should lead me to epentance, Hardning my Heart against all those Means hou hast used for my Amendment. And now, Lord, What can I expect from thee but Judgment and Fiery Indianation, that is indeed the due Reward of my Sins? But, O Lord, there is Mercy with thee; that thou main be feared. O fit me for that Mercy, by giving me a deep and hearty Repentance, and then, according to thy Goodness, let thine Anger and thy Wrath be curned away from me; look upon me in thy Son, my Bleffed Saviour, and for the Merit of his Sufferings Pardon all my Sins: And Lord, I befeech thee, by the Power of thy Grace, so to renew and purishe my hearts that I may become a New Creature, titterly forfaking every evil way, and living in a constanta fincer universal Obedience to thee all the rest of my days that, behaving my felf as a good and faithful Servan i may by thy Mercy at the last be received into lake.

A Prayer for Grace.

Most Gracious God, from whom every good and perfect Gift comesh, I wretched Creature, th am not able of my felf fo much as to think a goo Thought, befeech thee to work in me both to and to do according to thy Good Pleafure. Inlied ten my mind that I may know thee, and let me no be barren and unfruitful in that knowledge. Lord work in my heart a true Faith, a purifying Hope, an en unfeigned Love towards thee : give me a fu Trust on thee, Zeal for thee, Reverence of all things the relate to thee: make me fearful to offend thee, thank ful for thy Mercies, Humble under thy Corrections Devout in thy Service, Sorrowful for my fins: and grant that in all things I may behave my felf to, befits a Creature to his Creator, a Servant to hi Lord. Enable me likewise to perform that Dury owe to my felf: give me that Meekness, Humilier and Contentedness, whereby I may always poste my Soul in Patience and Thankfulness: make m Diligent in all my Duties, Watchful against all Temptations, perfectly Pure and Temperate, and fo me derate in my most lawful enjoyments, that they me never become a snare to me: make me also, O Lore to be so affected towards my Neighbour, that I never Transgress that Royal law of thine, of loving him a my Self: grant me exactly to perform all parts of it flice, yielding to all whatfoever by any kind of ris becomes their due, and give me fuch Bowels of Mer cy and Compassion that I may never fail to do all AS of Charity to all Men, whether friends or enemies, according to thy Goromand and Example. Finally, I befeech thee, O Lord, to Sanctifie me throughout, that my whole Spirit, and Soul, and Body, may be preferved blameless unto the Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. To whom, with thee, and the Holy Ghott, be all Honour and Glory for ever.

Interceffion.

Bleffed Lord, whose Mercy is over all thy works. I befeech thee to have Mercy upon all Men; and and that the precious Ranfom which was paid by the on for all, may be effectual to the faving of all. Give enlightning Grace to those that are in Darkness. d thy Converting Grace to those that are in fing k with thy tenderest compassions upon the Universal urch. O be favourable and gracious unto Sie. ild thou the Walls of Jerusalem: unite all those than ofels thy Name unto thee by purity and holinels, and each other by Brotherly Love. Have Mercy on this foliare Church, and finful Nation; thou haft moved Land, and divided it heal the Sore thereof, for it aketh; make us fo truly to Repent of those fins which ve provoked thy Judgments, that thou also mayel and Repent, and leave a Bleffing behind thee 6 those whom thou hast appointed our Governours, hether in Church or State: fo rule their hearts, and renothen their hands, that they may neither want ill nor Power to punish Wickedness and Vice, and ciptain God's true, Religion and Vertue. Have pity. Lord, on all that are in affliction: Be a Father to the atherless, and plead the Cause of the Widow, Comon the Feeble-minded, support the Weak, heal the lick, relieve the Needy, defend the Oppressed, and Adninister to every one according to their several Necesses.

Let thy Blestings rest upon all that are near and lear to me, and grant them whatsoever thou sees their several Necesses. effery; either to their Bodies or their Souls, (Hera ave done me good, and pardon all those that have dore done, or witht me evil; and work in them and me all that good which may make us acceptable in aby fight, through Jefus Chrift.

For Preservation.

O Merciful God, by whose bounty alone it is, that I have this day added to my life; I befeech thee so to guide me in it by thy Grace, that I may do nothing which may dishonour thee, or wound my own Soul; but that I may diligently apply my felf to do all such good Works, as then that expand for me to walk in. And, Lord: I beseech thee; give thy Angels charge over me, to keep me in all my ways, that no evil happen unto me, nor any Plague come night my Dwelling: but that I and mine may be safe under thy Gracious Protection, through Jesus Christ.

O Lord, pardon the wandrings and coldness of these Petitions, and deal with me, not according either to my Prayers or Deserts, but according to my Needs, and thine own Rich Mercies in Jesus Christ: in whose blessed Name and Words, I conclude these my imperfect Prayers, saying, Our Father, &c.

The state of the second second

And the part of the state of th

A Committee of the control of the co willing by the state of the state of Directions for Night.

T NIGHT, when it draws towards the time of I reft, bethink thy felf how thou hast passed the day to a thine own heart what Sin either of Thought, Word, Deed then hast committed, what opportunity of doing and then hast emitted ; and what sever then findest to ecuse thy self of, Confess humbly and penistently to God, reis Pardon in Chrift, and this not flightly, and only as of Courfe, but with all Devout Earnastness, and Heartiness, as thon wouldst do, if thou wert surethy Death were at m opproaching as thy Sleep, which, for ought thus known ay be so indeed, and therefore thou shouldest no more ven ere to Sleep enreconciled to God, than thou wouldest dans to die fo. In the next place; consider what special and extrasedinary Marcies thou half that day received, as if this half half any great deliverance, either in thy inward Man. from some dangerous Temptations, or in the outmard, from d devous praise for the same : or if nothing extraordinary have so happened, and thou half been kept even from the approach of danger, show haft not the less, but the greate cause to Magnifie God, who bath by his Protection fo guard thee, that not so much as the fear of Evil hath affaulted And therefore omit not to pay him the Tribute of tamble Thank fulness, as well for his usual and daily Pre-ervations, as his more extraordinary Deliverances. And hove all, endeavour still by the consideration of his Mercies, to have thy heart the more closely buit to him; remembring that every Favour received from him is a new Enragement upon thee to Love and Obey him:

Prayers for Night.

O Holy, Bleffed and Glorious Trinity, three Persons and one God, have Mercy upon me a Miserable Sinner.

Lord, I know not what to Pray for as I ought, O let thy Spirit help my infirmities, and enable me to of fir up a Spiritual Sacrifice, acceptable unto thee by Je tu Chrift.

A Confession.

MOST Holy Lord God, who art of Purer than to behold Iniquity, How shall I, abomine wrench, dare to appear before thee, who am no thing bur pollution? I am defiled in my very Nature saving a backwardness to all Good, and a reading to all Evil; but I have defiled my felf yet much we by my own actual fins, and wicked customs: I ha ranfgressed my Ducy to Thee, my Neighbour, and m if and ther both in Thought, in Word, and in De doing those things which thou hast expressy forb den, and by neglecting to do those things thou I commanded me. And this, not onely through Is nce and Frailty, but knowingly and wilfully against Motions of thy Spirit, and the Checks of my own Co frience to the contrary. And to make all thele of measure finful, I have gone on in a daily course of perting these Provocations against thee, notwit ing all thy Calls to, and my own purpoics and V of amendment; yea, this very day I have not ces to add new fins to all my former Guilts. (Here name articularit) And now, O Loud, What thall I fay, how shall I open my Mouth, seeing I have done d things? I know that the wages of these sins is dear but. O thou who willest not the death of a sinn have Mercy upon me; work in me, I beseath the sincere contrition, and a period harred of my sin and let me not daily confess, yet as their renew the The state of the state of but grant, O Lord, that from this inftant I may give a Bill of Divorce to all my most beloved Lusts, and then be thou pleased to Marry me to thy self in truth, in righteratines and holines. And for all my past sim, O Lord, receive a reconciliation; accept of that Ransome thy Blessed Son harh paid for me, and for his sake whom thou hast set forth as a propitiation, pardon all my offences, and receive me to thy Favour. And when thou hast thus spoken Peace to my Soul, Lord, keep me, that I turn not any more to folly, but so establish me with my Grace, that no Tempration of the World, the Devil, or my own Fless may ever draw me to offend thee shat being made free from Sin, and becoming a servant unto God, I may have my fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

A Thanksgiving.

MYDY

Thou Father of Mercies, who are kind even to the unchankful, I acknowledge my felf to have abundantly experimented that gracious property of thine, notwithstanding my daily provocations against ice, thou ftill heapest Mercy and Loving Kindness pon me. All my contempts and defailings of the em; but in the riches of thy goodness and long offering thou ftill continuent to me the offers of Temporal Bleffings thou haft not Punished with an urme a liberal portion of them, but art ftill pleased to afford the a liberal portion of them. The fine of this day thou hast not repayed, as justly thou might it, by veeping me away with a fwift destruction; but hast ared and preferved me according to the greatness of thy Mercy. (Here mention the particular Mercies hat day.) What shall I render unto the Lord, for all those Benefits he hath done unto me? Lord, let th modness of thine lead me to Repentance; and grant set I may not only offer thee thanks and praise, but may also order my Conversation aright, that so I may at the last fee the Salvation of God, through Jefus and the hours of the

wal

Here use the Prayer for Grace; and that of Intercession appointed for the Morning.

For Preservation.

Same taken

Bleffed Lord, the Keeper of Ifrael, that neither flumbreft nor fleepest, be pleased in thy Mercy to watch over me this Night, keep me by thy Grace from all works of Darkness, and defend me by thy power from all dangers : grant me moderate and refreshing sleep, fuch as may fit me for the Duries of the day following. And, Lord, make me ever mindful of that time, when I shall lie down in the Dust and because I know neither the day nor the hour of my Master's Coming grant me Grace, that I may be always ready, that I may never live in fuch a ftare, as I shall fear to die in but that whether I live, I may live unto the Lord, or whether I die, I may die unto the Lord; to that living and dying I may be thine, through Jefus Christ. reaches execute entering

Use the same concluding Prayer as in the Morning. A Land Straight of A

A Sthen art putting off the Cloathe, think with the felf is the time approaches that their must put off thy Bo-Judgment-Seat, and therefore thou hadft nood be careful to make it so clean and pure by Repentance and Holines, that he who will not look on iniquity may graciously beheld and Accept it. diese for More year statute, and sone

the first to merein in are alreadings in a day to

State of the same of the state of the state of

The latter of which were experienced in the proof

PRIABLEASON

Let the Bed put thee in mind of the Grave; and when then Lieft down, far,

O Bleffed Saviour, who by thy Precious Death and Burial didft take away the fting of Death and the power of the Grave, grant me the joyful fruits of that thy Victory, and be thou to me in Life and Death advantage.

I will lay me down in peace, and take my reft; for is thou, Lord, onely, that makeft me dwell in fafery.

Into thy hands I commend my Spirit , for thou hast Redeemed it, O Lord, thou God of Tauth.

Spinod Lang P. C. which away of the Land

IN the ANCIENT CHURCH, there were, befides Moraing and Night, four other times every day which were called HOURS OF PRAYER, and the Zeal of those first Christians was fuch, as made them constantly observed. It would be thought too great a strictuels now in this Lukewarm Age to enjoyn the like frequency: yet I cannot but mention the Example, and fay, that for those who are not by very necessary business prevented, it will be but reasonable to imitate it, and make up in Publick and Private shofe FOUR TIMES of PRAYER, besides the OFFI-CES already fer down for MORNING and WHT; and that none may be to feek how to Exercise their Devotions at thefe simes, I have added divers COLLECTS for leveral Graces, whereof every Man may wife at each fuch time of Prayer to many as his zeal and leifure shall point out to him; adding, if he please, one of the Confosions appointed for Morning or Night, and never omitting the LORD'S PRAYER:

But if any Man's state of Life be really so buse, as will not allow him time for so long and Solemn Devetions; yet certainly there is no Man so overlaid with business, but that he may find leisure oftentimes in a day to say the LORD'S PRAYER alone; and therefore let him ufe that, if he cannot more. But becaufe it is the Charatter of a Christian, Phil. 3. 20. That he hath his Conversation in Heaven, it is very fit that beides thefe Su-times of Prayer, be should divers times in a day, hert and Sudden EJACULATIONS, dare up his Soul thither. And for this fort of Devotion no Man can want bisure, for it may be performed in the midst of Business the Artificer at his Work, the Husbandman at his Plough mer practife it. - Now as he cannot want time; fo that he may not mant matter for it, I have thought it not unafeful out of that rich tore house, the BOOK of PSALMS. to furnish him with some Texts, which may very fitly be seled for this purpose, which being learned by heart, will almays be ready at hand to employ his devotion; and the matter of them being various, some for pardon of fin, some for Grace, Some for the Light of God's Countenance, Some for the Cherch, some for Danksgiving, &c. every Man may for himself according to the present need and temper of his Soul. I have given thefe, not as a full Collection, but mely a talte, by which the Reader's Appetite may be raised to Search after more in that Book, and other parts f Holy Scripture. Relieved theodol acide bill. Finad one Fight residence Salvation of my So

And the disease of the best of the control of the base of the base

The Republic of the Company of the C

to an evidence of the control of the

COLLECTS

For Several

GRACES.

For Faith.

Bleffed Lord, whom withour Faith it is impossible to please; let thy Spirit, I beseech thee, work in me such a Faith, as may be acceptable in thy sight, even such as worketh by Love. O let me not rest in a dead ineffectual Faith, but grant that it may be such as may shew it self by my Works, that it may be that Victorious Faith, which may enable me to overcome the World, and conform me to the Image of that Christ, on whom I Believe; that so, at the last, I may receive the end of my Faith, even the Salvation of my Soul, by the same Jesus Christ.

For Hope.

Lord, who are the hope of all the ends of the Earth, let me never be defiture of a well-grounded hope, nor yet possess with a vain presumption: suffer me not to think thou will either be reconciled to my sins, or reject my Repentance: but give me, I beseech thee, such a Hope as may be answerable to the only ground of Hope, thy Promises: and such as may both encourage and enable me to Purisie my self from all filthiness both of sich and Spirit, that so is may indeed become to me an Anchor of the Soul both sure and stedfast, entring even within the Veil; whither the fore-runner is for me entred; even Jesus Christ, my High-Priest, and Blessed Redeemer.

For the Love of God.

Holy and Gracious Lord, who are infinitely excellent in thy felf, and infinitely bountiful and contaffionate towards me, I befeech thee fuffer not my teart to be fo hardned through the decentumes of in as to relift fuch charms of Love ; But let them make deep and lafting imprefixons on my Soul. Lord, thou are pleased to require my heart, and thou onely aft right to it. O ler me not be fo Sacrilegiously unjust as to alienate any part of it, but enable me to renler it up whole and entire to thee. But, O my God, thou feeft it is already usurped, the World with its Vanities hath Rized it, and like a Strong Man Armed, keeps poffession. O thou, who are stronger, come upon him, and take this unworthy heart of mine as thine own spoil, refine it with that purifying fire of thy Love, that it may be a fit habitation for thy Spirit. Lord, Thou feeft it fit, be pleased to let me take of thou joys, those Ravishmenes of thy Love, wherewith thy Saints have been so transported. But if in this I know not what I ask, if I may not chuse my place in thy Kingdom, yet, O Lond deny me nor to drink of thy Cup, let me have fuch a line priry and degree of Love as may make me endure any ening for thy fake; fuch a perfect love as may cast out all fear and floth too, that nothing may feem to me too grievous to fuffer, or too difficult to do in obedience to thee; that so expressing my Love by keeping thy Commandments, I may, by therey, at last obtain that Grown of Life, which thou haft promifed to those that love thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For Sincerity.

O Holy Lord, who requireft Truth in the inward pairs, I humbly befeech thee to purge me from all hypocrific and unfincerity. The heart, O Lord, is deceiful above all things, and my heart is deceiful at boye all Hearts: O thou who fearcheft the Heart and reins, try me, and feek the ground of my Heart, and fuffer not any accurred thing to lurk within me, but purifie me, even with fire, so thou consume my dross. O Lord, I cannot deceive thee, but I may most easily deceive my felf. I beseech thee let me not rest in any such deceit, but bring me to a sight and hatred of my most hidden corruptions, that I may not cherish any darling Lust, but make an utter destruction of every desalories. O suffer me not to speak peace to my self, when there is no peace, but grant that I may judge of my self as thou judgest of me, that I may never be at peace with my self, till I am at perfect peace with thee, and by purity of heart be qualified to see thee in thy Kingdom, through Jests Christ.

For Devocion in Prayer.

O Siere, who are thromest, cont

Gracious Lord God, who not only permittelt, but invitest us miserable and needy Creatures, to present our Peritions to thee; grant, I beliech thee, that the frequency of my Prayer may be fomewhat proportionable to those continual needs I have of thy Mercy. Lord, I confess it is the greatest hour and greatest advantage. thus to be allowed access to thee, yet so fortish and surpid is my prophane Heart, that it thuns or fruftrates the opportunities of it. My Soul, O Lord, is possest with a folis of infirmity, it is bowed together, and can in no wife lift up it felf to thee. O be thou pleased to cure this fad, this miferable Difere, to inspirit and entires this Farthly Droffy Heart, that it may freely mount towards thee; that I may fet a true value on this most valueble privilege, and take delight in Approaching to thee: and that my Approaches may be with a reverence someway answerable to that awful Majesty I some before, with an importunity and earnestness anfwerable to those preffing wants I have to be supplied; and with such a fixedness and attention of Mind, as no wandring thoughts may interrupt that I may no more incur the guilt of drawing near to the with my lips. when my Heart is far from thee, or have my Prayers mirned into fin , but may fo ask that I may receive , feek that I may find sknock, that it may be opened unto me that from Praying to thee here, I may be translated to he praiting thee eternally in thy Glory, through the erio and Intercellion of Jefus Christ.

in may give the hand while will i mais the or thorn For Hamility, or

Thou High and Lofty One, that inhabiteft Eremity. yet are pleased to dwell with the humble Spirit pour into my Heart, I befeech thee, that excellent Grace of Humility, which may utterly work out all those vain concers I have of my felf; Lord, convince me powerof my own wretchedness, make me to see that I am milerable, and poor, and blind, and naked, and not one-ly dult, but Sin; that so in all thy Dispensations towards me, I may lay my hand upon my Mouth, and heartily ac thowledge that I am left than the leaft of thy Mercie, an greater than the greatest of thy Judgments. And, O Lord grant me not onely to walk humbly with my God, but even with Men also, that I may not onely submit my elf to thy Rebukes, but even to those of my Fellow. Christians, and with Meekness receive and obey their Admonitions. And make me fo to behave my felf towards all, that I never do any thing through strife and vain glosy; and to that end grant, that in lowliness of Mind I may effeem every other Man better than my felf, and be willing that others should effeem them to also; that teither nourish any high opinion of my self, nor cover of Men, I may feek that Praife which cometh from thee only. That fo instead of those mean servile Arts, I have u fed to recommend me to the effects of Men, I may now employ all my industry, and care to approve my felf to thee, who refifteft the proud, and giveft Grace to the humble: Grant this, O Lord, for his take who hambled himself unto the Death of the Cross, Jefus Christ.

पूर्ण हो है है कि कार महिला है है है है कि की erichny construction of the manufacture and the same contract

To the Pear of God

O Glorious Majefty, who only are high, and to be feared; poffer my Soul with a holy awe and reverence of thee, that I may give thee the honour due unto thy Name, and may heat fuch a refpect to all things which relate to thee, that I may never prophane any holy thing; or facrilegiously invade what theu has fer apart to thy felf. And, O Lord, fince thou are a God that wilt not clear the guilty, let the dread of thy luftice make me tremble to provoke thee in any thing. O let me not to misplace my fear, as to be atraid of a Man that shall die, and of the Son of Man, who shall be made as Grafs, and forget the Lord, my Maker; but replensis my Soul with that fear of the Lord, which is the beginning of Wildom, which may be as a Bridle to all my brutish Appetites, and keep me in a constant conformity to thy holy Will. Hear me, O Lord, I befeech thee, and put this fear in my Heart, that I may not depart from thee, but may with fear and trembling, work our my Salvation, throught less Chrift.

For Trust on God

Almighty Lord, who never faileft them that trust on thee: Give me Grace, I befeech thee; in all my difficulties and diffretles to have recourse to thee, to rest and depend on thee; thou shall keep him, O Lord, in perfect beace, whose mind is staid on thee. O, let me always rest on this firm Pillar, and never exchange it for the broken Reeds of worldly succours; suffer not my Heart to be over-charged with the cares of this Life, taking thought what I shall Eat, or Drink, or wherewithal I shall be Cloathed; but grant that, having by honest Labour and Industry, done my part, I may chearfully commit my self to thy Providence, casting all my care upon thee; and being careful for nothing, but to be of the number of those these whom thou ownest and carest for, even such as keep thy Testimonies, and think upon thy Commandmens to do them. That seeking suff any Kingdom, and the righteousness thereof, all these outward things may be added unto me, in such a measure as thy wisdom knows best for me. Grant this, O Lord, for Jesus Christ his sake.

For Thank fulness.

O Most Gracious and bountiful Lord, who fillest all things living with good, and expectest no other tentre, but Praise and Thanksgiving; let me. O Lord, never defraud thee of that so easie a Tribute, but let my heart be ever filled with the sense, and my Mouth with the acknowledgment of thy Mercies. It is a joyful and pleasant thing to be thankful; O suffer me not, I beseeth thee, to loose my part in that Divine pleasure; but grant that as I daily receive blessings from thee, so I may daily from an affectionate and devout Heart, offer up thanks to thee; and grant that not only my Lips, but my Life may shew forth thy praise, by consecrating my self to thy Service, and walking in Holiness and Righteousness before thee all the days of my Life through selves Christ my Lord and blessed Saviour.

For Contrition.

O Holy Lord, who are a merciful embracer of true penieents, bur yet a confuming Fire toward obstinate finners; how shall I approach thee, who have so many provoking fins to inflame thy wrath, and so little sincere Repentance to incline thy Mercy! O, be thou pleased to soften and melt this hard obdurate Heart of mine, that I may heartily bewail the Iniquities of my Life, strike this Rock, O Lord, that the Waters may sow out, even Floods of Tears to wash my polluted Conscience. My drowzy Soul hath too long stept securely in sin; Lord, awake it, though it be with thunder, and let me rather seel thy terrours than not feel my fin. Thou fentest thy blessed Son to heat the brokenhearted; but, Lord, what will that avail me, if my feat be whole? O break it, that it may be espable of this healing Vertue: And grant, I beseech thee, that having once tasted the bitterness of fin, I may sty from it is from the face of a Serpent, and bring forth fruits of Repentance in amendment of life, to the praise and glory of thy Grace in Jesus Christ our blessed Redeemer.

For Meekness.

Bleffed Jefu, who waft led as a freep to the Slaughter, let, I befeech thee, that admirable example of Meckness quench in me all sparks of anger and revenge, and work in me such a gentleness and calmness of Spirit, as no provocations may ever be able to disturb. Lord grant I may be so far from offering the least injury, that I may never return the greatest, any otherwise than with Prayers and Kindness: That I who have so many Talents to be forgiven by thee, may never expect pence of my Brethren; but that putting on bowels of mercy, meckness, long-suffering, thy peace may rule in my Heart, and make it an acceptable habitation to thee, who are the Prince of Peace, to whom with the Father and holy Spirit be all honour and glory for ever.

For Chastity.

O Holy and immaculate Jesus, whose first descent was into the Virgins Womb, and who dost fill love to inhabit only in pure and Virgin Hearts, I beseeth thee send thy Spirit of purity to cleanse me from all sikhiness both of slesh and spirit, my Body. O Lord, is the Temple of the Holy Ghost, O let me never pollute that Temple with any uncleanness. And because out of the Heart proceed the things that desile the Most, Lord, grant me to keep my Heart with alludingence, that no impure or foul thoughts be harboured there, but enable me, I beseech thee, to keep both Body and Soul pure and undefiled, that fo I may glorifie here both in Body and Spirit, and be glorified in both with thee hereafter.

For Temperance.

O Gracious Lord, who haft in thy bounty to Manland, offered to us the use of thy good creatures for our corporal refreshment: grant that I may always use this liberry with chankfulness and moderation. O let me never be so enslaved to that brotish plessure of softe, that my table become a snare to me, burgine me I beseech thee, a perfect abhorrence of all degrees of excess, and let me ear and drink only for those endaand according to those measures which then hast assigned me for health, and not for luxury. And Lord grant that my pursuits may be not after the mean that persisets, but after that which endureth to everlasting life, that hungring and thirsting after righteousness, I may be filled with thy grace here, and thy glory hereafter, through Jesus Christ.

For Contentedness.

O Merciful God, thy wisdom is infinite to chuse, and thy love forward to dispense good things to us, O let me always fully and entirely resign my self to thy disposals, have no desires of my own, but a perfect fatisfaction in thy choices for me; that so, in whatsoever Fittate I am, I may be therein content. Lord, grant I may never look with murmuring on my own tondition: nor with envy on other Mens. And to that end, I besech thee, purge my Heart of all coverous affections. O let me never yield up any corner of my Soul to Mammon; but give me such a contempt of these fading riches, that whether they increase or decrease, I may never set my Heart upon them; but that all my care may be to be rich towards God, to lay up my treasure in Heaven; that I may so set my affections on things above, that when Christ, who is my life, shall appear, I may also appear with him in Glory. Grant this, O Lord, for the merits of the fame Jesus Christ.

For Diligence,

Lord who haft in thy Wildom ordained that Man should be Born to Labour, fuffer me nor to refife that defign of thine, by giving my felf up to Sloth and Idleness; but grant I may so employ my time, and all other Talents thou haft instructed me with that I may fall under the fenrence of the Slothful and wicked Lord, if it be thy Will, make me some way feful to others, that I may not live an unprofitable er of Mankind, but however, Q Lord, let me not sewelefa to my felf, but grant I may give all diligence to make my calling and election fure. My Soul is beet with many and vigilant Adversaries; O let me not fold my hands to Sleep in the midft of fo great dangers. but watch and pray, that I enter not into temptation, enduring hardness as a good Soldier of fesus Christ. till at the laft, from this state of Warfare, thou translate me to the stare of triumph and bliss in thy King! dom, through Jefus Chrift.

For Juftice.

Thou King of Righteousness, who hast commanded us to keep judgment and do Justice, be pleased by the Grace to cleanse my Heart and Hands from all fraud and injustice, and give me a perfect integrity and upughtness in all my dealings. O make me ever abhor to use my power to oppress, or my skill to deceive my Brother; and grant I may most strictly observe that sacred rule, of doing as I would be done to; that I may not dishonour my Christian profession by an unjust and fraudulent Life, but in simplicity and godly fincerity have my conversation in the World; never seeking to heap up treasures in this Life; but preferring a little with righteousness before great revenues without right.

right. Lord make me exactly careful to render to every Man what by any fort of obligation becomes his due, that I may never break the bond of any of those relations that thou hast placed me in; but may so behave my self towards all, that none may have any evil thing to say of me; that so, if it be possible, I may have peace with all Men; or however, I may, by keeping innocency, and taking heed to the thing that is right, have peace at the last, even peace with thee, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

For Charity.

Merciful Lord, who haft made of one Blood, and redeemed by one ranfom, all Nations of Men, let me never harden my Bowels against any that partake of the same nature and redemption with me, but grant me an universal Charity rowards all Men. Give me. O a Father of compassions, such a tenderness and meltingness of Heart, that I may be deeply, affected with all the miferies and calamities, ourward and inward, of my Brethren, and diligently employ all my abilities for their fuccour and relief. O let not an unchriftian felflove poffes my Heart, but drive out that accurfed fpitit, and let thy spirit of love enter and dwell there and make me feek, not to please my self, but my Neighbour for his good Edification, even as Christ pleased not himself. Lord make me a faithful Steward of all those Talents thou hast committed to me for the benefit of others, that so when thou shalt call me to give an account of my Stewardship, I may do it with joy, and not with grief. Grant this, merciful Lord, I befeech thee, for Jefus Chrift his fake.

For Perseverance.

O Bremal and unchangeable Lord God, who are the fame yesterday, and to day, and for ever; be thou pleased to communicate some small ray of that tradience, some degree of that stability to me thy wretched wretched creature, who am light and unconfiant, turned about with every blaft, my understanding is very deceivable, O establish it in thy truth, keep it from the finares of feducing Spirits, that I may not be led away with the error of the wicked and fall from my own ftedfaftness: My Will alfo, O Lord, is irresolute and wavering, and doth not cleave ftedfaftly union God; my goodness is but as the Morning Cloud, and as the early dew it paffeth away. O ftrengthen and confirm me, and whatever good work thou halt wrought in me, be pleased to accomplish and perform it until the knowest the number and strength of those temptations I have to ftruggle with, O leave me not to my felf, but lover thou my Head in the day of Battel, and in all for ritual combats make me more than Conquerour through him that loved me. O let no terrors or flatteries, either of the World or my own Flesh ever draw me from my Obedience to thee but grant that I may continue fledfaft, unmovable, always abounding in the Work of the Lord, and by patient continuing in well-doing, feek, and at left obtain Glory, and Honour, and Immortality and Eternal Life, through Jefus Christ our Lord. the Article to the Artist Sant Assessment their

Le Palemane.

were posted any Heavy Body and a government of the

in and he new children there exist and the first order of the first order of the first order of the first order order order order to the first order o

The fact of the Sank of the sank of the Signatural and machine and a matter who are the common relations of the control o

A Brief Pataphrase of the LORD'S PRAYER,

To be used as a Prayer.

Our Father which art in Heaven.I

Lord, who dwelleft in the highest Heaven, those art the Author of our Being, thou hast also begoes the usagain unro a lively hope, and carriest towards us the tenderness and bowels of a compassionate Famer. O make us to render to thee the love and obedience of Children; and that we may resemble thee, our Father in Heaven, (that place of true delight and purity) give is a Holy disdain of all the deceitful pleasures and foul pollutions of this World; and so raise up our minds, that we may always have our conversation in Heaven, from whence we look for our Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Hallewood be thy Name.

Strike fuch an awe in our Hearts, that we may himbly reverence thee in The Name, which is great; wonderful and holy; and carry fuch a facred respect to all things that relate to thee and thy Worfhip; as may express our reverence to thy great Majeth: Let all the People praise thee; O God, let all the People praise

[2. Thy Ringdom come.]

Stablish thy Throne, and rule for ever in our Souls, and by the power of thy Grace subdue all those rebellious corruptions that exalt themselves against thee items are those Enemies of thine which would not thouse thouldest reign over them, O let them be brought forth and Slain before thee; and make us such faithful Subjects of this thy Kingdom of Grace, that we may be capable of the Kingdom of Glory, and then Lord Jesus come quickly.

13. Thy Will be done in Earth, &cal

Enable us by thy Grace chearfully to fuffer Thy Will in all thy afflictions, and readily perform it in all thy Commands: Give us of that Heavenly Zeal to thy Service, wherewith the bleffed Angels of thy prefence are infpired, that we may obey thee with the like fervour and Alacriry, and that following them in their obedience, we may be joyned with them to fing erroal praifes in thy Kingdom, to God, and so the Lamb for ever.

[4. Give us this day our, &c.]

Ive us that continual supply of thy Grace, which may sustain and nourish our Souls onto Eternal Life. And be thou pleased also to provide for our Bedies all those things which thou seeft fit for their support, through this our earthly Pilgrimage; and make us chearfully to rest on thee for them, first seeking thy Kingdom and the Righteousness thereof, and then not doubting but all these things shall be added unto us.

[5. Forgive us our Trespasses, &c.]

Heal our Souls, O Lord, for we have finned against thee, let thy tender Mercies abound towards us, in the Forgiveness of all our Offeness: And grant, O Lord, that we may never forfeit this pardon of thine, by denying ours to our Brethren, but give us those Bowels of Compassion to others which we stand in so much greater need of from thee, that we may forgive as fully and finally upon Christ's Command, as we define to be forgiven, for his Meries and Intercession.

A Paraphrafe of the Lord's Prajer. 301

[6. Lead us not into Temptation; &c.]

O Lerd, we have no strength against those multitudes of Temptations that daily affault us, only our Eyes are upon thee; O; be thou pleased either to restrain them, or affist us, and in thy faithfulness suffer us not to be Temptad above that we are able; but in all our Temptations make us a way to escape, that we be not overcome by them, but may, when thou shalt call us to it, result even unto Blood, striving against sin; that we being faithful unto Death, thou maist give us the Crown of Life.

[For thine is the Kingdom.]

Hear us, and graciously answer our petitions; for chom are the good King over all the Earth, whose Power is infinite, and are able to do for us above all that we can ask or think, and to whom belongeth the Glery of all that good thou workest in us for us. Therefore Blessing, Honour, Glory and Power be unto him that since hupon the Throne, to our God for ever, and ever. Amen,

All the real place of God, and that a side of the standard of

1 1 111

Total O State of Refer to the of

Pious EJACULATIONS

taken out of the Book of

PSALMS.

For Parden of Sin.

Ave Mercy on me, O God, after thy great goodness, according to the multitude of thy Mercies do away mine offences.

Wash me throughly from my wickedness, and cleanse me from my fin.

Turn thy Face from my fine, and pur our all my mif-

My misseeds prevail against me, O be thou merciful unto my fins.

Enter not into Judgment with thy Servant, for in thy fight shall no Man living be justified.

For thy Names fake, O Lord, be merciful unto my fin for it is great.

Turn thee, O Lord, and deliver my Soul. O fave me for thy mercies fake.

For Grace.

Each me to do the thing that pleaseth thee, for thou art my God.

Teach me thy way, O Lord, and I will walk in thy truth, O knir my Heart to thee, that I may fear thy Name.

Make me a clean Heart, O God, and renew-a right Spirit within me.

O let my Heart be found in thy Statutes, that I be not assumed.

Incline my Heart unto thy Testimonies, and not to

THE

Tun away mine Eyes leaft they behold Vanity, and

I am a stranger upon Earth, O hide not thy Commandments from me.

Lord, teach me to number my days, that I may apply my Heart unto Wildom.

For the Light of God's Countenance,

L ORD, why abhorrest thou my Soul, and hidest thy Face from me? O hide not thou thy Face from me, nor cast thy Servant away in displessive.

Thy loving kindness is better than Life it felf.

Lord, life thou up the light of thy Countenance up-

Comfort the Soul of thy Servant; for unto thee, O Lord, do I life up my Soul.

Thanksgiving.

I will always give thanks unto the Lord, his praise thall ever be in my Mouth.

Thou art my God, and I will thank thee; thou art

my God, and I will praise thee.

I will fing unto the Lord as long as I live, I will praise my God whillt I have my being.

Praised be God, which hath not cast our my prayer,

nor turned his mercy from me.

Bleffed be the Lord God, even the God of Ifrael, which only doth wondrous things.

And bleffed by the Name of his Majesty for ever, and all the Earth shall be filled with his Majesty. Amen,

For Deliverance from Trouble.

Be merciful unto me, O Lord, be merciful unto me, for my Soul trusteth in thee, and under the shadow of thy wings shall be my refuge, until these calamities be overpass.

Deliver me, O Lord, from mine Enemies, for I fice unto thee to hide me.

O keep

O keep my Soul, and deliver me, let me not be confounded, for I have put my trust in thee.

Mine eyes are eyer looking unto the Lord: For he shall pluck my Feet out of the Net.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: For I am defolate and in mifery.

The forrows of my Heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my Troubles.

For the Church.

O Be favourable and gracious unto Sion build thou the Walls of Farufalem.

O God, wherefore are thou absent from us so long? Why is thy wrath so hot against the Sheep of thy Pasture?

O think upon thy Congregation whom thou half pu-chased and redeemed of old.

Look upon the Tribe of thine Inheritance, and Mount Sion where thou haft dwelt.

It is time for thee, Lord, to lay to thy hand, for the have deftroyed thy Law.

out it can

Arife, O God, and maintain thine own cause: Deliver Israel, O God out of all his troubles,

Trained the Cool with him or with the order of the configuration of the (all program and said of the said of the said of the said of terior is services (1900) de services. Name applica anticipat de mais (1900) par den en adolecti que a anticipat de mais en esta mais desa 10 de la compa

STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

PRINCE PROPERTY OF PRINCE AND

burshed or build

before the Sacrament, Collected out of the Foregoing Treatife, concerning the Breaches of our Duty.

To GOD.

FAITH.

Not believing there is a God.

Not believing his Word.

Not believing it practically, so as to live according to our belief.

HOPE

Desparing of God's Mercy, so as to neglect Duty.

Presuming groundlesty on it, whilst we go on in wilful

LOVE.

NOt loving God for his own Excellencies.

Also loving him for his Goodness to us.

Not labouring to please him.

Not desiring to draw near to him in his Ordinances.

Not longing to chipy him in Heaven.

FEAR.

NOt fearing God, So as to keep from offending him.
Rearing Man above him by committing fin, to Shun Some outpard suffering.

gos PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

TRUST,

Not trusting on God in dangers and distrassing on God in dangers and distrassing.

Not depending on God for supply of our Wants.

Immederate care for ourward things.

Negletting to labour, and expetting God should support us in our idlenels.

Not tooking up to God for a Bleffing on our honest endeavours. H. U. M. L. L. T. Y.

Not having a high efterm of God.

Not submitting obediently to all his Will.

Not patiently suffering it, but nourmoring at his curredions.

Not amending by them. Not being thank ful to him.

Not acknowledging his Wildom in chasing for us, but having eager and impatient defires of our own.

HONOUR.

NOt bonouring God by a reverent sofage of the thing that re-

Behaving our felves irreverently in his House.

Robbing God, by taking things that are Confecrated to him.
Profaning Holy Times, the Lord's Day, and the Feafis and Fasts of the Church.

Noglesting to read the Holy Scriptures, not marking when we do Read.

Being careless to get knowledge of our duty, chasing rather to continue ignorant, than put our selves to the paint or charge of Learning.

Placing Religion in hearing of Sermons, without Practice. Breaking our Voyo made at Baptism.

By reforting to Wisches and Conjurers; i.e, to the Devil.

By loving the Pomps and Vanities of the World, and following its finful Customs.

n fulfilling the Lufts of the Fla

Infaming the Lord's Supper.

ulug to it ignorantly, without Examination, Contrition, our selves irreverently at it, without Devotins and Spiritual Affection.

trefacing God's Name, by blasphemous thoughts, or dif-

Giving others occasion to blaspheme him by our vile and with ed Lives

Taking unlawful OATHS.

Swearing in ordinary Communication.

WORSHIP.

Not Worshipping God. Omitting Prayers, Publick or Private, and being glad of a pretence to do fo. Asking unlawful things; or to unlawful ends. Not purifying our Hearts from fin before von pray. Not praying with Faith and Humility. Clanels and deaderefs in Proper. Wandring thoughts in it.

REPENTANCE

treverent goftwees of Body in Prayer.

Negleding the duty of Repentance.
Not calling our felves to daily account for our fins. offigning any fet or folemn times for Humiliation, and Confossion, or too feldom.

the deeply considering our fins, to beget contrition.

No acting recenge upon our selves, by Fasting, and other acts of Mortification.

IDOLATRY.

Outward Idolatry in worshipping of Creatures. Inward Idolatry, in placing our love and other affections more on Creatures, than the Creator.

To our SELVES.

BUMILITY.

Being puffed up with high conceits of our felves.
In respect of Natural parts, as Beauty, Wit, &c.
Of Worldly riches and honours.
Of Grace.
Greedily seeking the praise of Men.
Directing Christian Astrons, as Prayer, Alms, &c. to that Committing fins to avoid Reproach from wicked Men.

MEEKNESS.

D'Isturbing our Minds with Anger and Pecvillines.

CONSIDERATION

Not carefully examining what our effate towards God

God's Commands.

ST

Not weighing the Lawfulness of our Actions before we centure on them.

Not examining our past Attions, to repeat of the ill, to give CONTENTEDNESS.

Uncontentedness in our Estates.
Greedy desire after Honour and Richel.
Seeking to gain them by suiful means.
Envying the condition of other Men.

DILIGENCE, WATCHFULNESS.

Being Negligent in observing and resisting Temptations.

Not improving God's gifts, outward or inward, to his Hoe

Abusing our natural parts, as Wit, Memory, &c. to sin.
Aegleting or resisting the motions of God's Spirit.

CHASTITY.

UNcleanness, Adultery, Fornication, Unnatural Lufts, Uncleanness of the Fye and Hand, Filthy and obscene Talking, Impure Fancies and Defires.

Meightning of lust by pampering the Body.

Not labouring to Subdue it by fasting or other Severities.

TEMPERANCE.

Esting too much.

Making pleasure, not health, the end of Eating.

Being too curious, or costly in Meats.

Drunkenness.

Drinking more than is useful to our Bodies, though not to Drunkenness.

Wasting the Time or Estate in good Fellowship.

Abusing our strength of Brain to the making others Drunk.

Immoderate Sleeping.

Idleness and negligence in our Callings.

Ving unlawful Recreations.

Being too vehement upon Lawful ones.

Spending too much time at them.

Being drawn by them to Anger or Countonfness,

Being proud of Apparel.

Striving to go beyond our rank.

Bestowing too much time, care or cost about it.

Abstaining from Such excesses, not out of Conscience, but Convetendiels.

Pinching our Rodies to fill our Purfes.

To our NEIGHBOUR.

NEGATIVE JUSTICE.

B Eing Injurious to our Neighbour,

Delighting caussessy to grieve his Mind.

Ensuring his soul in sin, by Command, Councel, Envicement or Example.

Affrighting him from godlines by our scoffing at it.
Not seeking to bring those to repentance, whom we have led into sin.

MURDER

Murder open or secret.

Drawing Men so Intemperance or other vices, which may bring Diseases or Death.

Stirring Men up to quarrelling and fighting.

Maiming or hurting the Body of our Neighbour.

ADULTERY.

Couring our Neighbour's Wife.

Fiereeness and rage against him.

MALICE

SPoiling the Goods of others upon Spight and malice.

COVETOUSNESS.

Covering to gain them to our Selves.

OPPRESSION.

OPpre Jion by violence and force, or colour of Law-

THEFT.

Not paying what we berrow.

Not paying what we have voluntarily promised.

Keeping back the Wages of the Servant and Hireling.

DECEIT.

Unfaithfulness in Trusts, whether to the Living of Dead.

Using Arts of Deceit in Buying and Selling.

Exacting upon the Necessities of our Neighbours.

FALSE WITNESS.

B Lasting the Credit of our Neighbour.

By False Witness.

By Railing.

By Whispering.

Incouraging others in their Standers.

Being forward to believe all Ill reports of our Neighbour.

Cansels safficient.

Rash Judying of him.

Despising him for his Instructies.

Inviting others to do so, by scoffing and deriding him.

Bearing any Malice in the heart.

Secret wishing of Death or hurt to our Neighbour.

Rejoycing when any Evil be als him.

Negleting to make what satisfaction we can, for any sort of Injury done to our Neighbour.

POSITIVE JUSTICE, HUMILITY,

CHurlish and proud Betaviour to others. Froward and Peevil Conversation, Bitter and Reproachful Language. Cursing:

Not paying the respect due to the qualities or gifts of others. Proudly overlooking them.

Seeking to leffen others efteem of them.

Not employing our Abilities, whether of Mind or Estate, in ad-

GRATITUDE

Unthank fulness to our Benefactors. Especially those that Admonish us.

Not amending upon the Reproof,

Being angry at them for it.

Not Reverencing our Civil Parent, the lawful Magi-

Judging and speaking ill of him.

Grudging his just Tributes.

Sorving Sedition among People.

Refusing to obey his Lawful Commands.

Rifing up against him, or taking part with them that Despising our Spiritual Fathers.

Not loving them for their works Sake.

Not obeying those Commands of God they deliver to us. Seeking to withhold from them their Just Maintenance.

For faking our Lawful Paftors to follow Factions Teachers, PARENTS.

STubborn and irreverent behaviour to our Natural Pa-

Despiting and publishing their Infirmities.

Not loving them, nor endeavouring to bring them com-

Contemning their Counfels.

Murmuring at their Government.

Coveting their Eflates, though by their death.

Not Ministring to them in their wants of all forts.

Negletting to Pray for God's Bleffing on the several forts of Parents.

Want of Natural Affection to Children.

Mothers refusing to Nurse them without a Just Impedi-

Not bring them timely to Battism.

Not early Intrusting them in the ways of God.

Suffering

Suffering them, for want of timely Correction, to get Cu-

Setting them evil Examples.

Discouraging them by harsh and cruel usage.

Not providing for their subsistence according to our abi-

Consuming their Portions in our own riot.

Referving all till our Death, and letting them want in the mean time.

Not feeking to Entail a Bleffing on them by our Christian lives.

Not heartily Praying for them,

Want of Affection to our Natural Brethren. Envyings and heart-burnings towards them.

DUTY to BRETHREN.

Not Loving our Spiritual Brethren, i. e. our Fellow-Chris

Having no fellow-feeling of their Sufferings.

Causely for saking their Communion in holy Duties.

Not taking deeply to heart the Desolation of the Church.

MARRIAGE.

Marrying within the Degrees forbidden.

Marrying for undue ends, as Covetousness, Lust, &c.
Unkind froward and unquiet behaviour towards the Husband or Wife.

Unfaithfulness to the Bed.

Not bearing with the Infirmities of each other.

Not endeavouring to advance one anothers good, Spiritual of Temporal.

The Wife resisting the Lawful Commands of her Husband. Her striving for Rule and Dominion over him. Not Praying for each other.

FRIENDSHIP.

Unfaithfulness to a Friend. Betraying his Secrets,

Denying him affiftance in inis Needs.

Negletting lovingly to Admonift him, Flattering him in his Faults. Forfaking his Freendship upon slight or no cause. Making Leagues in fin instead of Vertuous Frindship.

SERVANTS.

Servents difforeging the lawful Commands of their Ma Aers. Parloyning their Goods. Carelesty wasting them. Murmuring at their Rebukes. Idlenefs.

MASTERS

Afters using Servants Tyrannically and Cruelty. Being too Remifs, and Suffering them to neglect their Duty. Having no care of their Souls.

Eye Service.

Not providing them Means of Infruction in Religion, Not admonishing them when they commit fins, Not allowing them time and opportunity for Prayer, and the Worship of God.

CHARITY.

WAnt of Bowels and Charity to our Neighbours, Not heartily defiring their good, Spiritual or Temp ral

Not loving and forgiving Enemies.

Taking actual Revenges upon them.

· Fa feness, professing Kindness and acting none.

No labouring to do all the good we can to the Soul of cat Neighbour.

No: affifting him to our power in his Bodily Diftreffes.

No defending his Good Name, when we know him flan-

Daying him any Neighbourly Office to preserve or advant bis Eftate.

As defending him from Oppression, when we have power.

A

Not relieving him in his Poverty.

Not giving liberally or chearfully.

GOING TO LAW.

Not loving PEACE.

Going to Law upon flight occasions,
Bearing inward enmity to those we sue.

Not labouring to make Peace among others,

The nse of this Catalogue of Sine is this: Upon days of Humiliation, especially before the Sacrament, Read the employing your; and at every particular, ask thine one heart. Am I guilty of this? And whatsoever, by such Examination, thou findest thy self faulty in, confess particularly, and humbly to God, with all the heightning circumstances, which may any way increase their guilts, and make serious Resolutions against every such sin for the future: After which thou mayest use this Form following:

O Lord , I am shamed, and bluth to life up my Face to thee, for my Iniquiries are increased over my head, and my Trefpass is grown up even unto Heaven. I have wrought all these Great Provocations, and that in the most provoking manner; they have nor been only fingle, but repeated acts of fin: for, O Lord, of all this black Catalogue which I have now brought forth before thee, how few there are which I have not often committed? nay, which are not become even nabitual and customary to me? And to this frequency I have added both a greediness and obstinacy in finning; turning into my course as the Horse rutherh into the Bartel, doing evil with both hands, earneftly; yea, hating to be reformed, and casting thy words behind me, quenching thy foiris within me, which teltifieth against me, to turn me from my evil ways; and frustrating all those outward means, whether of Judgment or Mercy, which, thou haft used to draw me to thy self. Nay, O Lord, even my Repentances may be numbred amongst my greatest fins: they have fometimes been feigned and hypocritical hypocritical, always fo flight and ineffectual, that they have brought forth no fruit in amendment of Life, but I have still returned with the Dog to the Vomit, and the Sow to the Mire again, and have added the breach of Refolutions and Vows to all my former Guiles. Thus, O Lord, I am become our of Measure finful; and fince I have thus chosen Death, I am most worthy to take part in it, even in the second Death, the Lake of Fire and Brimstone. This, this, O Lord, is in Justice to be the portion of my cup; to me belongs nothing but hame and confusion of face evernally: But to thee, O Lord God, belongeth Mercy and Forgiveness. though I have rebelled against thee: O remember not my fins and offences, but according to thy Mercy think thou upon me, O Lord, for thy goodness. Thou sentest thy Son to feek and to fave that which was loft; behold, O Lord, I have gone aftray like a sheep that is loft: O feek thy fervant, and bring me back to the shepherd and bishop of my Soul. Let thy Spirit work in me a hearty fence and deteftation of all my abominations, that true contrition of heart, which thou haft promifed not to despise. And then be thou pleased to look on me, to take away all iniquity, and receive me gracioully; and for his take who hath done nothing amils, be reconciled to me, who have done nothing well, wash away the guilt of my fins in his blood, and subdue the power of them by his Grace; and grant, O Lord, that I may from this hour bid a final adieu to all ungodlines and Worldly Luft, that I may never once more cast a look towards Sodom, or long after the Flesh-pots of Eeypt; but confecrate my felf entirely to thee, to serve thee in Righteoufness and true Holiness, reckoning my felf to be dead indeed unto fin, but alive unto God, through Jefus Christ our Lord, and bleffed Saviour.

This Penitential PSALM May also Fitly be used.

PSALM ST.

HAVE Mercy upon me, O God, after the great goodness, according to the multitude of the Mercies do away mine offences.

Wash me throughly from my wickedness, and cleanse me from my fin.

pole to built to have

For I acknowledge my faults, and my fin is ever before

Against thee enery have I sinned, and done this evil in thy light, that thou mightest be justified in thy saying, and clear when thou are judged.

Behold I was shapen in wickednoss, and in fin hath my Mother concerved me.

But to, then requireft truth in the inward parts, and shall make me to understand wisdom secretly.

Then shalt purge me with Hysop, and I shall be clean, thou shalt wash me, and I shall be whiter than Snow,

Then shalt make me hear of joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoyce.

Turn thy face from my fins, and put out all my mif-

Make me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right Spirit

Cast me not away from thy presence, and take not thy holy

O give me the comfort of thy belp again, and stablish me

With thy free Spirit.

Then shall I seach thy ways unto the wicked, and simmers shall be converted unto thee.

Deliver me from Blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that are the Ged of my health, and my Tongue shall sing of thy Righteo frest.

Thou shale open my lips, O Lord, and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Bet then defireft not Sacrifice, elfe would I give it then? or state delightest not in Burnt-offering.

The Sacrifice of God is a troubled Spirit 3 a broken and a otrine beart, O God, final thou not despise.

O be favourable and gracious unto Sion, Build thou the Walls of Jerufalem.

Then (halt thou be pleased with the Sacrifices of righteous-(i, with the Burnt-offerings and Oblations; then shall they er young Bullocks when thine Altar.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghoft.

As it was in the Beginning, is now and ever thall be. World without end

Market Contains the State of th the graph of a land or one we properly the last of the the dark of the days of the later of the lat of the property of the street of the street and the second second second second and the second second second second second the site of the second second second second second

the state of the s

Protest and an artist of the land of the same that the 1

the property of the second We had been some but the state of the state

PRAYERS

Before the Receiving of the BLESSED

SACRAMENT.

Most Merciful God, who hast in thy great goodness prepared this Spiritual Featt for fick and familied Souls, make my defires and gafoing afer it answerable to my needs of it. I have with the Prodigal wafted that portion of Grace thou bestoweds upon me and therefore do infinitely want a fupply out of this treasury : But, O Lord, How shall such a wreach as I, dare to approach this Holy Table? I am a Dog. How shall I presume to take the Childrens Bread? O How shall this Spiritual Manna, this Food of Angels, b given to one who hath chosen to feed on husks with Swine? Nay, to one who hath already fo often tramp led these precious things under foot, either careless neglecting, or unworthily receiving those holy Mythories? O Lord, my horrible guiltines makes me tres ble to come, and yet makes me not dare to keep way , for where, O Lord, shall my pollured Soul washed, if not in this fountain which thou hast opened for fin and for uncleannes; Hither therefore 1 come, and thou haft promifed, that him that cometh to thee, thou wilt in no wife cast out : This is, O Lord, the Blood of the New Testament; grant me so to receive it, that it may be to me for Remission of Sins; and though I have so often and so wretchedly broken my part of that Covenant, whereof this Sacrament is a Ses yet be thou graciously pleased to make good thine to be Merciful to my Unrighteonineis, and to remember my Sins and my Iniquities no more : and not only fo, but to put thy Laws into my heart, and to Write them in my Mind, and by the Power of thy Grace dispose n 10071 43.7 K 6

Soul to fuch a fincere and conftant obedience, that I may never again provoke thee. Lord, grant that in these holy Mysteries I may not onely commemorate, but effectually received my Bleffed Saviour, and all the benefits of his Paffion : and to that end give me fuch a preparation of Soul as may qualifie me for it a give me a deep sence of my fins and unworthiness, that being weary and heavy laden, I may be capable of his refresh ings; and by being suppled in my own tears, I may be the firter to be washed in his Blood; raise up my dull and earthly Mind from groveling here below, and inspire it with a holy zeal, that I may with spiritual affection approach this (piritual feaft; and let, O Lord, that Infinite Love of Christ in dying for so wreighed a finner, inflame my frozen benumb'd Soul, and kindle in me that facred fire of Love to him, and that fo vehement, that no warers may quench, no floods drown in fuch as may burn up all my drofs, not leave one unmortified luft in my Soul; and fuch as may also extend it felf to all whom thou haft given me command and example to love, even enemies as well as friends. Fimally. O Lord, I befeech thee to cloath me in the Wedding Garment; and make me, though of my felf a most unworthy, yet by thy Mercy, an acceptable Guest at this Holy Table , that I may not eat nor drink my own Condemnation, but may have my pardon fealed, my weakness repaired, my corruptions subdued, and my Soul so infeparably united to thee, that no Temptations may eer be able to diffolve the Union; but that being begun ere in Grace, it may be confummated in Glory. Grant this, O Lord, for thy dear Son's fake, Jefus Chrift, Another.

Bleffed Jefus, who once offer dft up thy felf for me upon the Crofs, and now offereft thy felf so me in the Sacrament; let, not, I befeech thee, my Impenitence and Unworthiness frustrate these so incitinable Mercies to me; but qualifie me by thy Grace to receive the full benefit of them. O Lord, I have abundant need of thee; but am so clogg d with Guilt, so holden with the cords of my sins, that I am not able to move towards thee. O look me from this band wherewith Saran and my own lufts have bound me, and draw me, that I may run after thee. O Lord, thou feeft daily how eagerly I purfue the paths that lead to death a but when show invireft me to Life in Glory, I turn my back, and forfake my own Mercy. How often hath this feaft been prepared, and I have with frivolous excuses abfented my felf? or if I have come, it hath been rather to defie than to adore thee . I have brought fuch troops of thy professed Enemies, unrepented Sins, along with me, as if I came not to commemorate, but renew thy Passion, Crucifying thee afresh, and putting thee to open shame. And now, of what punishment shall I be thought worthy, who have thus trampled under foor the Son of God, and accounted the blood of the Covenant an unholy thing ? Yet, O Merciful Jefu, this Blood is my only refuge : O let this make my Atonement, or I perish eternally. Wherefore didst thou fied it, but to fave finners? Neither can the merit of it be overwhelmed either by the greatness or number of fins. I am a finner, a great one, O let me find its: faving efficacy. Be Merciful unto me. O God, be merciful unto me, for my Soul trufteth in thee, and in the clefts of thy wounds shall be my refuge, until thy Father's indignation be over-paft. O thou who haft, as my High-Prieft, Sacrificed for me, Intercede for me alle, and plead thy Meritorious Sufferings on my behalf; and fuffer not, O my Redeemer, the price of thy blood to be utterly loft. And grant, O Lord, that as the fins I have to be forgiven are many, fo I may love much, Lord, thou feeft what faint, what cold affections I have towards thee; O warm and enliven them: and as in this Sacrament, that transcendent love of thine in Dying for me is shed forth, so I beseech thee let it convey such Grace into me, as may enable me to make some returns of love. O let this Divine fire defeend from Heaven into my Soul, and let my fins be the Burnt-offering for it to confume, that there may not any corrupt affection, any curfed thing be steltered in my heart, that II may never again deble that place, which thou haft chosen for thy Temple. Thou diedst O dear Jefu, to Redecin me from all Iniquity, O let me not again fell my felf to work wickedness. Bur grare that I may approach thee at this time with most fin and fixed Refolutions of an entire reformation, and let me receive such Grace and Strength from th may enable me faithfully to perform them. Lord, there are many old habituated Difeates my Soul grouns under. I Here mention thy most prevailing correspon And though I lie never fo long at the Pool of Bethefda, come never fo often to thy Table, yet unless thou he pleased to put forth thy healing virtue, they will fill remain uncured. O thou bleffed Physician of Souls heal me, and grant that I may now fo touch thee, that every one of these loathsome Issues may immediately flanch, that these ficknesses may not be unto death, but unto the glory of thy Mercy in pardoning, to the glory of thy Grace in purifying to polluted a Wretch. O Chrift hear me, and grant I may now approach thee with fuch Humility and Contrition, Love and Devotion, that thou mayest vouchfafe to come unto me, and abide with me, communicating to me thy felf, and all the Merits of thy Passion. And then, O Lord, let no Accusations of Satan, or my own Conscience amaze or diffract me , but having Peace with me, let me also have peace in my felf, that this Wine may make glad, this Bread of Life may strengthen my heart, and enable me chearfully to run the way of thy Commandments. Grant this, Merciful Saviour, for thine own Bowels and Compassions fake.

DOE

EJACULATIONS

To be used at the Lord's Supper.

ORD, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my Roof.

I have sinned, What shall I do unto thee, O thou Preserver of Men?

[Here Recollect some of thy greatest Sins.]

If thou, Lord, should'st be extream to mark what is done amis. O Lord, who may abide it?

But with the Lord there is Mercy, and with him is plenreous Redemption.

Behold, O Lord, thy Beloved Sop, in whom thou are well pleafed.

Hearken to the Cry of his Blood, which speaketh better things than that of Abel.

By his Agony and Bloody fweat, by his Crofs and Paffion, good Lord deliver me.

O Lamb of God which takeft away the fine of the World, grant me thy Peace.

O Lamb of God, which takeft away the fins of the World, have Mercy upon me.

Immediately before Receiving.

Thou hast said, that he that eateth thy flesh, and drinketh thy Blood, hath eternal life.

Behold the fervant of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy Word.

At the Receiving of the Bread.

BY thy Crucified Body deliver me from this Body of Death.

At the Receiving of the Cup.

O Let this Blood of thine purge my Confcience from dead works to ferve the Living God.

Lord, if thou wilt, thou canft make me clean.

O touch me, and fay, I will, be thou clean.

After Receiving.

What shall I render unto the Lord for all the benefits he hath done unto me?

I will take the Cup of Salvation, and call upon the Name of the Lord.

Worthy is the Lamb that was flain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and blory, and bleffing.

Therefore bleffing, honour, glory and power, be to him that fitteth upon the Throne, and to the Lamb for ever and ever. Amen.

I have fworn, and am stedfastly purposed to keep thy righteous Judgments.

O hold thou up my goings in thy paths, that my foot-

A

THANKSGIVING

After the Receiving of the

SACR AMENT.

O Thou Fountain of all goodness, from whom every good and perfect gift cometh, and to whom all hohour and glory should be returned, I defire with all the most fervent and inflamed affections of a grateful heart. to bless and praise thee for those inestimable Mercies thou haft youchfafed me. Lord, what is Man, that thou should'ft To regard him, as to fend thy Beloved Son to fuffer fuch bitter things for him? But, Lord, what am I, the worst of Men, that I should have any part in this Atonement, who have fo often defoifed him and his fufferings? Other heighth and depth of this Mercy of thine, that are pleased to admit me to the renewing of that Covenant with thee, which I have for often and for perverlely broken! that I, who am not worthy of that daily bread which fuftains the Body, should be made partaker of this bread of Life which nourisheth the Soul, and that the God of all purity should vouchfafe to unite himself to so pollured wretch! O my God, fuffer me no more, I befeech thee. to turn thy Grace into wantonness, to make thy Mercy an occasion of security, but let this unspeakable love of thine conftrain me to obedience, that fince my bleffed Lord, hath died for me, I may no longer live unto my felf, but to him: O Lord, I know there is no concord between Christ and Belial, therefore fince he hath now been pleased to enter my heart, Olet me never permit any lust to chase him thence; but let him that hath fo dearly bought me, still keep possession of me, and let nothing ever take me out of his hand. To this end be thou graciously pleased to watch over Ko

tis.

me, and defend me from all Affeults of my foirhal F. nemies: but especially deliver me from my self, from the treachery of my own heart, which is too willing to yield it felf a prey. And where thou feelf I am tier by Nature or Cuftom most weak, there do thou. befeech thee, magnific thy Power in my Prefervation, [Here mention thy most dangerous Temptations.] And. Lord, let my Saviour's Sufferings for my fine, and the Vows I have now made against them never depart from my mind, but let the remembrance of the one enable me to perform the other, that I may never make truce with those Luits which Nailed his Hands, pierced his Side, and made his Soul heavy to the Death : But that having now anew lifted my felf under this Banner, I may fight Manfully, and follow the Captain of my Salvation, even through a Sea of Blood. Lord, life up my hands that hang down, and my feeble knees, that I faint not in this Warfare. O be thou my ftrength, who am not able of my felf to ftruggle with the flightest Temptations. How often have I turned my back in the day of Battel? How many of these Sacremental Vowe have I violated? And, Lord, I have fill the same unconstant deceirful heart to betray me to the breach of chis. O thou who art yes and Amen, in whom there is no hadow of Change communicate to me, I befeech thee, fuch a stability of Mind, that I may no more thus Start afide like a broken Bow, but that having my heart whole with thee, I may continue stedfast in thy Covenent, that not one good purpose which thy spirit hath raifed in me this day may vanish, as so many have formerly done, but that they may bring forth fruit unte Life Eternal. Grant this, O Merciful Father, through the Merits and Mediation of my Crucified Saviour.

A Prayer of Intercession to be used either before or after the Receiving of the Sacrament.

Most Gracious Lord, who so tenderly lovedst Mankind, as to give thy dear Son out of thy Bosom to be a propiniation for the fins of the Whole World, grant that the effect of this Redentation may be as universal as the design of it, that it may be to the Salvation of

эIJ

IL O let no Person by Impenicence and wisful fin forfir his part in it, but by the power of thy Grace bring Il even the most obstinate sinners to repentance. En iohren all that fit in darkness; all Jews, Turks, Infidels and Hereticks , take from them all Blindness Hardness of Heart, and Contempt of thy Word; and to feach them home, Bleffed Lord, unto thy Fold, that very may be faved among the Number of the True Ifriclies. And for all those upon whom the Name of ery Son is called Grant, O Lord, that their Converfrions may be fuch as becometh the Golpel of Christa gur his Name be no longer blafphemed among the Heatiens through us. O Bleffed Lord, how long faall Christendom continue the vilest part of the World, a fink of all those Abominable Pollutions, which even Barbarians detelt? O let not our Profession and our Pradice be always at fo wide a diffrance. Let not the Difciples of the Holy and Immaculate Jesus be of all others the most Prophane and Impure. Let not the Subjects of the Prince of Peace be of all others the most Contentious and Bloody , but make us Christians in Deed an well as in Name, that we may walk worthy of that holy Vocation wherewith we are called, and may all with one Mind and one Mouth Glorifie thee the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Have Mercy on this languishing Church, look down from Heaven the Habit tion of thy Holines and of thy Glory. Where is thy zeal and thy ftrength, the founding of thy Bowels and of the Mercies towards us? Are they restrained? Be not wroth very fore, O Lord, neither remember Iniquity for ever but though our Back-ficlings are many, and we have grievously rebelled, yet according to all thy goodness, let thy Anger and thy Fury be turned away, and cause thy Face to shine upon thy Sanctuary which is desolate for the Lord's lake; and fo separate between us and our fins, that they may no longer leparate between us and our God. Save and defend all Christian Kings, Princes and Governours, especially those to whom we owe Subjection: plead thou their cause, O Lord, against those that strive with them, and fight thou against those that fight against them: and so guide and affist them in the discharge of that Office whereunto thou half appointed K 10

nointed them, that under them we may lead a quiet and neaceable life in all godliness and honesty. Bless them that walt at thine Altar, open thou their Lips that their Mouth may shew forth thy Praise. O Let not the Lights of the World be put under Bushels, but place them in their Candlefficks, shar they may give Light to all that are in the House. Let not Jeroboam's Priests Prophane fore thee. And O thou Father of Mercies, and God of all comfort. fuccour and relieve all that are in affliction deliver the our-cast and poor, help them to right that fuffer wrong, let the forrowful fighing of the Prisoners come before thee, and according to the greatness of thy power, preserve thou those that are appointed to Die: Grant eafe to those that are in pain, supplies to those that fuffer want, give to all prefumptuous finners a fense of their fins, and to all despairing, a fight of thy Mercies and do thou, O Lord, for every one abundantly above what they can ask or think. Forgive my Enemies, Per-fecutors and Slanderers, and turn their Hearts. Pour down thy Bleffings on all my Friends and Benefactors, all who have commended themselves to my Prayers. [Here thou mayest name particular Persons.] And grant, O merciful Father that through this Blood of the Croft we may all be presented pure and unblameable, and timeproveable in thy fight; and fo we may be admitted into that place of Purity, where no unclean thing can enter. there to fing Eternal Praises to Father, Son and Holy Ghoft for ever.

A Prayer in times of common Persecution,

O Bleffed Saviotir, who halt made the Cross the Badge of thy Disciples, enable me, I beseech thee, willingly and chearfully to embrace it: thou seeft, O Lord, I am fallen into days, wherein he that departeth from evil maketh himself a Prey, O make me so readily to expose all my outward concernments, whence my Obedience to thee requireth it, that what falls as a Prey to Men, may by thee be accepted as a Sacrifice to God. Lord, preserve me so by thy Grace; that I never suffer as an evil doer; and then, O Lord, if it be my lot to fuffer 20 a Christian, let me not be ashamed, but rejoyce that I am counted worthy to fuffer for thy Name. O thou who for my fake enduredft the Crofs, and defpifedft the shame, let the example of that Love and Parience prevail against all the tremblings of my Corrupt Heart, that no terrors may ever be able to shake my constanev. but that how long foever thou shalt permit the Rod of the Wicked to lie on my Back, I may never put my Hand unto Wickedness. Lord, thou knowest whereof I am made, thou remembreft that I am but Flesh , and Fleft, O Lord, thrinks at the approach of any thing grievous. It is the Spirit, thy Spirit alone, that can uphold me : O eftablish me with thy fee Spirit, that I be not weary and faint in my Mind. And by how much the greater thou discernest my Weakness. so much the more do thou flew forth thy Power in me; and make me, O Lord, in all Temprations, stedfastly to look to thee, the Author and Finisher of my Faith, that fo I may run the Race which is fet before me, and relift even unto Blood, striving against fin. O dear Jesus, hear me; and though Saran defire to have me. t 132 he may Winnow me as Wheat, ver do thou, O bleffed Mediator, Pray for me that my Faith fail not, but that though it be tried with Fire, it may be found unto Praise and Glory, and Honour at thy appearing. And O Lord, I befeech thee, grant that I may preferve not only Constancy towards God, but Charity also towards Men, even those whom thou shalt permit to be the inftruments of my sufferings: Lord, let me not full to imitate that admirable Meekness of thine, in loving and praying for my greatest Persecutors: And do thou, O Lord, overcome all their evil with thy infinite Goodness, turn their Hearts, and draw them powerfully to thy felf, and at last receive both me and mine Enemies into those Mansions of Peace and rest where thou reignest with the Father, and the Holy Ghost one God for ever.

A Prayer in time of Affliction.

JUST and Holy Lord, who with rebukes doft chiften Man for Sin. I defire unfeignedly to humble my felf under thy mighty hand, which now lies heavy upon me I heartily acknowledge, O Lord, that all I do, all I can fuffer is but the due reward of my Derds. and therefore in thy fevereft inflictions I must still fav. Righteons are thou, O Lord, and upright are thy ements. But, O Lord, I befeech thee, in judement remember mercy; and though my fins have enforced thee to firike, yet confiden my weekness, and let not thy fripes be more heavy or more lafting than thou feeft profitable for my Soul; correct me, but with the chaftifement of a Father, not with the wounds of an Enemy; and though thou take not off thy Rod, yet take away thine Anger. Lord, do not abhor my Soul, nor cast thy Servant away in displeasure, but pardon my fins, I befeech thee; and if yet in thy fatherbleffed Will be done. I cast my felf, O Lord, at thy Feet, do with me what thou pleafest. Try me as Silwer is tried, fo thou bring me our purified. And Lord, make even my Flesh also to subscribe to this resignation, that there may be nothing in me that may rebel egainst thy Hand; but that having perfectly supprest all repining thoughts, I may chearfully drink of this Cup. And how bitter foever thou shalt please to make it Lord, let it prove Medicinal, and cure all the Difeafcs of my foul, that it may bring forth in me the pesceable fruit of righteoutness. That so these light afflictions which are but for a moment, may work for me a far more exceeding and eternal weight of Glory, through Jefus Chrift.

A Thanksgiving for Deliver ance.

O Bleffed Lord, who are gracious and necrciful, flow to anger, and of great kindness, and repetited thee of the evil; I thankfully acknowledge before thee, that thou halt not dealt with me after my fins, nor rewarded me according to my iniquities. My rebellions, O Lord, deferved to be scourged with Scorpions, and thou halt corrected them only with a gentle and fatherly Rod; neither halt thou suffered me to lie long under that, but halt given me a timely and a gracious iffue out of my late distresses. O Lord, I will be glad and rejoyce in thy Mercy, for thou halt considered my Trouble, and halt known my Soul in Adversity. Thou halt smitten, and thou halt healed me. O let these various methods of thine have their proper effects upon my Soul; than L who have felt the smart of thy Chastisements, may stand in awe and not sin and that I who have likewise selt the sweet; refreshings of thy Mercy, may have my Heart ravished with it, and knit to thee in the samest Bands of Love; and that by both I may be preserved in a constant entire Obediagne to thee all my days, through Jesus Christ.

which we are a just that it will all all all and the street of

with the har told in some that the product has a La to the second

· Ber da water

With the South

with the same and

DIRECTIONS

For the time of

SICKNESS.

T Hen thou findest thy felf visited with Sickness, thou art immediately to remember that it is God, which with rebukes doth chaften Man for fin. And therefore let thy first care be, to find out what it is that provokes him to smite thee; and to that purpose examine thine own Heart, fearch diligently what guilts lie there, confels them humbly and penitently to God, and, for the greater fecurity, renew thy Repentance for all the old fine of thy former Life, beg most earnestly and importunately his Mercy and Pardon in Christ Fefus, and pub on fincere and zealous resolutions of forsaking every evil way, for the rest of that time which God Shall spare thee, And that thy oron Heart deceive thee not in this fo weighty a business, it will be Wisdom to Send for some Godly Divine, not only to affect thee with his Prayers, but with his Counsel alfo. And to that purpose open thy Heart lo freely to him, that be may be able to judge whether thy Repentance be such, as may give thee confidence to appear before God's dreadful Tribunal, and that if it be not, he may help thee what he can towards thee making it So. And when thou hast thus provided for thy better part, thy Soul then consider thy Body also; and as the Wife Man faith, Ecclus. 38. 12. Give place to the Phyfician, for the bord hath created him. Ufe fuch means: as may be most likely to recover thy Health, but always remember that the success of them must come from God; and teware of Afa's fin, who fought to thy Physicine, and not to the Lord, 2 Chron. 6. 12. Dispose also letimes of thy temporal Assairs, by making thy Will, and setting all things in such order as those meanest finally to leave them in, and defer it not till thy Sickness grow more violent; for then perhaps those shalt not have such suse of thy Reason as may sit thee for it: or if those have,

it will be then much more seasonable to employ thy thoughts on higher things; on the World those art going to, rather than that those art about to leave; we cannot carry the things of this World with us when are go hence, and it is not sit we should carry the thoughts of them.
Therefore let those be early dispatched, that they may not disturb thee at last.

Militaria de la composition della composition de

And the second s

And the second of the second o

Park and the factor of the fac

A

not prima be

PRAYER

For a Sick Person.

Merciful and Righteons Lord, the God of Health and of Sickness, of Life and of Death, I most unfeignedly acknowledge that my great abuse of those many days of strength and welfare which thou halt afforded me, hath most justly deserved thy present Vi-sitation. I desire, O Lord, humbly to accept of this punishment of mine iniquity, and to bear the indignation of the Lord, because I have sinned against him. And, O thou merciful Father, who defignest not the ruin, but the amendment of those whom thou scourgeft, I beseech thee by thy Grace so to sanctifie this correction of thine to me, that this fickness of my Body may be a means of Health to my Soul: Make me diligent to fearch my Heart; and do thou, O Lord, enable me to discover every accursed thing, how closely foever concealed there, that by the removal thereof, I may make way for the removal of this punishment. Heal my Soul, O Lord, which hath finned against thee; and then, if it be thy bleffed Will, heal my Body also: Restore the Voice of Joy and Health unto my dwelling, that I may live to praise thee, and to bring forth fruits of Repentance. But if in thy Wifdom thou haft otherwise disposed, if thou hast determined that this fickness should be unto Death, I befeech thee to fit and prepare me for it: Give me that fincere and earnest Repentance, to which thou hast promise Mercy and Pardon, wean my Heart from the World.

and all its fading Vanicies, and make me to gafe and pant after those more excellent and durable joys which ere at thy Right Hand for ever. Lord, life thou up the light of thy countenance upon me, and in all the pains of my Body, in all the agonies of my Spirit, let thy comforts refresh my Soul, and enable me patiently to wait till my Change come. And grant, O Lord, that when my Earthly House of this Tabernable is dis-folved, I may have a building of God, an House not made with Hands, Eremal in the Heavens, and that for his fake who by his precious Blood hath purchased it for me even Jefus Chrift

A Thanksgiving for Recovery.

O Gracious Lord, the God of the Spirits of all Fleth in whose hand my time is, I praise and magnihe thee, that thou haft in love to my Soul delivered it from the pit of corruption, and reftored me to health again; it is thou alone, O Lord, that haft preferved my Life from destruction, thou hast chaftned and corrected me, but thou haft not given me over unto Death. O ler this Life which thou haft thus grace oully spared, be wholly confecrated to thee, Behold, O Lord, I am by thy Mercy made whole, O make me findly careful to fin no more, least a worse thing come unto me. Lord, let not this reptieve thou haft now given me, make me fecure, as thinking that my Lord delayeth his coming, but grant me I befeech thee, to make a right use of this long-suffering of thine, and to to employ every minute of that time thou shale allow me, that when thou halt appear, I may have confidence, and not be assumed before thee as thy coming. Lord, I have found by this approach towards Death, how dreadful a thing it is to be taken unprepared; O let it be a perpetual admonition to me so watch for my Matters coming. And when the pleasures of fin shall present themselves to entice me, O make me to remember how bitter they will be at the bit O Lord, hear me, and as thou haft in much Mercy afforded me time, fo grant me also Grace to work out my own Salvation, to provide Oyl in my Lamp, that when the Bridegroom cometh, I may go in with him to the Marriage. Grant this, I befeech thee, for thy dear Son's fake.

A Prayer at the approach of Death.

Eternal and ever living God, who first breatheds into Man the Breath of Life, and when thou takest away that Breath he dies, and is turned again to his Duft; look with compassion on me thy poor Creature, who am now drawing near the Gates of Death, and, which is infinitely more terrible, the bar of Judgment. Lord, my own Heart condemps me, and thou art infinitely greater than my Heart, and know it all things: The tins I know and remember if horrour; but there are also multitudes of others, which I either observed not at that time, or have finee carclefly forgot, which are all prefent to thee. Thou ferrest my misdeeds before thee, and my feerer fint in the light of thy countenance; and to what a mountainous heap must the minutely provocations of so many Years arife? How long shall one fo ungodly stand in thy judgment, or such a finner in the Congregation of the Rightebus 3 And, to add yet more to my terror; my very Repentance I fear will not abide the trial my frequent relaples heretofore have fufficiently with neffed the unfincerity of my past resolutions. And then, O Lord, what can fecure me, that my prefent diflikes of my fine are not rather the effects of my anas zing danger, than of any real change? And, O Lord. I know thou are not mocked, nor wilr accept of any thing that is not perfectly fincere. O Lord, when I confider this, fearfulness and trembling comes upon me, and an horrible dread over-whelmeth me, my Fle trembleth for fear of thee, and my Heart is wounded within me. But, O Lord, one deep callerh upon as nother, the depth of my mifery upon the depth of thy Mercy; Lord, fave now, or I periff Eternally. O thou who willest nor that any should perish, but that all would come to Pepentance, bring me, I befecch thee

A Prayer at the Approach of Death. 337

thee though thus late, to a fincere Repentance: fuch a thou wilt accept, who trieft the Heart. Create in me. O God, a clean Heart, and renew a right Spirit within me. Lord, one day is with thee as a Thoufand Years. O let thy mighty Spirit work in me now in this my laft day, whatfoever thou feeft wanting to fit me for thy Mercy and Acceptation. Give me a perfect and entire hatred of my fins, and enable me to prefent thee with the facrifice of a broken and contrite Heart. which thou haft promifed not to despile, that by this I may be made capable of that atonement, which thy dear Son hath, by the more excellent oblation of him-(If made for all repenting Sinners. He is the propiriation for our fins he was wounded, for our transgressioss, he was bruifed for our iniquities, the chaftifement of our peace was on him. O heal me by his stripes and let the cry of his Blood drown the clamour of my fins. I am indeed a Child of wrath, but he is the Son of thy love, for his fake fpare me, O Lord, fpare thy Creamre whom he hath redeemed with his most precious Blood, and be not angry with me for ever. In his Wounds, O Lord, I take Sanctuary; O let not thy vengeance purfue me to this City of Refuge: My Soul hangeth upon him, O ler me not perish with a lefus. with a Saviour in my Arms. But by his Agony and Bloody Swear, by his Cross and Passion, by all that he did and Suffered for Sinners, good Lord deliver me: deliver me, I befeech thee, from the wages of my fins, thy wrath and everlatting damnation, in this time of my tribulation, in the hour of Death, and in the dayof Judgment. Here me, O Lord, here me, and do not now repay my former neglects of thy calls, by refuting to answer me in this time of my greatest need. Lord, there is but a step between me and Death, O lernot my Sun go down upon thy wrath, but feal my pardon before I go hence and be no more feen. Thy loving kindness is better than the Life it self. O let me have that in exchange, and I shall most gladly lay down this mortal Life. Lord, thou knowest all my defire, and my groaning is not hid from thee; do thou with me, O Lord, according to thy Name, for fweet is thy Mercy: take away the fting of Death, the guilt of my fins, and then, though I walk through the Valley of the fladow of death, I will fear no evil; I will lay me down in peace, and Lord, when I awake up, let me be fatisfied with thy prefence in thy Glory. Grant this, Merciful God, for his fake who is both the Redeemer and Mediator of finners, even Jesus Christ.

348 PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

AND THE PERSON NAMED OF THE

PSALMS.

Dut menot to Rebuke, O Lord, in thine Anger, neither chaften me in thy heavy Displeasure.

There is no health in my field because of thy displaafure, neither is there any rest in may bones by reason of my Sins.

For my wickednesses are gone over my head, and are a fore burden, too heavy for me to bear.

My wounds flink, and are corrupt through my foolishness.

Therefore is my Spirit vexed within me, and my heart with

In me is defotate.

My fins have taken such hold upon me, that I am not able to lock up: yea, they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart hath failed me.

But thou, O Lord God, art full of compassion and mercy, long-suffering, plenteous in goodness and truth.

Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me, for I am desolate and in misery.

If thou, Lord, shouldst be extream to mark what is done

amife, O Lord, who may abide it?

O remember not the fins and offences of my youth; but according to thy mercy think thou upon me for thy goodness.

Look upon my adversity and misery, and forgive me all my fin.

Hide not the face from the Servant, for I am in trouble, O halts thee and hear me.

Out of the deep do I call thee, Lord hear my voice!

Tiven thee, O Lord, and deliver my Soul, O fave me for thy mercy's fake.

O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand, and there is none to help.

I stretch forth my hands unto thee, my foul gaspeth unto thee, as a thirsty land.

Drawnigh unto my foul, and fave it; O deliver me, becanse of my enemies.

For my foul is full of trouble, and my life draweth nigh sinte hell.

Save me from the Lyon's mouth, hear me from among the horns of the Unicorns.

O fet me up upon the rock that is higher than I, for thou art my hope, and a strong Tower for me against the enemy.

Why art thou so beauty, O my soul, and why art thou so disquieted within me?

Put thy trust in God, for I will yet give him thanks for the help of his countenance.

The Lord shall make good his loving kindness towards mes yea, thy Mercy, O Lord endwreth for ever, despise not then the work of thine own hands.

Odd, those art my God, early will I feek thee.

My Soul thirsteth for thee, my fiesh also longeth after thee in a barren and dry land, where no water is.

Like as the Hart defireth the water-brook, fo longeth my Soul after thee, O God.

My foul is a thirst for God, even for the living God, when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

How amiable are thy dwellings, O Lord of Hosts!

My Soul hath a defire and longing to enter into the Courts of the Lord; my fish and my heart rejoyceth in the living God.

O that I had wings like a Dove! for then would I flee away and be at rest.

O fend out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me, and bring me unto thy boly Hill, and to thy dwelling.

For one day in thy Courts is better than a the sand.

I had

240 PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

I had rather be a Door-keeper in the House of nor Gods than to dwell in the Tents of Wickedness.

I should atterly have fainted, but that I believed verily to See the goodness of the Lord in the Land of the Living

Those art my belper and my redeemer, O Lord, make no long tarrying.

EFACULATIONS.

OLORD, of whom may I feek for fuccour but of thee, who for my fins are juftly displeased? Yes, O Lord God most Holy, O Lord most Mighry, O Hole and most Merciful Saviour, deliver me not into the bitter pains of Erernal Death.

Thou knowest, O Lord, the scerets of my Heart, shut not up thy merciful Eves to my Prayer, but hear me, O Lord most Holy, O God most Mighty, O Holy and Merciful Saviour, thou most worthy Judge Eternal; fuffer me not at my laft hour for any pains of Death to fall from thee.

Father, I have finned against Heaven and before thee, and am not worthy to be called thy Child; yet, O Lord, do not thou cast off thy Bowels and Compassions of a Father; but, even as a Father pifieth his own Children, so be thou merciful unto me.

Lord, the Prince of this World cometh, O let him have nothing in me, but as he accuseth, do thou abfolve; he lays many and grievous things to my charge, which he can too well prove; I have nothing to fay for my felf, do thou answer for me, O Lord, my God.

O Lord, I am cloathed with filthy Garments, and Satan stands at my right Hand to refift me; O be thou pleased to rebuke him, and pluck me as a Brand out of the Fire, cause mine iniquities to pass from me, and Cloath me with the Righteousness of thy Son.

Behold, O God, the Devil is coming rowards me, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. O save and deliver me, left he devour my Soul like a Lion, and tear it in pieces while there is none to help.

0

O my God, I know that no unclean thing can enterinto thy Kingdom, and I am nothing but pollution, my very Righteoutheffes are as filthy Rags: O wash me and make me white in the Blood of the Lamb, that so I may be fit to stand before thy Throne.

Lord, the snares of Death compass me round about, O let not the pains of Hell also take hold upon mebut though I find trouble and heaviness, yet, O Lord,

I befeech thee, deliver my Soul.

O dear Jesus, who hast bought me with the precious price of thy own Blood: Challenge now thy purchase, and let not the Malice of Hell pluck me out of thy hand.

O bleffed High-Prieft, who are able to fave them to the utmost, who came to God by thee, save me, I befeech thee, who have no hope but on thy merits and interceffion.

O God, I confess I have defaced that Image of thine thou didft imprint upon my Soul; yet, O thou faithful Creator, have pity on thy Creature.

O Jefu, I have by my many and grievous fins crucified thee afresh, yet thou who Prayedst for thy Persecutors, intercede for me also, and suffer not, O my Redeemer, my Soul (the price of thy Blood) to perish.

O Spirit of Grace, I have by my horrid impicties done despight to thee; yet, O Blessed Comforter, though I have often grieved thee, be thou pleased to succour and relieve me, and say unto my Soul I am thy Salvation.

Mine Eyes look unto thee, O Lord, in thee is my truft,

O cast not out my Soul

O Lord, in thee have I trusted, let me never be con-

O Bleffed Lord, who scourgest every Son whom thou receivest, let me not be weary of thy Correction, but give me such a perfect subjection to the Father of Spirits, that this Chastisement may be for my profit, that I may thereby be partaker of thy holiness.

O thou Captain of my Salvation, who were made perfect by fufferings, Sanctific to me all the pains of Body, all the terrors of Mind which thou shalt permit to fall upon me.

Lord,

342 PRIVATE DEVOTIONS.

Lord my fins have deferved eternal tormens, make ane chearfully and thankfully to bear my present pains; chasten me as thou pleasest here, that I may not be condemned with the World.

Lord, the Waters are come in even unto my Soil.

O let thy Spirit move upon these Waters, and make them like the pool of Bathessa, that they may care whatsoever fairitaal difeafe thou difcernest in me.

O Chrift, who first suffereds many and grievous chings, and then entreds into thy Glory, make me so to suffer with thee, that I may also be glorsied with thee.

O dear Jesus, who humblest thy self to the Death of the Crois for me, let that Death of thine sweeten the bitterness of mine.

When thou hadft overcome the sharpness of Death, thou didft open the Kingdom of Heaven to all believers.

I believe that thou mair come to be my Judge.

I pray thee therefore help thy Servan whom thou halt Redeemed with thy most precious Blood

Make me to be numbred with thy faints in Glory

Everlasting.

Thou are the Refurrection and the Life: He that believeth in thee, though he were Dead, yet shall he live: Lord, I believe, help thou my unbelief.

My Flesh and my Heart Sileth, but God is the strength of my Heart, and my portion for ever.

I defire to be diffolved, and to be with Christ, which is far better: Lord, I groan earnestly, defiring to be cloathed upon with that House from Heaven.

I defire to put off this my Tabernacle, O be pleased to receive me into everlatting habitations.

Bring my Soul out of Prison, that I may give thanks unto thy Name.

Lord, I am here to wrettle, not only with Flesh and Blood, bur with principalities and powers, and spiritual wickedness. O take me from these Tenrs of Kedar; into the Heavenly Jerusalem, where Satan shall be unterly trodden under my Feet.

I cannot here attend one Minute to thy fervice without diffraction, O take me up to fland before thy Throne, where I shall serve thee Day and Night.

T am

I am here in heaviness through many tribulations, O receive me into that place of reft, where all Tears shall be wiped from my Eyes, where there half be no more Death, nor Sorrow, nor Crying, nor Pain.

I am here in the flate of banishment and absence from the Lord, O take me where I shall for ever behold thy Face, and follow the Lamb whitherfoever he goeth.

I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith, henceforth there is laid up for me a Crown of Righteoufness

O Bleffed Jefu, who halt loved me, and washed me from my fins in thine own Blood, receive my Into thy Hands I commend my Spirit, for thou haft Redeemed me, O Lord, thou God of truth. Come, Lord Jefu, come quickly. to all the second and a

. The last the same of the same of the same e had a second at the Allen or who best and a control and their and a beauty of this con-To the second the way the transfer the second to The agree of the latter latter, where the second section is · Supplemental property and the second second with the training and the first that the To the youth Sept Come The or Thompson

Arrest Land

AND METALONIA THE RESIDENCE TO A STATE OF

PRAYERS

sometimes of the starter

PRAYERS

For their Ufe, who Mourn in Secret for the PUBLICK CALAMITIES, &c.

Pfalm 74. O God, wherefore art thou absent from us so long? Why is thy Wrath so bot against the Sheep of thy Pasture? 8xx.

Pfalm 79. O God, the Heathen are come into thine Inheritance: thy Hely Temple have they defiled, and made Je-tufalem an heap of Stones, &c.

Pfalm 80. Hear, O thou Shepherd of Israel; thou that leadest Joseph like a Sheep: Shew thy felf also, thou that sittest upon the Cherubins, &cc.

O Lord God, to whom Vengcance belongeth, I defire humbly to confess before thee, both on my own behalf, and that of this Nation, that these many Years of Calamity we have grouned under, are but the just (yea mild) returns of those many more Years of our provocations against thee, and that thy present wrath is but the due pumishment of thy abused Mercy. O Lord, thou hast formerly abounded to us in Bleffings above all the People of the Barth. Thy Candle shined upon our Heads, and we delighted our felves in thy great goodness; Peace was within our Walls, and plenteousness within our Palaces : there was no decay, no leading into Captivity, and no complaining in our Streets: But we turned this Grace into wantonnefs, we abused our Peace to Security, our Plenty to Riot and Luxury; and made those good things which should have endeared our Hearts to thee; the occasion of estranging them from thee. Nay, O Lord, thou gaveft us yet more precious Mercies, thou wert pleafed thy felf to pitch thy tour own heart; for to thou boundled. Osein of Menroun own heart; for to thou boundled. Osein of Menroun as good, or one's beyone what we can deferry, the accessing to the white we influence of the control of that he form to the form to. Thou and for the form to the who the form the form

O Lord, on the corresponding control in the Callo, have justing provided the explicit couple.

the form to the form to the form to the form
the form the form to the who are to defermely, the formation that for how much our only is the form that the form the form to very a lemmatic of the
that the formation of the formation of the form
that the formation of the formation of the formation
that the formation of the formation of the formation
that the formation of the curing on inward, Lord, the first with the formation of the formation of the curing
the formation of the formation of the curing
the formation of the formation of the curing the formation of the curing of the curing on the curing
the formation of the curing of the curing of the curing
the formation of the curing of the curing of the curing
the curing the curing the curing of the curing
the curing the curing the curing of the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the curing the n plant occ

Fay Garage Miles powered and fairle men goodly Onless which of this confederate the Lag

SPRING SELECTION

Manual Conditions of the Condition of th

And you have the second of the So flow much present Common to the Overe M Charley, so Fidelity, so bonds of Love, to Reverance in the of Lante fibr year of Rules, no Agreement of Com-L 1 If the series considered to be presented by the present of the pre entropy of the second of the s

Lister represent cases the Converses hordy render Ghost: which after the most perfect example of Contors be diffinguished in Property of Perfons, and one in Nature; To whem be Praise and Glory Econtally, Amen.

L 4

T. H. B. L. N. Daw of reas

General Titles.

The state of the s
	1
hoo to page	Chillity 10000 114
The state of the state of	Challey
A Appear the Meekness	Cares de la
TO TO	Cruelties 256
A S. Lewis Co.	Correctines 20, 500
Adultery	Cortice :
Ahngiving 256, 258	Children 199 505
Ambition 100	C Plantil
是一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个一个	The second second second Baptifin 39	No. of the last of
to Vow sint so ib.	Creat.
Bargaining garage	THE STATE OF THE S
Malphemy 1995	Centeriounce
The Time of the Ti
	Deficiel C
Bronwing Zustfür 201	Devotion 218
Blatting of Parents 227	Priliferes Supply 181
Denn Bot Lucius	Training Tree Park
	Dibe Paying
Covenant, fee Preface, num
10	The Committee of the Co
New Covenant Medica 61
Commande C1 212 45 47
Control 25 1 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2 2	Detection Daty to God, fee God to our dates to Magnitum 120
Crechizing constitution	to regularia
Contrigion - PERSON	o Parents, 194,199,44 A de d'Africa (6, 191 Co Children (191)
Challing Parley 14	4 to 32 feet
Committee and a second	to Children 201
国际	THE RESERVE TO SERVE THE PARTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR of Market 222 Of Market 222 Duries controlle in Was Chrit	Sept Bergaria Con the Const
His Sufferings	- Carlens
Love nominates	THE RESERVE TO STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR
Christian Duties profeshie
Wand pleasant 3211 259	THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY O
Confidention 100 106	10 to Relations 192, 11
Contentednes Thirtion	ties?
Coverous act 108,144,160	ties.
	Dro

Deplement	Infimiries 179, 216
Comicionit 121	179,216
	《二二》中,《三二》
	Kindnes of God to
Envy 100, 115	194
Enemies 337, 267	Kindred, &c. 192, 214
Esting 118	The state of the s
Example \ 222	Love of God
Adjustion of Children 206	Fulls of love to Got 11
	Covered
Teith 4. 52	Lord's Day
	25-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1-1
coles and Falls 15, 72	Lord's Supper 45, 54, die
4 TO SHIP SHIP SHIP SHIP SHIP SHIP SHIP SHIP	LYMON CONTRACTOR THE Law Suits
Taud Vid. Decel	Light of Nature
Take reports . \ 170 tho	Marie All Bull land, vid. Decele lale reports 178, the sile Wintels 76	Meekneli : 101,185
Diendihip + 6,224	Marmoring summer 107
logiving announced	Munder
Cal Tankson	Murder 1 148 Maining 150 Malice 160
77.50	2500 ·
Goods of Namire More and	Magiltrates such as a second of Fortune	Marriage man que es a sea Mafeira 239
THE INCIGNIOUS TO ASS	Mailes , 239
of Grace	Minifest
GCCCC 52.56	200 · 10 · 10 · 10 · 10 · 10 · 10 · 10 ·
Gratitude (1017) 502	Neighbourg 142/156/159
Grading 1 137 Guide in Spiringsle 156	日曜時 C 1 1 1 1 (1 日本) 1
Course in Spinnish	0.
	Obedience 32
Property of the Control of the Contr	Code
Humility 22.02. 184	Control 65, 69
Time lines	S-101
Busherd to des 218	Offences against God and
Ausband 1 218	Man, the difference 240 Promiles
Hospur of God 11 77 65, 29	Child Control Held
Econur of God 63, 39	Fromies Suissing its
是是是一个人。 1. 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10	Peluoption 7
Julies, for Neighbour	Principal princip neidl 83 Preaching analysis (2, 27) Preacher gain 56,000 Perjury depth things
Injuffice . 171	Preaching and lange Preachers (F) and
Improving our Talents are	Perius 3
Injuries 152, 180	Provence of the second
	Pride
	, since

Page 91, 154, 185 Parchis 194, 180, 200, 205 Peace-making 165 Poor 153	Sint 47, 54, 75 Sports T.
tefolution 52 Rependance 84 Rependance 137 Reflication (1)7	Temperator 115, to 146 Theft 165, 165 Truft deceived 166 Thurk Theological 26 Thurk giving 76
Reports falle Pelasion Reproach Scriptures	Tota Glory 95 Opeles welltto
Soul: fee the Preface. Sacraments 38, 45, to 64 Swearing 65, 186 Sobriery 92 Sloath, Sleep 142	Worthip 73 Worthip 73 Working 126 Works falle 126 Works 24
Sealing 176 Scotling 176 Servance 177 Service 177 Service 177	Word of God 98 Wash Albert 111 Wash of Firms to he happlied 2 200

计二维序 法放红金

Andrew Commence of the Commenc

teres of age a come.

TO KEN THE O PROSECULAR COLOR ROLLING

sample of a substitution of the Land Land

A CITIO

A TABLE

fall on the 191 daing

Of the Contents of the feveral Chapters or Partitions in this Book; which according to this Division, by Reading one of their Chapters every Lord's Day, the While may be Read over Thrice in the 200.

SUNDAY L

Of the Dary of Man, by the Light of Nature, by the State of God, p. 1. State of God, p. 1. State of God, p. 13. State of God, p. 13. State of God, p. 15. State of God, p. 17. In all, many Grintand and Temperal, p. 18, Occ.

SUNDAY IL

Of Hamilton, of Salmilfon to Gad, Will, in refull of Chalines, parks. Of Patrices in all forts of Safferings, parks. Of Fatrices in all forts of Safferings, parks. Of Hamilton, parks to God in fourth mays, p. 28. In Hamilton, p. 29. Political Fatrofithe Church, p. 32. His Word, p. 34. The Feafis and Fatrofithe Church, p. 33. Of Canadaming, p. 35. Proceeding, p. 37. Sacramans, p. 38. Rapism, p. 39. to the end.

SUNDAY III.

Of the Lord's Supper, of preparation before Receiving, 35. Of Duries on the Receiving, 50. and afterward, 56.

SUNDAY W.

SUNDAY IV.

Many day to Ond's Name, Sine opinion by Malphany, Smorter, Afferter Onto, 65. Premiling Onto, Unionful Ontol, 66. Of Perjury, 67. Of Value Ontolog, and the Sin of them, 78.

SUNDAY. V.

Of British des or God's Name Of Proper and Confidence of J. Of Bulliot Proper to the Court, in the Confidence of Proper Of Proper of Proper Of Bullion of Bullion

SUNDATVL

Of Dunier to see School, Dan Of Schriety, Hamility, the great Sin of Prick, 93. The danger, thick. The folly of this for, 93. Of Vaingley, 98. Helps equical in 100. Of Making is, 101. He Many is the analysis. 101. Of the Marking, 104.

SUNDAY VIL

Of Contentains, and the contracts to it, Marmoring, and thinks, Counterfield, 109. Eury, and Halps to Company, and St. 109. Diligence, 111. Belafty in improving Gifts of Nature, or Orace, ibids. Of Chafley, 114. Halps is, 116. Temperatus, and its Rules in coming, Oct. 18.

SUNDAY VIII.

Of Temperature in Drinking, 121. Falls and of Drinking, viz. Good-fellowship, preferring a Market L. etcoring a Spirith, 121. Fatting away cases, business, 224. Presenting Represent, 131. Planting descriptions, 224. 131 to 140. The good by Strong district, 130. Section at the form is, 5(2, 13).

A PABLE

SUNDAT IN

There is a star, 115: 20 point of star, 110. or a series that the second second

SUNDAY &

SUNDATE

Of Judice some the Puffellion of the Neighbour of the state of the Sta

SUNDAY XIL

Of Left , Stealing the Golds of our Mighlian, 16, Of Decid to Dorb, 506. In Deffect, compaling the fault on Ware, 160. He consuctions is 160. Feast to the Suyer, 170. Of Refittation, and the conselling thering, 175.

SUNDAY XIII.

Of Real Legist, of the Craft of me harghane, 175, and 120. East, branch 176. Shouler, 18th. Whisperings 176. Shouler, 18th. Whisperings 176. Of telefiest and Scaling to Information, 175, 179 telefies telefies, a first produce to severy Mee, that makes to my kind of right he may challeng to severy Mee, that makes to my kind of right he may challeng from as, 1822 Of Specime Trail, I Lying, 185, 184. Of Hamilton, Current Substitute, Mackaels and Printe, 185. Remailing and Current Ing, 186. Of Enry, Detraition, 188. Suspect to Man of Extraography Gifts, 189. In regard of their Rambe and Qualities, allien, dell. Dans in the fire on fire of West, 130 attention of the delivery 130. Of Green in the Arre, ibid.

SUNDAY MY

Of Duty to Parents, Magifronts, 194, Before 196 Live and Effect of them, 197. Maintenance, Obeliene 198. Of the Lawy of Children to Parents, 200, Dan-ting Love, Oledance, officially in their Marchay. Mich. Aring to their Heast, 200 19204. Day in the to, 205. Of the Day of Parents to their Children

SUNDAY XV.

Of Duty to our Breisen and Relation, 214. To a Husband, Obadience, Fidelity, Long, 218, 219. The Bunkts of the Husband agains of four those Dusies, 220; Duss to the Wife, Low, Fan finals, Maintagance, Infrastica, 220, 221, Stc. Husband and Wives matually to Fray for, and affile each where in all good, Ibid. Virtue the chief consideration in Marriage, onlawful Marriages, 222, 221, Priendship, 220. Sevents Dusy, 227, Master Duty, 228.

SUNDAY XVL

Other Branches of our Duty to our Neighbour, 232; e Duty of Charity to Ment Smile, Bullet, Goods, Credit, CC. 223, to the end.

SUNDAY XVII.

Of Charley in respect of our directions Goods, And giving, 252, 253, 254, &c. Of Charley in respect of our directions, in respect of our directions of the control our remains to God, 272.

ATABLE

智慧 星点 () 经证金

A.,

TABLE

Crishe

PRAFERS

Phone Property and the second college for formal Gracity, 100 12 12

Paraletini cut V de Ber (* 101mc

Constitution of the second

Propriet in Charles Charles .

The second second

The Paris of the P

PINES

